Y. M. C. A. PLANS BIG MEET FOR ATHLETES

Local Amateurs Will Have Chance to Win Honors on Independence Day.

A meeting of the newly formed athletic association was held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors last evening to arrange the final details for the field and track meet to be held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on July 4th. Parker Field has been obtained for the occasion and a competent corps of officials has been decided upon.

Those present at last night's meeting displayed much enthusiasm and the event will, without doubt, surpass anything of its kind that has ever been held in this city. The promoters who are working zealously to bring about its success are E. C. Ostlin, John Fritts, A. L. Conant, Franklin Newell and William Peacock.

The events have been classified as follows: 100 yard dash (novice), 220 yard dash (open), 440 yard run (handicap), 880 yard run (open), one mile run (handicap), 12-lb shot-put (open), running broad jump (open), and running high jump (open), base running (open), one mile relay, 4 men, (open), one mile relay, 4 men, (closed to Manufacturers' Baseball League), tug of war (closed to Manufacturers' Baseball League), tug of war (closed to factories), discus throw.

There will be handsome prizes for first, second and third places in each event and a nominal entry fee of twenty-five cents will be levied on each contestant.

All entries must be in the hands of Mr. Ostlin at the Y. M. C. A. not later than June 29. He will be glad to furnish any further information on the subject upon request.

BULL RING ANTICS

Mexican "Sport" as Viewed Through American Spectacles.

TACTICS OF THE TOREROS.

They Were Better Runners Than Fighters and Displayed More Cowardice Than Bravery—Mirth That the Natives Couldn't Appreciate.

"Thank you, Aguirre, but I hardly think I want to see one of your bullfights. I have heard enough about them to make me sick of the thought." I had seen every other kind of fight, from messenger boys up to bull moose and buffalo, and Aguirre felt that I would forever regret it if I left Mexico without at least once witnessing the national sport.

I reluctantly consented to accompany him, and after our dinner, instead of taking the usual siesta, we went to the ring. I had often read the stories of such fights, and after the series of three had been finished I wondered if any writer had ever taken the trouble to describe the ridiculous and funny stunts that crop out during the course of the fights.

The first bull that was released went through the ordinary course of sprouts, first goring a broken down race horse which had seen service on many of the tracks in the States and was used in the bull ring only because he was a thoroughbred. Finally the bull was put to death by a stab between the shoulders, which paralyzed his spine.

The second entrant was a little black fellow full of fire, which had been especially raised on the big ranch of Governor Tirazzos. Between the toril (pen) and the ring there was a short alley, just wide enough to allow the bulls to get through without rubbing the hair from their flanks. Leaning over the boards which formed the sides of the passageway was a Mexican negro, who, when the little bull was shoved out of the toril, jabbed a fishhook "barbo" into his left shoulder, which maddened the animal to such an extent that he hardly knew which way to turn, so eager was he to locate his enemy.

The crowd at this time was going mad and from all sides could be heard frantic cries of "Cobardo, podrido, putrefaccion" (coward, rotten, rottenness), and "El toro es muerto" (the bull is dead). On the contrary, he was very much alive and showed it a few moments later. After he was chased into the toril the torero, whose name was Albertis, appeared before the president's box, as is the custom when a failure is made, to explain himself and ask for another chance before he was condemned. The opportunity was given, and the result was only a repetition of the former attempt, except that the bull was prevented from catching him by helpers who were armed with long pikes and prevented the beast from scaling the fence.

Springing ten or a dozen yards toward the center of the ring, the frenzied creature stopped short, spread his front feet out as far as he could and madly pawed the ground. In his shoulder the wicked barb still stuck, and to it were fastened a big yellow rosette and a half dozen red streamers trailing the ground.

Presently a volunteer novice torero (bullfighter on foot) jumped over the fence on the north side of the ring and advanced a few feet toward the defiant bull. One flaunt of the torero's red bandera (banner) and the bull became a demon. With head down he rushed at the novice, who meanwhile had lost his nerve, for he stood quaking with fear when he should have been advancing to meet the onrushing animal. When the latter was only twenty yards away the volunteer dropped the bandera and espada (sword) and put for the fence as fast as he could go. The fence was about four feet high, and the torero cleared it in a straightway dive.

The poor bull was not so fortunate, although he was game enough to attempt the fence in his mad effort to catch his tormentor. He landed on top of the boards and stuck there, with his hind legs in the air, until he was released by some attendants who ventured from the other side of the ring.

I took a heap of fun out of the antics of my little hero, the bull, and was having a good laugh all to myself while the mob was going wild with disgust at the cowardice of Albertis when Aguirre advised me to suppress my mirth or there would be trouble for both of us.

When order was restored the little black bunch of muscle, brawn and grit was brought into the inclosure for the third time, but it took the efforts of two toreadors (bullfighters on horseback) and a professional foot fighter to beat him, and his defeat was then due only to the fact that he was exhausted.

Aguirre told me that it was bad form in Mexico to laugh at anything in a bullfight but the death of the bull, but I remarked to him that in all America he would not find a gringo who would not instantly grasp the funny side of that particular bullfight and carry it home so that others might laugh too.—Denver Republican.

THIS MINOR LEAGUER POSSESSED NERVE.

A minor leaguer who is under reserve to the St. Louis Browns wrote as follows to Owner Hedges: "Dear Sir—I need $400 before the season opens," etc. Hedges promptly replied: "Dear Sir—I need $4,000. Will give you 10 per cent to raise it." The incident is closed.

The Scrap Book

Good Reason.

Daniel Kennedy, the New York auctioneer, was talking about a collection of French snuffboxes that had sold too low.

"You ask why the owner sold them so low?" said Mr. Kennedy. "Well, he sold them low because he had to. Poverty compelled him. It is like the story of the little boys with the green ribbons in their coats. The schoolteacher interrogated these little boys to see what their knowledge of Irish history amounted to.

"'Patrick,' she began, 'why are you wearing a green ribbon today?'

"'Because it's the anniversary of the great and good St. Patrick, ma'am.'

"'Very well. And you, Michael, why are you wearing a green ribbon?'

"'Because St. Patrick is Ireland's patron saint, ma'am, and green is Ireland's color.'

"'Good! And now, Solomon Eckhardstein, tell us why you in your turn are wearing a green ribbon?'

"'Because, ma'am, Pat and Mike and Denny said they'd bust me snoot if I didn't.'"—Washington Star.

Smile.

Smile when luck is breaking wrong.
Chant a snatch or two of song.
Cheerfulness will keep you strong
Where discontent will fail.
Yours is not the hardest lot
Make the most of what you've got.
Smile a bit, for kicking's not
A thing that will avail.

Smile though dark and long the day,
Knowing it's the only way
You can win out in the fray
And conquer adverse luck.
If you wear a smile of cheer,
Push ahead and persevere,
Riding rough shod over fear
And showing grit and pluck.

Let the other fellow frown
Who admits that he is down.
You may never gain renown,
But smile and life's worth while.
Laughter makes the heart beat young
The pessimist will die unsung,
But you can be a man among Men if you only smile.

Roasting a Prince.

The old Thatched House club was a favorite resort of Sheridan; the great playwright. One frosty day when he was sitting there writing a letter the Prince of Wales came in and ordered a rump steak and a bumper of brandy and water straight away. Having emptied the glass in a twinkling, he called for a second and a third and said, puffing out his cheeks, "Now I am warm and comfortable; bring me my steak."

The order was instantly obeyed, but before his highness had eaten the first mouthful Sheridan presented him with the following impromptu:

The prince came in and said 'twas cold,
Then put to his head the rummer
Till swallow after swallow came,
When he pronounced it summer.

FIREMEN NOT TO FIGHT TO KEEP THEIR HORSES

Summit, June 12.—Despite the contention of the members of Chemical Engine Company that the team of horses now being used by Union Hose Company is the property of the members of the Chemical company, Common Council will sell the horses after the arrival of the new automobile hose wagon next week. This apparatus is to be placed in the headquarters of Union Hose Company, thereby doing away with the present horse-drawn hose wagon.

City Solicitor Corra N. Williams, however, takes a different view of the matter and has advised Common Council that the money with which the company purchased the horses and the apparatus which was replaced by the auto apparatus was contributed by citizens with the intention that such property was to belong to the city and not to the fire company.

While the firemen are somewhat nettled over the decision of the city solicitor, they say they will take no further action.

It is expected the new auto hose apparatus to be used by Hose Company No. 1, and which is equipped with a pump that will throw 500 gallons of water per minute in case of a low water pressure, will reach this city about June 21. The auto chemical engine, which has been converted into a hose apparatus, and is to replace the present horse-drawn hose wagon of Hose Company No. 2, is expected to arrive here about the same date. With the arrival of the new apparatus the hook-and-ladder company will be the only one of the four companies to have a horse-drawn fire wagon.

HOSE COMPANY TAKES FALL OUT OF COUNCIL

New Providence, June 12.—The Borough Council came to a decided cropper Monday night when it learned, to its consternation, that its resolution, passed at a previous meeting, forbidding Hose Company No. 1 to take any of the fire apparatus out of the borough for the Fourth of July parade of the municiplities of the Passaic Valley, had no force.

Incidentally, it developed at the meeting that the new combination chemical truck, which was paid for from the proceeds of an entertainment held by the hose company, belonged to the company and not to the borough, and consequently was not under the Council's jurisdiction.

Councilman Aufermann, a member of both the Council and the company, was the man who pointed out the inconsistency of the resolution, so the Council had to content itself with forbidding the company to use any of the hose carts, whose ownership by the Council is not disputed. It was a pretty hot argument while it lasted, participated in by councilmen and members of the hose company, who were accorded the floor.

A good deal of heat was displayed in discussing the fire appropriation, the company wanting to be permitted to dispose of the money appropriated to its use as it saw fit. But an opinion from Borough Attorney Elmer L. Kingan settled the question out of hand by deciding that the power of determining the disposition of the funds rested with the Council.

The budget for the fiscal year for borough expenses was fixed at $2,000. Councilman William D. Clark reported that application had been distributed to property owners, and that no doubt the water supply would be extended to Passaic street.

PERTH AMBOY STRIKE MAY AFFECT THOUSANDS

Perth Amboy, June 12.—Spreading rapidly, the strike at the plant of the Standard Underground Cable Company has caused the suspension of work in all departments. Other concerns are involved in similar labor difficulties and in all several thousand men may be affected in the fight for higher pay.

Yesterday the laborers employed by the Atlantic Terra Cotta Company, at its local plant, walked out. There are about 200 of them, and unless they return to work very soon 800 men working as skilled terra cotta producers will be forced into idleness. The demand in each instance is for a wage increase of from ten to twenty per cent., according to the department.

Furnace men employed by the American Smelting and Refining Company, who were to take the place of the squad which worked until 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, refused to go to work. Unless a settlement is reached at once this will mean that this entire plant will be forced to suspend activity.

Despite the action of the Barber Asphalt Paving Company in meeting demands for an increase there may be trouble at its plant, as men in several departments who did not seek an advance are now considering making demands.

At the Raritan Copper Works no information was obtainable, but it was asserted that unless a substantial increase is given them the furnace men there will quit.

The Standard company employs more than 1,100 men, boys and girls. At the smelting plant a continuation of the strike longer than today will seriously affect 1,200 men. The copper works has about the same number and at the Barber plant those that remain to be dealt with number fewer than 200.

There is no organization of the cable workers, and they are looking to Arthur A. Quinn, second vice president of the Carpenters and Joiners of America, a resident of Perth Amboy, for aid. Two meetings were held, but no committee was named in response to the statement of General Manager W. A. Conner that he would listen to any demands made and hear any grievances. Mr. Conner returned Saturday from Canada, where the company is erecting a new plant, and found in his mail a demand for a nine-hour day and a fifteen per cent. increase in pay. Some of the employes, young boys, had already quit work when he reached the plant.

URGES OTHER PASTORS TO PREACH MORE "HELL"

Port Murray, June 12.—The Warren County Ministerial Union held its June meeting in the Mansfield Baptist church. Twenty pastors of the county were present.

Rev. E. A. Quimby, of Oxford, gave a sermon on "Hell." He handled the subject in an orthodox manner, and said that it was one that should be used more by the pastors, the same as any other reference in the Bible. The paper provoked a warm discussion.

Rev. Henry A. Buell, of Washington, gave an essay on "Pastoral Work." Rev. D. H. Gridley gave a review of Bishop Quayle's book, "The Pastor-Preacher." Rev. William V. Allen, pastor of the Port Murray church, entertained the guests at dinner on the lawn of the parsonage under the spreading maples.

It was the last meeting before vacation, and the annual election of officers will be held at the September meeting in the Hope M. E. church. President E. R. Tilton, of Phillipsburg, appointed as a nominating committee Rev. James Moore and Rev. B. H. Leach, of Phillipsburg, and Rev. Richardson Gray, of Beattystown.

SCHOOL BOARD'S WOES AT LEBANON TOWNSHIP

Glen Gardner, June 12.—The Board of Education of Lebanon Township is having its troubles. The board met at Beacon Academy in this place to finish hiring teachers for another year.

Several who had been engaged at a previous meeting sent in their resignation. Parents were present to protest against engaging certain teachers for the two schools in this village, and to add to the quandary County Superintendent Jason Hoffman, of Flemington, informed the board that a number of the school houses in the township had been condemned. He said that both the site and building of Mondalia Academy, at this place, had been condemned and that the only thing to do was to construct a new building upon a suitable site.

Mondalia Academy stands only a few feet from the tracks of the Central Railroad, while only a few feet in front of the building is the main street of the town, which is a part of the Clinton-Hampton road, now being macadamized. Within five feet of the building on the north runs a side street to the station, while on the south side is a large mudhole, except in very dry weather.

Situated as the village is, in a narrow glen, with half of the town in Bethlehem Township, the selection of a site is a difficult matter. In fact, the only available site is across the Spruce Run Creek in Bethlehem Township, and the only apparent way out of the difficulty seems to be to have the town incorporated and include a part of Bethlehem Township.

SEEDS DRIVE GIRLS INSANE.

Camden, June 12.—Mary Hartman, ten years old, and Anna Gross, eleven years old, when playing in Pyne Poynt Park here Sunday ate seeds of the stramonium or jimson weed. Both children lost memory and now are insane. The seed contains beladonna and atropine. The poisons failed to show on the children Sunday, and they ate heartily that night and slept, but on arising in the morning could not eat and became worse.

MISS ELEANOR WIDENER.

Daughter of Titanic Victim, Who Will Be Wed Quietly.

MISS WIDENER SOON TO WED

Fitz Eugene Dixon Obtains License to Marry Heiress.

Philadelphia, June 12.—Fitz Eugene Dixon, son of T. Henry Dixon, a member of the banking firm of Ervin & Co., obtained a marriage license to wed Miss Eleanor Elkins Widener, daughter of Mrs. George D. Widener of Elkins Park. Mr. Dixon personally appeared for the license, giving his age as twenty-four and his fiancee's as twenty-one.

The ceremony, owing to the recent death of Miss Widener's father, George D. Widener, and her brother, Harry Elkins Widener, who were lost on the Titanic, will be a family affair at Lynnewood hall, the home of the Wideners, on Wednesday, June 19.

RIOTS RESULT WHEN SMOKERS RAID CARS

Traction Company Has Unusual Fight on Its Hands.

Kansas City, Mo., June 12.—Following a day, night and morning of rioting, during which women slapped the faces of smokers and men in a hurry to catch trains pitched those delaying the cars into the street, a truce of one day has been agreed to in the cigar dealers' fight against the Metropolitan Street Car company's order.

The company is defying a new ordinance that permits smoking on cars. Conductors and motormen have received orders to let a car stand so long as any one in it is smoking. The Metropolitan recently closed a week of voting by patrons on the matter, and, while thousands of ballots remain to be counted, it is conceded it will a two to one majority against smoking.

Gangs of boys and men, supplied with free "weeds," boarded cars bound for the Union depot tunnel. This tied up the entire car system of the city. It was not uncommon for forty or fifty cars to be standing still while one smoker pulled complacently on his cigar. After an hour's tie up of every car in the city the order was given to lock all gates and shunt the coaches to "dead" tracks. The smokers soon found themselves walking a mile back to the business section, where they boarded other cars and lit more cigars or cigarettes.

Mail cars suffered with the rest. Seven of them were tied up for an hour by one man.

TWO KILLED WHEN ARMY AERO FALLS

Lieut. Hazelhurst and Al Welsh Dashed to Death.

MACHINE ON FINAL TEST

Going Fifty Miles an Hour, Believed Supporting Wires Gave Way, Causing Plane to Pitch Forward—Hazelhurst Had Just Joined Squad.

Washington, June 12.—Going at a speed of fifty miles an hour thirty feet in the air, a Wright biplane pitched forward and Lieutenant Leighton W. Hazelhurst, an army aviator, and Al Welsh, a professional flier, were instantly killed. Lieutenant Hazelhurst's neck was broken and Welsh's skull crushed. The machine was being tested when the fatality occurred.

The cause of the accident is unknown, though it is believed that some of the supporting wires between the planes snapped suddenly and caused it to plunge forward. An investigation will be held today to determine the cause of the accident.

Were Killed Instantly.

Immediately following the accident Lieutenant Hazelhurst and Welsh were placed in an automobile and rushed to the Walter Reed General hospital, but death had been immediate. The death of Lieutenant Hazelhurst is the third that has occurred among the army aviators. Lieutenant Thomas C. Selfridge was killed at Fort Myer in a Wright biplane in September, 1908, and Lieutenant John Kelly was killed at San Antonio, Tex., in March, 1911.

Aviator Welsh had been at College Park for several days demonstrating a new Wright biplane to the army aviators. Under the regulations the machine was required to meet ten rigid tests. Nine of these requirements had been successful and Welsh with Lieutenant Hazelhurst as his passenger was on the tenth test when the machine collapsed and pitched the men to the earth.

Hazelhurst Was Popular.

Lieutenant Hazelhurst was a new man at the aviation school. He had just learned to operate one of the Wright machines and was considered one of the brightest new pupils. He is a native of Georgia and joined the aviation squad in March, coming from the Seventeenth infantry. He was extremely popular and was known as one of the most striking looking men in his regiment.

Al Welsh was considered the greatest flier of the Wright company since the untimely death of Phil Parmalee a week or two ago.

Welsh was famous at the Wright school as an instructor and had taught some of the best known aviators in this country. He had been operating aeroplanes almost from the time they proved capable of flight. He is a native of New York.

MANY ARE REPORTED DEAD IN CLOUDBURST

Wall of Water Sweeps Down on Wyoming Town.

Sheridan, Wyo., June 12.—A wall of water from a cloudburst in the mountains swept down Clear Creek canon on to the town of Buffalo, partially wrecking the place and presumably causing a number of drownings.

At last accounts the water was entering the second story windows of the telephone exchange and all communication suddenly ceased.

Buffalo is a large inland town having about 3,000 inhabitants. It is situated in the Clear Creek canon and, while only a few blocks wide, the town is more than a mile long.

The canon sides are steep and high. The telephone operator at Buffalo called Sheridan and reported a great wave of water had swept down the canon, carrying away many brick blocks. Many people had been drowned, but no idea of the number was obtainable.

MANY HURT IN COLLISION.

Fast Passenger Train Crashes Into Freight Head-on.

Clinton, Mass., June 12.—Two persons were seriously injured, six others were hurt and about thirty were badly shaken up when a passenger train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad crashed head-on into a freight train near the Union station here.

The most seriously injured were J. H. Garland of Marlboro, conductor of the passenger train, and John Morley, fireman. Conductor Garland sustained internal injuries and may die. The fireman's ankles were broken. The engines of both trains were demolished.

Old Lake Shipping Man Dead.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 12.—Captain J. J Brown, widely known on the Great lakes, died here. Born in Cleveland, O., seventy-five years ago, he was actively engaged in shipping pursuits on the lakes for the last fifty years.

—"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver," quoted the Wise Guy. "Well, who doesn't?" retorted the Simple Mug.

SHOTS FOR BRIDEGROOM.

He Wanted to Escape Marriage, but Changes His Mind.

Passaic, N. J., June 12.—To escape marriage Joseph Karoskiwick fled from his bride to be as they were entering St. Joseph's Polish Catholic church, led Constable Van Wagoner a mile chase through crowded streets dodging bullets and gave up only when he fell exhausted. Then he was taken back to the church where the bridal party was waiting, still handcuffed. He was married.

"Do you take this woman, Mary Watos, to be your lawful wedded wife?" asked Rev. Father Weconsi of the runaway groom.

"I do," he replied.

Then Karoskiwick's manner changed entirely. After placing the ring on his wife's finger he kissed her and they left the church, a happy, loving couple.

Newark, N. J., June 12.—Mrs. Susan L. Donohue of this city killed herself and her two-year-old son, Thomas, with gas in her home. She left a note which County Physician McKenzie said indicated that Mrs. Donohue had been made despondent and hopeless by the desertion of her husband.

She and her friends failed to find him.

DIPLOMAS FROM BISHOP'S HANDS

SISTERS WIN DEGREES

Three Strong Addresses, One by Bishop, Another by an Eminent Educator and the Third by State Senator W. W. Smalley.

Rt. Rev. James A. McFaul, Bishop of Trenton, at the closing exercises at the College of Mount St. Mary, yesterday afternoon, conferred the degree of bachelor of arts upon its first seven graduates: Sister Mary Mercedes, Sister Mary John, Sister Marie Anna, Sister Mary Bertrand, Miss Loretta Elizabeth Nolan, Miss Irene Mary Duchesne and Miss Alice Irene Jacard. The candidates were presented by Rev. William H. Miller, A. M.

The graduation exercises were held in one of the large rooms of the new building which had been converted by the sisters and students into a veritable bower of loveliness. The walls were hung in saffron and white and draped with the National colors. On a raised dais at one end of the room were seated Bishop McFaul, Rev. W. H. Tyrrell, of Rahway; Rev. D. F. Hogan, of St. Mary's church; Father Baldwin, the college chaplin; Monsignor Fox, St. Mary's, Trenton; Rev. D. D. Griffin, Bishops' secretary; Father Powers, John Alfred Brewster, A. M.; David T. Kenney, Dr. T. S. O'Brien, of New York, and Senator William W. Smalley, of Bound Brook. Tall palms and ferns, with baskets of daisies, formed the decorations of the platform. Paroubek's orchestra rendered the music.

In the course of his address Bishop McFaul said it was only within the past few years that people were beginning to have a true estimation of education. In his boyhood days it was regarded as a panacea for every ill, and so great were its powers that many thought it would even cure a headache. But education was not everything. Some of the biggest rascals of the day were highly educated, and employed that knowledge in pursuance of their evil work. Knowledge did not make one virtuous. Solomon was one of the wisest men who ever lived, but he felt knowledge ought to raise men and women to a higher plane of morality, but in many instances it did not. Nowadays it was customary to send a man who stole a watermelon to State prison, while his brother thief who stole thousands of dollars is applauded and sent on a trip to Europe for his health. If one was successful according to the ethics of present-day civilization it did not seem to matter much whether one was a saint or a thief. One would always find people to look up or down on them. But their idea of education was that the whole man should be developed, his moral as well as his mental and physical qualities.

Having congratulated the graduates he warned them against going away from that college with the idea that they knew all that was to be known. Their education only beginning, but they had received the foundation on which to build.

Proceeding he spoke of physical science, which in fact had gone so far that according to the papers if one wanted a new stomach or new heart one had only to send to New York and they would be forwarded in cold storage (laughter.) But there was a science greater than physical and that was theological.

Regarding the loss of the Titanic he said that while its keel was being laid in the shipyards of Belfast the great God was laying the keel of an iceberg in the Arctic. There were four heroes on the Titanic when it went down and they were the four Catholic priests who knelt on the deck and recited the Rosary as the ship sunk. These were soldiers of the Cross and to his mind exponents of the highest science—the science of the Saviour.

Senator Smalley delivered an address in which he referred to the lamentable calamity of the burning of the college but added that phoenix like from its ashes was rising a new building that would cast lustre on education. As a representative of Somerset county it was great pleasure for him to be present at such a ceremony. With the education which they had received in St. Mary's those young women who had just graduated would go out into the world with lofty ideals and sincerity of purpose, and uphold the standard of their alma mater.

It was his good fortune, said Dr. O'Brien, to be present at the blessing of the college bell, and he was twice blessed to be again present at the blessing of the seven belles (laughter.) As the years rolled on, he continued, no lack of interest or enthusiasm was shown in the graduation exercises and that was because

RESTRICTING GUESTS AT P. C. C. DANCES

Residents of Plainfield Not Members of the Club Not Admitted Hereafter.

An amendment to the by-laws restricting the club dances exclusively to members and out-of-town guests was the most important item of business transacted at the June meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Plainfield Country Club. Hereafter residents of Plainfield who are not members cannot take part in these entertainments. The action has been taken only after very careful consideration, and after an earnest effort during the past season or two to prevent an abuse of the club's unusually liberal policy with regard to guests from Plainfield.

The rule which permits a resident of Plainfield to be invited to the clubhouse for social purposes eight times a year was enacted before the weekly dances became a fixture; and its sole purpose was to enable members to give private luncheons and entertainments and include their Plainfield friends; and also to feel at liberty to drop in during the day time with their friends when out driving and enjoy the cool surroundings of the club. The rule was really enacted largely for the benefit of ladies who gave private entertainments and luncheons, and who also might occasionally like to spend an hour or two on the club piazzas in the afternoon with their friends.

"The rule was never intended," said a member of the club today, "to permit Plainfielders who are not members to be able to all intents and purposes to enjoy the popular club functions as freely as members themselves. A large percentage of the members use the club only occasionally, but retain their membership in order to feel at perfect liberty to use the club when they wish; and rules which are so liberal as to open up the popular social functions of the club, practically without restriction, to those who contribute nothing to the support of the club, are intrinsically unfair.

"The management has been unable to make any check on the number of times that the club is used by resident guests because efforts to get members to register the names of their guests have been attended with poor success. The trustees believe they owe it to the members generally to see that the rules are substantially enforced, and that they are not so liberal that advantage can be taken of them.

"It may be added that the rule which permits a resident to be invited to the clubhouse eight times a year has not been abolished. The new rule merely restricts all club dances exclusively to members and guests from out of town. Unless, however, members give attention to the numerous notices that have been sent out and register all their guests whenever they are taken to the clubhouse for any purpose, it may be necessary to limit still further the rule which permits residents of Plainfield to be taken up to the clubhouse eight times a year."

The reports of officers presented at the meeting on Tuesday showed an unusually substantial gain in membership, about sixty new members having been elected so far this season, and fully half of them being new active members. The trustees also completed arrangements for the boys' golf championship on June 25. There is to be a special dance at the club on the evening of June 24 in honor of the boys attending the tournament from out of town.

THOMAS TIMBO BANKRUPT, WM. N. RUNYON ASSIGNEE

Thomas Timbo, of North avenue, made an assignment yesterday afternoon, following the closing of his restaurant as well as his fruit and candy store on Watchung avenue. William N. Rnyon is the assignee and Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., the attorney. The liabilities are about $7,000 and the assets about $2,500.

TALK OF SETTLING LISCOMB WILL CASE

If Settlement is Arrived at James L. Arrowsmith Will be Released by Court.

Elizabeth, June 13 (Special).—The hearing in the Sarah Liscomb will case scheduled for yesterday before Judge Atwater in the Orphan's Court was adourned for two weeks. Counsel for the heirs announced that an attempt would be made to reach a settlement in the case in the interim.

James L. Arrowsmith, who was executor of the will and who is charged by the heirs with having squandered the estate, is still in the county jail in a writ issued out of the Court of Chancery. Should the cose be settled it will mean his release. Yesterday's hearing was to have been for the purpose of examining persons who took exceptions to the inventory as filed by Arrowsmith.

Since his committment to the county jail two weeks ago Arrowsmith has lost weight. He eats but little and many of his former friends seem to have deserted him. He appears to feel his position keenly and has but few visitors.

The beneficiaries under the will claim that the estate dwindled to a comparatively small sum within the last few years, and they attribute this to Arrowsmith's connection with it as Mrs. Liscomb's secretary.

SIX ARRESTS FOLLOW REOPENING OF HOTEL

The opening of "The Maples" hotel on South avenue yesterday after being closed for some time consequent to a raid by the County Prosecutor and police was made the occasion of too much celebration by customers which developed into scenes of alleged rowdyism, disorder lines and fighting last night. The police were called on the scene at an early hour this morning and arrested John Callagham, John Newman, William Smith, Lewis Cahill, Michael Marfino and William Conway on the complaint of James Bimble, 312 Jackson avenue; John Kelliher, 304 Jackson avenue, and Arthur Kingel, 278 Netherwood avenue, who charged the prisoners with having assaulted them. The arrests were made by Policemen Nolan and Flatley.

The prisoners will be arraigned tomorrow morning as their was no court today, City Judge William G. De Meza being called out of the city on urgent business. The police say that there were several other gangs about the locality in a more or less disorderly condition. They say the license of the hotel is in jeopardy.

POLICE HEAR FOURTH MAN WAS IN STOLEN AUTO CAR

Nothing further has been heard of Arthur Krutzner who escaped from the Somerville police on Tuesday and who is wanted for the alleged breaking into Overland's garage on Watchung avenue and stealing N. W. Nicolaysun's car. The police received information from Somerville this morning that four persons were observed in the car at Bound Brook and Patrolman Joseph O'Hanlon, of Somerville, narrates a conversation he had with Mike Hoke, of Bound Brook, who overheard the party of four say that they would go to Easton and dispose of the car then split the proceeds and skip.

Who the fourth person was Hoke did not know and what became of him the police are trying to find out as only three were in the auto when it was pulled up in Somerville. Two of the trio, Edward Fitzgerald and George Browers await a hearing in the city police court on Saturday.

MISSING FARMER FOUND.

The North Plainfield police have been notified that John Stine, a farmer of Springdale, who disappeared about a week ago, has been discovered in Bellevue Hospital, New York, where he had gone to undergo an operation. Prior to his leaving he told his brother that he was going to a hospital, and the latter concluded he would go to either Plainfield or Elizabeth. After making fruitless inquiries in both cities he became fearful that something had befallen hs brother and asked the police to institute a search.

GRADUATION EXERCISES.

The graduation exercises of the Dunellen Public Schools will be held in the Presbyterian church, that place, tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Prof. Robert W. Prentiss will be the speaker. The closing exercises of the Piscataway Township Schools will be held in the auditorium at New Market, Monday night, at 8 o'clock.

AGED CARPENTER SEEKS DAMAGES

Van Fleet Asks Court to Order Payment of $3,000 Under Liability Law.

HURT ON CLINTON AVE.

Opposing Counsel Fail in Effort to Prove He Was on His Union's Sick List—Employers Charge Negligence.

Elizabeth, June 13 (Special)—Peter A. Van Fleet, a Plainfield carpenter, aged 67, appeared in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday afternoon seeking through his counsel, Samuel S. Swackhammer, to recover $3,000 damages under the Employers' Liability Law for injuries sustained on January 4 last when he fell from a scaffolding on a new house on Clinton avenue, Plainfield, on which he was working. The house was being built by Charles and Walter Arnold, of Plainfield.

On the witness stand Van Fleet said that he had been unable to work ever since. He sustained injuries to his left ear and right eye, as well as a broken rib and contusions and also a stiff knee. He was treated at the Muhlenberg Hospital. As a result of the injuries to his eye he has had a double vision ever since. His hearing, too, is affected.

Dr. Frank C. Ard, his physician, corroborated this testimony, adding that in his opinion the partial paralysis of the eye would never be cured. Van Fleet has been a carpenter forty years. He attributed the accident to the fact that there was ice on the scaffold which caused him to slip. He was earning at the time $22 per week. He seeks compensation for 300 weeks.

W. S. Angleman, who with William DeMeza represents the Arnolds, endeavored to show that Van Fleet had been on the "sick list" of his union, but failed. Negligence on the part of Van Fleet is the claim of the Arnolds.

The case was continued until next Wednesday afternoon.

MISS MARIE C. HANSEN BRIDE OF HANS NIELSEN

Miss Marie Christine Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hansen, of Orchard place, and Hans Nielsen, of Manson place, were married last night by Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed at the home of Dr. Herring in the Bristol on West Front street.

The bride wore a white traveling gown and carried bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Henrietta Hansen, as bridesmaid, and Louis Nielson, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Orchard place, the guests being relatives and a few intimate friends. Supper was served, congratulations offered and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen left for Ocean Grove, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will reside with the bride's parents for the summer. Mr. Nielsen is employed at the Pond Machine Tool Works. The bride for three years was employed as bookkeeper at the office of the Woodbrook Farm on Park avenue, and she has been succeeded in the position by her sister, Miss Henrietta Hansen, who was formerly with T. S. Armstrong, the druggist.

Mrs. Susannah H. Phillips, aged 82 years, widow of George M. Phillips, died last night at her home, 1122 West Front street, following a long illness from complications. Mrs. Phillips had been a resident of this city many years. Her husband was widely-known as a sea captain.

After his retirement Captain and Mrs. Phillips removed to this city. The latter with a niece lived in retirement since the death of Captain Phillips. Aside from the niece there are no immediate relatives. Notice of funeral will be given later.

LEONARD BENNETT INJURED.

BOY BURGLAR GIVEN CHANCE TO REFORM

Coffey, Who Broke Jail After Arrest, Placed on Probation for Two Years.

Elizabeth, June 13 (Special).—Edward Coffey, the sixteen-year-old Plainfield boy who escaped from the Plainfield police station after his arrest for burglary and was caught at Portland, Maine, and brought back on requisition papers, was placed on probation for two years by Judge Atwater in the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday afternoon.

Before disposing of the boy's case the court told him that a similar offense in the future would mean a much severer sentence. He warned Coffey to be careful of his deportment hereafter. His youth was the only thing that barred a heavier sentence, the court stated.

The probation officer at Worcester, Massachusetts, where Coffey is to go in the care of an uncle who is a lawyer, will look after him for two years and report to the Union county probation officer who, in turn, will keep the court informed as to Coffey's behavior.

SEWER QUESTION IN HANDS OF A STEERING COMMITTEE

Conferrees at Last Strike Working Basis Satisfactory to All Municipalities--Three Partners and Two Renters in System.

The conference of representatives of Plainfield, North Plainfield, Dunellen, Scotch Plains and Fanwood relative to the sewage proposition, which was held in the city building on North avenue, last night, was somewhat different than the one of a week ago in that definite steps toward accomplishing something were taken. The old proposition of taking all the municipalities in on a partnership basis was abandoned, and it was voted that only Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen should be partners, and Scotch Plains and Fanwood should be cared for on a rental basis.

After the adoption of plans as presented by Councilman F. L. Holt, who acted as chairman of the meeting, another resolution prevailed to the effect that each municipality appoint three representatives, one of whom to be the Mayor, to comprise what is to be known as a "steering" committee. The followng were named:

Plainfield, Mayor G. W. V. Moy, Councilmen F. L. Holt and Duncan W. Taylor; North Plainfield, Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., Councilman W. J. Buttfield and E. S. Boyer, the last named a member of the borough sewage commission; Dunellen, Mayor C. E. Richards and Councilman A. F. Todd and A. J. Hamley, the latter a member of the sewage commission; Fanwood, Mayor W. H. Hoar, Councilman Spencer Tallmadge and Burton P. Hall.

After the meeting adjourned the commttee met and organized by electing Councilman F. L. Holt chairman. No date for another meeting was chosen, but a conference will probably be held after the next session of the Plainfield Council.

Mr. Holt explained at the outset of the meeting that since the conference of a week ago,, a new proposition had been suggested and he then proceeded to outline it briefly. The principal points in this proposition are that Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen shall enter into a joint partnership to install the trunk sewer and build the disposal works and that Scotch Plains and Fanwood shall be taken in on a rental basis, possibly at a more reasonable cost than under the other plan.

North Plainfield is to stand 25 per cent. of the cost, Plainfield 68 per cent. and Dunellen 7 per cent., and steps are to be taken at once to make application for permission to locate the disposal works on the Darling site in Piscataway Township. The maintainance charge is to be fixed according to the amount of sewage each municipality sends to the works and one-half the cost of each municipality reaching a point of juncture for the outfall sewer is to be borne by all the municipalities and the other half by each individual municipality.

Mr. Holt suggested that an arbitration clause be provided for, if not now, in subsequent legislation so that any differences that might arise either during the construction of or in the maintenance of the system might be adjusted amicably by arbitrators.

Having stated the plan, an expression of opinion was asked for from the different municipalities represented. Mayor C. E. Richards, of Dunellen, said that he thought Dunellen would approve of the plans. He could not see any objections and he beleved that the borough would vote to join in the proposition.

Speaking for North Plainfield, Councilman W. J. Buttfield, said that he did not want either Scotch Plains or Fanwood to misunderstand the idea to eliminate those municipalities as partners, it being agreed that too many partners might only tend to delay seriously the improvement, while a smaller number in partnership would make it possible to enter into a more advantageous contract and provide better terms for the other municipalities.

Mr. Buttfield said that the site to be chosen would be one to the common good of all. He also touched upon that feature providing that one-half of the expense in reaching a point of juncture be incorporated in the joint cost of the work. He thought North Plainfield would approve of the scheme and that the Council was now prepared to recommend its adoption.

Mayor W. H. Hoar, of Fanwood, said that while the original plan seemed attractive to Fanwood, the residents of that municipality appreciated the spirit of the offer allowing them to provide sewers for the borough. He also expressed the belief that Fanwood would be willing to co-operate in carrying out the plans proposed and Burton P. Hall of that place concurred in what Mayor Hoar, had said, adding that Fanwood does not want to be obstructionist in any sense of the word. I.

ALUMNUS TRIES TO SNATCH SENIOR FLAG

Strong-arm Rebuke for Graduate of N. P. H. S. Who Disregarded Class Etiquette.

A rush, a scramble and a fight for the possession of the class flag by Jacques Abrams, an alumnus of the North Plainfield High School, marked the close of the class day exercises held in Debele's auditorium, last night. There is a rush every year for the possession of the flag, it being considered the prerogative of the Juniors to secure it if they can. Consequently when Abrams made a rush for the platform on which it was stationed, guarded by two seniors, he was felled to the floor by a vigorous punch. Nothing undaunted he rushed to the platform again and this time got into hand grips with Principal P. J. Phelps, and a lively tussle ensued, Abrams getting the worst of the argument.

Great excitement prevailed among the girl pupils present and several of them screamed while others shouted to throw the alumnus out. Eventually Abrams left, and order was restored.

The seniors are: Lawrence H. French, president; Carroll C. Taylor, vice president; Edmund J. Kenney, secretary; Miss Rose Andrews, Miss Bessie M. Carson, Miss Florence B. Daly, Miss Margaret L. Darby, Miss Emma J. Dougherty, Miss Helen A. Hummel, Miss Ella V. Miller, Miss Elsie F. Schmidt, Miss Madeline Uhrhahn, Miss Grace E. Williams, Miss Edith E. Wheeler, Louis N. Bennett, Henry V. Kinney, Guy D. Peck, Jr., and George I. Spencer.

The auditorium was tastefully decorated with the class colors, purple and old gold, and the class flower, purple aster, was in evidence. Mounted on a shield was the class motto, "Onward and Upward."

The program opened with an address of welcome by President Lawrence H. French. Next followed "Closing Day in the District School," which included the "roll call." Then there were songs, "Arithmetic Class," "History Class," which proved full of humor and reminiscence. The classes were dismissed by President French with the customary "knocks."

The second part of the program consisted of the "Class Prophecy" by Miss Elsie Schmidt and the reading of the "Class Will" by Edmund J. Kenney, and the presentation of the class gift—a bust of Shakespeare—by Lawrence H. French. The class poem—a splendid piece of composition—was read by Miss Edith E. Wheeler and greeted with the college yell. Dancing followed.

The commencement exercises will take place tomorrow evening.

RURAL BANKS FEED NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Country Deposits Furnish Sinews to Bulls and Bears.

New York, June 13.—It is the country banker, holding the deposits of his rural customers, who is the real father of the Stock Exchange and who makes possible the speculative ventures of the bulls and bears. Attracted by the high rate for speculative loans, the outside banker rushes his money to New York, his brokers loan it on listed securities and the money is in turn used to keep the big Wall street game going.

James G. Cannon, president of the Fourth National bank and one of the big powers in finance, testified to that effect before the Pujo subcommittee of the house committee on banking and currency, which is investigating the money trust. The bank president made it plain that without the support of the outsiders New York's great exchange could not do business and that the rural financial light was really the master of his city cousin, who always got the limelight.

Reduced to its last analysis, Wall street told the government's committee that the farmer and the small business man who starts the outside bank deposits going is the real father of the money trust.

ASBURY PARK PERHAPS WILL HAVE MARDI GRAS

Asbury Park, June 13.—Tentative plans, contemplating the conversion of the masque fete, which heretofore has marked the close of the season on Labor Day night, into an all-day Mardi Gras, modeled on the plan adopted this year at New Orleans, are today under consideration by this city's carnival commission.

Masking, should the new idea be adopted, would begin in the morning, thus allowing day visitors to participate in most of the fun, and terminate at 6 o'clock in the evening. Queen Titania's place, whose rule, under the proposed scheme, would end with the baby parade, would be taken by King Neptune, who would land at Asbury about noon.

The King, it has been suggested by Harold E. Deneger, secretary of the commission, would start for Asbury early in the morning from the East River, New York, and proceed down the bay on a yacht, saluted by harbor craft. When off the beach near this city Mr. Deneger would have the King taken to the shore on a hydroplane, and landed with pomp on the boardwalk.

The plan is said to be regarded by a majority of the commission in a favorable light. Fireworks at both ends of the boardwalk are planned as the climax of the day's fun, while at midnight a salvo of explosions is contemplated as the "all over" for the season.

KNOCKED FROM HANDCAR, BOY INSTANTLY KILLED

Whitehouse, June 13.—George A. Townley, thirteen years old, was instantly killed Tuesday afternoon on the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Railroad, near Whitehouse Station, by falling from a handcar while it was in motion.

With several of his companions the lad was on his way to fish and bathe in the North Rockaway River. Some other boys were operating the handcar used on the road at that point. Young Townley and his chums joined them and started for Sweeney's Crossing. They had crossed the trestle over the river when the Townley boy, who was helping propel the car with his back to the direction in which the car was going, was struck in the stomach by the handle he was pumping, which flew up with such force as to knock him from the car.

The boy landed between the tracks, striking the back of his head on a tie and the car passed over him. His companions stopped the car, took the body on board and ran back toward Whitehouse Station until assistance was reached. They did not realize that the lad was already dead. A physician who made an examination declares that death was instantaneous. The boy's neck was broken and his skull fractured.

Coroner Peter S. Niper, of Lebanon, was summoned. He did not deem an inquest necessary and granted a burial permit for accidental death.

Young Townley was a son of Harry S. and Agnes Y. Townley, and his home was at 1064 Mary street, Elizabeth. About two weeks ago he came here to spend the summer with his parents and brothers and sisters in a cottage that the family have occupied for several summers. His father is chief clerk to the freight claim agent of the New Jersey Central Railroad, at Liberty street, New York City.

Besides his parents the lad leaves three brothers and two sisters. The funeral services will be held at the house Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be in the Methodist cemetery here.

JURY COMMISSION IS COLLATING DATA

Assemblyman Anderson Communicating With Officials of North Jersey.

Trenton, June 13.—The work of the Jury Reform Commission appointed by the last Legislature was discussed by State Senator Griffith W. Lewis, of Burlington county, and Assemblyman William D. Anderson, of Somerset county, who are members of the commission and who were Governor's Day visitors at the State House.

At a meeting of the commission several weeks ago Mr. Anderson was asked to communicate with the county judges, sheriffs and prosecutors in the counties of North Jersey to get their opinion as to the best method of reforming the drawing of grand juries, while Senator Lewis was requested to take up the same work in South Jersey.

The majority of the replies thus far received favor a jury commission of three members to choose the grand jury panels, the sheriffs to select the juries from these panels. Senator Lewis said that in a short time a commission would arrange to visit each county and confer with the judges, sheriffs and prosecutors on the subject. Information will be sought from other sources.

Senator Read, of Camden county, is at work upon the assignment given him at the last meeting, which was to communicate with the State Department in each state in the Union and ascertain what methods of jury drawing are used; also to get information as to the laws governing the drawing of grand juries.

The fourth member of the commission is Assemblyman John E. Gill, of Mercer, who is looking up the grand jury reform sentiment in this county.

The commission was appointed last winter after the failure of the leaders of the two parties in the Legislature to agree upon a jury reform bill. Senator Leavitt, of Mercer, introduced a bill providing that grand juries should be drawn by a commission composed of the Supreme Court justice, the county judge and the sheriff. Sheriff Wedin, of Hudson, also had a bill introduced by Assemblyman Egan, providing that the sheriff should draw the grand jury under the supervision of the county judge, and that the names on the jury list as selected by the sheriff should be advertised in the newspapers of the county. Any change that proposes to take the drawing of juries out of the hands of the sheriff will be bitterly opposed by all the sheriffs of the state.

BOOK ON THE BIRDS IN THE SOMERSET HILLS

John Dryden Kuser, son of Colonel A. R. Kuser, of Bernardsville, is the author of a beautiful and valuable book entitled, "The Birds of Somerset Hills." The limited edition has been sent to a number of friends but we hope it will ultmately be available for general circulation. The little volume, bound in morocco, and illustrated by colored pictures of the birds, is a treasure in itself. The author is the grandson of the late Senator John F. Dryden, and the work is dedicated to him. We are sure he would have been proud of it.

The author has written a most interesting general description of the bird life of Somerset county, but to the bird-lover the marvelous list of the birds he has met obscures all other considerations. No less than 132 different birds have been identified there by him, and on one glorious day he encountered 64 different varieties. We are not sure that any place in this country can equal this record, for New Jersey is a bird-land of rare delight.

The illustrations are generally good, or, perhaps, might better be described as being as good as is possible by the lithographic process. No coloring is absolutely correct in illustration of birds. Last Thursday, for instance, we saw a dozen robins, song sparrows and thrushes, wet with the afternoon's rain, flashing back and forth in the rays of the setting sun, as it broke through a background of hemlocks. There is no possibility of picturing that scene with fidelity to the glistening plumage, illuminated by the red sunlight, contrasted with the black-green of the trees. The general effect is the best that the best illustrators can hope to achieve.

We shall hope to use some of this book's mine of information for our readers, with Mr. Kuser's permission, from time to time, and shall content ourselves now with congratulating the young author upon the education he is receiving through this familiarity with nature, a source of perpetual delight to himself, of pleasure to his friends and of usefulness to all.

Colonel Kuser, the author's father, has, as our readers know, a remarkable collection of birds from all parts of the earth, and is doing a large work in Somerset and in Sussex counties for the preservation of the native bird-life—from man and from other distructive animals. The cause is so good and the work so engrossingly delightful that we feel that all who have time and opportunity to engage in it have sufficient reward in the task itself, but nevertheless much public gratitude is due to the father and to the author-son for their services in behalf of the loveliest of nature's creations.

BOROUGH COURTS.

Recorder Manning F. Gano dismissed the case against "Bill" Parker and his wife, colored, of French's alley, for disorderly conduct, but on a further charge of neglecting his children, ordered him to contribute $2 per week for their support. Katherine Kayle, of Elmwood place, was placed for two days in the cooler for drunken disorderliness. Max Michelson, of Chatham street, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Thomas Snape for taking and disposing of a set of harness belonging to Nicholas Van Winkle, of Somerset street, several months ago. Van-Winkle agreed not to prosecute him then on condition that he paid him for the harness. This he failed to do, only paying part. He was given a chance to pay the balance and also costs of court.

HARRIET QUIMBY.

Woman Aviator Makes Two Flights, Carrying Passenger.

MISS QUIMBY GETS RECORD.

First Time Woman Ever Carried Passenger In Monoplane.

Garden City, N. Y., June 13.—Harriet Quimby, the woman aviator, made two flights in a monoplane, each time carrying a passenger. Leo Stevens of the Aero club says this the first time that a woman flying a monoplane has carried a passenger.

On her first flight, with S. S. Jarwin at her side, Miss Quimby covered forty miles at an altitude of about 2,500 feet. Her second flight lasted twelve minutes at an approximate altitude of 1,800 feet. On one of the flights she hailed a passing aviator.

The One He Caught.

One day many years ago the telephone in the office of the chief of police rang. Chief Speers answered. The call was from a new policeman on the Union avenue beat. He said. "A man has been robbed down here, and I've got one of thim."

"Which one have you?" asked the chief.

The reply came back. "The man that was robbed!"—Argonaut.

Solid Ivory.

"Yes," confessed Mr. Dorkins, "it serves me right. I engaged the man to move our goods, and I forgot to ask him how much he was going to charge me for the job. If ever I do such a thing again, Maria, you can have my head for a football."

"It would be a good deal more profitable, John," said Mrs. Dorkins, "to cut it up into billiard balls."—Chicago Tribune.

3 STRIKERS SHOT; POLICE HELPLESS

Mob of 4,000 Overwhelms Perth Amboy's Force.

MAY CALL OUT THE MILITIA

After Police Are Repulsed Scores of Private Detectives Armed With Rifles Pour Deadly Fire From Roof on Drink Inflamed Foreign Laborers.

Perth Amboy, N. J., June 13.—In a fierce strike riot here 4,000 drink inflamed Hungarian and Slav laborers completely overpowered the small police force. Special deputies were sworn in, and Sheriff Albert Bollschweiler is preparing to send out a call for the militia. This city never before witnessed such scenes.

Before the rioting stopped three policemen were injured and three strikers shot, trolley cars were attacked and stoned, and the trolley service was blocked for half an hour; prisoners were rescued from the police, and the police forced for their own safety to take shelter in buildings and hallways, leaving the street in undisputed possession of a surging mob of angry men.

"We're through," admitted Chief of Police Patrick Burke, about half an hour after the second outbreak. "You can't expect a police force of twenty-nine men to hold at bay 4,000. I have turned the situation over to Sheriff Bollschweiler."

Fusillade of Rifle Shots.

The strikers learned that 500 strike breakers had been brought in by boat from New York to the dock of the American Smelting and Refining company at its plant in State street and that fifty private detectives from New York had been placed on guard to protect them. The subject was discussed with growing heat and anger over refilled glasses in various saloons. A mob of about 2,000 strikers of the smelting company and the Barber Asphalt company gathered threateningly before the fence that surrounds the smelting company's plant.

A few minutes later, with a concerted rush and following a volley of bricks and stones, the mob rushed the fence and attempted to tear it down. Several of them climbed to the top.

Then came a fusillade of rifle shots, and in the gathering darkness scores of private detectives could be seen firing from the low roof of the steel plant, where they had climbed in anticipation of just such an attack. As the strikers fell back they carried with them three of their number wounded. One of them, John Machiski, a laborer, had a bullet in his left side. He was taken to the Perth Amboy City hospital. Martin Rockowitz and Charles Nichols were shot in the left leg.

QUIET RESTORED AS SHIPS PATROL CUBA

With 1,000 Marines on Island Situation Still Menacing.

Washington, June 13.—With more than 1,000 marines stationed on Cuban soil and the island literally surrounded by battleships and other naval vessels, all is quiet, according to reports received at the state department.

Yet the Cuban situation is still regarded as just exactly as menacing as it has been since the beginning of the present negro uprising. None of the ships now off the Cuban coast is to be withdrawn nor are any of the marines ashore to be taken back to the ships. In fact, the Washington authorities are unanimous in believing it is the presence of these marines and warships that is responsible for the quiet now reported in the regious regarded as the trouble districts.

AGED 102, SHE CELEBRATES.

Aunt of Judge Abel E. Blackner Does Not Look Her Age.

Newark, N. Y., June 13.—Mrs. Lavinia Allerton, aunt of Abel E. Blackmar, judge of the supreme court for the second district of New York city and connected with the Trowbridge, Blackmar and Allerton families of New York state, celebrated her one hundred and second birthday.

Mrs. Allerton is well preserved and does not look her age. She is probably the oldest woman in western New York.

WOMAN DECLARES GIBBS A BIGAMIST

Mother-in-law Tells Metuchen Police Strange Story.

ACCUSED MAN IS MISSING

Wedding of Gibbs to Ella Burnett Was Quiet Affair—Confronted With Story of Duplicity, He Denies Charge and Leaves For Syracuse.

Metuchen, N. J., June 13.—Mrs. W. H. Bennett, wife of a contractor and builder, complained to the police about the disappearance of her daughter's husband, Tyler M. Gibbs, a brother-in-law of former Assemblyman Milton M. Gibbs of Rochester. Gibbs left his boarding house in Newark, where he has been living since he married Miss Bennett on June 1 this year taking his wife with him. This was after Mrs. Bennett had spoken to him about the appearance in Metchuen of a woman who said she knew positively that Gibbs had a first wife living at White Plains, N. Y. The matter will be laid before the grand jury of Middlesex county by Prosecuting Attorney Sulzer.

Gibbs and Ella Bennett were married at Metuchen at the bride's home on June 1. She is nineteen years old and attractive. Her parents are in comfortable circumstances. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Mason of the First Presbyterian church of Metuchen, a church where the bride has always been prominent. The wedding was a very quiet one, at Gibbs' request, it is said.

Last Monday a woman appeared in Metuchen and went to the Bennett home. Mrs. Bennett was not home, and the woman scoured the town for relatives of the Bennetts. She found Mrs. Van Sickle, a cousin, and to her she said that Gibbs had been married before, that the first wife was still alive and that they had never been divorced.

Says That Gibbs Left Her.

The woman said that her own name was Annie Shaw. She said that she had met Gibbs seven years ago in her home town, Canton, O., and that she had left home with him. She said that he left her shortly afterward, although her father had disowned her for leaving home with Gibbs. At present she is singing in a music hall.

Miss Shaw said that her family is a good one and that her mother was a cousin of President McKinley's wife. She is working now in a music hall to support a son six years old, whose father is Gibbs.

Miss Shaw also said that the first Mrs. Gibbs was living on Dusenberry place, White Plains, with her brother-in-law, J. H. Schmepfl.

Mrs. Van Sickle went to Newark last Monday and confronted Gibbs with the news. He denied that he had ever been married before, she says. While he admitted that he knew Miss Shaw, he denied that he had a wife in White Plains. He intimated that it was a case of blackmail.

Mrs. Bennett demanded further proof, and he said that he could not give it to her then. He had to go to Syracuse on a business trip and would be back, but he did not return.

KILLED CHILDREN, CHARGE.

Accused Father Has to Be Carried Into Courtroom.

Mays Landing, N. J., June 13.—Carried into court from his prison cell by two constables, John Lewis entered pleas of not guilty before Justice Kalisch to two indictments returned by the grand jury charging him with the murder of his two young children, a son and daughter, several months ago at Atlantic City by giving them arsenic in oatmeal and milk.

A third child, who died previously to the little tots, is thought to have died in the same manner. Owing to the absence of Professor Joseph Marshall of Philadelphia, who is touring in Europe, the state's expert who examined the bodies of the children, the trial was put off until September. The court appointed ex-Judge John J. Crandall to defend the accused.

NO ELISOR GRAND JURY.

Jurymen Drawn by Sheriff Will Hear Graft Evidence.

Mays Landing, N. J., June 13.—Investigation of the graft revelations made in Atlantic City by Detective William J. Burns and his operatives, involving five councilmen and threatening to involve scores of others, will be made by the present grand jury drawn by Sheriff Robert H. Ingersoll. That was made plain by Supreme Court Justice Samuel Kalisch, who said he was not sufficiently informed to charge the jury and set June 28 as the time.

"I would have charged you," said the court, "but I am not fully appraised of all the particulars and it will take the state some time to prepare the evidence. It will not take you long to dispose of the matter."

Dog Fetches Aid In Time.

Evans, Col., June 13.—Stricken suddenly ill, Mrs. Henry Webber, alone in a ranch house, wrote a note to her husband and gave it to the dog, telling the animal to find its master. After wandering for hours the animal found Mr. Webber, who arrived home in time to revive his wife.

AN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance Concerning Dogs.

Be it ordained by the Township Committee of Fanwood:

1. That hereafter no persons shall keep, harbor, or maintain, or suffer to be kept, harbored or maintained, within the Township limits any dog, unless a valid and unexpired license issued by authority of the Township Committee of the Township of Fanwood as hereinafter provided, to keep that particular dog has first been had and obtained, under penalty of a fine not exceeding Three Dollars or imprisonment not exceeding seven days, or both such fines and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

2. That the Clerk of this Township, be and is hereby authorized to issue license in the name of the Township Committee and under their official seal to any person applying therefor in the manner hereinafter provided and paying the license fee hereinafter fixed, which license, when so issued, shall be valid and remain in force only until the twentieth day of May next ensuing the issuing thereof.

3. That such license shall be granted only upon written application signed by the person applying therefor, and setting forth the place of residence of the applicant and a full description of the dog for which license is asked together with its name, breed and sex, and the location of the premises where it is kept. Every such application shall be endorsed by the Township Clerk with the date when presented to him. He shall appropriately number the same, and record in a proper book for that purpose the name and address of the applicant, the number of the application and the number of the license granted, if any, which license shall, among other things, contain the name, breed and sex of the dog for which it is granted.

4. That whenever any license to keep any dog is granted pursuant to this ordinance the same shall be delivered to the applicant together with a metal tag, to be furnished by the Township, bearing a number corresponding with the number of the dog license, which tag may be attached to and worn with any collar on said dog so as to be plainly visible at a distance of at least ten feet. The color or shape, or both, of all such tags furnished each succeeding year, shall be sufficiently different from those furnished the preceding year to make them readily distinguishable apart.

5. That such dog license shall be good only for the identical dog described and named therein and shall be issued only upon payment to the Township Clerk, for the use of the Township, of the sum of One Dollar for each license, which said sum is hereby fixed as the license fee therefor.

6. That every dog whether licensed or not found in any public street, avenue, or place within the Township limits without a valid unexpired license number tag, furnished as aforesaid attached as aforesaid to a collar worn by said dog at the time, shall be destroyed by or under the direction of the Township marshals.

7. Any person or persons in the Township of Fanwood, owning or having possession of five or more dogs, which are kept for breeding, show or sporting purposes, may in the manner above provided and upon payment of the sum of five dollars, obtain a kennel license which shall entitle the holder thereof to establish and maintain within said Township a kennel for the purpose of breeding and raising dogs for show and sporting purposes. There shall be attached to the collar of each dog so kept the tag referred to in this ordinance, and in addition to the license fee above provided, there shall be paid to the Township Clerk for each tag provided by him, the sum of twenty-five cents.

8. The Township Committee of the Township of Fanwood may at any time when in its judgment the public safety demands it, order and direct by a public notice, the muzzling of all dogs within the Township limits with a suitable muzzle, sufficient to render biting impossible. Such notice shall be posted in at least three public places in said Township at least three days before the enforcement of said order.

9. There shall be established for the purpose of impounding dogs not muzzled as provided in Section 8 hereof, found running at large, a dog pound to be in charge of a pound-master to be specially appointed. One suitable person shall be specially appointed whose duty it shall be to seize and impound all dogs not muzzled as provided in Section 8 hereof, which shall be found running at large on the streets of said Township. Said person so appointed shall wear a shield as a badge of office, said shield to be provided by the Township Clerk and shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services the sum of twenty-five cents for each dog delivered by him to the pound-master. Should any person appointed as aforesaid seize or impound any dog other than such as are not muzzled as provided in Section 8 hereof, he shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding seven days, either or both.

10. That all dogs delivered to the pound-master shall be subject to a charge of twenty-five cents per day or fraction of a day for their keep while in charge of the pound-master, and a penalty of one dollar to be paid by the owner of the dog to the pound-master for its redemption in addition to the charge for keep. The pound-master shall receive as compensation for his services one-half the penalties paid him, and shall be entitled further to the charges for keep before mentioned. All dogs unclaimed or unredeemed at the expiration of four days after their being impounded shall be put to death by said pound-master in the most merciful and humane manner possible.

11. That the word dog wherever used in this ordinance shall include dogs male and female.

12. And be it ordained that all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed and that this ordinance shall take effect on the twenty-first day of June, 1912.

EDWARD L. HAND,
Township Clerk.

I. C. WALKER, Chairman.

NEGRO VOTE A POWER.

As is the case in Plainfield, in Atlantic City the colored voter is an important voter. But there is a contrast between the two for in Atlantic City the negroes realize and take due advantage of their strength. In Plainfield, on the other hand, they do not act together and the failure to concentrate their forces results in not getting recognition, which would otherwise be accorded them. So well do the colored voters of Atlantic City get together that they usually land somewhere. For instance at the commission government primaries a few days ago they succeeded in having one of their race nominated among the ten who are to be voted on for commissioners at the election to be held in July. There are in New Jersey over 28,000 negroes of voting age. Fully one-fourth of these live in either Atlantic Ctiy or Newark. Jersey City, Camden, Trenton and Plainfield, in the order named, have large numbers of colored voters. Hoboken, whose population is above 70,000, has but thirty-nine negro voters. The fact is that the colored man in New Jersey does not appreciate hte power at his command.

Probably the most satisfactory joint conference on the sewage disposal problem held in many months was tha tof last night when representatives of the several affected municipalities agreed upon a definite plan of action. It is unnecessary here to dwell upon the details of the arrangements for they are fully told in the news columns today. Suffice it to say, however, that the people generally in Plainfield and the surrounding territory will be more than gratified should the steering committee named last night proceed without delay to bring about the fulfillment of the scheme. It is one that will be for the benefit of all concerned. Taxpayers as a rule do not balk at the expenditure of public moneys when they see some results. The trouble is that in altogether too many plans for improvements there is a heavy drain on the public coffer without any real good being obtained.

Approximately 300 forest fire fighters have been added to the New Jersey force by an order of Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock. Acting on the plea of the Secretary of Agriculture for the co-operation of the Postoffice Department with the State and National forest officers to provide that rural letter carriers shall report forest fires, Mr. Hitchcock has issued a decree making available about 5,500 men to assist the fire wardens throughout the country. In New Jersey, the Forest Commission will furnish each rural letter carrier with the names and addresses of the 263 local fire wardens to whom they will report in case of the discovery of forest fires.

It is absolutely essential that the generous hearted residents of our good city contribute at least $1,350 at once if the splendid undertaking of the Plainfield Anti-Tuberculosis League is to be carried o nduring the summer season, the most trying time of the year. There is no more worthy charity in the community than the camp where medical attention and all the necessary comforts are provided for those afflicted with consumption in some form or other. Send your check for whatever you can afford to subscribe to either the president, William S. Tyler, or the secretary, Dr. F. E. DuBois.

Every man and woman who takes any interest at all in the municipality's welfare will read with considerable interest the contributed editorial in next Saturday's issue. The author is a man experienced in the city's business and writes with authority. What he discusses and the views he expresses will carry great weight.

Deny yourself some little pleasure and send the money, which otherwise you would have spent on it, to Continental chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, with the request that your contribution be added to the fund being raised for a memorial at Washington Rock.

Before you go away for your summer vacation, don't fail to leave your name and change of address at the Daily Press office in order that the paper may follow you. If you do not read the Daily Press you do not get the local news.

What have you given to the Washington Rock memorial fund? It's a poor specimen of man that practises his religion only on Sunday and an equally weak creature that is patriotic only on the Fourth of July.

Lillian Russell has taken a plunge into the matrimonial seas just once more. It's been some months since Nat Goodwin has enjoyed his favorite pastime.

SOCIALISTS PLANNING A CO-OPERATIVE STORE

The date for the starting of a co-operative store system in Union county as advocated by the Socialists, will likely be decided at a meeting July 2, when a board of directors will be chosen. The proposition is in charge of the Co-operative Society, which held a meeting in the Socialist headquarters at Elizabeth. Twenty-two members were received and much enthusiasm was displayed in the project.

A number of plans were considered, and the purchase prices of several stores were submitted by their proprietors. No action was taken on them, however, and they probably will be finally acted upon at a future meeting. It was reported that the fund has been increased $100 within the last month, and there are now fully 200 shareholders.

The county committee of the Socialist party also convened Tuesday night, when steps were taken toward dividing Branch 3 into two divisions. This branch is now the largest in the State, and is consequently becoming unwieldy. One of the new divisions will be formed from the Fifth and Seventh wards, Elizabeth, and possibly a portion of another ward. It was declared that the continual increase in the Fifth ward makes it necessary for enlarging the organization of the society.

An excursion will be held to Bellewood Park, under the direction of the county committee, on August 18.

FIRE DELAYS R. R. TRAFFIC.

Elizabeth, June 13.—Engine No. 3 was called out yesterday to extinguish a fire on the Central Railroad bridge over Division street. Railroad workmen had endeavored to put out the blaze, but were compelled to call the firemen. Traffic was slightly delayed by the fire.

DISPLAY THE FLAG.

Tomorrow, Friday, June 14, will be Flag Day. Let it be observed in Plainfield in a manner fitting and proper. Let old Glory flutter from every staff and be displayed in windows.

The women's singles tennis tournament for the championship of the club will be played at the Plainfield Country Club, beginning Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

DRIVING ROD BREAKS; MANY TRAINS DELAYED

Elizabeth, June 13.—An eastbound express train of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was held up here for two hours and fifteen minutes yesterday by the breaking of a driving rod on the engine.

The accident happened during the rush hours and delayed many trains laden with commuters.

STRIKE LEADERS CONFER WITH HALL MANAGEMENT

There are prospects of some definite arrangement being arrived at today between the management of the Hall Printing Press Company, of Dunellen, and their men. Business Agent H. V. Reilly and J. J. Kepler, national vice president of the Machinists' Association, are in conference with Mr. Hall this afternoon.

Several of the strikers told a Daily Press reporter today that they felt confident of resuming work shortly, under the same conditions that prevail at Scott's.

Silence is still observed at Potter's and no inkling has been given as to what the attitude of the management will finally resolve itself into.

EARTHQUAKES.

Causes That Conspire to Rend the Earth's Crust Asunder.

Until recently all earthquake shocks were attributed to volcanic manifestations. But often the earth is agitated in regions where there are no volcanoes. Hence the belief has arisen that earthquakes may arise independently of volcanic action. Very often, again, when volcanoes are in eruption there are no earthquakes.

Subterranean cave-ins are often the cause of earthquakes. They are the consequences of the action of subterranean water. When water runs through limestone it carves out grottoes and terraces or galleries. When in its underground run it comes in contact with gypsum or rock salt it dissolves these substances, and thus vacuums are formed in the depths of the earth. When the water has worn the earth thin the earth gives way, and the subterranean cave-in shakes the regions above it. In well worked coal mines great hollows are made which produce similar results.

The layers forming the solid envelope of the earth are neither homogeneous nor regularly distributed. Limestone hits granite, and relatively recent rocks overlie ancient masses. Limestone and schist lie together like folded cloth. Layers of the same age are separated by abrupt gaps and breaks by the debris cast out on either side.

The crust of the earth has been compared to marquetry composed of many parts which must have been joined, broken and joined again many times. Its component parts are unstable; their movements are still in progress; they shift, and possibly their sudden shifting causes the upper crust to tremble.

The best evidence in favor of this explanation is that the great earthquakes have devastated countries where the geological layers show traces of cave-ins and slips. In Japan an earthquake raised the ground about twenty-one feet, and the rise ran for a distance of 112 kilometers. An earthquake in Alaska occurring in 1899 raised the coast for a long distance. Earthquakes are limited to two zones. One embraces Himalaya, Asia Minor, the coasts of the Adriatic, Italy, the Alps, the Pyrenees, Algeria, Andalusia and southern Portugal; the other zone comprises the two coasts of the Pacific ocean. The majority of earthquakes have been produced in the first zone.—Harper's Weekly.

Bartholdi's Egotism.

An old friend of Mme. Steinheil's husband was Bartholdi, the sculptor of the colossal "Liberty Enlightening the World." Although a man of keen intellect and much originality of thought, Bartholdi's egotism was as colossal as his statue. Once Mme. Steinheil met him at the "institut." He wore the green uniform and sword of a member, and his breast glittered with orders. "You see this little thing here?" he said. "There are but three Europeans who have the right to wear it—one emperor, one king and myself. I don't attach the slightest importance to it." Of the statue in New York harbor he said, "The Americans believe that it is Liberty that illuminates the world, but in reality it is my genius."—Bookman.

Scared and Knew It.

A soldier under his first fire was charging with the rest of his regiment up the heights of Vicksburg, but so scared he looked like a ghost. A comrade next to him was unafraid and even smiled at the torrents of grape shot that swept the ranks. The comrade, noticing his friend's plight, turned to him and said with a sneer:

"Coward!"

"Coward yourself," retorted the frightened soldier. "Old man, if you were one-tenth as scared as I am you'd have broken ranks and run long ago."—Kansas City Journal.

MANY FAILING TO TAKE ELECTION EXAMINATIONS

Trenton, June 13.—Civil service examinations for election officers under the Geran law have been conducted in thirteen counties and thus far only about one-half of those nominated by the county chairmen of the two parties have appeared to take the tests. The number of men nominated for the position this year is about 2,500. Several new election districts have been created and the total number now in the state is 1,801. As there are four election officers in each district, the total number of men required is 7,204.

The number of officers nominated last year was 11,835, the number who appeared for the tests was 6,573 and the number who passed and became eligible was 6,278. Last year, however, the reorganization of the election machinery from top to bottom under the Geran act made if necessary to appoint all four election officers in each district and this accounts ofr the large number of nominations. The law provides that one election officer of each party shall retire from office each year and hence only half the entire number needed will be appointed this year, except in the new districts, where all must be named.

Under the law, those who passed the tests last year and though certified by the Civil Service Commission to the county judge and the county boards of election, were not appointed to office, are still eligible. In all these cases where the eligible person requests it, the Civil Service Board will certify the names to the county judge and county election boards, together with the list of those who pass this year.

The counties in which the examinations have been completed are: Bergen, Essex, Burlington, Gloucester, Hudson, Hunterdon, Mercer, Morris, Passaic, Somerset Sussex, Union and Warren. The other counties will be covered during the next two weeks. The names of those who pass must be certified on or before August 20, and the appointments must be made on or before August 25.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

NEW BEETS.

SELECT beets that have fresh green leaves. Cut off the tops about two inches above the root. Wash, but do not break the skin. If they are boiled cook until tender, salting them a half hour before taking off the fire. Then rub off the skins. Slice large beets, quarter small ones. Season with salt, pepper and butter. When dressed beets are left after a meal they may be washed in water to remove the seasoning and kept until they are needed for salad or other dishes. The tops of summer beets may be cooked separately as greens and served like spinach.

A Vegetable Hash.

Beet Hash.—To make this take a cupful of potatoes, a cupful of beets, half a cupful of cabbage. Chop them together, season and warm in butter in a frying pan. Serve when they are browned, adding slices of cold boiled eggs.

Novel Pancakes.

Beet Fritters.—Boil a large beet until it is tender, then mash it fine in a mortar, add the yolks of four beaten eggs, two spoonfuls of flour and three spoonfuls of cream. Sweeten to taste. Grate in some nutmeg and the peel of half a lemon. Mix well and fry the fritters in butter. Serve hot.

Creamed Beets.—Cook the beets until tender. Remove the skin when they are taken out of the water and chop in small pieces. Add salt and pepper and a cupful of cream to four cupfuls of the chopped beets. Stir in some sugar, a little vinegar and several pieces of butter. Place the beets in a baking dish and bake in the oven for fifteen or twenty minutes.

A Nice Luncheon Dish.

Lyonnaise Beets.—Wash some beets, taking care not to break the skin. Put them on the fire and boil until tender in salted water. When done scrape and slice thin or cut into dice. Heat in a frying pan two tablespoonfuls of vinegar with one of butter, a small chopped onion, salt and pepper, and add the beets. Cook for ten minutes, stirring, that they may not scorch.

Cream of Beet Soup. — Take four bunches of beets, pare, grate and strain. Let them scald. Boil a pint of milk and add to it the hot beet juice. Stir in a saltspoonful of salt, a little cream, a tablespoonful of sifted flour and two of butter. Mix slowly into the soup. Stir until the soup is as thick as cream.

The seventeenth Child Welfare Conference of National Congress of Mothers is to be held in Boston in the spring of 1913. Invitations have been received from the Governor, mayor, superintendent of schools and from the Massachusetts branch of the National Congress and the invitations have been accepted. In May, 1911, the third International Congress on Child Welfare will be held in Washington, D. C. In 1915 invitations to meet in San Francisco and Portland, Oregon, have been already given and favorably considered.

These Child Welfare Conferences are epochs in this great movement which eventually should enlist every parent in its ranks. To give to every child his opportunity, to help parents, schools and States to know how best to serve the child, is the platform on which everyone may unite.

(Judge Lindsay on Education.)

The time will come when children will be allowed to whisper and do as they please in open-air spaces instead of school rooms, when geography for instance will be taught in a ten-acre field and a moving picture hall, and outside of the maps there will be no books at all. As we reach the mind more through the sense of touch and sight. The child will learn more in an hour than he learns now in five hours.

Interest is everything in a child's life. We shall appeal to interest. He plays harder than he works simply because he is interested in his play. He will work just as hard as he plays when he is interested in his work. The day will come when truancy will be a thing of the past. We pity the Chinese because they bind up the feet of their women. We should pity ourselves for binding up the minds of our children. We are worse than the Chinese. We feed children upon the same sort of facts, without their having any understanding of their relation to the problems of life. We pile into their lives artificial restraints. We denominate them through fear, threats, hate, violence, instead of patience, sympathy, kindness, interest and love. We are all to blame. The Chinese are unbinding the feet of their women. We are on the verge of a new day when we shall unbind the mind of childhood. The home and school must save the child; not courts. The best work of courts is to point out the needs of home and school. We must understand that big changes in our education scheme are just ahead. I do not pretend to say what they are, but I feel perfectly safe in predicting a few. The time will come when our present method of keeping children under ten years of age penned up in the stuffy, ill-ventilated rooms of our schoolhouses for three to five hours a day will be looked upon as we now look upon cruelty to animals. The time will come when fresh air and sunshine will be fed to children. We are actually taking it away from them now.—Child Welfare Magazine.

At the close of the Congress of Playground and Recreation Association of America, held in Cleveland last week, it was announced that Mayor Gaynor, of New York city; Controller Pendergast and the entire finance committee of the Board of Alderman and the five borough presidents, would be taken to Chicago to inspect the park and playground system there. The party will leave New York, June 18, in a special car. It is expected the journey will result in something adequate in the way of playgrounds for New York.

The New York Diet Kitchen Association, it was announced yesterday, has received a donation of $700 raised by Mrs. William Curtis Demorest, of No. 68 East Sixty-sixth street, to add to the fund for fighting the death rate among infants this summer.

Benjamin J. Horchem thinks that schools should keep open all the year round. He has worked out his idea so charmingly in his summer farm school near Dubuque, Io., that children agree with him. He thinks that we shall ultimately have all-the-year-round schools conducted on a plan altogether different from the present public school system. His idea is summed up in the following points:

"1. Schools to be in the suburbs of cities. Children to reach the schools by rapid transit.

"2. School to be in session the entire year; but only half the school days spent indoors. Schoolroom work to be chiefly done in winter and bad weather.

"3. Less desk work. More laboratory, shop and garden work. The active aspect of education, now chiefly seen in the kindergarten and agricultural and technical schools, to be maintained throughout the grades.

"4. Initiative to be taken by the children. All the leading trades, occupations and professions to be carried on under trained workers. The pupil will go to the schoolroom for theoretic instruction or knowledge.

"5. No written examinations. Work done speaks for itself. There is no more need of examinations in the schoolroom than in the business world."

Get the children to help make home pleasant. First enlarge your own outlook. Get a vision of what life is for your family, then of what it might be. Get rid of the idea that life consists of gaining a few more acres of land or an enlarged bank account. Of what use will they be if your children all go from you? And if they do stay with the home, they will be much better than any amount of money tied up so they cannot enjoy it. The home comfort will fit them to take their rightful place among other young people, and to enjoy the best things as they come to them.—Maude Goodwill, in January Farmer's Wife.

Another innovation in scientific charity has been put into practice by the United Hebrew Charities of New York. Under the supervision of Louis Stern, chairman of the Committee on Workrooms, and of Morris D. Waldman, the superintendent, the organization has taken over the building on the corner of Groome and Lewis streets, and made it into a factory where destitute and deserving women may obtain work at union wages, and where their children will be cared for in a specially fitted nursery during working hours. The women work from 9 in the morning until 5 at night, and their luncheon hour is spent with their children in the nursery. They are paid by the piece, and the fifty women employed there at present are said to average from $7 to $8 a week each.

NOSE BLEEDS FOR DAYS AFTER FALL FROM HORSE

Newton, June 13.—Falling from her horse while riding a week ago, Miss Helen R. Shaw, of Stanhope, secretary to County School Superintendent Ralph Decker, received injuries to her head which have caused persistent nosebleed. She is not in a critical condition.

Miss Shaw landed on the side of her head. Saturday morning her nose began to bleed. This continued intermittently until Monday, when the hemorrhage was stopped by plugs. These were removed Tuesday and the bleeding resumed. Although in a somewhat weakened condition, Miss Shaw is at her desk in the county school superintendent's office.

TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL PLANS ARE SUBMITTED

Morristown, June 13.—Jacob J. Vreeland presented the plans for the proposed county tuberculosis hospital to the hospital committee of the Board of Freeholders, and they were given further consideration yesterday. The plans call for an administration building of Georgian design, to be built of brick, the general dimensions of which are 36 by 75 feet. Connected wth the main building by corridors are two frame shacks with living house 20 by 40 feet, and sleeping shack 25 by 70 feet attached.

The administration building on the first floor contains a boardroom, laboratory, living-rooms for the warden and five rooms for patients. On the second story are five rooms for the warden and five for patients, and on the third floor three rooms for patients. All the floors are provided with bathrooms.

In the frame buildings are living-rooms twenty feet square, dining-rooms and sleeping accommodations opening toward the south. The corridors are inclined, porches are constructed on two floors of the main structure, and windows are so arranged that rolling chairs may easily be used for the comfort of the patients. It is thought that the plant can be built for about $25,000.

IN HANDS OF STEERING COM.

T. Richards, of Scotch Plains, spoke hopefully, but explained that a definite plan would have to be submitted to the citizens for a vote.

Each municipality favoring the plans, the motion by Councilman George S. Clay that the same be adopted was carried unanimously. The next formality was the selection of the committees from the municipalities to act as a "steering" committee to secure the drafting of plans to be presented to the State Board of Health.

DIPLOMAS FROM BISHOP

yearly such orders as the Sisters of Mercy were turning out classes of surpassing interest and ever increasing equipment for the work of life. "Time's noblest offspring is the last," he quoted, and enlarged upon the benefits one obtained through being born in this republic. These graduates had received an education that not one person in twenty thousand had received, and they should feel very thankful. The condition of the graduates he likened to the Biblical characters who had received five talents. Would they increase or neglect their opportunities? The harvest was ready but the laborers few. Regarding the ideals of life, he urged them to take up the task of correcting the grave errors of any community with which they might be associated; not only errors of morals, but of education and art. He deplored the modern tendency in music and art; in the former he said New York had now developed a tendency for ragtime, and in art admiration was now extended to paintings of bull dogs and cows in preference to the classic works of the old masters. Speaking of the ideals they should set before them in life he warned them against some of the pitfalls they should avoid. In urging them to carry out their mission in life, whatever it might be, he urged them not to be afraid or downcast, because many were against them, but to go right onward, and when they were in doubt or difficulty to confer with the good sisters who would help and comfort them.

After the recessional the graduates were overwhelmed with congratulations and limitless good wishes.

GREEN AND WHITE WEDDING FOR MISS LAURA POLHEMUS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Polhemus, of Millstone, was the scene of a pretty home wedding at 5 o'clock last evening, when their daughter, Laura May, was married to August Krulish, son of Mrs. M. Krulish, of Jersey City. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Floris Ferwerda, pastor of the Millstone church, under an arbor of June flowers and smilax. The color scheme was green and white and was carried out in the gowns of the bridal attendants.

The bride was dressed in an empire gown of white, embellished with shadow lace and silk fringe. Her tulle veil was caught up with orange blossoms. Little Miss Anna Stryker was the flower girl and was gowned in a white French lingerie frock and carried a basket of roses.

Mrs. William Krulish, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and was very attractive in a white princess gown over green silk and carried an arm bouquet of carnations. William Krulish, of Jersey City, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Harry Van Pelt and Peter Hageman, of Millstone. The wedding march was played by Miss Amy Schneider, a niece of the bridegroom.

The couple received many presents. After a collation was served they left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. Upon their return they will make their home on Comstock street, New Brunswick, where a furnished residence awaits them.

Guests were present at the wedding from Bound Brook, South Bound Brook, New Brunswick, Trenton, Jersey City, Philadelphia, New York, Somerville and Millstone.

The principal address will be delivered by Albert Barrett Meredith, deputy state superintendent of the public schools, and Dr. Henry M. Maxson, superintendent of the public schools will address the graduates, while William S. Tyler, of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas. The complete program follows:

LONG LIST OF CASES ON DISTRICT COURT CALENDAR

Fifty cases were listed for disposal in the District Court today before Judge Walter L. Hetfield. Of these twenty-one were disposed of and the rest adjourned until next week, when Judge Clark McK. Whitemore, of Elizabeth, will preside, Judge Hetfield occupying the Elizabeth District Court bench.

Judgment was given against "Tommy" Timbo in the suit of the Hudson County Tobacco Company for $86.81.

Daniel Cook, a scene painter, of Elizabeth, was awarded a verdict of $64.06 against Clinton A. Lloyd, an actor, who recently appeared at Proctor's.

Patrick F. Keene, of North avenue, was complainant in a suit against Andrew Cutland, of Garwood, brought to recover for the laying of a sewer. The case was practically heard last week and adjourned to allow Cutland to obtain counsel. He appeared this morning without counsel and offered no proof that the claim was not just. Judgment was therefore rendered for $45.62.

Judgment was awarded against Gustave A. Daniel, of Stony Hill, for $90.80, and in the following cases: Himmabaugh Bros., New York, against Max Cohen, Front street, $45.38; Josiah Partridge & Sons, New York, against Max Cohen, $47.13; Plainfield Feed Company against James Halpern, New York, $27.50, and Henry Nischwitz against same defendant, $73.27.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Yale and Princeton are fighting it out for the season's championship, at the National League Park in Brooklyn, today. The Yale boys won in New Haven by a score of 6 to 1, and Princeton turned the tables last Saturday at the annual commencement game, thanks largely to the strenuous efforts of Sam White, to the tune of 4 to 2. Today's game should be an interesting one.

Sam White, the Princeton star, plays his last amateur game today. He has signed a contract to join one of the big league teams after completing his college course, which he did this week.

The college sport followers will turn their attention to rowing after this week, when the baseball season winds up with the Yale-Harvard game. The intercollegiate regatta will be rowed this year on June 29, and most of the crews are at Poughkeepsie. Yesterday the Leland Stanford crew arrived, without a coach, and they are awaiting the arrival of their new English shell to begin training. This is the first time the California college has had a crew in Eastern races.

Newark is beginning to hit a better pace in the International League race, and may be heard from before the season is over. There is one thing about Joe McGinnity which makes him popular with the fans. He never lies down, no matter how poor a team he has, and the season is young enough yet for him to be with the leaders, or even in first place, when October rolls around.

Rube Marquard landed his thirteenth victory yesterday for the New York Giants. There seems to be some question as to whether he is entitled to the credit or not, but even if he is not "twelve straight" is not to be sneered at. The Rube pitched the first eight innings, and when he went out of the box New York had the little end of the score, 2 to 1, with the Chicago Cubs on top. In New York's half of the eighth, they scored two runs, giving them the game 3 to 2, and those two runs were scored before Crandall, who pitched the ninth inning, had been put in the box. Question—Does or does not Rube get the credit? It looks to us as if he did.

A story appeared yesterday that the Adams brothers, Platt and Ben, who are well known as having played with the local Y. M. C. A. baseball team, would not go to the Olympic games because they could not get away from business. This story caused sorrow in the ranks of the American team supporters, for Platt was looked to as a competitor in nine events. Yesterday the two boys got busy, and arranged their affairs so that they can go after all, and they will be with the Americans when they sail abroad.

Baseball fans in Plainfield are beginning to think about Saturday's games again. In the Manufacturers' League the Commercials, who have five wins to their credit and no defeats, will go up against the Public Service men, who have won three and lost two, and who now stand third. R. G. E., now second, with three wins and a loss, plays the Banks, who are in the cellar, and the other game will be between Spicer and the Saurer Motor Works team.

In the Sunday-school League Monroe Avenue plays South Plainfield, Temple and Park Avenue Baptists will clash and the First Baptists will tackle Hope Chapel.

The First Baptist-Hope Chapel game should be a good one, for these teams stand first and second in the league, and have played good ball up to date, although with only two games past it is hard to judge strength.

Manager Dorflinger's stars, having trimmed the United States League team from Washington last Saturday, will tackle the strong Bound Brook team, and a second game at the Oval will be between the West Ends and Westfield Cubs.

Brooklyn still hangs on to the second place—from the bottom in the National League. That is one better than they usually do.

Colonel William Libbey, best known hereabouts because he ran for Congress two years ago in the Fourth district, and well known to National Guardsmen who get to Sea Girt in the summer time, will go to the Olympic games, with the American rifle team. He will be one of the judges of rifle shooting at the matches. Colonel Libbey is assistant inspector general of rifle practice in New Jersey, and is also a member of Governor Wilson's military staff.

Jack Johnson is so confident that he is going to trim Jim Flynn when they have their little fistic encounter at Las Vegas, New Mexico, on the Fourth of July, that he yesterday offered to put up a certified check for $16,000, against $8,000 on himself. Jack was equally confident before he tackled Jeffries two years ago, and this time the people are more likely to believe that he will win than they did then. He will have trouble placing that $16,000, or all signs fail.

ANOTHER DOUBLE BILL AT OVAL NEXT SATURDAY

There will be another doubleheader at Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon, and both games should furnish the fans with good sport. At 2 o'clock the West End A. C. will play the Westfield "Cubs" one of the best aggregations along the line of the New Jersey Central. Each team will have its strongest lineup. At 3:45 o'clock the Plainfield team will clash with Bound Brook. When these teams met recently, Plainfield was deefated by a small score. Manager Dorflinger is positive that his team will turn the trick on Saturday.

Frederickson and Nelson will be in the points for Plainfield and Ortleib will do the twirling for Bound Brook. Both pitchers are in the best of condition and can be expected to do their best. Langdon, formerly of the New England League, will umpire, having been engaged to succeed Dalley, who resigned this week. Dalley's work in the past has been very satisfactory on the whole, but owing to a considerable amount of criticism in certain quarters, he decided to give up the position.

ADAMS BROTHERS TO GO TO SWEDEN

Newarkers Reconsider Determination Not to Compete in Olympic Games.

It was announced yesterday afternoon that Platt Adams and his brother Ben, the two Newark boys who, after being selected as members of the American Olympic team, announced that, because of business engagements, they could not take the trip to Sweden, would go after all. They are both members of the New York Athletic Club and have played on the local Y. M. C. A. baseball team.

The announcement of the famous athletic brothers to make the trip was arrived at only after several strenuous hours of winding up their business arrangements. At the end they declared they would be able to make the trip with the American team. The A. A. U. officials and thousands of the team's supporters were delighted that the New York A. C. members saw their way clear to represent the United States at the world's games. Platt Adams competed in the tryouts at Harvard last Saturday and was selected by the committee on Monday to enter nine events, in several of which he was counted a sure point winner. His brother, while not so prominent, was carded for several events.

The Athletic Union was thrown into gloom when the Adamses announced they would be unable to accompany the team abroad because of business reasons. Pressure was brought to bear on the brothers yesterday, with the result that they will be on board the Finland tomorrow and will do their best at Stockholm to uphold the honor of Uncle Sam.

KENNEL CLUB'S SMOKER HAS A FANCY APPELATION

The Plainfield Kennel Club will hold a "Fumigator" at Truell Hall, Wednesday night, June 19, for the members and friends. The affair will be held in the big dining room. "Judging" will begin at 9 o'clock.

This will be a "get-together" affair betwixt dog shows and there is promise of a large attendance. The entertainment will partake of the nature of a smoker, with pipes, tobacco, refreshments and vaudeville, but as there are "ladies' tickets" and many have signified their intention of being present, the committee decided on the unique name of "Fumigator," and there is apparently lots of fun in store for all who attend.

The committee in charge comprises Messrs. Mackenzie, Hobbie and Wilnerding.

JACK MARTIN RETURNS.

Jack Martin, the Yankee shortstop, who was spiked by Weaver in a game between the Yankees and White Sox, a few days ago in Chicago, arrived home, last night. He expects to join his team in New York on June 19, when the Bostons will be entertained at the Hilltop. The injury to Martin's toe is mending rapidly and he says he will be all right by the first of the week.

DARING YEGGMEN.

Ways of the Most Desperate and Cunning of Burglars.

BLOWING OPEN A BANK SAFE.

Nitroglycerin Is the Explosive Used and Wet Blankets Help to Deaden the Sound—Making the "Soup" Is a Perilous Part of the Business.

Of all the thieves and crooks that operate in the country the yeggman, or bank burglar, is the most cunning and systematic and in the majority of cases the most desperate. Some people have an idea that a common tramp housebreaker is a yeggman, but that is far from the truth. In nine cases out of ten yeggmen are intelligent, educated men. There is a bond between them as strong as that which unites any brotherhood or union in the country.

There are not more than fifty good yeggs in the United States. To be successful the yegg must understand every little detail of the work, because a slip usually means a life. When a man becomes too old or is disabled or for any other cause cannot remain an active member of his gang he then instructs the younger and less experienced members. In all the time that I have been connected with bank investigations, says a yegg hunter in the New York Sun, I have never known of a case in which one yeggman double crossed another, and I don't think that can be said of any other branch of thiefdom. I will explain some of the methods used by the yeggs, also some used by the investigators.

Four or five men usually make up a gang, and these gangs are scattered over the whole country, each having its own territory. For instance, one gang had the territory between Albany and Boston on the Boston and Albany road. It that case the members would be scattered out along the road between Boston and Albany looking for a bank or postoffice which may be easily blown. It sometimes takes them six months or even a year to locate the job and get everything in readiness for the "touch off," as they call it. One successful job with these men equals a great many small hauls that other thieves make.

When the job is spotted the gang is called together, and every detail is gone over and the plans are mapped out. Each member looks over the bank, and the discussion of methods sometimes lasts a week. I once knew of a gang operating in Indiana who were in doubt about a job and who sought advice from a gang in Maine. That probably took three or four weeks. I mention this to show that they absolutely will not "turn a trick" if there is the least doubt about its success.

After the job is located and their plans are settled the next thing they do is to get the tools and make their preparations. Common yellow soap, fuse, caps and nitroglycerin are needed. The soap, fuse and caps are easily obtained at any hardware or grocery, but the nitroglycerin is not so easy to get. If no other method is available it must be taken out of dynamite sticks, and that is almost an art in itself, being a very dangerous process.

For an ordinary shot they take five five-pound sticks of dynamite to make enough nitroglycerin, or "soup," as they call it, for the job. The utensils consist of two lard cans and a quart whisky bottle. The bottom is knocked out of one of the lard cans and holes made all around the sides. A charcoal fire is then built and the lard can is set on it. Then the other can is filled half full of water and placed on the first. The water is allowed to become lukewarm, and then the sticks of dynamite are placed in the water. The whole affair stands about six hours.

After that time the water is allowed to cool and is then strained through a piece of cheesecloth, after which it is again allowed to stand. In a short time the nitroglycerin rises to the surface and is skimmed off and placed in the bottle. The yeggs call this process "making soup." Several times it has resulted seriously, and in one instance, when it blew the operator's arm off, it led to the capture of two of the best men in what was known as the E. and T. H. gang.

It sometimes takes as many as three shots to blow a safe. Four holes are drilled around the combination knob and the nitroglycerin is poured in the holes, soap funnels being used. A dynamite cap and fuse are then attached, wet blankets are thrown over the safe, and the shot is touched off. The men inside throw themselves face downward on the floor.

After the smoke has cleared the safe is sometimes found ready to be rifled. Often there is a strong box which the first shot does not harm. In that case a second and sometimes a third shot must be fired off in the same manner as the first.

In case the citizens hear the explosion the men who are watching outside give the inside men the alarm and endeavor to hold the town at bay, giving their inside pals a chance for a clean getaway with the plunder.

A Man Closed a Gate and Napoleon Lost at Waterloo.

His name was Macdonnel, and altho' Napoleon hurled 13,000 men at his gate the fire from the troops inside the castle kept Napoleon out. Had he won that point, Blucher and Wellington and the combined armies, would have lost. It is easy for little things to affect the larger ones.

Mark Twain's Question.

Mark Twain when visiting Melbourne was the guest of the mayor on a picnic trip down the river Yarra, a stream renowned for its crookedness and for the odor from its banks. On account of the many turns in the river numerous signs reading "Dead Slow" are placed at the turnings to warn ship captains to slacken speed, and these attracted Twain's attention. Sniffing cautiously at the tainted breeze that came from the slimy banks, he turned to his host.

"Mr. Mayor," he asked, "what are these dead slows that smell so strong?"

Radium's Wonderful Power.

Suppose that the energy of a ton of radium could be utilized in thirty years, instead of being evolved at its invariable slow rate of 1,760 years for half disintegration, it would suffice to propel a ship of 15,000 tons, with engines of 15,000 horsepower, at the rate of fifteen knots an hour for thirty years—practically the lifetime of the ship. To do this actually requires 1,500,000 tons of coal.—Sir William Ramsay.

Young Wife (sobbing)—George treated me awful mean. He—he promised to give me a machine for my birthday, and it—it—came home today. Her Mother—Then what are you crying about? Young Wife—It's a—it's a washing machine.—Baltimore American.

Getting Square.

The Doctor—Hark! Whence those cries of agony? The Lawyer—They come from the office of the dentist. Last week the chiropodist operated on the dentist, agreeing to take his bill out in trade, and now the dentist is taking it out.—Satire.

Have you noticed what a tonic a good laugh is? The next time you are angry instead of frowning make yourself smile, then laugh. You'll feel better.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

The coolest crook and the most blase lover in the whole world are to be found in the cast of "Officer 666" at the Gaiety theatre. The former calmly assumes the name and occupies the house of an absent millionaire, and nonchalantly proceeds to rifle the residence of its valuable paintings, while the latter, who being mistaken by the police for the picture thief they are trailing, gets his wrists ornamented with a pair of steel handcuffs and, thus manacled, proposes and is accepted by the divinity upon whom his choice has fallen. "Officer 666" is an unusual play. It makes you laugh. It keeps you guessing while it administers some delightful surprises in the way of unexpected thrills that are particularly pleasant to receive and agreeable to recall.

Miss Maud Lambert, recently featured with Eddie Foy, in the success "Over the River," and Ernest Ball, composer of "Love Me and the World is Mine," "In the Garden of My Heart," and many other hits, will make their vaudeville debut at B. F. Keith's Union Square theatre next week, contributing a new skit, in which they introduce a series of musical creations.

MARTINE TO FIGHT FOR ANTI-INJUNCTION BILL

Washington, June 13.—Delay on the part of the judiciary committee in acting on the Clayton anti-injunction bill is irritating Senator Martine, and he is awaiting an opportune moment to move that the committee be relieved of consideration of the measure.

The disposition of the Republican majority to let the bill slumber is being seconded by some of the Democratic members of the Senate, and it is quite likely that Martine will have a stiff fight on his hands when he strikes.

He thinks that the Democratic minority should be solidly in favor of the measure, not only because it comes from a Democratic House but also because the Denver platform of four years ago was explicit in declaring against "government by injunction."

Ready For the Republican National Convention

Chicago's Great Coliseum Will Seat More Than 11,000 Persons.

Force of 800 Attendants Provided For — Committee Has Spent $40,000.

FOR the third time since its erection thirteen years ago the doors of the coliseum will be thrown open June 18 for the accommodation of a Republican national convention. In 1904 the Republicans nominated Colonel Theodore Roosevelt for president in this building, and in 1908 under the same roof William H. Taft was chosen as the party's standard bearer.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS WILLIAM F. STONE.

The coliseum is on Wabash avenue, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, less than a mile from the center of Chicago's retail shopping and hotel district, and is accessible from all parts of the city by elevated roads and surface lines. The coliseum is 305 feet long, 170 feet wide and 70 feet in height, built of stone, brick, steel and concrete, and is fireproof.

It stands on the site of the old Libby prison, which was shipped to Chicago from Richmond, Va., in sections and rebuilt the year of the World's fair and used to exhibit a valuable collection of civil war relics. It is of modern Romanesque combined with the English castellated type of architecture and cost $800,000. It has been the scene of many notable assemblages. It has eleven large exits and can be emptied in five minutes in an emergency.

The subcommittee on arrangements of the Republican national committee, under the direction of Colonel Harry S. New, has expended $40,000 preparing the building for this year's national convention of the Republican party. The building has 11,188 seats, of which 7,988 are on the main floor and 3,200 in the balcony.

The speakers' platform is built against the south wall of the structure and extends across the entire width of the building. It is seventy-five feet deep and contains 1,932 seats, which will be occupied by the chairman, officers of the convention, members of the national committee and distinguished guests.

VICTOR ROSEWATER, RETIRING CHAIRMAN OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The seats back of the chairman's table are slightly elevated. Directly beneath the chairman's table is a space for four noiseless telegraph instruments and their operators, by which news of the convention's proceedings will be flashed to the world. On both sides and extending in a half circle around the front of the platform are seats and tables for 400 working newspaper men and correspondents from all parts of the country.

Arranged by States.

Directly in front of these are the seats for the 1,078 delegates, arranged by states. This space is inclosed by a railing and closely guarded by a large force of sergeants-at-arms. Back of this are the seats for the 1,078 alternates, inclosed by a railing. On both sides and in the rear of the space occupied by the delegates and alternates are 3,500 elevated seats for visitors.

At the north end of the building a special band stand has been erected. In the balcony, which extends around the four walls of the building, there are 3,200 seats for visitors.

To avoid confusion in seating the crowd each entrance has been placarded showing the sections for which it will be used, and each ticket will bear the letter of the entrance for which it is intended. By this plan delegates and visitors will enter the door nearest the seats assigned them.

The platform, aisles and all open spaces have been covered with matting to insure the maximum of quiet while the convention is in session. Five hundred public telephones and a large number of telegraph instruments have been installed in various parts of the building for the accommodation of delegates and the public.

Eight Hundred Assistants.

Architect Arthur G. Brown has arranged the seats in such a manner that the chairman's platform may be seen from every section of the large hall. Sergeant-at-arms William F. Stone will be assisted by a force of 800 deputy sergeants-at-arms, doorkeepers, ushers and attendants. A special telephone system will enable Sergeant-at-arms Stone from his desk on the platform immediately to communicate with his assistants in any part of the hall.

Colonel Stone also was sergeant-at-arms of the Republican national conventions of 1904 and 1908. He is collector of customs at Baltimore.

In the two story annex adjoining the main building on the south are the offices of the Republican national committee, private rooms for the use of the chairman, secretaries and sergeant-at-arms, quarters for the committees on permanent organization, credentials and resolutions and a fully equipped postoffice.

HARRY S. NEW, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS.

In addition to this, there are rooms for the press, where scores of private telegraph wires have been installed. On the second floor there is a fully equipped emergency hospital in charge of a corps of physicians and Red Cross nurses. There are numerous retiring rooms for men and women in the annex.

In the basement of the main building there is a lunch counter with several thousand seats. The building will be elaborately decorated in the national colors. The exterior of the structure will be profusely draped with red, white and blue bunting surmounted by hundreds of large American flags.

Interior Decorations.

Practically every foot of available space of the interior will be draped with bunting and flags. Over the speakers' platform there will be a fifty foot president's flag flanked by two large American flags. The space on both sides of this centerpiece will be heavily draped with festoons of bunting and batteries of small flags and shields.

The walls of the building will be draped with bunting and flags. The rail of the balcony also will be draped with festoons of bunting with small flags, shields and wreaths at every steel arch. The large band stand at the north end of the building will be elaborately draped with flags, bunting and wreaths.

Colonel New's position as chairman of the committee on arrangements has been perhaps more trying than that of any previous occupant of that post. Because of the added interest taken in this year's convention, due to the fact that there was a contest for the presidential nomination, the demand for seats has been extraordinary.

Colonel New had to refuse a large number of requests for admission tickets for the reason, as he explained, that it simply was impossible to grant them. In this connection he has come in for some severe criticism from persons who declared that they were being discriminated against.

T. R., IN RAGE, HAS NEW STATEMENT

Calls National Committeemen "Party Destroyers."

"REAL BOLTERS," HE SAYS

Taft Gets Forty More Votes, and It Looks as if He Will Have Thirty-six More Than Are Necessary For Nomination.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 13.—Colonel Roosevelt after hearing by special wire of the action of the loss of additional delegates at the hands of the national committee in Chicago evinced great indignation. He was particularly incensed at the loss of two delegates from California. He refused to comment on Senator Flinn's ultimatum threatening that presidential electors from Roosevelt states would refuse to vote for Taft, even if the convention nominated him.

Judge Ben Lindsey of Colorado was the most important visitor. The statement suggesting a woman's suffrage plank in the national platform, made after the judge's visit, Mr. Roosevelt would not amplify. "I favor such a plank," was all he cared to say.

Mr. Roosevelt's latest statement in part is as follows:

In Arizona Mr. Taft's national committeemen acted with great frankness on their view that the intrusion of the people into politics is an unwarranted impertinence calling for rebuke by the national committee. The national committee, acting on Mr. Taft's theory that this ought to be a government by the people, treated the fact that the voters had themselves been given the right to say who their delegates should be as a reason for refusing to seat the delegates elected by the voters. I call special attention to the fact that the six Roosevelt delegates from Arizona are excluded from the national committee because they represent the people from Arizona and the six Taft delegates are admitted because they do not.

In the Eleventh district of Kentucky the theft of the delegates was perhaps more flagrant than elsewhere. The Taft men of the national committee first voted down seating the Roosevelt delegates by 33 to 19. Immediately afterward they, on the motion of Mr. Vorys, seated one Taft and one Roosevelt man. This decision was on its face preposterous. It was a frank admission that the Taft members of the national committee, not being quite willing to steal two men, were willing to and did actually steal one.

California Action "Flagrant."

In California the action of the national committee was perhaps not morally worse than it has hitherto been, but it was just a little more flagrant. The legislature of California decided that in California, as in Oregon, South Dakota and North Dakota, the delegates should be all elected at large. All parties and all factions acquiesced in the law, and the supporters of the three Republican candidates for president made a campaign throughout the state. Mr. Taft sent a special letter to California which showed his entire acquiescence in the law. There were no candidates in the district at all, and until after the primary was held there was not a suggestion made about the district delegates. The Taft members of the national committee now seated two Taft men, saying they came from the Fourth district. As a matter of fact, fourteen precincts in the Fourth district overlap the Fifth district, and no man on earth can tell what the vote in the Fourth district was.

After the primary every decent man in California acquiesced, but a lieutenant of Mr. Patrick Calhoun, the man whom Mr. Heney indicted, has made the contest, and the national committee has actually seated two Taft-Calhoun delegates from California, although there were no district candidates and although no human being can say what the vote was in the district which these men claim. Governor Johnson has rightly said that it is an insult to the state of California to listen to Calhoun's representative in such a case as this, and he refused to appear before the national committee.

I have before me the list of the thirty-seven Taft national committeemen who have presented Mr. Taft with two delegates stolen from the people of California by the national committeemen at the request of the henchmen of Mr. Patrick Calhoun. The list offers interesting reading, and it is curious to see Mr. Brooker of Connecticut and Mr. Crane of Massachusetts and Mr. Nagel, Mr. Taft's personal representative from Missouri, following behind Mr. Penrose, Mr. Franklin Murphy, Mr. Powell Clayton, Mr. Mulvane of Kansas and Mr. Stevenson of Colorado.

Trying to Wreck Party.

I ask that the decent voters of the country read Judge Ben Lindsey's book on the "Beast and the Jungle," study what he has said about Mr. Stevenson and they will appreciate the full significance of the action of Messrs. Crane, Brooker and company in backing up Mr. Stevenson. These men, who are endeavoring to wreck the Republican party by trying to pack the national convention with men not elected to it as delegates, are men just repudiated by the Republicans of their own states. It is they who are now irregular. It is they who are now profoundly disloyal both to the Republican party and the cause of good citizenship.

They are bolting from the Republican party at this moment. Every decent Republican must be loyal to the Republicans of California, who by 77,000 majority elect their delegates, and they can only be loyal to the Republican party by repudiating the action of the thirty-seven members of the national committee who by their votes in the matter have shown their profound and abiding disloyalty to the party which in theory represent and which in practice they have betrayed. I do not for one moment believe that the convention will ratify this action by the national committee, for to do so would be to betray the cause of the people, to be false to the principles of good citizenship and American democracy and wreck the American party.

Analysis of Situation.

Chicago, June 13.—An analysis of the situation today, four days before the first session of the Republican national convention, can be simply and directly portrayed. The national committee will finish its consideration of the contests late Saturday night. There is no reason to believe that the verdict which has been given in 99 per cent of the contests, in which the Roosevelt national committeemen have joined, will be different when all of the contests have been decided. By Saturday night, therefore, President Taft under these circumstances will have 576 delegates, or thirty-six more than will be required for his renomination.

The Roosevelt managers, with William Flinn of Pittsburgh as the chief executive, began the efforts to offset the foregoing facts which confronted them most emphatically. Mr. Flinn's telegram to bunches of Roosevelt delegates, instructing them to be on the battlefield, met with enthusiastic response. These bunches of Roosevelt delegates come from many states.

They came ahead of their fellows for the purpose of co-operating with Mr. Flinn and Senator Dixon in their efforts to impress upon Taft delegates the chief argument advanced by Colonel Roosevelt's campaigners—that President Taft's renomination would not only bring defeat to Taft, but would result in defeat for all Republican state tickets and would also bring defeat to candidates for all local offices and would leave the house of representatives in the hands of Democrats by another overwhelming majority. These arguments are to be used from this time in the effort to divert from President Taft enough delegates to defeat his renomination and to accomplish the nomination of ex-President Roosevelt.

Taft Gets Forty More Votes.

Chicago, June 13.—The Republican national committee disposed of the contests in Arizona, California, Louisiana, Michigan and part of Mississippi.

As a result of the committee's action all of the contests were decided in favor of the Taft delegates to the number of forty.

Up to date 141 delegates have been awarded to President Taft on this testimony and one to Colonel Roosevelt.

The contests decided were the six delegates at large from the state of Arizona, which is the full vote of that state; the two delegates in the Fourth California congress district, the six delegates at large, and the Fourteen congress district delegates in Louisiana; the six delegates at large in Michigan, and the four delegates at large in Mississippi, and the First district delegates in that state.

"TAFT SURE"—WANAMAKER."

Says That He Will Be Renominated and Re-elected.

Paris, June 13.—John Wanamaker, before leaving the tender at Cherbourg, where he is to board the Kaiser Wilhelm III., speaking of the outlook at Chicago, said:

"My belief is that Taft is sure to be nominated, and he will be elected by the people because they know the square deal with him is something more than talk. If Republican insurgency is insane enough to talk of Lincoln and become splitters and destroyers of Lincoln's legacies they will go down with the wreck without saving themselves or the women and children.

"I hope to arrive in New York on the 18th and will go direct to Chicago on a special train if need be if I can be of any use there. I was very much disappointed at the France not starting on June 8, as scheduled, but her seamen, stokers and cooks were called down the gang planks by mob meetings as the whistles blew to let the ship go."

TRIPLETS FOR SMALL MOTHER

Pittsburgh, June 13.—Mrs. H. E. McFarland, who tips the scales at seventy-five pounds, is the mother of three baby boys, each weighing five pounds.

YOU MANUFACTURE PRODUCTS WE MANUFACTURE POWER

It is not too much to say that there is no branch of the manufacturing business in which there is so much waste as in the generation, distribution and application of power.

The friction loss on a belt and shaft-driven factory is seldom less than twenty per cent, and in many cases is as high as fifty per cent of the total load.

Practically all of this loss can be avoided by using direct connected motor drive with Central Station Electric Power.

Actual tests have demonstrated this to be a fact. We can cite the case of a factory which had a 50 H. P. steam engine loaded to capacity which was replaced by 35 H. P. in motors, with one motor only partially loaded. The motors did the work just as satisfactorily, if not more so than the steam plant, and the cost for current was $65 per month. One item alone of the cost of steam plant was $75 a month for an engineer, besides which the firm had to pay for coal, oil, water and repairs.

Making power and distributing it is part of our business. We can make power and sell it to you cheaper than you can make it yourself.

Let our engineers give you definite facts about your own power problem, then judge for yourself.

You can get the information, without obligating yourself in any way, by writing or telephoning to

REGATTA AT HOPATCONG WILL BE HELD JULY 22

Lake Hopatcong, June 13.—The Lake Hopatcong Yacht Club has designated Saturday, July 22, as the opening date of the regatta. Races will be held each Saturday afternoon until Labor Day. Already preparations are being made by owners of power boats to capture some of the events. Several new racers have been purchased and are being kept under cover awaiting the opening day. It was decided by the club members, who met in their clubhouse on Bertrand Island, to alternate the races with the power and sailboats, each taking an afternoon.

Anglers report the finny tribe to be biting in lively fashion. Several large catches were made Sunday by some of the excursionists and yesterday cottagers and campers reported excellent luck. Those being taken are not particularly large.

The high winds Sunday made landing at the docks difficult for the boats.

The number of week-end guests along the eastern shore was not as large as usual, owing to the cool weather.

WILL SPEND $7,500 FOR FAR HILLS SCHOOL LOT

Bernardsville, June 13.—At the meeting of the Board of Education it was decided to purchase the plot at Far Hills, owned by Grant B. Schley, for $7,500, and on which to build a new school buldng, at a cost not to exceed $17,500. It was also decided to install heating, ventilating and toilet systems in the Basking Ridge School at a cost of $3,500 and to purchase and install similar systems in the Liberty Corner School, at a cost of $1,500.

The teachers committee recommended and engaged Miss Mathewson as teacher for the kindergarten in the Basking Ridge School at a salary of $525. Miss Neill was engaged for the fifth and sixth grades in the Basking Ridge School at a salary of $575. Miss Neill succeeds Miss Lily Brindley, who resigned to take a position at the Madison School. Miss Margaret Sampson was re-engaged for the Far Hills School at a salary of $600. Miss Emma Martinz was transferred from the West Millington School to the Liberty Corner School. It is optional with Miss Marion Allen to retain her present position at the Mine Brook School or to accept a position at the Far Hills School.

A course of commercial training at the Bernardsville School will be introduced next term. The disposition in the case of Raymond Fleming, a truant, was placed in the hands of the committee on discipline, Charles L. Roberts and Reune B. Runyon, with power to act. A large number of bills were ordered paid.

JERSEY SENATORS AND GENERAL WOOD'S FATE

Washington, June 13.—Senator Martine has gone to the rescue of General Wood and has served notice that in the Senate he will move for the reconsideration of the army appropriation bill, by which Wood is legislated out as chief of staff after March 4 next.

The primary purpose of the Senator in seeking to have the bill called back is to obtain a fuller discussion. He stated that, while he voted for the measure, he believes it is such important legislation that there should be more time for considering the bill on the floor.

"I don't say that I am going to change my vote on the bill," said Mr. Martine. "I may and I may not. I want to hear more about each side of the case concerning General Wood and then we will be in a better position to vote. I have received a number of letters from New Jersey and from other places asking me to have the matter reconsidered and I think that in view of its importance and in view of the slender margin by which the bill was passed—27 to 24—the Senate can afford to take more time in talking the question over."

Friends of General Wood have been hard at work in rounding up support for the general among the Senators and are counting on getting the support of Senator Briggs who was not in town when the bill was passed. It was declared this morning they have assurances that there will be enough votes on the second call to defeat the bill and send it back to the conference committee for further amendment.

TO KEEP CHURCH OUT OF POLITICS

Philadelphia Clergyman Asks Ministers' Assn. to Organize Branch of New Order.

GUARDIANS OF LIBERTY

Order Said to be Anti-Papist, But Member of Association Says It is Not Aimed at Catholics Particularly.

Rev. Dr. Barnett, a clergyman of Philadelphia, in company with Percy S. Brown, of East Seventh street, appeared before the Plainfield Ministers' Association at its quarterly meeting in the Y. M. C. A., yesterday afternoon for the purpose of enlisting the interest and support of the members in the new patriotic organization known as The Guardians of Liberty. Major-General Nelson A. Miles is one of the founders of the organization which is now rapidly spreading in every state in the Union.

The Guardians of Liberty has been organized to oppose the alleged interference of the Roman Catholic church in political matters in this country. The members allege that the Catholics are doing all in their power to gain control of affairs of state and nation and the new organization is striving to prevent them from accomplishing the purpose.

Mr. Brown, who has become interested in the movement, brought Dr. Barnett here and he introduced him at the meeting of the ministers. The latter explained in detail the objects of The Guardians of Liberty and told of numerous incidents, which in his opinion justified its existence. The ministers seemed to be favorably impressed. It was the desire of Dr. Barnett that a public meeting be held in this city, but it was finally decided to postpone action at this time. The matter will probably be taken up in the near future. It was stated by Dr. Barnett yesterday that the organization has among its members many military and naval men and that it has the support of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics.

One of the members of the association in discussing the matter after the meeting, said that the organization is not considered anti-Romanistic, that Catholics are eligible to membership if they will subscribe to the principles which have for their object the separation of church and state. He said that the members of the organization believe in the square deal for Catholics as well as Protestants, but they did not want either to use the church for political purposes.

HAMPTON SINGERS WILL ENCAMP HERE

Company From Famous Institute Will Set up Tent Village—Concert Tuesday.

A company of 26 negroes and Indians, tradesmen and students from Hampton, Virginia, will march through Plainfield next Monday afternoon out towards the Country Club, where they will rapidly set their ten brown tents and at the call of the bugle, make camp in military fashion.

This is the body of Hampton singers which is traveling with its tents through the North, in the interest of the pioneer Industrial Institution of Virginia. On Tuesday, the camp at Fairmount and Woodland avenues will be open to inspection through the day.

Tuesday evening at 8:15 the chorus will sing the plantation melodies. Indians from the Chippewa and Cherokee tribes will sing their ceremonial songs and give the tribal dances of their people. Another study in folk lore, which has fascinted large audiences in the open air at Hartford, New Haven and Greenwich, will be the songs and savage spear dance of the young Zulu Prince, who will later tell of how he came from Africa to Hampton and of his plans to return with his Hampton trade and training.

There will be a series of scenes from the life of the Southern negro, depicting the long struggle up from slavery and interpreting by the stirring melody of the old plantation songs.

A committee of prominent Plainfield men and women have interested themselves in this open air festival and a large number of invitations have been issued. But for the general public, there will be a sale of seats at Armstrong's, Randolph's, Hodge's, Hall's drug stores and at Estil's stationery stores.

Besides the scenic and musical interest of the gathering, which is unique, there will be brief addresses, leaders in Hampton's type of education. Dr. H. B. Frissell, the head of Hampton Institute, will give a brief scope. Major Robt. R. Morton, the scope. Major Robt. R. Moton, the well-known negro speaker, for some years, the commandant of Hampton Institute will also address the meeting.

The camp will be set in Plainfield from Monday evening until Wednesday night, and visitors will be welcome on late mornings and afternoons.

NEXT STEPS IN GARBAGE AND SEWAGE PROJECTS

The steering committee appointed Wednesday night to further consider sewage disposal plans for Plainfield, North Plainfield, Dunellen, Scotch Plains and Fanwood, will meet Tuesday night, June 18, at which time a general resolution will be offered for adoption. This resolution will include a provision which will authorize the drafting of plans and securing of official estimates for building the sewage disposal works, as well as laying the trunk line from the point of juncture to the Darling farm, the proposed site for the works.

The Plainfield Council will hold an adjourned meeting Monday night to receive bids for the proposed plan to dispose of ashes and garbage through a municipal system. It is understood that Councilman George S. Clay, who has the matter in charge, has received one or two bids which look favorable. He will present them Monday night. The Council will then adjourn to Friday night, June 21, to take further action on the sewage matter.

HIS ALMA MATER CONFERS M. A. ON SAMUEL B. HOWE

Samuel B. Howe, Jr., of the Plainfield High School faculty, has received the degree of master of arts from Union College, the honor being conferred at the annual commencement exercises held this week. Mr. Howe, who is a graduate of Union, attended the exercises returning to Plainfield yesterday.

S. B. Howe.

Mr. Howe won his degree through a book on "Modern History," which he published during the past year. The work is said to be a standard one and has been favorably commented upon by many leading educators throughout the country.

REV. AND MRS. M'KELVEY GIVE CLOSE "AT HOME"

Rev. and Mrs. J. O. McKelvey gave their last "at home" for the season at Warren chapel last night. The affair was an informal one, the whole evening being devoted to sociability. Refreshments were served by a committee comprising Mrs. John Higgins, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. George M. Hoagland, Mrs. John Johnson and Mrs. Andrew J. Stiglitz.

The "at homes," held regularly throughout the past season, have had a tendency to bring the members of the chapel in closer touch with the work and thus be of more help to the pastor and his wife.

It was during the war of 1812, the centenary of whose beginning will be celebrated on June 18, that "The Star Spangled Banner" was written. The British had already sacked and burned the government buildings in Washington and on their return had attempted to take Baltimore, in which they were defeated. Francis Scott Key was aboard a ship in the Chesapeake during the bombardment. On seeing the American flag still afloat in the morning he wrote the song. Several claims have been made as to the origin of the flag. The matter is not settled. The symbolism is better known. The stripes stand for the thirteen original colonies, the stars for the states. As to the color scheme, the generally accepted version is that the blue stands for the heavens, to which the colonists made their appeal; the white represents purity, and the red is emblematic of liberty.

RESOURCEFULNESS OF WRECKED AUTOIST

Angleman Borrows Two Wheels of Other Man and Goes Blithely on.

An automobile owned and driven by Wright Babcock, of Fanwood, and another auto owned and driven by Charles Angleman, of Rahway, were in collision on North avenue, near Terrill road bridge, yesterday afternoon. The two rear wheels were taken off Mr. Angleman's car and it was overturned in the ditch, while the steering gear on Mr. Babcock's car was damaged to such an extent that it was crippled and unable to proceed. No one was injured.

According to report, Mr. Angleman was turning off North avenue to cross the Terrill road bridge, when Mr. Babcock came along in the direction of Plainfield, and struck the other car. Mr. Babcock's car had to be taken to a garage for repairs, while Mr. Angleman succeeded in reaching home by borrowing two wheels for his machine.

ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS FINED $100 IN CITY COURT

In imposing fines of $100 or sixty days' imprisonment on Edward Geoghan, alias Murray; Thomas O'Brien, alias Hess, and Michael Malone, alias Murray, this morning, City Judge William G. DeMeza said "a man who was too lazy to work to earn an honest living but was willing to go to work to rob his fellow-man was not fit to be at large, but should be in prison. We do not want such as you in Plainfield and I warn you to keep away from here in the future."

The charge against the prisoners was that of jostling people on the trolley coming from Somerville on Tuesday afternoon, and an alleged attempt to pick pockets. Detective Sergeant John Flynn and Patrolman Charles Flynn made the errests. They pleaded guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct on the advice of their counsel, William N. Runyon. Chief of Police Kiely, when asked by Judge DeMeza, said their records were not good.

Detective Patrick Flynn, of the Newark Central detective bureau, visited headquarters this morning and had a talk with the prisoners. He is trying to find out if they had any connection with some burglaries in the city.

CITY COURT.

John Callaghan, John Newman, Henry W. Smith, Michael Marfino and Louis Cahill were arraigned in the city court this morning before City Judge William G. DeMeza on a charge of having assaulted James Bimble, of 12 Jackson avenue. John Keliher, of 304 Jackson avenue, and Arthur Krinkle, of 27 Netherwood avenue, early on Thursday morning in South avenue as both parties were returning from a hotel "housewarming." Lawyer John P. Owens appeared for the defendants. The Judge after severely reprimanding both parties, released Callaghan on condition that he take the pledge. Newman, Smith and Marfino were discharged under suspended sentences and Cahill was turned over to the probation officer.

ARREST NIGHTINGALE IN SEPARATION SUIT

Former Plainfielder's Wife Secures Court Order to Protect Claim for Alimony.

Charles T. Nightingale, president of a bottle company at 149 Church street, New York, and a former Plainfielder, was arrested early yesterday morning in the bachelor apartments at 39 to 41 West Twenty-seventh street, New York, on an order signed by Supreme Court Justice Seabury in a suit for separation brought by Mrs. Ella F. Nightingale. Mrs. Nightingle asked for the order of arrest because she understood that her husband was about to dispose of his property to defeat her claim for alimony and that he might leave the city.

When Deputy Sheriff Metzger got to the house with the order he was confronted by a physician who said he was attending Mr. Nightingale and that he was too ill to leave the house. Just then Metzger, who was standing in the hallway of the apartment, heard a voice down the hall say, "Bring up some strawberry ice cream." Metzger trailed the voice and asked the man behind it if he was Nightingale. The man said he was and the deputy sheriff served the order of arrest.

Nightingale's physician still insisted that he was too ill to be taken out into the open air. Sheriff Harburger said he was willing to have a bond taken if Nightingale was really ill, so a bonding company representative was summoned to the house and Nightingale was released.

Nightingale came to this city several years ago as the heard of the Climax Bottle Stopper Company, on West Fourth street. During his residence here he became more or less widely known locally, and many Plainfielders should remember him.

In her application for the order of arrest Mrs. Nightingale said that her husband left her while they were living at 15 West Fifty-eighth street, New York, so she sued for separation. A few days ago her son, Charles T. Nightingale, Jr., came to her and said::

"My father sent me to tell you that unless you settle this matter without any court or lawyer he will throw up everything and you won't get a cent."

Mrs. Nightingale said that while she was living with her husband at the Devonshire, 112th street and Broadway, New York, he tried to compel her to leave by the following conduct:

"Continually flaunting in my face his love for one Nellie Callahan, an actress; burning sulphur in the apartment almost continually, undermining my health; refusing to take any meals in the apartment and refusing to speak to me in any way or manner except through servants or by means of cardboard."

But the Nightingales had misunderstandings before the dates mentioned in the summary of his alleged acts of cruelty, and sometimes they made up again. Mrs. Nightingale tells of her return from China, when Mr. Nightingale sent their son, Charles T. Nightingale, Jr., to her and asked her to dine with him. A few days later the son again came to his mother as an emissary from his father with an invitation to Mrs. Nightingale to share his apartment.

Telling about a subsequent visit of her son with a message from her husband after the action was begun, she says he asked that the suit be settled. Mrs. Nightingale's reply was that it was in the hands of the court, whereupon her son said: "I come from father, and he says that unless you settle the matter without any court or without any lawyer, he will throw up everything, meaning thereby his business, and get out of the state, and you won't get a cent."

Nightingale once before sold his business and went to Arizona, after which there was a reconciliation.

Emery C. Weller, counsel for Mrs. Nightingale, added an affidavit, in which he said that Nightingale's lawyer told him that if the court awarded the wife more than $25 a week her husband would not pay it and possibly Nightingale would not be found.

DOG LICENSES.

City Clerk James T. MacMurray has forwarded to the Chief of Police a list of the dogs licensed in this city up to June 12, which was the last day for licensing. The number is 181. The number of dogs within the city's boundaries is 800, so that 619 remain unlicensed. It will be the duty now of the police to enforce the licensing law and all people who have dogs are warned to see to it immediately, otherwise the law, which is very stringest in this respect, will be enforced and court prosecutions with penalties will follow.

MRS. PHILLIPS' FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Susannah H. Phillips, widow of Captain George M. Phillips, will be held at the late residence, 1122 West Front street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The burial will be at Cambridge, Mass.

Forty-five Graduates of the Plainfield Business College Receive Their Diplomas.

ADDRESS BY MINISTER

Mayor Clark Pays a Tribute to the Institution — Letter of Regret From Senator Martine — Many Bouquets For Girls.

A profusion of flowers, music, forceful addresses, and a large and interested audience combined last night to make the graduation exercises of the Plainfield Business College and School of English a brilliant success. The ceremony attendant on the graduation was held in the Plainfield theatre, the stage of which was banked with ferns, roses, carnations an daisies, with tall palms and evergreens in the background. The class colors with the letters P. B. C. were also much in evidence and formed part of the decoration of the side wings, portiers, and boxes.

The program opened with an overture by the orchestra under the direction of Martin A. Korff. Then the forty-five graduates in cap and gown, many of the mortar boards being jauntily worn, marched with slow and measured tread to their seats on the platform in company with William N. Runyon, who presided. Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, Mayor Robert M. Clark, Jr., of North Plainfield; Professor and Mrs. A. S. Herr, Rev. Dorr F. Diefendorf, of Newark; Rev. Henry Bice, Newark, and Birney B. Petegrue.

The graduates were:

Helen Catherine Cooke, Frances Elizabeth Cavin, Ethel Mae Campbell, Ella Tait Cowley, Mary Katherine Hoffmeister, Isabel Cobb Knox, Florence Newmiller, Mildred Pauline Sinclair, Henrietta Schlick, Ida Nevius Saums, Lulu Tunison Trewin, John James Coffey, LeRoy Terry Guest, Chester Leon Harriman, of Plainfield; Alice Irene Apgar, Gertrude R. Hughes, Lillie Estella Titus, Eliza Demarest Taylor, Charles Edward Dinneen, Leo Richard Logan, of Dunellen; Marjorie Gertrude Dunn, Emily Isabel McMahon, Jennie McMahon, Mabel Irene Winans, of New Market; Grace Loomis Brokaw, Mary E. Bulger, Hilda M. Deck, Eva Neefus Gabriel, of Somerville; Julia Louise Olson, of South Bound Brook; Jane Sides, Herbert B. Hall, of Bound Brook; Katherine Vivian Randt, Mary Cecelia McCarthy, Marjorie Elizabeth Wilcox, of Westfield; Agnes Wilson Mantz, Florence May McWade, of Watchung; Martha Elizabeth Betzold, John Edward Betzold, of Millington; Edward Joseph Pfaff, of Garwood; Edith Jahn, of Scotch Plains; Grace Herlich, of Warrenville; Mary Camilla Burns, of Rariban; John Britton Reger, of Belle Meade; Sara Hoffman Dufford, of Middle Valley; Clarence Frone, of Berman Valley.

The history of the school was told in brief by Judge Runyon. Rev. John Sheridan Zelie then offered the invocation, after which the orchestra played. A letter of regret for non-attendance was read by the chairman from Senator James E. Martine, after which Mayor Clark spoke on "Neighborly Interest." He said there was nothing so stimulative to effort like neighborly interest, and it was for that reason that many men reached heights that they would not otherwise have attained.

Regarding the Business College, the Mayor said that Plainfield and the county had considerably benefitted by the high grade of finished article it produced.

After an orchestral selection, Birney B. Petegrue sang three baritone solos. The chairman, having introduced Professor Herr as "he who had unlocked the doors of wisdom to many," the latter proceeded to speak of the effect of these annual commencements which accomplished a two-fold object in stimulating interest among the pupils and giving the general public an understanding of the work done. The progress of 1911-12 had been marked by great personal efficiency, which was the keynote of the hour. He urged on the graduates to retain in the careers before them the same attention as they did to their school instructions.

Professor Herr distributed the diplomas after which a veritable shower of floral tributes descended on the graduates, converting the stage into a garden of roses.

The commencement address was delivered by Rev. Dorr F. Diefendorf, pastor of the Roseville Methodist church, Newark. At the outset he spoke of some of the great ideals of this republic that the graduates would do well to keep before their minds. First was the democratic spirit which inspired its foundation, and dedicated it to the principles of equality and freedom. Next come the ideal of work and the ideal of labor. In this connection it was their boast that they had no privileged class, no aristocracy. The American was proud

FOREST FIRE DANGER IS GREATLY REDUCED

Trenton, June 14.—The anhual report of the New Jersey Fire Commission shows that during the last year the forest fire laws were so vigorously enforced that in 256 cases someone was held accountable for a fire. In 140 instances a railroad company paid the bill. In forty-nine cases an individual paid a fine or was otherwise penalized. The balance of the cases are still pending. The sum of the penalties collected amounted to $2,621, of which $1,346 came from the railroads and $675 from individuals.

The commission says in the report it is doubtful if this record can be matched in all the rest of the United States put together. The organization by which these results were accomplished consisted of five state fire wardens and 242 local wardens.

HORACE SMITH.

Up to Date Author Whose Subjects Are Real Soldiers of Fortune.

Horace Smith, who has written a number of fascinating adventure stories, invariably chooses for his subjects real soldiers of fortune. His latest book, "A Captain Unafraid," is an inside story of the hazardous profession of smuggling arms to revolutionists and is based on the experiences of Captain John O'Brien, "Dynamite Johnny," who was the most celebrated filibuster of the last century.

"Dynamite Johnny" commanded the Dauntless, Three Friends and Somers

HORACE SMITH (ABOVE) AND "DYNAMITE JOHNNY" O'BRIEN.

N. Smith and was in charge of practically all of the filibustering expeditions that were landed in Cuba in 1896, 1897 and 1898. Prior to that he had figured in revolutions in Haiti, Honduras and Colombia.

Mr. Smith himself is a victim of the wanderlust and has seen much of adventure. He was engaged in newspaper work in the mining camps of the far west in the early days when every man carried a gun and knew how to use it. After the west had quieted down he became managing editor of a Cincinnati newspaper. He left there on an hour's notice for Martinique to cover the eruption of Mount Pelee for a syndicate of newspapers, traveling a part of the way to New Orleans on a special train in order to catch a French warship which was leaving for the scene. With two companions he was caught directly under the volcano by a later eruption, and the party was thought to have been lost until they made their way back to Fort de France two days later.

He also has made two long trips to the Windward and Leeward islands and the Spanish main.

Advertising Pulls—It Doesn't Jerk

That is if it is put together rightly and placed in the right mediums. Under such conditions it is certain to influence your business to the betterment of it if you will only have the courage to "keep at it."

How did John Wanamaker and our other commercial kings build up their vast enterprises? Simply by good business ability and—Advertising constantly—keeping at it. You woudn't apply a liniment with a feather would you, you rub it in—just the same with advertising, except that you keep on rubbing it in and the harder and longer you do the rubbing the greater the returns.

We once read in a country paper the following: "If you have a prosperous business, advertise and keep it—if not advertise and get it. If you can't find the necessary time to devote to advertising your business properly phone us. We have an expert who will put up your "Copy" that will bring sure results.

Plainfield, N. J., June 14, 1912.

The members of the Republican National Committee holding the balance of power in passing on the delegation contests at Chicago are chiefly political bosses who have been repudiated in their own States. They are misrepresentative in the truest sense of the word for at the recent Presidential primaries in their States they were decisively defeated for re-election to the National Committee. The States referred to are all Northern and Western, which gave overwhelming verdicts in favor of Roosevelt, and at the general election in the fall they must be swept by the Republicans if a Republican President is to be elected. Without these States Republican success is impossible.

To make clear what we mean, here is a list of the States, the Republican vote polled in them at the last Presidential election, and the list of their repudiated representatives on the National Committee, men who are actually deciding the contests:

Ohio, 572,312, Arthur T. Vorys; Pennsylvania, 745,779, Boies Penrose; New Jersey, 265,326, Franklin Murphy; Nebraska, 126,997, Victor Rosewater; Kansas, 197,216, David Mulvane; North Dakota, 57,680, James E. Kennedy; Illinois, 629,929, Frank O. Lowden; Maryland, 116,513, William P. Jackson; West Virginia, 113,869, N. B. Scott; Missouri, 347,203, Charles Nagel; Washington, 106,062, S. A. Perkins; Oregon, 62,530, Ralph E. Williams; Massachusetts, 265,966, W. Murray Crane; Maine, 66,987, F. M. Simpson; Oklahoma, 110,474, C. Cade. Total, 3,308,843. Total Republican vote in 1908, 7,678,908.

In these days when wonders happen so thick and fast, it does not stagger us to learn that the day of the baggage smasher is soon to pass. The Cumberland Valley railroad has started the reform which will rob the baggagemen of so much pleasure. The order has been issued on that road that no trunk shall be dropped from a car unless under it is placed an air-hose mat. This mat is constructed of air hose in three-foot lengths. It is designed to act as a buffer and by its use trunks receive practically no injury. Kind of a raw deal on the baggageman, eh?

Every taxpayer should read the contributed editorial to appear in tomorrow's issue, following the established custom of this paper to turn its editorial columns over on Saturdays to representative men who freely express their own opinions in their own way on topics they select themselves. The contributing editor for tomorrow will be Elliott T. Barrows, a New York broker, who for years has taken an exceptionally deep interest in the community and its institutions. Some years ago he served with distinction as a member of the Common Council.

George F. Baer, the railrod president and coal king, may be counted upon from time to time to make some asinine utterance. It was characteristic when he spoke of conditions 125 years ago in addressing the graduates of Franklin and Jefferson College yesterday, asserting: "There were no foolish Legislatures to pass law, dictating how many hours a day a man could work. The men of that day worked as long each day as they pleased and they were happy and contented."

On this day, one hundred and thirty-five years ago, Congress decreed what the design should be for the country's flag. It was not until Sept. 3, 1777, however, that the official resolution was proclaimed. Nevertheless the Stars and Stripes were raised for the first time on August 3, 1777, at Fort Schuyler, where Rome, N. Y., now stands.

Forty-five students were graduated from the Plainfield Business College last night, the commencement exercises being in keeping with the high standard of the institution of which A. S. Herr is the founder and capable principal.

We wish to remind the Women's Society for Christian Work of the Seventh-Day Baptist church that it is always the first to send in its annual contribution to the Daily Press Fund for the King's Daughters' Baby Camp.

Genuine regret is felt about the town over the financial reverses of "Tommy" Timbo and his friends who are numbered in the hundreds wish for him a speedy recovery of his fortune.

BIBLE TEACHER RESIGNS; PUPILS VOICE REGRET

The Probasco Bible Class of the First Baptist church held its last social meeting for tthe season in the boys' room of the Y. M. C. A., last night. The resignation of F. S. Thompson, one of the teachers, was received with regret. The resignation, which was presented after the business session, came as a surprise to the young men. Mr. Thompson told the class how sorry he was that business should call him from this city, and expressed the hope that the class would continue to grow and broaden its already large scope of usefulness.

Mr. Thompson has been the junior teacher of the class and has endeared himself in the hearts of the seventy young men of the class. At the close of Mr. Thompson's talk three rousing cheers, led by Sidney Mackey, were given for the retiring teacher. A social hour followed, during which refreshments were served and an informal program of music was enjoyed.

DECISION RESERVED ON THE PIERCE BILL

Attorney-General Argues it is Not a Law at Supreme Court Hearing.

Trenton, June 14.—With an entire Supreme Court sitting in banc, for the first time in several years, the question of whether or not the Pierce grade-crossing bill is a law was argued yesterday. Decision was reserved.

Attorney-General Wilson argued the case on the application of the Governor for the judicial determination of the status of the act.

The attorney-general next directed his argument to the question whether the veto message of the Governor was returned to the House in which the Pierce bill originated within the constitutional five days. This is really the issue in the case. The attorney-general's contenton was that the Assembly was the house of origin of the bill which finally passed and that the Governor's veto message was received there within the five days prescribed by the constitution, and that the Senate having failed to pass the measure over the veto the bill is not a law, notwithstanding the passage by the Assembly of a resolution declaring it to be a law and the filing of the bill as a law with the secretary of state.

He argued that the five days within which a bill must be returned with a veto means five days that the Legislature is actually in session.

Senator Pierce, of Union county, the introducer of the original bill, argued that the bill is a law. He claimed the act of 1873 is void, because defective in title, and because it seeks to vest in the courts a duty devolving upon the Legislature, and he argued further that the act does nto apply to the law under consideration. He insisted that on the merits the bill was duly passed and became a law because of the failure of the Governor to return it within the time limited by the constitution.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT TO GO TO CHICAGO?

New York, June 14.—The Evening Sun, a Taft organ, says this afternoon:

"If the expectations of the Roosevelt leaders in Chicago are fulfilled the Colonel will be in the convention city tomorrow.

"A man high in the Roosevelt councils declared today that the Oyster Bay statesman surely would start for Chicago either late this afternoon or this evening.

"The Taft supporters in Chicago were just as certain as the Roosevelt men that the Colonel would come and they were prepared for him.

"The Republican National Committee today resumed its work of making up the temporary roll of the convention. The hard-fought Texas contest was one of the first to be considered.

"Taft leaders admitted today that the President's margin of votes in the convention would be smaller than William Barnes, Jr., has been asserting right along. There was much talk of a compromise candidate, which would not down in spite of the declaration of Barnes and other Taft leaders that a compromise was out of the question."

Col. Roosevelt has said right along that so far as he is concerned there will be no compromise.

KING'S DAUGHTERS NEED MONEY FOR MOUNTAIN CAMP

The City Union of The King's Daughters is now preparing to reopen the summer camp for the care of sick babies on Johnston's Drive, but a considerable sum of money will be needed to carry on the work during the summer. It will require between $500 and $600 to meet the expenses of this work during the summer. The King's Daughters feel sure that as in the past friends of the work will rally to the support of this work and will promptly send in their subscriptions or contributions.

The Plainfield Daily Press, as in past years, will receive subscriptions for the support of the work and any money sent to this office will be forwarded to Mrs. Anna Most, treasurer of the City Union of The King's Daughters. Not only will money be acceptable, but provisions of any kind and persons desiring to contribute in this way can communicate with Mrs. Most for particulars.

The King's Daughters have performed a noble work in the past in caring for sick babies, the lives of many little ones having been saved through their efforts at the summer camp, where plenty of fresh air and good food have been suppled.

CASE DISMISSED.

The case against Edward Fitzgerald, of North Plainfield, and George Bowers, of Bound Brook, charged with being conceived in the theft of N. W. Nicalayusen's automobile from Overland's garage on Monday last, was dismissed by Judge DeMeza as there was no evidence to show that the youths knew the auto was stolen. They merely went along with Krutzner for a ride. William N. Runyon represented them.

Dr. and Mrs. Moore were married at their home in Mt. Morris, N. Y., seven years ago yesterday and two years later removed to this city, where the doctor has practiced dentistry. Mrs. Moore was Miss Helen Cullinan, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Cullinan, of Mt. Morris.

SUNDAY SCHOOL KIDDIES HAVE PARTY ON CHURCH LAWN

The members of the primary department and cradle roll of the Congregational church enjoyed a party on the lawn adjoining the church, yesterday afternoon. Forty children and mothers were present and all participated in a program of games, after which refreshments were served. During the afternoon the little boxes, containing the children's contribution to the building fund, were opened and $25 was disclosed.

Miss Nellie Winckler, teacher of the department, assisted by Miss Jean Millar, was in charge of the party and planned the afternoon's program, which was enjoyed by the older folks as much as by the children.

HALL STRIKERS MAY GO BACK MONDAY MORNING

Business Agent H. V. Reilly and J. J. Kepler, national vice president of the International Association of Machinists, had a long conference with Philip H. Hall, head of Hall's Press Printing Works, Dunellen, yesterday afternoon. The principal topic under discussion was the tariff bill and the proposed action of Congress. Mr. Reilly told Mr. Hall that he had authoritative information that the bill would never be passed. With this assurance Mr. Hall said he would be perfectly willing to accede to the demands of the men on the same basis of agreement that the Scott workers obtained. The result of the conference was reported to the men subsequently by Mr. Reilly, but as there was but a very small attendance no action as to its acceptance or rejection was taken.

Many of the strikers have gone out of town and secured employment. A mass meeting has been called for ten o'clock tomorrow morning in Eagles' Hall when it is believed that the men will accept the proposition and work will be resumed on Monday morning.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

CORNSTARCH DESSERTS.

DESSERTS in which cornstarch is the chief ingredient are light and easily digestible. Therefore, either alone or combined with fruits, cornstarch makes an ideal dessert.

Plain blancmange dressed with fruit makes an attractive and easily prepared dessert.

Served With Sauce.

Cornstarch With Caramel.—Take a quart of hot milk, a pinch of salt and five tablespoonfuls of sugar. Pour into the milk three tablespoonfuls of cornstarch mixed with three of milk. Mix until it is a thick batter. Pour this on the well beaten whites of four eggs and stir carefully. Pour into sherbet glasses enough of the mixture to half fill them and serve cold with caramel sauce.

Caramel Sauce.—Mix two cupfuls of sugar with two tablespoonfuls of water in a pan on the fire. Stir until a dark brown. Add two cupfuls of boiling water. Cook gently for ten minutes. Let it cool and pour over the cornstarch.

A Nice Pudding.

Chocolate Pudding.—Put a pint of milk in a double boiler and add a half cupful of granulated sugar. Grate three tablespoonfuls of chocolate, mix it with one tablespoonful of cornstarch and wet with a little cold water. Stir this into the milk and boil for five minutes. Allow it to become cold. Loosen it and turn out on a glass dish. Pour sweetened cream flavored with a teaspoonful of vanilla over it and serve.

In Individual Dishes.

Cornstarch Custard.—Put three cups of milk in the upper part of a double boiler. Mix a tablespoonful of cornstarch with a little cold milk and then add the beaten yolk of an egg and flavoring. Add slowly to the boiling milk and boil three minutes. Pour into individual dishes. Beat the white of the egg stiff, add one tablespoonful granulated sugar and place on the custard. Dust with pulverized sugar and put into oven until light brown.

Cornstarch Meringue.—Scald a quart of milk in a double boiler. Stir into it a quarter of a cupful of cornstarch, first moistening it with cold water. When it comes to the boiling point take it off the fire. Beat the yolks of three eggs a little; then, with a quarter of a cupful of granulated sugar, stir these into the thickened milk. Cook for a minute, flavor with a teaspoonful of vanilla and pour into a baking dish. Prepare the whites of eggs as for an ordinary meringue, spread over the cornstarch and brown slightly in a warm oven.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Vagaries of the New Blouses—Red Hats Popular.

Some of the new blouses fasten in front with a double row of crystal buttons, which are most effective on the taffeta blouse.

Bright red is used to develop some stunning hats.

There is much fichu drapery used on corsages.

For the "small sisters" there are charming quaint bonnets of shirred taffeta. Dainty rosettes and bows, miniature flowers of all varieties and silk in cashmere designs are used to trim these.

Draped skirts make an important and altogether interesting feature of

THE BASQUE IDEA.

Peplum Effect Shown in Lingerie Frock.

CREAM BATISTE AND BULGARIAN WORK.

The waist coming below the belt is now so popular that even the lingerie frocks for summer are shown with these basques or elongated bodices.

The frock illustrated is of cream batiste and Bulgarian embroidery, the embroidered sections being set between insertions of cream fillet lace. The arrangement of the embroidered bands, finished at the edge with ball fringe on the bodice, is exceedingly graceful. With these white frocks will be worn dark hats, but the boots are invariably white, high buttoned affairs of white buckskin being the favored style.

Girls Shunned by Men.

There are many such, and for the most part the fault lies with themselves.

The girl who never even exerts herself to be agreeable unless she can have everything her own way is one of them, for there is not a man alive who will give way in everything to a girl.

The girl who scolds is another type. She may be perfectly good tempered, but she has contracted the scolding habit, and so she is left alone to scold at her pleasure.

Then there is the girl with the haughty manner and cold stare. No man dares to make love to her, because there is nothing whatever to love in her.

So the girl scowls at what she considers his bad taste, utterly ignoring the fact that her own foolish conduct is the sole cause of his neglect.

Another girl without a lover is the painfully shy maiden. She likes to see men at a distance, but the moment they draw near she drives them back with her embarrassment. They retire simply out of pity, seeing her distress and awkward bashfulness.

Last on the list comes the girl who always has something to say about every one she sees, ridiculing people in order to be considered clever, little knowing how men intensely dislike to hear her pulling everybody's character to pieces for their amusement.

The All Day Bag.

"Even though you never would dream of carrying a hand bag in America, you must take one with you to Europe, where they are considerably more expensive to buy than at home and where you will need one every time that you start for a single day's excursion," warned an experienced tourist while advising a friend about to depart for her first trip across the Atlantic. "This all day bag need not be weighty, but it must be sufficiently capacious to hold extra gloves and a handkerchief, a very slender folding comb and toothbrush, a tiny cake of soap, hand towel, self feeding powder puff, rubber sandals, hand mirror, chiffon veil of good size, fountain pen, notebook, needle case and a tiny flask of brandy. With that sort of equipment a woman can keep herself looking tidy for a number of hours, and she is prepared for almost any emergency likely to arise."

The Fly as a Health Inspector.

You can't hide dirt from a fly. He is a literal eye of the Lord, in every place beholding the evil and the good, particularly the evil. He has as keen a nose for the odor of filth as a bird dog has for quails and will follow a scent a quarter of a mile up the wind if necessary to find it; then when he has found it he gorges himself full of it, smears himself with it, like a small boy eating pie, clear up to the backs of his ears, and proceeds to tell the female of his species about it that she may go there and deposit her 150 eggs. No race suicide for him.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—"You are charged with being a shoplifter," thundered the Magistrate. "What have you to say for yourself?" "Alas!" wailed the fair prisoner, "I fear it is due to the influences of heredity. My father used to run an elevator in a department store."

Cookery Notes

Luncheon Menu.

As an introduction to a dainty luncheon no better selection could be made than grapefruit cocktail, an appetizing and refreshing development of this favorite fruit. Left over chicken meat can be transformed into a palatable dish and served as a creamed hash on toast. The new asparagus is just as good as it looks, especially in salad form. French pastry completes the menu:

Grapefruit Cocktails.
Chicken Hash on Toast.
Asparagus Tip Salad.
Pastries. Tea.

One cupful of chicken meat (cold), one cupful of white sauce, half a cupful of sweet green pepper, one and a fourth teaspoonfuls of onion juice, four slices of toast, trimmed and buttered.

Cut the chicken in quarter inch cubes, chop the green pepper very fine, add to the chicken and cook all in the white sauce until the chicken is heated through (use double boiler). Arrange on the toast and serve very hot.

With the Cook In the Kitchen.

Wafer-like slices of bread spread with caviar sprinkled with lemon juice and salt make tasty sandwiches.

Banging the oven door is responsible for half the heavy bread and cake. The door should be closed very gently.

For spring suppers sliced oranges and shredded cocoanut put into a dish in alternate layers is appetizing.

Macaroni prepared in any of the various ways in combination with cheese, butter and tomatoes is nourishing.

Shredded chocolate cocoanut, which is bought already prepared, makes a tasty addition to different kinds of salad.

Meat loaf of chopped beef or veal can be made more moist if three or four tablespoonfuls of cream are added just before baking.

Cornstarch Pudding.

Take one pint of sweet milk, the whites of three eggs, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and a pinch of salt. Put the milk in a kettle, and when it reaches the boiling point add the sugar and the cornstarch, dissolved in a little milk. Lastly add the whites of the eggs, whipped to a stiff froth. Beat it and let it cook a few minutes. Set two-thirds in a cool place, flavoring it with vanilla. To the remaining one-third add half a cake of chocolate, softened and mashed. Put a layer of half the white pudding into the mold, over this put a layer of chocolate and then the remainder of the white. One-half a cocoanut or pineapple may be substituted for the chocolate.

Grapefruit Cocktail.

Cut a chilled grapefruit in halves and with a thin, sharp knife remove the seeds and cut out each section of fruit and serve the pulp with the juice in dainty glasses. Two teaspoonfuls of sugar and one tablespoonful of sherry may be added to each glass or either or both may be omitted. Another method is to take grapefruit juice, lemon and orange in equal proportions. It is then sweetened to taste, flavored with maraschino and diluted just before serving with charged water and served in glasses with some of the grapefruit pulp and a maraschino cherry.

Kitchenettes.

If by any chance you have to use a dice clean saucepan over a smoky fire smear it over on the outside with just a little grease before putting it on. This prevents the smoke from hurting it, and if you will wash it afterward in some good suds it will be as bright as ever.

One of the best ways to have a little meat go a long way is to make it into a pie and add potatoes or any other left over vegetables, a hard boiled egg or two cut into slices and a couple of tomatoes. Serve some nice gravy with it.

Japanese Rice.

A Japanese cook's way of preparing boiled rice is to wash the rice carefully and put a cupful of it into two cupfuls of boiling water with a level teaspoonful of salt. Cook the rice rapidly, and as soon as the water is absorbed lift the cover from it, set the dish containing it on the back of the stove and let it steam until it is dry. This is the way a Chinese cook always prepares the rice which he serves with chop suey.

Economical Dessert.

An angel cake that has been in the house for a day or two is turned into a delectable dessert if it is cut into slices and spread with marshmallow icing. Put the slices together and ice the top and sides of the loaf with regular frosting and sprinkle the top with candied cherries, rose petals or violets. Surround with whipped cream which has been beaten into ice cream.

Mock Cherry Pie.

There is a mock cherry pie possible at this season which in flavor is an excellent counterfeit of its prototype. Mix a cupful of boiling water with a cupful of cranberries, half a cupful of chopped raisins, a cupful of sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, a little vanilla and three level tablespoonfuls of flour. Bake between two crusts or with a strapped top.

N. P. H. S. JUNIORS NOT GOOD PAINTERS

Flag and Numerals, Done in Red on School and Houses, Last Only Overnight.

In order to even the score with the seniors, who hauled down their class flag which they had displayed from a window of the North Plainfield High School, the juniors last night decorated the school building with paint. Armed with a pot of red paint the boys late last night or some time early this morning and with the aid of a step-ladder painted a large red pennant on the outer wall on the left hand side of the main entrance. Underneath the pennant were the figures "1913."

The mural decoration was placed so high that it could not be reached for the purpose of erasure without a long ladder. Not content with this the amateur painters went to all the houses of the seniors and on the pavement emblazoned the figures "1913." Also several prominent places in the Washington Park section bore the device.

To add further embellishment to the school building many parts of the outer surface were blotched with large splashes of red which in the light of the morning presented a truly startling effect, and attracted the amazed gaze of pedestrians.

Supervising Principal Henry C. Krebs was immediately notified and he was deeply indignant. His suspicions were naturally directed towards the boys of the junior class, so several of them were brought before him and Mayor Clark, and two confessed, but remained loyal to the other members of the band and refused to divulge their names.

After carefully reviewing the circumstances of the case the principal and the mayor concluded that the greatest punishment they could inflict on the boys would be to assign to them the task of removing the paint from all the places where it had been put. Consequently all day long the culprits, aided by a number of volunteers, have been working with a will and sundry chemicals to erase all traces of last night's pranks. If their efforts are successful before Monday nothing further will be done in the case.

to be called a working man, and it did not much matter whether a man toiled with his brains or muscle so long as he worked. There were no "closed doors" in this country. Everything was thrown open to education and democracy of opportunity. And lastly there was the ideal of religion and the democracy of conscience, which were summarized by the phrases "plain dealing and truthful speaking." Nineteen-twentieths of the trade of this country was done on credit, he added, and what was behind and sustained it? The conscience of the working man; the conscience of the republic, due to the fundamental principle of righteousness.

N. P. H. S. CLASS OF 1911 HAS FLAG AGAIN--IN BITS

An interesting story is being told with glee by members of last year's class of the North Plainfield High School. Class of 1912—Juniors of yesteryear seniors of today—obtained possession of last year's class flag and in triumph bore it off. William Taylor, one of this year's graduates, secured the trophy and proudly hung it up in one of the rooms in his home in which is a pool table.

Often when Taylor invited graduates of the 1911 class to take part in a friendly game of pool envious glances were darted at the pennant which decked the wall and many plans were hatched and talked of in secret as to how to recover possession of it. But no feasible opportunity presented itself and the idea of its recovery was all but abandoned.

Wednesday night the long sought for moment arrived, the arch-conspirators assembled and the deed of derring-do was carried out. Taylor, attired in Sunday best, as one of the graduates, was so deeply engrossed in the class day exercises that he was entirely oblivious to everything else. When the fun was at its height, so the story goes, a band of youths crept silently in the darkness of night to the home of Taylor and obtaining an entrance through a window that had been carelessly left open, secured the pennant and made off. It is said that the pennant was divided into equal parts among the band.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION TO ELECT

The executive committee of the Union County Sunday-school Association held its bi-monthly meeting in Elizabeth last night, when reports were received and Rev. Evarts C. Conover, of this city, who is president of the association, named a nominating committee to present a list of officers to be voted upon at the annual convention to be held in Trinity M. E. church, Rahway, October 17.

Mr. Conover named the following committee: James E. Church, A. V. Searing, F. H. Andrews, of Plainfield; Walter Irving, of Cranford, and William Greaves, of Westfield. The rest of the evening was devoted to a consideration of routine matters.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF NEW PROVIDENCE SCHOOLS

The closing exercises of the New Providence Township schools were held last night at Berkeley Heights. There were five graduates, one of whom was Frederick Jeffery, son of William Jeffery, and the latter as president of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas. The address of welcome was given by William Woodruff, principal of the schools. A feature of the program was a recitation, "Mildred's Mistake," by Miss Mildred Jeffery.

Among those who took part in the program were Nicholas Huber, Michael Perillo, Freddie McNamara, Michael Amodeo, Emily Hickson, Thomas Kuntz, Louis Radzio, Robert Rogers and Jack Deeny. The exercises were concluded with the singing of "America."

PROF. HERRON WILL MAKE HIS HOME IN FLORENCE

Prof. George D. Herron has left Metuchen forever and will live in Florance, Italy.

The professor left a week ago with his wife, who was Miss Carrie Rand, of Burlington, Ia., their two children and William Herron, the professor's father.

When in 1901 it was announced that Prof. Herron had taken a wife without the usual vows and that her mother had bought an estate in the New Jersey town which she had made over to her son-in-law, there were misgivings in that place. When it was rumored that the professor intended to establish a colony near his home the town was upset.

Metuchen was so hostile that he soon went to Europe. He did not return until March 27 last, when he said he had come to settle up his affairs and induce his father to spend the remainder of his life in Italy.

P. H. S. SENIORS PICNIC AS GUESTS OF PRINCIPAL BEST

Principal and Mrs. Lindsey Best gave the members of the Plainfield High School Senior class their annual picnic supper on the mountains yesterday. The party went to the grounds near the Baby Camps early in the afternoon and stayed until late in the evening.

During the course of the afternoon the boys collected wood for a large camp fire while the girls played games and had their fortunes told by Miss Katherine Ball. Mr. Best furnished supper, which all enjoyed about the camp fire. In the evening there was singing and story telling by the fire. Roy Titsworth and Miss Lena Bass both sang solos. Helen Woolley recited and Miss Viola Garda also recited a humerous darky selection. Mr. Best read an Irish story.

Later in the evening the members of the party had a marsh-mellow roast. They broke camp about ten o'clock and came down the mountains singing the new class songs. Among the members of the faculty that were present were: Miss Lena Bass, Miss Katherine Ball, Henry Hubbard and Lindsey Best.

ONE KILLED, TWO INJURED IN AMBOY STRIKE RIOTS

Perth Amboy, June 14.—In a fight between deputies and strikers at the American Smelt Refining Plant this morning one striker was killed and two others were shot and seriously hurt. It was said that an attempt was being made to burn the plant.

The strike situation here continues to grow graver every hour. It has reached such an acute stage that the advisability of calling out militia today by the State authorities is seriously considered. Officers of the National Guard, at the request of Gov. Wilson, were in an all-night conference with the acting Mayor and Sheriff and at a late hour this morning they were still undecided what to do. A decision is momentarily expected, as the strikers are more determined than ever to win their fight by violent methods rather than listen to appeals of their more sober-minded counsellors to act peaceably and give their employers a chance to consider their grievances.

The strikers are in no humor to o'clock this morning, following a night of fierce rioting, a mob of several thousand of them made a concerted attack on the American Smelting and Refining plant and tried to storm the walls. Their principal weapon was the firebrand. They had previously made several unsuccessful efforts to burn the plant and were now determined to succeed.

ARM WRENCHED; WOMAN IS AWARDED DAMAGES

Elizabeth, June 14.—A verdict of $2,000 was awarded Mrs. Annie Finegan, of 334 Fulton street, against the Public Service Railway Company before Judge Vail and a jury in the Cirsuit Court yesterday. Her husband, James Finegan, was given a verdict of $500.

The suit was the result of an accident October 30, 1911, when Mrs. Finegan's right arm was wrenched from its socket when a trolley car she was about to board started suddenly. The jury in the case was out about an hour.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

One hundred and fifty of Uncle Sam's premier athletes left on the Finland this morning for Stockholm, where they will battle for their Nation's sixth successive Olympic victory.

All doubt of their ability to bring home the bacon has been set aside by their preliminary try-outs, and the other nations practically admit our superiority.

The steamer which has been chartered to convey the men across the pond has a regulation running track, jumping pit and swimming pool aboard and Trainer Mike Murphy will have sole charge of the training of every athlete.

Colonel Thompson, who has done so much for American athletics, at the last moment induced the Adams boys to sacrifice their positions so that they could be in line to score points for Uncle Sam.

Because of the serious illness of his step-father, Russell Lawrence Beatty will not make the trip. The shotput will be ably taken care of, however, by Ralph Rose, the husky Californian.

Local baseball fandom is on the qui vive for the big show on the Oval tomorrow.

As a preliminary appetizer the Westfield Cubs will try conclusions with the West End A. C.

Second Baseman Sam White again started the swatfest that resulted in Princeton's 19 to 6 victory over Yale.

The Tigers pushed at least one count across the plate in every frame.

Secretary Heydler, of the National League, made the official announcement yesterday that Wednesday's victory belonged to Marquard.

In this way the great southpaw just managed to slip by the thirteenth station.

JUNIOR GOLFERS' CHAMPIONSHIP

First Competition for Young Players Takes Place at Country Club June 25.

18 HOLES, SCRATCH

Simultaneously With Which Will be Started the Metropolitan Junior Handicap—Driving and Approaching and Putting Competitions Follow.

The official program for the first junior championship, under the auspices of the Metropolitan Golf Association, which will be held at the Plainfield Country Club, Tuesday, June 25, has been announced by the committee in charge. The tournament is open only to boys eighteen years old and under, who are members of or have playing privileges at clubs belonging to the Metropolitan Golf Association; except that the committee reserves the right to invite boys from outside clubs to enter for the handicap, driving competition and the approaching and putting competition.

The Metropolitan junior championship will be played at 9 o'clock in the morning. This will be an 18 hole, stroke competition, scratch event. The association will present a gold medal to the winner of the championship; also a silver medal for the second best score and the Plainfield Country Club will present a prize for the third best score.

At the same hour there will be started the Metropolitan junior handicap, 18 holes, stroke competition. The association will present a silver medal to the winner of the handicap and a silver medal for the second best net score and the local club will present a prize for the third best net score. In case of a tie or ties for any place in the morning events, there will be a play-off at 9 holes at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. No competitor shall take more than one prize in the morning events.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a driving competition, average of three drives. The local club will present prizes for first and second places. At the same hour there will be an approaching and putting competition, from three different distances. The local club will present prizes for first and second places.

The club will not accommodate boys at the clubhouse, but some of the members will be glad to have boys at their homes over night on Monday, June 24. The club has extended the privileges of its course during the preceding week of the tournament to all competitors who enter. The following committees have been named to take charge of the tournament:

Tournament committee—Cornelius J. Sullivan, chairman; James A. Stillman, Newton E. Stout, M. G. A. tournament committee; R. S. Rowland, J. E. Erickson and Leighton Calkins, local tournament committee. Metropolitan Golf Association executive committee—Frederick S. Wheeler, president; James L. Taylor, vice president; Wynant D. Vanderpool, secretary; S. Cliffton Mabon, treasurer; Findlay S. Douglas, Joseph P. Knapp, James A. Stillman, Cornelius J. Sullivan and John M Ward.

GRENDA WILL RIDE KRAMER IN MATCH

Alfred Grenda will meet Champion Frank Kramer in a match at the Velodrome, Newark, Sunday. It will not be a dual event, however, as each will have a team mate.

Kramer will be assisted by Norman Anderson and Grenda is paired with Pete Drobach. The conditions of the race call for five miles with two pacemakers, the pacemakers to drop out a half-mile from the finish.

In addition to the match there will be a one-mile open and a two-mile handicap for the "pro" sprinters, a half-mile handicap, "miss and out" race and a novice for the amateurs, and a ten-mile paced race between George Wiley and Menus Bedell, the winner of the four-cornered race last night.

START OF FACTORY LEAGUE'S 2ND ROUND

Race for Daily Press Cup Goes Into Another Lap Tomorrow Afternoon.

After completing the first round of its season's schedule without a hitch, the Manufacturers' League will start on its second series tomorrow afternoon with but one postponed game accumulated. Every one of the six managers has reported a satisfactory attendance at the games in which his team has participated, in the struggle for the Daily Press cup, and the league is now on a firm financial basis.

Although the Commercials are setting a fast clip and have a two-game advantage, the Public Service team has an excellent chance of taking a fall out of the league leaders in their meeting tomorrow. The Spicer and Saurer aggregations will hook up with the outcome of fourth place at stake; while the R. G. E., after a week's lay-off in the league schedule, will try conclusions with the Bankers.

MAKING A BASEBALL.

The Winding Process Is Done In Secret In a Locked Room.

In the center of the standard baseball, as used by the professional players, there is a globe of compressed cork covered with rubber. This globe is about an inch in diameter and around it are wound a few layers of coarse twine. It is then sent to the winding room, where machines first wind on thick four ply blue yarn. At frequent intervals the ball is soaked in a cement solution and put aside to dry.

Many different workers have to do with the winding of the ball. Each workman tests it for size and weight before he passes it along. The machines insure tight and even winding and there are different machines for different sizes of yarn. These machines are operated in secret in a locked room.

When the ball has been wound to the proper size with blue and white yarn and has been dipped in the solution, it is wound finally with smaller yarn. Thus the firm, rough center is overlaid with finer and finer material until at last it is smooth and perfect, ready for the cover.

The best horsehide obtainable is used for covers. The pieces are cut by hand and dampened and stretched. The ball is put into clamps and the cover sewed on with cotton thread, which has a greater frictional strength than linen or silk. Each ball is sewed by hand and then put into a machine that irons down the seams. The polishing is done by still another machine. Then, after being stamped and wrapped, the ball is ready for market.

A ball weighs five ounces and is nine inches in circumference. In the course of manufacture it is weighed and measured five times.—Harper's Weekly.

FOR UNION COUNTY TITLE.

The first of a series of games will take place for the Union county championship Saturday afternoon at Recreation Park, Westfield, when Westfield will meet the Scotch Plains club. The Scotch Plains club will have Slocum and Hand, of the United States League of New York, while Manager Flynn, of Westfield, will depend on his regular lineup, with Al Lun in the box and Sammy Gallon at the receiving end. Game called at 3:45 sharp.

GETTING A LINE ON S. S. LEAGUE TEAMS

Third Games in Schedule Tomorrow Will Carry Contest Toward Show Down.

Three more hot struggles will be pulled off in the Sunday-school League tomorrow afternoon, the most important contest being that between the Hope Chapel and First Baptist teams, upon which the outcome of first place rests. Temple Baptist hinges her hopes of climbing out of the cellar on defeating the fast Park Avenue Baptist team and Monroe Avenue will journey to South Plainfield and endeavor to bring home the bacon.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

First Baptist	2	0	1,000

GAMES TOMORROW.
Monroe Avenue vs. South Plainfield, at South Plainfield.
Temple Baptist vs. Park Avenue Baptist at Hyde Field.
First Baptist vs. Hope Chapel at Clinton Avenue.

FANS WILL SEE A GOOD BILL AT OVAL TOMORROW

The big attraction on the Oval for tomorrow afternoon will be in the shape of another double bill and Plainfield will try to get back at the Bound Brook team, who administered a 5 to 1 beating to the local lads at their last meeting. The first game will be an unusually strong preliminary struggle between the fast Westfield Cubs and the West Ends, who are at present setting a terrific clip. This game will be called at 2 o'clock in order to make way for the big attraction which will be staged at 3:45. Daley has sent in his resignation as chief arbitrater for the Plainfield club and his place will be occupied by Langdon, formerly with the New England League. This is the same "ump" who officiated at the Plainfield-Somerville championship match on September 30.

The Plainfield and Bound Brook teams will lineup as follows:

Plainfield—Cosgrove, rf; E. Stallings, lf; Harter, cf; Dalton, 3b; B. Stallings, 2b; Driscoll, 1b; Emery, ss; Nelson, c; Frederickson, p.

Bound Brook—Lidgate, c; Ortlieb, p; Bollinger, 1b; Shaw, 2b; Craig, 3b; Powers, ss; Grimes, lf; Nolan, cf; Meehan, rf.

DUNELLENS READY TO ADD ANOTHER TO THEIR STRING

The crack Dunellen aggregation of ball-tossers, who put one over on the Bound Brook nine last Saturday, will have as their home attraction tomorrow afternoon, the strong Central Railroad team. This is the same team that split a 1 to 0 and 3 to 0, double header with Raritan on Decoration Day, and as Dunellen fell a victim to Raritan a close game is looked for.

McLaughlin and Dixon, the Plainfield battery, will do this end of the work for Dunellen as usual, and Pender, the ex-Atlantic Leaguer, will hurl them across for the Railroaders, with Morton at the receiving end.

MARQUARD'S VICTORY.

There has been some doubt as to whether Wednesday's victory of the Giants over the Cubs should be credited as a game for Marquard.

Secretary Heydler, of the National League, who renders decisions on all technical points, announced yesterday that the victory belonged to Marquard. The Giants batted out a victory in the last half of the eighth and before Crandall went in to pitch the last inning, therefore giving the credit to Marquard. This made the left-hander's thirteenth straight vistory.

WIFE GETS $200 DAMAGES, HUSBAND AWARDED 6 CENTS

Elizabeth, June 14.—Mrs. David B. Jacobson, of 401 South Broad street, was awarded a verdict of $200 in the District Court yesterday in her suit against Dr. J. P. Frank, a local dentist. Her husband was given a verdict of six cents. The suit resulted from alleged injuries suffered by Mrs. Jacobson while she was being treated in Dr. Frank's office, May 13, 1910. Dr. Edward J. Smalley, of Plainfield, who was Dr. Frank's assistant at that time, was a witness.

The contention of the plaintiffs was that Mrs. Jacobson was burned by carbolic acid.

The trial was enlivened by tilts between witnesses and counsel. Former Mayor Dr. Victor Mravlag was a witness.

GOMEZ AND MONTEAGUDO.

President of Cuba and the Commander of His Army.

Despite seemingly believable reports from Americans and other foreign residents of Cuba that the rebel movement there is a serious matter, President Jose Miguel Gomez maintains, outwardly at least, his calmness and continues to assert that the uprising is a local affair with no likelihood of occasion for intervention arising. At the same time the United States government, by dispatching marines and warships there, has given evidence that she may be depended upon to do her full duty under the Platt amendment.

General Jesus Monteagudo, commander of the Cuban army, is a close friend of Gomez and fought as a rebel against the government of Estrada Palma. Monteagudo is known as Chucho, which means owl.

NEW YORK'S FIRST CHURCH.

And the Earliest Religious Services on Manhattan Island.

The first religious service on Manhattan Island was held in 1628. This resulted in the organization of a church, the services of which were held in the upper story of a mill which ground the grain of the colonists. The first minister was Jonas Michaelius and the first elder Peter Minuit, director general of New Netherland.

The first church building on Manhattan Island was situated on Pearl street, between Whitehall and Broad streets, facing the East river. This structure was a poor, plain building of wood and constructed in 1633 by the West India company. Its congregation was presided over by Dominie Bogardus, the second clergyman of New Amsterdam, and was regarded as a more fitting place than the loft of the mill for public worship.

William Kieth, director general of the West India company, caused to be erected a church outside of Fort Amsterdam, which contained three long, narrow windows on each side, fitted with small panes of glass set in lead, on which were burned the coats of arms of the chief parishioners. This building was erected in the meadow of Mrs. Dominie Drisius and fronted on a lane, now called Exchange place. In those days, however, it was known as "Garden alley." A large bowl of solid silver for bastismal services was made by the silver workers in Holland. In the belfry was the bell which had been removed from the old church in the fort.—Westchester County Magazine.

His Best Role.

Recently a letter of introduction was handed by an actor to a manager which described the presenter as an actor of much merit and concluded "He plays Macbeth, Richelieu, Hamlet, Shylock and billiards. He plays billiards best."

The Landlord's Lament.

The usually alert and cheerful landlord of a hotel in a small town had a scowl on his face as he looked out of the corner of his eye at one of his regular boarders who was whistling joyously as he went up the stairs. As the boarder disappeared the landlord turned to the men standing near.

"There was never but one guest at this here hotel that stung me while I was on the job," he confided. "Several have beat us, but not while I was awake. But this here feller certainly got one on me. Say, he's livin' here yet, an' he ain't never paid me a cent. Why don't I collect his bill? How can I? Wait till I tell you.

"He'd been stoppin' here for near two months when I approached him on the subject of gettin' something on account. He was cheerful. I was polite. Finally I got mad and put it up to him straight.

"'Young man,' says I, 'you can't leave this hotel till you pay your bill.'

"'Will you put that in writin'?' says he. And before I knowed what I was doin' I done it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Understood.

"You must always be nice to your little playmates."

"I know. I've got my lesson all right, ma. I'm just beating them around a bit trying to teach them that they've got to be nice to me too."—Detroit Free Press.

A DUEL IN BALLOONS.

Curious Aerial Battle Fought by Two Frenchmen in 1808.

In this day of the development in aeronautics it may be interesting to recall the first duel that was ever fought in the air. It took place in 1808 and, as might have been expected, occurred in France. M. de Grandpre and M. le Pique had a quarrel arising out of jealousy concerning a lady engaged in the Imperial Opera.

They agreed to fight a duel to settle their respective claims, and in order that the heat of angry passion should not interfere with the polished elegance of the proceeding they postponed the duel for a month, the lady agreeing to bestow her smiles on the survivor. The duelists were to fight in the air.

Two balloons were constructed exactly alike. On the day of the duel De Grandpre and his second entered the car of one balloon, Le Pique and his second the other. This was in the garden of the Tuileries, amid a big crowd of spectators. The men were to fire, not at each other, but at each other's balloon, in order to bring them down by the escape of gas. As pistols would hardly have served for this purpose, each aeronaut took a blunderbuss in his car.

At a given signal the ropes holding the balloons were cut, and up they went into the air. The wind was nearly moderate and kept the balloons in their respective positions, about eighty yards apart. When about half a mile up in the air the preconcerted signal for firing was given. M. le Pique fired, but missed. M. de Grandpre fired and sent a ball through Le Pique's balloon. The balloon collapsed, the car descended with frightful rapidity, and Le Pique and his second were dashed to pieces.

De Grandpre continued his ascent and terminated his aerial voyage at a distance of seven leagues from Paris. History does not state whether he was rewarded by the hand of the lady for whose sake the duel had been fought.—New York Herald.

SPOKE HIS OWN DOOM.

In Spite of His Caution an Innocent Remark Condemned Him.

The father of Gueau de Reverseaux had been a distinguished lawyer, and through his influence he held important offices under the government. When the revolution began he gave up his office at La Rochelle and retired to Chartres.

From the time that the revolution began Gueau de Reverseaux devoted his attention exclusively to preserving his own safety. He wrote no letters, it would receive no letters. He saw no visitors and paid no visits. He spoke to no person and allowed no one to come near him. It would have been impossible to be more prudent than he was.

However, he wanted some sheds built on his farm near Chartres and ventured to consult a carpenter. The carpenter told him that he could not undertake the work immediately, as Gueau de Reverseaux wished, because most of his workmen were drafted to join the army at once.

Gueau de Reverseaux replied: "The workmen need not go. They can send substitutes."

This remark was heard by the workmen, but only the first phrase made any impression on them. They reported everywhere that M. Gueau de Reverseaux, who must be good authority, had said that they need not go. The news went to headquarters that Gueau de Reverseaux declared that the drafted workmen need not obey the government. This was considered to be conspiracy, and he was condemned to death and executed.

Who He Was.

A traveler saw a woman take a man by the collar, yank him up the steps into a railroad car, jam him down into a seat, pile up a valise and two big brown baskets with loose covers and long handles at his feet and say:

"Now, sit there until I help Mary Jane on the car, and don't move till I come back."

When the woman reached the door the traveler said to her:

"Is that man your husband?"

"Naw!" roared the woman. "He's my daughter's husband, and she hasn't spirit enough to say her soul is her own."

Wouldn't Work Nowadays.

The Egyptians had a very remarkable ordinance to prevent persons from borrowing imprudently. An Egyptian was not permitted to borrow without giving to his creditors in pledge the body of his father. It was deemed both an impiety and an infamy not to redeem so sacred a pledge. A person who died without discharging that duty was deprived of the customary honors paid to the dead.

Not In the Contract.

"Have you anything to say for yourself?"

"Not unless I can get a rebate from my lawyer, judge; I have paid him good money to talk for me, and I won't do his work for nothing."—New York Press.

A Mistake.

Landlord—You owe me now for four months' rent, and the first three months you paid so promptly. Tenant—Yes, I know. I shouldn't have done it.—Boston Transcript.

FARMER VS. EDITOR.

A man who owns eighty acres of land and has sense enough to till it makes the lot of country newspapermen look like the last sad remnant of a Dutch lunch.

The farmer has the best of it all around. He is as independent as an express company. He doesn't have to write a soulful obituary over some peak-headed fellow that keeps on display an exhibit of cut plug profanity that would make the efforts of a steamboat mate sound like the meeting of the Epworth League. He doesn't have to go into raptures over the beauty of an open-faced bride with a cast of countenance that would blow out the gas.

The farmer isn't required to lie until his back teeth fall out about the sterling manhood of a bridegroom with ears like a cauliflower plant and the brain power of a yearling shoat. He doesn't have to run a contest for the most beautiful young lady in the community, make everybody sore and then print a seventy-five-cent halftone of the beauty that looks like a tintype of grandma at the age of 13.

Neither does the editor—Ozark County (Mo.) Times.

CLEVER OSTEOPATH.

A certain osteopath was treating a young lady who had very weak ankles and wrists. As she lived in a town quite a distance from his own city, he was forced to leave the city Saturday of each week and go to the town in which the young lady lived, give her the treatment on Sunday, and return to the office on Monday. A friend once asked the osteopath how he had arranged to give the young lady the treatments for her ankles and wrists when she lived at such a distance, and the osteopath replied. "Oh, I go out and treat her week ends."—Lippincott's.

Memorial to Martyr Has to Make Way For New Subway.

Nathan Hale—the bronze Nathan who for years has stood fettered at the corner of Broadway and Mail street, New York, watching the free world drift by—was transferred from his pegpost on the corner to a spot under the south windows of city hall. The reason for the bronze captain's transfer was the inexorable advance of civilization in the shape of Mr. McAneny's subway.

INDIGNANT DUCHESS EJECTS SUFFRAGIST

Seizes Her by Wrist and Leads Her From Palace.

London, June 14.—The Duchess of Devonshire helped to eject a suffragetie who interrupted a meeting which was being held at Devonshire House in support of the Colonial Nursing association. Those present included Princess Henry of Battenberg.

Lewis Harcourt was speaking when a woman asked a question about woman's franchise. When she was threatened with removal from the place the woman desisted. Immediately afterward another woman sitting near the princess arose and proceeded to address the meeting on the subject of "Votes For Women."

The duchess reminded them that they were guests in a private house, and in view of their conduct she had no alternative but to ask them to withdraw.

The duchess thereupon seized the hand of the nearest interrupter and assisted her to leave the palace.

PLANT FIRED BY RIOTING STRIKERS

Firemen, Fighting Blaze, Attacked With Stones.

DEPUTIES USE THEIR GUNS

Fifteen Hundred Girls and Women of Cigar Works Go Out, but Don't Take Part In Any Disorder—Trolley Service Discontinued.

Perth Amboy, N. J., June 14.—The strike situation here became so serious that the police officers were doubled in number and thirty special deputies were sworn at New Brunswick by Sheriff Bollschweiler. The striking employees of the American Smelting and Refining company attacked the police, who were guarding the plant. One of the strikers was shot in the arm and the rest were put to flight after the pistols began to crack.

Fifteen hundred girls employed by the Perth Amboy cigar works quit work because they were refused an increase of 15 per cent in their wages. They made no demonstration. Following this section hands on the northeast division of the Lehigh Valley railroad laid down their picks and shovels because they did not get an increase of 25 cents a day in their pay.

The strike has spread to Tottenville, where 450 laborers employed by the Atlantic terra cotta company quit.

Plant Is Set on Fire.

The strikers rioted, and while Sheriff Bollschweiler and his deputies were hurrying about in automobiles to places where the men were congregating a fire alarm was sounded. It was found that a fire had been set at the plant of the American Smelting and Refining company. The blaze was soon under control.

While the firemen were working they were beset by the strikers. Sticks and stones were thrown, and the sheriff and his deputies rushed the crowd with drawn revolvers and clubs. The firemen hardly had got back to their headquarters when another fire at the same plant was discovered. It was put out with little damage to the property.

The strikers set fire to the fence that runs around the plant, and the firemen were summoned for a third time. All of the fence was burned. Three sheds used by patrons of the trolley company were set on fire, but the fires were put out before serious damage.

Every trolley car that went by the plant was stoned. Windows were smashed and several persons were struck by falling missiles. This situation became so trying that at 1:30 o'clock the trolley service was discontinued.

MISTAKE IN ORDER.

Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo, of New York, was praising the efficiency of the New York police force.

"The force wasn't always so efficient," he said. "In Byrnes' day police protection ended at Forty-second street; you could do as you pleased after that. But the crook who should now try to do as he pleased anywhere at all in New York would be as badly left in his expectations of immunity as my friend Smith was left the other day in his dozen bass.

"Smith the other day went fishing. He caught nothing, so on the way back home he telephoned to his provision dealer to send a dozen bass round to his house.

"He got home late himself. His wife said to him, on his arrival:

"'Well, what luck.'

"'Why, splendid luck, of course,' he replied. 'Didn't the boy bring that dozen bass I gave him.'

"Mrs. Smith stared. Then she smiled.

"'Well, yes, I suppose he did,' she said. 'There they are.'

"And she showed poor Smith a dozen bottles of Bass ale."—Washington Star.

ZEKE KNEW RUFE.

Rufe was telling Zeke about a terrible escapade he had had the night before, after he had crossed the dam at the river and was making for his cabin about a half mile through the dark woods.

"And jest as I stepped inter de brush I hears a funny noise like a shoat snortin'. I looks up an' a blue light jumps out er de ground' and shapes itself into a ghost about six foot tall. Red fire was a-flickerin' out er its nose. It stood still kinder, then lifted a long, bony finger an' says: 'I want you, Rufe Jackson.'

"I walks up to it and shakes my own finger right in its face. 'You mind yore business and I'll mind mine,' I says, and turns on my heel and goes right on.

"Now, what'd you er done, Zeke, in a case like dat?"

"I'd er done jest what you done, you durned lying nigger."—St. Louis Republic.

THE IRON DUKE.

Sir William Allan covered a large canvas with a picture of the Battle of Waterloo, which the Duke of Wellington bought. His grace asked the painter to call at the Horse Guards on a certain day to receive payment. Punctually Sir William came and the duke began to count out notes for the sum agreed upon. Knowing how valuable was his time Allan said that he would be quite content to take the duke's check.

His grace went on counting and the artist, thinking he had not been heard, remarked:

"It would save your grace time and trouble if you would give me a check on your bankers."

Either angry at being interrupted in his counting or else jocularly, with a touch of the truth that is sometimes spoken in jest, the duke answered:

"Do you think I would also Coutts' (his bankers) to know what a fool I have been.'"—Tit-Bits.

This Boiler saves coal

The square fire pot cuts down coal bills one-quarter, because its effective radiating area is 25 per cent. more than in boilers of like dimensions.

The square corners prevent ashes from clogging and choking, thus relieving you of much disagreeable labor. A cutting bar smashes all clinkers. The is easily controlled—moderate or intense heat, as you like, in a few minutes.

Note in this sectional view how all interior surfaces tend upward toward the front connection.

This means quick water circulation and lively steaming. Many other strong points. Ask your dealer.

MARGARET V. KELLY.

She Is Assistant Director of the United States Mint at $3,000 a Year.

Miss Margaret V. Kelly occupies the enviable position of being one of the highest salaried female officials in the employ of the United States government. She is assistant director of the mint at an annual salary of $3,000.

The appointment of Miss Kelly was due to merit. When after leaving her native hills of New Hampshire and obtaining the best education that the private schools of Boston could give her she determined to make her own way in the world and turned to the civil service she had no influence of any kind to aid her. Passing the examination for stenographer sixteen years ago, she was at once appointed to a place in the office of the appointment clerk of the treasury department at Washington. After a year's service she was transferred to work as a stenographer in the bureau of the mint in the same department. Since that time she has remained in that bureau, advancing steadily until she has now reached the highest point in it.

treasury much of his time, and R. E. Preston, the mint exaxminer, is also away much. In such cases Miss Kelly is acting director of the mint, with full powers.

A cursory glance at the details of the bureau will make one more appreciative of the burden that is on this woman's shoulders. There are three coinage mints, with their complicated mechanism, and nine minor mints, where bullion is bought, but no money coined. There are employed in the mint service more than 1,400 persons, many of them experts detailed in a high class of scientific work whose individual salaries are $5,000 a year or more.

The Scrap Book

Storing a Loan.

A Memphis character well known about town as brilliant, but boozy, was persistent in his applications for loans and extremely careless about repaying them. Several years ago this man had induced a local bank to loan him $40 and had given his note therefor. At the end of each three months he invariably appeared and asked that the note be renewed, and as there was nothing else to do the bank always renewed it. One day he went into the bank and said to the cashier:

"I'd like to renew that paper of mine you have here."

"Certainly," replied the cashier. "I'll fix it up for you."

The cashier made the proper preparations for the renewal, and as he was fixing up the paper he said:

"Say, the directors were talking about this paper of yours the other day. They decided they wouldn't charge you interest on it any longer."

"That's very considerate of them," was the reply. "I am glad to hear it. I am under obligations to them."

"No," continued the cashier. "We're not going to charge you interest; we're going to charge you storage!"—Saturday Evening Post.

The Book of Years.

In sleep I turned the volume of my years.
The leaves were many, rough and soiled and marred,
And here and there a line was blurred and scarred
Where to erase it I had tried with tears.
No page was perfect, but through all there ran
Fair lines and many spaces white and clear.
Ah, small they were, the blotted lines too near,
But each showed where a higher thought began!

Unknowingly I traced these pages interlined.
I thought them but loose leaves soon torn and lost.
I knew not then the tears which they should cost
When in the western sky my sun declined.
Could I but write them now how fair they all should look
When the great angel comes to close and seal my book!

—Ninette M. Lowater.

Wit That Won.

When the late Stilson Hutchins owned two newspapers in St. Louis he kept standing along the top of the editorial page of each, "While the Dispatch and Times are under the same proprietorship, they are under distinct and separate management." One day he learned that Stanley Huntley, author of the "Spoopendyke Papers," his correspondent at Jefferson City, had been celebrating unwisely. He telegraphed, dismissing him, and signed the message "S. H."

Huntley replied: "I was gay last night and am sick today. My condition of today and my condition of last night, while under the same proprietorship, are under distinct and separate management."

Hutchins wired back, retaining Huntley and raising his salary.

He Got the Room.

In "Coal Oil Johnny's" flush times he went to a hotel and registered, but the clerk would not give him a room because he had no baggage. Johnny was not going to be stopped by anything like that. Although it was well along in the evening, he went to the house of a trunkmaker and woke him up. He made him a dazzling offer, and the dealer came downtown and opened up. Two expressmen were dug up similarly. The oil prince Fortunatus then went back to the hotel and said, "I want that room; also I have twenty trunks, and I want them all delivered in my room immediately."

A Little Previous.

During the latter part of the war between the states Basil Gildersleeve lay one day apparently at the point of death, surrounded by several members of his family. "Brother," he murmured faintly, "I have, at most, only a few days to live, and when I am laid to rest I want you to have my new pair of boots in the closet yonder. I paid $250, Confederate, for them, and you are sorely in need of a pair." Instead of the expected burst of gratitude, there was no answer. Racked with emotion at the thought of his great loss, the brother was evidently too much overcome for speech. "Brother," persisted the future "immortal" weakly, "you mustn't have any foolish sentiment about those boots. I will never be well enough to wear them again, and it would be pure extravagance to bury me in them." Still, the brother, his face flushed, his heart too full for utterance, made no reply. "Won't you promise me to wear the boots after I am gone?" Gildersleeve pleaded. "Basil," stammered the other, crimsoning with confusion, "I've—got 'em on now."

Mark Twain's Mission.

Mark Twain did not cherish a fondness for the average office boy. He had an idea that the genus was insufferable, and invariably when the humorist sallied forth into some business office there was immediate armed hostility between him and the boy.

One day Mark went to see a friend at his office, and the office boy on guard, in icy tones, said:

"Whom do you wish to see?"

Mark mentioned his friend's name.

"What do you want to see him about?" came next from the boy.

Mark Twain immediately froze up, and then with a genial smile he said: "Tell him, please, I want to ask his hand in holy matrimony."

—Patience is a virtue, but that doesn't alter the fact that very often it is a necessity.

MULLEN'S MISTAKE.

Thought He Recognized the Portrait, but Changed His Opinion.

Festus J. Wade, a St. Louis banker, had a friend, a police captain, who died. The friends of the dead policeman wanted to give the widow an appropriate memorial and subscribed enough money to have a large oil portrait painted by a local artist. The dead policeman's name was O'Brien. When the portrait was finished it was taken to the house of the widow and placed on exhibition. All who subscribed to the fund were invited to come and see it, and they assembled one night. The portrait was unveiled by the artist. Half of those present said it was a good likeness and half said it was very poor. The dispute was warm. Finally the artist, seeing his fee slipping away from him, as there seemed no basis of settlement as to the merits of the picture, suggested that a fire captain named Mullen, who lived near by and who was an intimate friend of O'Brien, should be called in and the merit or demerit of the picture left to him.

Mullen came and was shown the picture.

"Who is it?" asked the artist.

"It's O'Brien," said Mullen. "By my faith, it's O'Brien! It's my old friend O'Brien."

Mullen walked up and put out his hand to touch the picture.

"Don't do that!" exclaimed the artist. "It's not dry."

"Not dry!" shouted Mullen. "Not dry, is it? Then, if it isn't dry it isn't O'Brien."—Pittsburgh Press.

A Puzzle to Bill Nye.

James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, used to tour the country with Bill Nye in lecture courses. One night, while the two were behind the scenes in the theater of some eastern town, Riley got tired of waiting while Nye tried to make himself beautiful and, tiptoeing to the drop curtain, peered out into the auditorium. He came back to Nye's dressing room in consternation.

"Great Scott!" he whispered. "This is awful! There ain't a pesky handful of people out there, Bill!"

"I don't know why there isn't, Jim," replied Nye dreamily, continuing to "wrassle" with his tie. "We've never been here before."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Man With the Umbrella.

One of the famous sculptors of Paris, a man renowned for his resourcefulness and his humor, was caught in a downpour of rain and took refuge in a doorway. There was no taxi to be obtained, the fiacres that passed were full, and there was no prospect of the rain abating. At the moment a gentleman passed, well dressed and carrying a large umbrella. The sculptor saw his opportunity, shook hands with the stranger and installed himself under the umbrella. It was a coincidence that they should have met. He had been looking out for his acquaintance for the past fortnight. He talked incessantly about a hypothetical family and other matters until they reached the studio. Then the sculptor discovered his mistake and apologized. The apology was accepted coldly, so the man with the umbrella was invited to inspect the studio. He declined and bade "au revoir." The sculptor entertained his family with the ruse. One member remarked that his tie was disordered. He put up his hand. His pin was missing. So were his watch and his purse.

Fishing de Luxe.

Captain George Walker, an amateur yachtsman of Savannah, says he used to have a darky hand on his Georgia plantation who loved ease and fishing. When he wasn't fishing he was loafing.

One night there was a rain almost heavy enough to be called a cloudburst, and the next morning all the low places on the plantation were flooded two feet deep. Passing the negro's cabin, Captain Walker found him seated in an easy chair at the kitchen door, fishing in a small puddle of muddy water that had been formed there.

"Henry, you old fool," said Captain Walker, "what are you doing there?"

"Boss," said Henry, "I's jest fishin' a little."

"Well, don't you know there are no fish there?" demanded Captain Walker.

"Yes, suh," said Henry; "I knows dat. But dis here place is so handy!"—Saturday Evening Post.

TAFT AND T. R. IN TERRIFIC BATTLE

With Vote Close, Ugly Bribery Stories Appear.

ROOSEVELT LIKELY TO GO

Although He Hasn't Said So, Intimates Declare He Will Leave For Convention City—More Talk of Dark Horse. Hadley Wins Missouri Vote.

Chicago, June 14.—The situation here, almost on the eve of the Republican national convention, is tense. It is feared that a national scandal is brewing. Stories of bribes are in the air. Almost anything can be looked for. The fight for the delegates is growing more bitter hourly.

Mutterings of this scandal, charges and countercharges as to the use of money and other practical inducements, especially with southern delegates, are heard in both headquarters and in the corridors of the hotels and clubs. The Roosevelt men are well aware that by the time the national committee ends its investigation of the contests on Saturday night that President Taft will have a paper majority of thirty-four. That majority of thirty-four must be wiped out by the Roosevelt forces if they are to win.

In addition the Roosevelt chieftains must get many more votes than these thirty-four if they are to be victorious for the reason that Senator La Follette, with the twenty-six votes of Wisconsin and the ten votes of North Dakota and Senator Cummins with the ten votes of Iowa at their back must be conciliated.

Cummins Is Candidate.

Senator Cummins is an out and out candidate for the presidential nomination. He believes this convention is to be so deadlocked that he will eventually run off with the prize. Senator La Follette and his thirty-six votes will never go over to Roosevelt, according to the best information. The Taft men already are working day and night to prevent desertions from their ranks. The Roosevelt campaigners are working just as industriously to dissipate that paper majority of thirty-four.

The Taft chieftains believe that even if President Taft's paper majority of thirty-four is wiped out by the Roosevelt inroads and Taft's nomination is prevented on the first ballot La Follette's thirty-six will go over to Taft on the second ballot and thus bring about the president's renomination. The Roosevelt forces, replying to this, declare that if the president is not nominated on the first ballot no power on earth could prevent enough desertions from him to the Roosevelt camp sufficient to bring about Roosevelt's nomination on the second ballot.

On every street corner, in every spot where the politicians congregate, you hear tales of the use of money and of bribes in the shape of federal preferment.

Dreadful Scandal Feared.

The closeness of the contests between Taft and Roosevelt has necessarily emphasized this talk of bribery and corruption. It is this talk that has induced the best informed authorities here to express apprehension lest a dreadful scandal shall become the paramount feature for the next few days of this situation.

Free prophecies are made here that Colonel Roosevelt is coming to Chicago. The men who are closest to him and know his present intentions are those who say he surely will be at the convention.

"You won't be far wrong if you say he is coming," said a friend of the colonel's. "It cannot be announced as an assured fact, but there is mighty little doubt about it."

A big Roosevelt mass meeting in the Auditorium theater is on the books for Monday night, and the colonel is expected to be the principal attraction. The men who have the meeting in charge are Medill McCormick, Alex H. Bevell, a manager of the Roosevelt western department, and Congressman William Kent of California.

The meeting was originally scheduled for tonight, and its postponement lent substance to the report that the colonel will be on hand as principal speaker.

Will Be Spectacular.

This meeting, coming on the eve of the opening of the convention, it is said will be about the most spectacular incident in the preconvention campaign. Those who hold that the colonel cannot be nominated, and these are Taft followers, say that this meeting will serve as the first session of a bolters' convention. The Roosevelt crowd, however, declare that the colonel is good as nominated already and that the meeting will start the stampede for Roosevelt. There seems to be no doubt that if the colonel talks in the Auditorium theater that his speech will be in he nature of a personal appeal to the delegates as against the attitude of the national committee.

Roosevelt Delegates Seated.

Chicago, June 14.—When the Republican national committee adjourned until today the number of contested delegates which had been awarded to President Taft was 158 and to Theodore Roosevelt 14. The committee gave Mr. Taft eleven congress district delegates in Mississippi and six district delegates in Missouri, or a total of seventeen for the day, while the committee awarded one congress district delegate to Colonel Roosevelt in Mississippi, the four delegates at large and four congress district delegates in Missouri and four congress districts in North Carolina.

Governor H. S. Hadley of Missouri won the Missouri cases for Roosevelt by the straightforward, simple manner in which he presented the case of the delegates at large from Missouri. He went over the ground by which the delegates were chosen and followed this up with the affidavit of seven of the nine prominent Republicans who were said to have been a party to an agreement whereby the delegates at large were to go to Roosevelt. The committee on Mr. Hadley's showing were quick to determine that there was nothing else to do but recognize the Roosevelt-Hadley delegates at large. They were seated on the motion of Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania.

By the earnest, straightforward and simple manner in which he presented the case of the delegates at large of Missouri Governor Hadley won the Republican national committee at Chicago, which has been charged with running the "steam roller" over all the Roosevelt delegates. HUGHES WON'T HAVE IT.

Declines to Permit Himself to Be Made a Compromise Candidate.

New York, June 14.—Justic Hughes of the United States supreme court passed through this city on his way to the Adirondacks. He has taken Camp Abenaki at Lake Placid, and he will spend the summer there.

To friends who spoke of reports from Chicago of the possibility of his nomination by the Republican national convention as a compromise candidate for the presidency he said that he was entirely out of politics and would not permit the use of his name under any circumstances and that this must be regarded as final.

GERMAN SQUADRON HOMEWARD BOUND.

Rear Admiral of Fleet Thankful For Reception.

New York, June 14.—The German cruiser squadron, emissaries of Kaiser Wilhelm's good will, weighed anchor, their mission accomplished, and stood out to sea. A homeward bound pennant of yards and yards of white flickered goodby to New York from the mainmast head of the great battle cruiser Moltke, the flagship of Rear Admiral von Rebeur-Paschwitz.

Just as Rear Admiral von Rebeur-Paschwitz was stepping into his launch to go to his flagship a few minutes before sailing time he paused to make a statement to the newspaper men gathered there. He said:

"I cannot express my appreciation of the fine treatment that has been given us. I hope the fraternal relations engendered will cement the friendship of our two countries.

"As a last word I want to thank the public, the press and the city for the fine reception every one has given us."

PANIC CHECKED BY $42,000,000 LOAN

Government Aided In Dark Days of 1907.

ADMITTED BY CORTELYOU

Former Secretary of Treasury at the "Money Trust" Hearing Says Big Sum Was Advanced to "Relieve General Situation," Not Stock Exchange.

New York, June 14.—George B. Cortelyou, former secretary of the treasury, told the "money trust" probers of congress that $42,000,000 of United States government funds were deposited in the New York banks in October, 1907, to allay the financial distress. This money checked the then existing panic.

The amount of Uncle Sam's savings so used was $17,000,000 larger than the probing committee had supposed, as the general report was that only $25,000,000 was distributed.

Pressed by innumerable questions from Samuel Untermyer as to what banks received the money, Mr. Cortelyou finally replied, "I don't recall."

Mr. Morgan in Charge.

Asked if there was any agreement that Mr. J. P. Morgan was to distribute the money, Mr. Cortelyou said:

"Not that I know of. My understanding was that the clearing house committee was to take charge, but Mr. Morgan was generally looked to for guidance."

"He directed the banks?" asked Mr. Untermyer.

"Yes," replied the witness. "I did not dictate where the money was to go after it was in the national banks."

Mr. Untermyer tried to ascertain from Mr. Cortelyou whether any of the government funds were used to relieve the Stock Exchange situation.

"I don't know anything about that," said Mr. Cortelyou. "My understanding was that it was used to relieve the general situation."

GIRL WALKS AFTER A LEAP OF SIX STORIES

Faints In Doorway and Dies In Hospital Shortly After.

New York, June 14.—Despondent because the man she was to have married next Saturday had disappeared, Miss Bertha Kriminsky, eighteen years old, jumped from the roof of a six story building, breaking her back.

Despite the frightful wound the young woman staggered to her feet, rubbed herself and walked away before any one could interfere. Ten minutes later she sank, fainting, into a doorway. She was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where she died within an hour.

HOUSE VOTES TO OUST WOOD.

Representative Prince Leads Fight For Defeat of Proposition.

Washington, June 14.—The conference report on the army appropriation bill, containing new legislation highly objectionable to the administration, including a provision throwing Major General Leonard Wood out of office on March 4 next as chief of the army general staff, was adopted by the house of representatives by a vote of 121 to 92.

Representative Prince of Illinois, ranking Republican of the house military committee, led a hard fight for the defeat of the Hay-Warren blow at General Wood, but the Democratic side voted almost solidly in approval of what the conferees recommended and could not be swerved by the bitter character of the attack made upon the report.

Quick Retort.

Paola has a bill collector noted for his repartee. "I never will pay you," shouted a young man who became angry at the insistent demands of the collector. "Nor any one else," was the reply.—Kansas City Journal.

COUNTY C. E. OFFICERS PLAN FOR YEAR'S WORK

Officers elected by the Union County Christian Endeavor Union last month met in Elizabeth this week to discuss the work of the coming year. George W. Mingus, of Rahway, the president, offered prayer and presided. Chairman of the several departments were announced as follows: Missionary, Miss Julia T. Kerr, Elizabeth; Christian citizenship, J. Duer Randolph, Elizabeth; fresh air, F. C. Lounsbury, Jr., Plainfield; junior and Sunday-school, Miss Nell C. Green, Elizabeth; press and information, Harry Pennoyer, Plainfield.

Other members of the committees will be selected and announced later, with the exception of Mr. Lounsbury's committee, which is organized and at work, the term of the fresh air committee running from October to October. It was decided that so far as possible the committee members will be chosen from the city in which the chairman lives or from closely contiguous towns. This will conserve effort and make possible more frequent meetings of the committees.

Tentative dates and places for the conference of the departments were selected. These will be presented for discussion and approval or change at a meeting of the executive committee, which is to be held Tuesday evening, June 25, at the home of A. R. Taintor, a vice president of the union. The secretary, W. O. Anderson, was instructed to send notices to the societies urging a large attendance for this meeting. Each society is represented by the president, junior superintendent and one other delegate appointed by the president

The places at which it is desired to hold the conferences are churches in which there are strong Christian Endeavor societies. Permission to hold the meetings will be asked of the trustees or sessions of the respective churches. It was decided that the custom followed last year of serving a supper in connection with the department conferences would be discontinued. The conferences will be held on Fridays, at 8 o'clock in the evening, the provisional dates and places being: Friday, October 18, missionary, First Presbyterian church, Plainfield; Friday, November 22, junior, Presbyterian church, Springfield; Friday, December 13, efficiency and lookout, Greystone Presbyterian church, Elizabeth; Friday, January 24, 1913, Christian citizenship, First Presbyterian church, Rahway; Friday, February 14, press and information, Congregational church, Westfield; Friday, March 14, fresh air, Third Presbyterian church, Elizabeth.

Dates for the executive committee meetings will be chosen at the meeting on June 25.

Most of the officers and department chairman were present at the meeting, and there was an earnest and enthusiastic interest in the work of the union, which promises to be especially fruitful during the coming year.

BEAT UP HUSBAND WHO TOOK HER FALSE TEETH

Phillipsburg, June 14.—For genuinely exasperating tactics a Phillipsburg husband, John Banner, an Assyrian silk worker, takes the pennant from which he derives his name. Wednesday, in order to keep his wife, with whom he had repeatedly quarreled, from leaving him, he sneaked her false teeth, slipped them in his hip pocket and started off to work.

But if the absence of her teeth embarrassed Mrs. Banner too much to permit her to make social calls, it did not prevent her from chasing her husband to the mill door and there engaging in a fight, in the course of which both she and her spouse were badly scratched on face and arms. Mrs. Banner put up such a good fight, however, that she got back her teeth.

With the artificial molars once more in place, she visited Mayor her husband. She got it. When she and her husband together faced the Mayor, they agreed to live apart. The quarrel, it developed, was over a propensity on the part of the wife to send money to a relative abroad.

Banner came in for a pretty strong rebuke from the Mayor, and a joke-smith among the spectators declared it would have served him right had his spouse knocked him down while he was carrying the teeth so hard that they would have bitten him.

WHITEHOUSE GIRL IS BRIDE OF NEWARK MAN

Whitehouse, June 14.—Many Newarkers attended the wedding of Miss Eleanor J. Van Nest, daughter of Township Clerk and Mrs. Henry B. Van Nest, and James Baas, of Newark, which was celebrated Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in North Branch.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles E. Hoyt, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Pluckemin, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The parlors were decorated with flowers and plants. The bridemaids were Miss Josephine Ball, of New York, and Miss Grace Baas, of Newark. Arthur Hart, of Newark, was the best man and the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Iva Dayton, of Dunellen.

The bride was attired in a gown of white satin trimmed with white net and braid, and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. The bridemaids wore gowns of white and blue and carried pink carnations. After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Baas were driven to Bound Brook in an automobile, and there took a train to Niagara Falls. On their return they will make their home in North Branch for the summer. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Baas, of 198 Garside street, Newark, and is connected with the Mutual Trust Company in New York City.

Green, pastor of the Reformed church, of South Bound Brook, of which Mrs. Eichman was a member. Burial was made in Bound Brook cemetery. Besides her husband, William Eichman, Mrs. Eichman leaves two daughters, Mrs. C. T. Holt, with whom she lived, and Mrs. Edward Foster, of Trenton. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Laird Potter, of New York, and three brothers, George F. Trimmer, of Dunellen; Charles B. Trimmer, of Roselle, and William M. Trimmer, of New York.

MRS. ALETTA VAN SCOTEN.

Whitehouse, June 14.—The funeral services of Mrs. Aletta Van-Scoten, eighty-eight years old, were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Cole, at Burnt Mills, near here yesterday morning. Rev. Dr. John T. Scott, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at Lamington, officiated and the burial was in the cemetery there. Mrs. Van Scoten died at her home after a short illness from an attack of pneumonia. She was the widow of Daniel Van Scoten, and was a member of one of the oldest families of Somerset county. Her maiden name was Aletta Messier and her mother was a Bergen. Her husband had been dead many years.

The flower girl was Miss Alma Selig, of Orange Harry Von Lehn, of Elizabeth, was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Louis Hamm. Mr. and Mrs. Mussiman left on a wedding trip. They will reside at Roselle Park.

GEIST-ROGERS.

Califon, June 14.—Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ethel Rogers, of New York, and John H. Geist, Jr., of Newark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Geist, of Califon. Upon their return from a wedding trip through Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia and Ohio they will live at Newark.

WHO-OO?

I wonder if you have ever heard
Of the queer little, dismal Whiney-bird,
As black as a crow, as glum as an owl—
A most peculiar kind of a fowl?
He is oftenest seen on rainy days,
When children are barred from outdoor plays;
When the weather is bright and the warm sun shines,
When he flies far away to the gloomy pines,
Dreary looking, indeed, is his old black cloak,
And his voice is the dismalest kind of a croak.
And his whiney cry makes the whole house blue—
"There's nothing to do-oo! there's nothing to do-oo!"
Did you ever meet this doleful bird?
He's found where the children are, I've heard.
Now, who can he be? It can't be you,
But who is the Whiney-bird. Who-oo? Who-oo? —St. Nicholas.

STUNG.

The sign in front of the kaif read as follows:

"A Brand New Collar With Each Glass of Beer."

Wherefore certain persons who counted pennies while restraining their thirst figured upon securing a bargain and were lured inside.

The glasses were large and long, but the solid amber fluid in each was scarce.

"And where is the collar?" asked one who had read the sign, paid for the beer and waited developments.

"On the beer, you gink," replied the barkeep.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

FOOLISH TO CLOSE.

"Why do you wish to close this show?" demanded the beautiful actress.

"It is losing money," replied the manager.

"What of that? The critics all say that I look lovely in by part."—Chicago Record-Herald.

NOT THE FIRST.

"Algernon, am I the first woman you have ever loved?"

"Not exactly. I was in love with my teacher at 10 and with a circus rider at 12. But you are the first girl I have ever asked to marry me, my dear."—Washington Herald.

A TRICKY TONGUE.

It Won Dean Spooner a Reputation For Unconscious Humor.

QUEER BLUNDERS OF SPEECH

Some of the Gems Attributed to the Old Dean's Habit of Interchanging the First Letters or Syllables of Words—American "Spoonerisms."

"Spoonerisms" is a recognized and accepted word used in the best circles of English society, even though it has not yet found its way into the dictionaries. Derived from the last name of the Rev. William A. Spooner, warden of New college, Oxford, it characterizes a curious sort of blunder that is habitual with that man—the unconscious interchanging of the first letters or syllables of words with what are often directly humorous results.

The most famous of all the stories about him tells how he once thundered out from the pulpit, "Jehovah was not on the side of the kinkering congs," meaning, of course, "conquering kings."

At another time he convulsed his audience by boldly stating that he held concealed a half wormed fish (half formed wish) in his bosom.

At a university dinner given at the time of Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee he proposed, "Three cheers for the queer old dean," and they were given with a will, in honor not only of the dear old queen whom he had wished to remember, but of the queer old dean who had forgotten himself.

Exasperated by a would be humorist among his pupils, he informed him that he had a "weeble fit," not meaning any new disease, but the old, old complaint of a feeble wit.

To another who had been mainly occupied in wasting two terms at college he complained, "You have been incorrigibly lazy and, to top it all, you have tasted two worms."

In quoting the familiar text, "Bow not thy knee to an idol," he made it, "Bow not thine eye to a needle."

One day he discovered a stranger sitting in his family pew. "Madam," whispered he, "do you intend to occupew this pie?"

Also he could blunder as blithesomely in action as in speech. One windy day, as he was walking down High street in Oxford, his hat blew off. He stooped to pick it up, but at that very moment a hen hurried by. He set off in full pursuit and never stopped until he had caught hold of the luckless hen on Magdalen bridge. Then and there he solemnly tried to put the bird on his head.

Such are a few of the blunders in word and deed that have been attributed to the "dear old dean." Must we accept them all as genuine? Not if we are to believe a contributor to M. A. P., who informed that paper that at a church congress a well known delegate said to him:

"Have you ever noticed how spoonerisms have died out since Canon Liddon is no more? I will tell you how it is. Liddon and I used to make them up. One of our best, which is always attributed to Spooner, is 'From Iceland's Greasy Mountains.'"

Spoonerisms at all events existed before Spooner himself was born. Some meritorious ones may be found in Moore's Diary. There is the story, for example, of an old actor named Parker, who used always to say the "coisoned pup" instead of the "poisoned cup." One night when he spoke it right the audience said "No, no!" and called for the other reading. Another actor mentioned in Moore made a great hit with the misquotation:

How sharper than a serpent's thanks it is
To have a toothless child.

John Kemble was one night performing a favorite part in a country theater when he was interrupted from time to time by the squalling of a child in the gallery. At length, angered by this rival performance, Kemble walked with solemn step to the front of the stage and, addressing the audience in his most tragic tones, said, "Ladies and gentlemen, unless the play is stopped the child cannot possibly go on."

America itself is not without its Spooners and its consequent spoonerisms. There must have been at least three Spooners in the western court where the following scene is said to have taken place:

"How far is it between these two towns?" asked the lawyer.

"About four miles as the flow cries," replied the witness.

"You mean as the cry flows."

"No," put in the judge; "he means as the fly crows."

And then they all looked at one another, feeling that something was wrong.

A sort of conscious spoonerism was that brilliant jest credited to Dean Briggs of Harvard. During the year when the slogan "To hell with Yale!" first became popular among Cambridge undergraduates the dean, in company with Dr. Edward Everett Hale, was hurrying on his way to a great football game between Yale and Harvard.

"Where are you going?" asked another member of the faculty.

"To yell with Hale," answered Dr. Briggs.—Boston Post.

HIGH HONOR FOR GIRL GRADUATES

Board Members and N. P. H. S. Faculty Present Cup to Miss Helen Hummel.

NINETEEN GRADUATED

Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong Delivers Address on Value of Dreams and Visions in Life—William Parker Taylor Gets Yale Cup.

The value of dreams and visions in achieving success was the theme of the address delivered by Rev. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, at the commencement exercises of the North Plainfield High School in the Plainfield theatre last night. "God pity the man who is not a dreamer," he said, "and who does not see visions; he is but a clod of earth."

The surprise of the evening was sprung on the large audience by Supervising Principal H. C. Krebs in the presentation of a silver cup to Miss Helen Augusta Hummel for athletics and scholarship. For four years this talented young woman, said Mr. Krebs, had captained the girls' basketball team and had led them on to victory, helping them win the series last year with nineteen games to their credit out of twenty. In consideration of her exceptional abilities in both athletics and scholarship, the faculty and the members of the Board of Education had decided on making her this presentation coupling it with their best wishes for her future success.

The Yale Cup was presented to William Parker Taylor by Benjamin J. Phelps, principal of the High School, a graduate of Yale, and member of the Yale Club. The cup is a gift made by the Yale Club to the graduate who makes the best all-round showing in athletics, scholarship and moral conduct.

Dr. J. H. Cooley, president of the Borough Board of Education awarded diplomas to the following nineteen graduates: Ethel Rose Andrews, Louis Nodyne Bennett, Bessie May Carson, Florence Burnedette Daly, Margaret Louise Darby, Emma Sadie Dougherty, Lawrence Henry French, Helen Augusta Hummel, Edmund John Kenney, Henry Vroom Kinney, Ella Veselius Miller, Guy Dayton Peck, Elsie Fuller Schmidt, George Theodore Spencer, Carrol Cushing Taylor, William Parker Taylor, Madeline Uhrhahn, Edith Esther Wheeler and Grace Edna Williams.

Edmund J. Kenney delivered the salutatory, "The Panama Canal," the full text of which apaeprs in another column.

"There was never a deed worth doing that was not the action of a dreamer," said Dr. Strong in the course of his address to the graduates. "One who has never built a castle in the air was unworthy of a castle on earth. When Raphael was asked the secret of his painting he replied, 'I dream dreams; I see visions; and I paint them!'"

To the dreamers, continued Dr. Strong, they owed all the great achievements chronicled in the world's history. "All of us at times like to live in a world of make-believe and in a realm of imagination." It was the proper state to live in; for imagination played a larger part in our daily business lives than many were aware of.

The catchy advertisements in our papers; the "get rich" quick schemes were appeals to the imagination, said the speaker, and there was never a project attained or a goal reached that its plan had not been conceived in the imagination and its vision beheld. Visions were the beginning of victory but a gap intervenes that can only be bridged by hard toil and struggle. Visions were of two kinds like opportunities—unsought and creative. And to the young students who were just now stepping into the threshold of business life he would ask them to cherish their visions and adhere rightly to their class motto, "Onward and Upward."

Guy D. Peck, Jr., gave the valedictory. After a dissertation on the history of radium and its unvaluable aid to science on behalf of the graduates he bade farewell to their alma mater.

The invocation was given by Rev. W. S. McCoy, rector of Holy Cross church, who also closed with benediction.

The Y. W. C. A. orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Day, of New Market, rendered four numbers, which met with much applause, and the High School chorus, under the leadership of Herbert Lloyd, with Miss M. Emmons at the piano, charmed with their offerings.

The decorations on the stage were palms, laurels, evergreens, carnations, daisies and roses, which, in conjunction with the white gowns of the girl graduates, formed a striking tableau. Congratulations, good wishes and floral tributes were showered on the nineteen graduates.

Under his direction an addition was built to the edifice and several other improvements made. During the last year twenty-four converts have joined the church.

The fortieth anniversary of the institution of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, was held last night in the Babcock building, and was attended by a large gathering. The hall was prettily decorated with flags and bunting and a large banner with the color of the order, and the stage was banked in front with potted plants.

There was a continuous flow of oratory during the course of the evening, the growth and influence of the order being the chief topic. The principal speakers were Supreme Representative P. Frank Chanley, Jersey City; Grand Chancellor W. D. Quick, Somerville; Grand Vice Chancellor Samuel A. Dobbins, Camden; Grand Keeper of Record and Seal E. E. Margerum, Trenton; Judge Lewis H. Schenck, Neshanic; Grand Tribune, William H. Everson, chairman of the finance committee, New Brunswick; Carrol L. After the speechmaking a banquet followed at which the representatives of the visiting lodges from Somerville, Neshanic, Bound Brook and Unity Lodge, No. 102, of this city, were feasted.

Perseverance Lodge was instituted on June 11, 1872, by eleven charter members of whom the only living one is Julius Cantorwitz. He was assigned to the place of honor at the banqueting table and got a warm reception. Perseverance is now one of the strongest lodges in the state.

REV. J. L. LANSDALE INSTALLED AS PASTOR

Many Attend Ceremony at the Newly Instituted Marconnier Church.

Rev. J. Tucker Landsdale was installed as pastor of the Marconnier Reformed church, at Oak Tree, last night, under the supervision of the Newark Classis. There was a large attendance of members and friends of the recently instituted church and the exercises were of unusual interest. Rev. Lucas Boeve, assistant pastor of the North Reformed church, Newark, presided in the absence of the president of Classis, and he read the installation service from the liturgy.

Following a prayer by Elder D. H. Merritt, of the North Reformed church, Newark, Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, preached the sermon, his theme being, "The Model Church." He said that the model church should be patterned after the Apostolic church, where everything was preceded by prayer. Mr. Broek said that other essential features in the model church were liberality, a spirit of brotherhood and a missionary spirit, all of which he said must be found in the successful church.

Rev. Henry T. Jones, of Whitehouse, who was the first pastor of Marconnier chapel, gave the charge to the pastor. He also reviewed some of the early history of that field, when he served the people as pastor, and spoke hopefully of the future. The charge to the people was given by Rev. Charles Beach Condit, stated clerk of the Newark Classis. He said that it was necessary for a church to make known Christ and for the members to be loyal to the pastor and the church.

A feature of the service was the music, which was in charge of Arthur L. Titsworth, organist of Trinity Reformed church. The quartet from that church comprising Miss Etta Raybert, soprano; Mrs. Charles Hutcheson, contralto; E. D. Young, tenor, and F. S. Cutter, bass, sang a number of selections in a pleasing manner.

After the installation service there was a social hour, during which refreshments were served by the women of the church. Rev. and Mrs. Landsdale were the recipients of congratulations all expressing the hope that they would be successful in their work.

She was an attendant of Trinity Reformed church and a member of the Sunday school. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. M. A. Randolph, a sister, Ida Randolph Smalley, and one brother, Wesley C. Randolph, formerly of St. Paul, Minn., but now of this city.

The funeral will be held at the late home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Evarts C. Conover, assisted by Rev. J. Y. Broek, will officiate. The burial will be in North Plainfield cemetery.

FUNERAL OF MRS ROWLAND.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine F. Howland was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of her son, W. W. Howland, on Rockview avenue, and was private. Rev. Dr. J. S. Y., for interment in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

The society's meeting at 7 o'clock will be omitted on that account.

Some Warmth.

When Teddy's hat fell in the ring,
An Up-to-dater said: "By jing!
'Twill surely be a warm campaign.
Warm as mid-summer's fervent reign;
Warm as the glow created by The Geo. O. Stevens' coal supply."

LEAL'S SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Several Features Serve to Make Closing Exercises Unusually Interesting.

Leal's school for boys, at the closing exercises held at the school yesterday afternoon. There were several features, including the awarding of prizes, announcement of excellence in scholarship, the presentation of the Yale cup, together with an address by Rev. Dr. John T. Reeve, of Basking Ridge, which combined to make the exercises decidedly interesting. There was a large attendance of parents and friends.

Contrary to the usual custom, some of the smaller boys were given first place on the program. Wadsworth Parker, Southgate Morison, Fred Tag and Robert F. Chester gave a recitative sketch, of which familiar nursery rhymes were a part. Then some of the older boys gave Shakespeare's "Death of Caesar," together with Marc Anthony's oration, in a way that reflected much credit. The parts were taken as follows:

"Marc Anthony," Burnham Carter; "Brutus," Robert Fraker; first citizen, Nathan Stevens; second citizen, William Irons; third citizen, James Benson Ball; fourth citizen, Louis K. Hyde, Jr., while Edward Hyde and Chapman Kinney carried the body of Caesar.

The address of the afternoon was made by Rev. Dr. John T. Reeve, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Basking Ridge. He took for his subject: "The Right View of Life," and he urged the boys to get that right view now. He deplored the old saying that the world owes a man a liv-

CONVICT GALLAGHER OF SERIOUS CRIME

Dunellenite, Arrested on Girl's Charge, Faces Possibility of 15-year Sentence.

Theodore Gallagher, of Dunellen, was convicted yesterday of attacking Barbara Soukup, then a girl of 15, at Dunellen, about two years ago. She charged that he mistreated her in the factory of the Hall Printing Press Company, where he was night-watchman.

The case was on for two days before Judge Daly, and the testimony concluded yesterday with Gallagher going on the stand and flatly denying the girl's story. He said that he took a fatherly interest in the child, but nothing improper had ever occurred between them.

He admitted leaving Dunellen after the charge was brought against him, and going to New York in disguise. He explained the disguise by saying that his bald head and gray whiskers made it impossible for him to get work. He did not refute the charge that he had changed his name, however.

Ex-Judge Cowenhoven, for the defense, and Assistant Prosecutor Stricker, for the State, summed up yesterday morning and the case went to the jury a little before 11 o'clock. The jury returned about 11:35.

The maximum penalty that may be imposed upon Gallagher is fifteen years.

ADVENTISTS START SERIES OF TENT MEETINGS HERE

Preliminary to the big convention to be held here beginning June 27, the Seventh Day Adventists will start tent meetings tomorrow night. The Adventists hold that the Bible tells what the futue history of the world is to be, and that one can depend on these prophecies of the future because the prophetic story has not failed in a single instance from the days of Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, down to the present time.

The prophetic story will be told tomorrow night at the tent at the corner of Fourth street and Stebbins place. The story of the conquests of Alexander the Great, Caesar, and other great military leaders, and the struggles of the future for leadership among nations, and the outcome—the purpose of it all—given direct from the Book, will make the service at the tent worth attending.

Every night except Saturday subjects of interest are to be presented at the tent. The Fourth street cars pass it.

MISS SERRELL IS JUNE BRIDE

Wedded to Ralph Armstrong, of New York, at First Baptist Church.

NUPTIALS ELABORATE

Two Ministers Officiate—Reception at the Home of the Bride—Many Gifts—Will Reside on Union Street.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Serrell, daughter of George Serrell, and granddaughter of the late Lemuel Wright Serrell, of this city, and Ralph Williston Armstrong, of New York, were married at 6:30 o'clock, last night at the Park Avenue Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, and Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, assisted.

The bridemaids were Mrs. C. M. Gebhardt, Miss Winnie Myer, Miss Florence Andrews, of New York; Mrs. Harry Borst, of Bayonne; Miss Geraldine Rennie, of Hackensack, and Miss Grace Corwin, of Newark; Miss Minnie B. Serrell, sister of the bride, was the maid-of-honor. They all wore white lingerie frocks of marquisette over satin slips in rainbow colors, two in blue, two in lavendar and two in yellow, while the maid-of-honor's frock was entirely pink. They all carried large bouquets of daisies. Two little flower girls, Miss Zaidee Frances Briggs, a niece of the bride, from Milwaukee, and Miss Dorothy Gray, of New York, carried baskets of daisies which were strewn in front of the bride.

W. P. DeSassure, of Englewood Cliff, was the best man and the ushers were T. M. Logan, of Englewood Cliff; R. P. Parott, of East Orange; R. S. Burnett, of Jersey City; S. Royden Fanning, of Newark; Arthur N. Hazeltine, of Westfield, and Ralph S. Gatcomb, of New York.

The bride wore a trailing gown of white satin charmeuse with a tunic of rose point and princess lace. Her tulle veil was surmounted by a chaplet of orange blossoms and the train caught up with small sprays of lilies-of-the-valley, the bride's favorite flower. Her only ornament was a platinum brooch, set with pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. She carried a bride's bouquet of lavendar orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Prior to the arrival of the bridal party, Clifford A. Braider, organist of the First M. E. church and cousin of the bride, played the following numbers: "Bridal Song," Rogers; "Twilight Picture," Shelley; "Air du Nord," Wolstenholme; "Nuit d'Etc," Binet; "Spring Song," Macfarlane; "Romanza in A major," Lamare.

As the bridal party entered the church, the Wedding March, "Faithful and True," from Lohengrin, was sung by the quartet choir of the First M. E. church, and previous to that the quartet sang "O Perfect Love," by Barnby. At the close of the benediction a sevenfold Amen was sung by the quartet.

After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom, with their attendants retired to the Sunday-school room where they were showered with the congratulations of their relatives and friends. The wedding breakfast at the home of the bride for the bridal party and the two families was served with the guests seated at small tables. The color scheme was carried out with sweet peas in different colors, while daisies and ferns added to the effect. The decorations at the church comprised vines, ferns and daisies.

The bridegroom's gifts to his ushers and best man were gold monogramed tie clasps, while the bridemaids received pearl lavallieres, the maid of honor a pearl bar pin and the flower girls little gold hearts.

Among the numerous gifts received by the bride is a chest of six dozen pieces of silver from the bridegroom's friends in the Safety Car Heating & Lighting Company, of which Mr. Armstrong is the electrical engineer.

The bride is a niece of Miss Ella Serrell, of 931 Union street, and after July 15, the couple will reside at that address. Mrs. Armstrong has been very active in Sunday-school work, both at the First and Park Avenue Baptist churches, being the teacher of classes at both churches. For several years she held a position with E. K. Stallo, of New York.

A GREAT RECORD.

Hard to Duplicate It In Plainfield.

Scores of representative citizens of Plainfield are testifying for Doan's Kidney Pills. Such a record of local endorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it:

Mrs. O. C. Moore, 57 Manning avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "You may continue to publish my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills which I gave in August, 1905. I endured much misery from backache which was caused by my kidneys. Many nights I was unable to rest at all and when I arose in the morning, my limbs were so stiff and sore that I could hardly get out of bed. Whenever I caught the least cold, it settled on my kidneys and any strain on my back always made my aches and pains worse. I was treated by physicians but their medicine did not help me and it was not until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's drug store, that I had any hope of getting rid of my trouble. This preparation made me feel like a different person and I have never had any serious trouble since. I use Doan's Kidney Pills once in a while, however, and they keep my kidneys in good working order."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

JERSEY HEALTH AUTHORITIES TO ATTEND HYGIENE CONGRESS

Washington, June 15.—The Board of Health of the State of New Jersey, through its secretary, Dr. Bruce S. Keator, is planning to secure a very general participation by the health authorities of the cities and towns of the State in the Fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography, which meets in Washington, in September.

The State Board of Health will communicate with the health officers of the different municipalities and will emphasize the importance of the congress to the cause of hygiene. It will be pointed out that it will be a genuine privation to any health officer who is obliged to forego the opportunity of attending.

In a recent letter, Dr. John S. Fulton, secretary-general of the Congress said: "It is not in the least extravagant to say that the Congress and exhibition will be the most powerful instrumentality for the improvement of public health conditions which has ever been placed at the disposal of the people of the United States, or is likely to become available to them within the next thirty years."

VERDICTS UPHELD IN GAS POISONING CASES

Trenton, June 15.—Refusing to regard as excessive either of two verdicts aggregating $1,700 obtained by Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sturma, of Bound Brook, against the Public Service Gas Company, the Supreme Court has dismissed in each instance the application of the company for a new trial.

The suits hinged upon a leak in the gas mains of the company in one of the streets of Bound Brook. The leaking gas found its way into the Sturma residence and both the husband and wife were made seriously ill. The resulting damage suits were tried separately, one jury awarding the wife a verdict of $1,200, while another gave the husband a verdict of $500. The only contention urged by the company before the higher court was that the verdicts were too large.

In the case of Mrs. Sturma, particularly, it was contended that the serious nature of her illness was due to other causes than the gas poisoning. The court did not find the evidence upon this point so conclusive as to justify upsetting the judgment of the jury.

FOUR DIE, SCORES WOUNDED, IN RIOT

City of Perth Amboy, N. J., Resembles Battlefield.

DEPUTIES FIRED TO KILL

Seven Youths, Mistaken For Rioters, Fall With Bullet Wounds—Banker and His Wife Are Badly Beaten In Their Auto—Private Houses Wrecked.

Perth Amboy, N. J., June 15.—The North Amboy section of this city resembled a battlefield. Five hundred armed deputy sheriffs and the extra police and detective force clashed with 2,000 strikers, many of whom were armed. The opposing forces met face to face.

Before the fighting had lasted more than half an hour two men lay dead, a third was dying and the retreating strikers were carrying away their injured and, it is thought, some dead.

There had been sharp fighting between the strikers and the guards, resulting earlier in the day in the death of at least two men, the mortal injury to a third and the wounding of many, but the real battling did not begin until darkness closed about the factories.

Then the fury of the day was of no moment compared to the maniacal desire to kill and destroy property. The battle centered around the American Smelting and Refining works and extended to other factories.

From the windows and from roofs of houses strikers fired rifles and revolvers into the crowds. Sometimes they mistook bodies of retreating or advancing strikers for the police and deputies and poured bullets into the ranks of their own friends.

Deputy sheriffs mistook for rioters a crowd of young men who had gathered in State street to hear the latest news from the scene of battle and fired upon them. Seven were wounded.

City in State of Siege.

Perth Amboy was in a state of siege, especially the factory section of the city. Trolley cars were stoned, clubs were hurled through windows into private houses. The mob could not be held in check. With their overwhelming numbers the rioters charged again and again, bearing back the police and deputies.

As night came on the desire to kill and to destroy property seemed to possess the maddened mob.

Some of the men and not a few women straggled from the attacking party and began to stone automobiles. One automobile said to contain W. Blair, a New York banker, his wife and their chauffeur came through State street. A stone struck the chauffeur and he keeled over insensible. The car stopped and the fury of the mob was vented on Mr. Blair and his wife. According to late reports that reached the police both were injured by stones. Then the fury of the men and women drove them to climb into the car and the Blairs were beaten.

So excited were the police they failed to get the addresses of the Blairs or their chauffeur, nor was it known where the banker and his wife were taken after the mob had attacked them.

Women Attack Deputies.

Deputies were surrounded. In the mob were many women. They were even harder to beat off than the men. The deputies began firing. For a moment the mob fell back. Then it dawned upon the rioters that the deputies were firing in the air. The mob closed in. The deputies beat them back with the butts of their guns, and the police wielded their night sticks.

A second car of deputy sheriffs arrived, fought their way through the struggling mass only to find themselves hemmed in. Then came a third car loaded with deputies. The latest arrivals were attacked with sticks and stones. The men who had been using their guns as clubs began to shoot. One man dropped, then another, then another. The crowd of rioters retreated, falling over each other in their attempt to gain a place of vantage behind the embankment of the tracks of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

BROKER SHOT IN NEW GANG WAR OUTBREAK

Bystander Mortally Wounded After Daylight Battle.

New York, June 15.—A bullet fired in a gang fight in broad daylight wounded Herman Wisher, a real estate broker, in the right breast. He was taken to Gouverneur hospital in a dying condition.

Wisher, who lives in Brooklyn, was at the corner when three men approached. At the same time three other men approached in the opposite direction and one of them pulled a revolver and fired a shot. Then all of the men made off and no arrests were made.

Fisher fell unconscious. Immediately half a dozen policemen appeared on the scene, but they were unable to get any trace of the men.

—"Virtue is its own reward," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes," agreed the Simple Mug, "the prodigal son got more fame than his brother who stayed home and was decent."

UNION COUNTY ORPHAN'S COURT.

In the Matter of the Application of the Executors of the will of Samuel Dreier, Deceased, For Sale of Land to Pay Debts. — Order to Show Cause.

Garret Dreier and Harry Dreier, Executors, etc., of Samuel Dreier, deceased, having exhibited to this Court under oath, a just and true account of the personal estate and debts of said deceased, whereby it appears that the personal estate of said deceased is insufficient to pay his debts, and requested the aid of the Court in the premises: It is, on this Eighth Day of May, nineteen hundred and twelve, ordered that all persons interested in the lands, tenements, and real estate of said Samuel Dreier, deceased, appear before the Court, at the Courthouse, in the City of Elizabeth, on the Tenth Day of July next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause why so much of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate of the said Samuel Dreier, deceased, should not be sold as will be sufficient to pay his debts, or the residue thereof, as the case may require. And it is further ordered, that cause be shown at the same time why the rents, issues and profits arising from the premises described in the said petition should not be applied to the payment of the debts of said deceased, and that true but uncertified copies of this order be served on all parties interested in said real estate within twenty days from the date hereof, and it is further ordered that this order be set up and published in one of the newspapers of this State, as by the statute directed.

By the Court.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, JUNE 15, 1912.

The editorial columns of this paper are conducted on Saturdays by representative citizens who are free to express their own views. Elliott T. Barrows, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, whose interest in Plainfield has been deep and lasting and among whose valuable services was his work in the Common Council, is the contributing editor for today.

CIVIC CONDITIONS.

Mr. Murray struck the key-note in taking for his subject "Unrest," and, in the other editorials so far published, it can be easily read between the lines that the same thought prevailed. Veiled though it may be, one cannot disguise the fact that this expression is but a polite term for dissatisfaction with existing conditions as they apply to our business, domestic and governmental form of life. In this rapid age we are in a process of evolution; disturbing questions of widening import are continually coming to the front, and the changing machinery, shaping and controlling our minds, comforts and pleasures, makes us susceptible to every surrounding influence.

Plainfield was settled and grew along lines of solid development. It was never cursed with political graft or real estate booms. It appealed to, and retained God-fearing, intelligent and progressive people. Men took pleasure in serving their city's interests as they would their own, and caucus meetings settled the policy of local government.

Up to the present decade, if there is any criticism, it is that possibly we were too conservative; losing opportunities to avail ourselves of areas for parks; failing to open and widen streets, and indifferent to the erection of public buildings, that, throughout New England communities are regarded as public assets.

No one returns from a visit, nor does the stranger enter our city, without instinctively exclaiming over the well kept places, clean streets and general air of comfort and refinement that pervades our atmosphere; with such a state of individual civic pride, why are we so lax to the public questions that must be settled in the near future?

In our growth, we have kept pace with hospital, charity, and church extension. As a well balanced city, we are the equal of any throughout the State; but in city government we are theorizing and drifting, allowing our Council (neighbors and friends) to force themselves into situations on the "Sewer and Water Questions;" where, as Froude says, "They are possessed with an idea and cannot be reasoned with."

Land in process of development is at a standstill; houses for rent or sale are to be found, in large numbers, all over the city, and property owners view with alarm the growing legal expenses. Synonmous with the financial side is the unfriendly attitude assumed toward our neighbor the borough, (some day destined to be part of ourselves) which has sensibly made a fair contract with the Water Company, and stands ready to join us in a new sewer bed. This would pave the way for consolidation, which would not only allow the new city to be more economically governed, but settle that vexing question of Green brook, now an unsanitary eye-sore throughout its course.

"For relief," the cry goes up, "give us a commission form of Government." It is heralded as the "panacea for all ills." We know that it would simplify and condense; that it would put the "initiative," "referendum" and "recall" directly in the hands of the people. If adopted will they use it? Indirectly they have the power now, since they elect a majority of the Council every other year; and can rise at any time and demand that the Council take action on matters before them in line with expressed public opinion; but they don't, and so things will ever be with the present lack of public spirit. Two kinds of men are eligible to serve under the "Commission form of Government." One, the well-to-do, retired business man, who would do so from patriotic motives, and, if so inspired, he will serve under the present form, and the other, the active business man, who could not afford to give his whole time for the small salary allowed by the law. No matter what form we adopt or retain, it is still the question of men, and "Eternal Vigilance" is as much the price of liberty today as it was when our forefathers fought for their independence.

Of the present day it is said that "Luxury breeds indolence," and only when facing privation and hardships, or when confronted with events that shake society and government to the foundation, do men rise to the situation and fight for their life and property. Let us not be indifferent to this state of unrest, for, in the history of the world, it has upset princes and rulers; given birth to Republics, and has been the medium by which wrongs have been righted and progress attained. It is the greatest power for good or evil, and must be faced and met by men and women, filled with a spirit of wisdom and patriotism.

Coming to ourselves; we are a normal community, where there are more people who want the right thing than the wrong thing. And the way to get it is to have the idea simplified, and the plain issue before them. No stronger evidence of this need be required than the grand uprising of the whole city for "greater Muhlenberg." Let the same spirit assert itself in the shaping of our city government, and the conditions that confront us will quickly disappear.

THE FORUM.

LETTER FROM RECTOR.

St. Mary's Rectory,
Plainfield, N. J.

Editors, Plainfield Daily Press.

Permit me to express my cordial regret at the tone of the report in this evening's Daily Press of the unpatriotic efforts of the Rev. Dr. Barnett, of Philadelphia, the City of Brotherly Love, to besmirch the fair name of peaceful Plainfield by approaching the ministers of our city and urging them to take action against their fellow-Catholic-citizens. I am not surprised at the Reverend Doctor's rejection, despite the indorsement given to his cheek by a Mr. Brown, of East Seventh Street, for the clergymen of Plainfield know that other things than beautiful trees and well-kept lawns make ours a deservedly high-class city. Yet, in the Daily Press report of the Reverend Doctor's Christian Charity failing to arouse "just now" the hoped-for animosity, the article holds out hope for the belligerents "in the near future." The Reverend gentlemen of Plainfield by their dignified rejection of the trouble-maker, paid tribute as well to the respectability of their respective congregations, as they did honor to themselves, for I learn that they adjourned to meet not again until next October. But why this prominence? Why this tone from our quondam friend, "The Daily Press?" Does it, too, fear our fellow-Catholic-citizens? If the Catholic church is not united in every individual, why fear its influence, for in union alone is strength. If it is united, then the condemnatory tone of The Daily Press article extends to each unit, to every Catholic. So, you are either frightened by a bug-a-bee, or accusing your Catholic-fellow- citizens, without exception, of the monstrous crime of treason—of a united effort to turn over our Republic to a fictitious foreign power.

And so the votes of these traitors thou divided among Democrats, Republicans and various other polotical parties, are wondrously and traitorously forming one political party And the battle-scarred veterans, who happen to be Catholics, are scheming to destroy their blood-protected country; and so the honest, conscientious Catholic taxpayers are traitorously, not to say foolishly, preparing to hand over their property to "Rome." And so, too, the contributions of the law-abiding Catholics to the moral security of real American citizenship is but a poor masquerade after all! And the Reverend Doctor of Christian Charity has come from the City of Brotherly Love to destroy this confidence, and turn fellow against fellow amongst us. Oh, the shame of it!

BOY DRAWN INTO PIPE AND KILLED

Trying to Fix Clogged Chute, Dragged Headforemost.

FATHER TRIES TO SAVE HIM

Comrades In Refining Company at West New York Work Frantically to Rescue Youth, but When They Finally Reached Him He Was Dead.

West New York, N. J., June 15.—The sudden start of a mass of material which clogged a large pipe descending from the third floor of the Wilcox Lard Refining company here caused a powerful suction that dragged Laidslaw Machate headforemost into the tube. An hour and a half later he was taken out dead near the lower end 400 feet from where he was dragged in.

The hopper at which Machate was working piled up the ingredients so fast that the chute was stopped up. Machate, who was active and ambitious to excel, leaned over and was pushing at the mass when it started. The hopper, which had been stopped, also moved, and before he could utter a cry he was swept down the chute and into the pipe with hundreds of pounds of materials dropping upon him.

The youth's father, working nearby, made an effort to climb in to get his son, but was held back by other workmen. They shut off the hopper, but several minutes elapsed before all the machines feeding the pipe at different levels could be turned off.

Workmen sawed the pipe an hour after the accident, and the youth was lifted out dead.

Machate's home was in Guttenberg.

BOY KILLED BY AUTO.

Another Youth Has Both of His Legs Broken.

Newark, N. J., June 15.—While Edward C. Hallgreen, thirteen years old, was catching a baseball with other boys he was struck by an automobile belonging to the Sherwin Williams company, paint manufacturers. He was thrown and his skull was fractured, killing him almost instantly. The chauffeur was arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

Frank Kremick, seven years old, was hit by the mud guide of an automobile. He was knocked down and the wheels ran over him, breaking his legs below the knees. He was removed to the City hospital. The car is owned by Frederick U. Morton of Hoboken. Frederick Greenwald, the chauffeur, was arrested.

F. E. Smith, of Central avenue, who underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital on Thursday, is improving.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

THE WHOLESOME CURRANT.

CURRANTS contain an acid that makes currant jelly useful to serve with meat or when rich foods are served. The apple and currant have been called appetizers, and if they were eaten more freely we would be better for their use.

Persons who are anaemic, it is said, may eat black currants with advantage.

The acid in currants has a wonderful effect in allaying fevers. If the liver is sluggish or refuses to work currants will benefit them.

Fresh currants should be well washed and served on the stem with powdered sugar.

Cool and Delicious.

Currant Pudding.—Clean a cupful of tapioca; then pour boiling water over it and cook in a double boiler. When the tapioca is transparent add a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt. Clean and wash a quart of red currants, removing stems. Sprinkle with sugar; then pour the tapioca over it and set it on ice to cool. Serve with cream and sugar.

Fresh Currants.

Iced Currants.—Beat the white of two eggs until light, but not stiff. Add one-quarter cupful of water and beat together. Dip large currants, one bunch at a time, into the egg and water, drain for a minute, then roll in powdered sugar. Let the bunches lie on paper until dry.

For Pie Lovers.

Currant Pie.—This pie is made by taking one cupful of ripe currants, one cupful of sugar and one egg. Beat the egg and sugar together, stir in the currants and bake it between two crusts. Moisten the edge of the under crust before you put the upper crust on and press the edges tightly together, and the juice will not boil over.

With Sugar and Spice.

Spiced Currants.—Five pounds of currants, three pounds of white sugar, one tablespoonful each of cloves, nutmeg, allspice and cinnamon. Boil currants one hour, then add sugar, spices and one-half pint of vinegar and boil for one-half hour longer.

Preserved Currants. — Take ten pounds of currants and seven pounds of sugar. Stem seven pounds of the currants, and press the juice from the other three pounds. Boil the sugar till it is a sirup, put in the currants and boil until thick.

CHIC STYLES.

White Satin Suits a Smart Fad of the Season.

Because they are cool the popularity of white satin suits has become marked. In the first part of the spring white taffeta ones were heard of more than any other, and women thought that satin had its day. It evidently has not, for the smartest women are ordering rather plain coats and skirts of that new white satin.

Girls always like costumes suggestive of the sailor suit, and the one pictured is especially attractive for the girl who plays tennis.

The Dainty Touches Seen on Garments For the Tots.

Hand embroidery is being lavished on children's clothes.

Mercerized rep in white and color is used in children's clothes.

The tiny new bonnet boxes are almost as cute as the new bonnets.

Rosettes for caps have a cluster of tiny satin buds in the center of quilled ribbon.

It is a little more dainty to keep a girl under four all in white, but after that a touch of color is quite coquettish.

Baby baskets have handles. A dainty one is done in net over blue with blue ribbons and tiny pink chiffon buds.

Little white frocks smocked in blue or rose have turnover collars on which a scroll design or separate rings are etched.

Many little bonnets are in Quaker form with turn back flaps. They are hand embroidered and are inset with Irish lace.

Pique strap slippers are embroidered and are easily laundered. They are ironed flat, and this makes a crease down the center of the toe.

Bouillon stitch is seen on the newest small frocks. Tiny blue forget-me-nots are done on batiste in it, and usually there is a touch of pink somewhere in the makeup.

PRETTY OUTING BONNET.

Modish Headgear of Straw Braid For the Fair Motorist.

This pretty bonnet of straw is the newest thing in headgear for the automobilist. It may be made of interwoven straw braid and lined with satin. Bows and strings of satin ribbon are its only ornaments.

In the New York Shops.

[A postal addressed to O'Flaherty's New York Suburban Shopping Guide 150 Nassau Street, New York City, will supply information as to where the articles mentioned in this column may be obtained.]

Just what the porch lover wants is the wicker couch carried by a department store for $6.74. For the more pretentious verandah the willow box couches from $15 to $20 offer an ideal combination of beauty and utility.

One of the Specialty Shops offers a most attractive collar and cuff set for $4.95. The color has a deep pointed shawl effect. Both collar and cuffs have an embroidered flower design and are edged with Irish Crochet.

The woman who wears a veil will be delighted with the useful and attractive new Veil Pins that are shown in the Jewelry department of one of New York's big stores for 35 cents. These are nothing more nor less than gilt or silver hairpins with a tiny ball at the top which makes it easy for the gloved fingers to find in removing the veil. They are the most practical veil pins we have seen.

An exclusive shop specializing in chic gowns is offering its stock of summer wear including lingerie, linen, serge and taffeta gowns at exceptionally low prices during the month of June. This is in anticipation of closing for the months of July and August. This is a welcome opportunity to the woman who loves smart, well made, exclusive models and who needs must wait for just such bargains as are offered here at this time.

If you have a hat that requires a bow to be attractive and wearable you will find nothing so smart or so pretty as the new Papillon Bow offered at a department store for $2.94. This is a piece of silk with ends marked to represent the markings of a butterfly's wings, and it comes in a box with a butterfly ornament to run up the middle gathers, and a half dozen pins to hold the silk in place to give the open wing effect.

No summer home can possibly be complete without a tea-set of the blue Awaji ware that is offered by an art shop on Fifth Avenue. The deep tone of the blue is relieved with sprays of delicately white cherry blossoms. This ware is most reasonable in price, and on a tea table crossed with blue and white Japanese toweling, which is sold here for 15 cents a yard, it is well calculated to wholly satisfy the most artistic and beauty-loving soul.

The woman who has delayed in getting her summer hats can call her delinquency most fortunate because she has an opportunity to provide herself with the most chic and attractive styles for either dress or outing at prices from $5 to $7. These hats are offered by an exclusive hat shop preparatory to closing for July and August. The motorist will find here for $5 pretty hats of soft straw braid which can be folded up and packed in a suit case without injury.

For the flower hat or the lingerie hat there is no hat pin prettier than those which a department store is offering from $1.85 to $2.95. These are made of gay artificial flowers of different hues arranged in attractive designs.

FIX RESPONSIBILITY FOR FOREST FIRES

State Commission's Report Shows How Vigorous Enforcement of Law Works.

Trenton, June 15.—The annual report of the New Jersey Fire Commission shows that during the last year the forest fire laws were so vigorously enforced that in 256 cases someone was held accountable for a fire. In 140 instances a railroad company paid the bill. In 49 cases an individual paid a fine or was otherwise penalized. The balance of the cases are still pending. The sum of the penalties collected amounted to $2,021, of which $1,346 came from the railroads and $675 from individuals. The Commission says in the report it is doubtful if this record can be matched in all the rest of the United States put together. The organization by which these results were accomplished consisted of five State Fire Wardens and 242 local Wardens.

The report shows that the chief effort of the Commission is to give value to the forests through fire control. The state owns and can own no important part of the forests within her borders, but by encouraging and helping those who do own them a better order will be established.

In New Jersey most forest fires occur in the spring, and the spring of 1911 was so exceptionally dry that the fire hazard was greatly increased. Nevertheless, the fire service which has been developed during six years succeeded in lessening the number of fires by 13 per cent., and in reducing the total damage by 32 per cent. over what was suffered the previous year. In neighboring states under similar conditions the fire loss was from two to five times as great as that of the preceding season. The report points out that most of the railroads are doing their utmost to prevent fires. Their employes and the fire wardens succeeded so well in meeting the situation that of 200 fires started only 17 burned as much as ten acres. A strong indication of the railroads' interest is found in the statement that they have built 235 miles of fire lines, practically voluntarily, and at their own cost. Of the 64 fires due to brush burning some were serious though what might have happened is suggested by the showing that upwards of 2,400 brush burning permits were issued.

New Jersey can have forests without much planting once the fires are brought under subjection. With about 14,000 acres of forest reserves the purchase of more has been interrupted so that all the money available can be devoted to protecting all the forests, no matter who owns them. The Commission is assisting woodland owners to cut and dispose of mature timber, to clean up and put in productive condition woodlands that have been abused, to plant where that is necessary, and otherwise to put the forests on a productive basis. It also considers the needs of municipalities in respect to shade trees. Many communities now have Shade Tree Commissions, and until each is able to employ an arborist of its own the state foresters will furnish technical advice. A special warning is given against tree fakirs; men who go about offering to cure a tree of any ill from which it suffers, or to prune trees whether they need it or not. Tree owners are advised to consult some reputable authority before employing these men.

AGED NEGRO WAS NOTED FOR PHYSICAL COURAGE

Morristown, June 15.—In the death of David Huff on Wednesday, Morristown lost one of its best known colored residents and one with a noteworthy record for bravery. He was born near Flanders eighty-two years ago, but came to Morristown when a boy. He was over six feet tall and in early life acquired a reputation as a fighter, which probably saved the town a possible riot.

When the draft riots were in progress in the Civil War, feeling became stirred here and one afternoon a large number of men gathered on the park fence and declared that they would kill the first "nigger" who appeared. Things began to look so troublesome that several of the cool-headed leading citizens gathered and after discussion sent a deputation to Huff. He was asked if he would bluff the crowd and with a full realization of the risk incurred agreed to the proposition. He went alone to the park and walked all the way around without being molested. Unknown to the assembled crowd, Huff was armed with a pistol in each available pocket.

Later he enlisted in the war and served as sergeant in Company F, Twentieth United States Colored Infantry, for a year and a half. Subsequently he organized and was leader of the Hannibal brass band, of Morristown, said to be the first colored brass band to play in New York. He played the cornet. He was also a worker in the Republican party until the infirmities of age retired him.

He is survived by a widow and a daughter, Mrs. Jacob Springstead. The funeral services will be held in the Spring Street A. M. E. church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The members of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., will attend service at the First Presbyterian church, tomorrow night, when Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, the pastor, will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

There will be a reunion of the members of Grace M. E. church at the 11 o'clock service tomorrow morning. There will be a love feast, special music, and the pastor, Rev. C. C. Caine, will preach a special sermon on the theme, "The Ripened Life." All members and friends of the church are invited.

J. A. Carter will preach at the Tabernacle Baptist Mission on Richmond street, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. There will be a prayer and song service at 3 o'clock and preaching again at 8 o'clock in the evening.

LEAL'S COMMENCEMENT

ing; also the tendency to socialism in which its adherents seek an equal division of wordly goods. The speaker said that no one had aright to the view of life that they could take their ease, eat, drink and be merry; that the fact that one's father was a multi-millionaire did not absolve them from certain responsibilities in life.

Becoming more specific, Dr. Reeve first urged the boys not to look on the world as something to be exploited, that they had a perfect right to get everything possible out of life regardless of principle. He said that everyone was here to render the most service possible to the world and others. In his opinion the right view of life is to be able to be of the greatest possible use to the world. The speaker then emphasized the importance of doing good all the time, of trying to remove the world-wide spirit of discontent; also to try and remove the gross iniquities of the present day. He touched on the social evil, lawlessness and intemperance and concluded by asking everyone to conserve a spirit of religious worship.

In the absence of a representative of the Plainfield Yale Club, Mr. Leal then presented the Yale cup, offered by the club each year to the student showing the greatest efficiency in studies and athletics. The cup went this year to William R. Jewett.

C. W. Wardlaw, associate principal of the school, then announced some special prizes; also the fact that Robert S. Foote, Norman R. Finch and W. R. Jewett had won the letter "L," and that Frederick Dickerson, Frank Lee, Orton Dale, Chauncey Stewart, Chester Chamberlin, Stewart Faber and Frank P. Day had won their numerals for work on the track and in baseball. George Chester, Chauncey Stewart, Frank P. Day, William Irons, Robert Fraker, Edward Hyde, William Garrigues, Chester Chamberlin, Norman R. Finch, also received ribbons for achievement in athletics.

It was announced that Will T. Glenney, a former graduate, had offered a prize to be presented next year to the boy making the best all-round record in baseball. Mr. Glenney was called upon for a speech, and he took occasion to pay a deserving tribute to the work of Mr. Leal as a teacher. The character of the prize will be announced later.

Mr. Leal addressed the graduates in closing, giving them some excellent advice. He cautioned them to be alert, watchful, to weigh and compare problems that would come to them, and he urged them to begin now the preparation for life's work. The honors for the year were announced as follows:

Ancient history, J. P. Stevens; English history, V., W. H. Jewett; English history, III., J. P. Stevens; English history, I., Allan Heely and Robert Miller; Latin, Robert Miller and George Chester; German, I., Richard Moldenke and George Chester; German, II., Allan Heely; French, I., William Garrigues; French, II., J. P. Stevens; chemistry, Norman R. Finch; penmanship, DuBois La Tourette; algebra, senior, J. P. Stevens; arithmetic, Morris VanCuren; Greek, senior, Allan Heely and J. P. Stevens; Caesar, J. P. Stevens; algerba, junior, Philip Phillips.

Of this year's graduates, William R. Jewett will enter Princeton University; Norman R. Finch and Robert S. Foote will go to Yale and Roy Gates will go to Rutgers College.

12 FACULTY CHANGES IN BOROUGH SCHOOLS

New Faces Will Be Seen in Class Rooms When Fall Term Begins.

A number of new teachers will be seen in the faculties of the North Plainfield Schools when the new term begins in the fall. There will be a new supervising principal, A. B. Vossler, who the past five years has conducted the schools of Great Neck, Long Island, with much success. Mr. Vossler is a graduate of the Albany State Normal School and of Union College, New York, and has had fifteen years of experience in school work. He not only comes well recommended, but was engaged after the teachers' committee had personally visited his school, and made inquiries among the people of Great Neck.

The High School faculty remains intact except for the retirement from teaching of Miss Stahlberger, who will be succeeded by Miss Mary Robley as teacher of French and German. Miss Robley is a graduate of this High School, class of 1905, and of Dickinson College, class of 1910. She has taught two years in the High School department at Seaford, Delaware.

The grammar department will lose Miss Ora B. Tanner, who has accepted a position at East Orange. Her successor will be announced later.

Miss Carrie Davis, also of the seventh grade, is one of four teachers to be drawn to Plainfield for next year by the higher salary schedule prevailing there. She will be succeeded by Miss Anna McGrane, of the Cortland State Normal School, who has had two years of successful experience in teaching.

Miss Mabel Tronbath, of the fifth grade, goes to Plainfield. Her place will be taken by Miss Nora M. Koons, a Pennsylvania Normal graduate who for several years has been principal of the school at Watchung.

In the Somerset Primary, Miss Barrow, who retires from teaching, will be succeeded by Miss Helen Westcott, a graduate of Oneonta, who has taught for several years at Great Neck, Long Island.

Miss Sadie Tiffany, of the second grade, will teach in Plainfield, and will be succeeded by Miss Elizabeth Claypoole, who formerly taught in the borough, and for the past seven years has been general assistant and librarian.

In the Somerset Kindergarten, Miss Myra Emmons retires from four years of very successful work, to be succeeded by Miss Ruth Stauffer, of Wetsfield, who is an exceptionally strong musician, and a kindergarten training school graduate. The second assistant will be Miss Mabel Case, of Somervlile, an Elliman School graduate of several years' experience.

In the Watchung School Miss Elizabeth Dodd, who goes to Plainfield, will be succeeded by Miss Bertha Agnew, a Geneseo graduate, who has taught four years, the last being at Liberty Corner.

Mrs. Bessie Dunham Conant retires from teaching the first grade. She will be succeeded by Miss Margaret Sampson, a Montclair graduate, who has taught two years at Far Hills, N. J., the last as principal of a two-room school.

Miss Randolph and Miss Whitney retire from the Watchung kindergarten to be succeeded by Miss Isabelle Williams and Miss Lillian Whitall, who now have charge of the afternoon class in the Somerset kindergarten. Both are trained and experienced teachers.

FIREMEN GIVE CLAMBAKE FOR THOMAS M. MUIR

The members of the Plainfield West End Hose Company gave a farewell clambake last night to "Tommy" Muir, who leaves for his camp at Lake Hopatcong on June 26. It was held on VanSickle's lot on West Fourth street. Albert Rhadier prepared and served the bake. Among the special guests were Fire Chief Doane, Fred Ayers, Fred Moring, of Engine Co. No. 19, Newark; Frank McKelvey, of Engine Co. No. 20, New York.

There were a number of speeches delivered, Clarence Woodcock acting as toastmaster. A quartet composed of William Jaeger, William Durant, George Leland and Tommy Muir sang. George Zeisz, William Hoffman and John H. Cose also sang. The committee in charge were Jens Claassen, Albert Rhodier and Daniel Couraine.

TOO MUCH ELIZABETH.

L. J. Ellis represented Plainfield at the Democratic county conference called by Congressman William E. Tuttle at his home in Westfield Thursday night. The net result of the conference was a decision to give the county at large more representation on the ticket. It was agreed that too much Elizabeth had weakened the ticket in past campaigns.

PLAINFIELD DOG GETS TOP RATING AT SHOW

A. G. Hooley's Setter Judged the Finest Animal at Allentown Exhibit.

A. G. Hooley's English setter, Deodora Countess, was judged to be the finest animal at the Allentown, Pa., dog show, held this week. Mr. Hooley's entry won the grand sweepstake prize offered by Mrs. George E. Holton, president of the Lehigh Valley Kennel Club, of Allentown, for the best animal on exhibition.

Charles M. Schwab's cup for the best brace in the show went to Hooley's Boy Roy and Deodora Countess. The trophy for the best team, a cup offered by Frank M. Horn, was won by a grand quartet of Hooley's setters, Boy Roy, Deodora Countess, May Belle and Meadow View Rock. It was a source of particular gratification that Deodora Countess also won the sweepstake prize for the best American bred animal in the show. This is the first time that the winner for the best in the show, and the winner for the best American bred animal, were one and the same animal.

First in the champion class went to Hooley's Champion May Belle and second to Hooley's Rock, English setters; third and reserve to Challenge and Carlo, Gordons owned by Mr. Chidsey. In the brace class the awards in order named, went to Hooley, Mrs. Goelet,, Mrs. Lederer and Chidsey, and in the team class, four of one breed to Hooley, Mrs. Lederer and Chidsey.

Meadow View, Boy Roy, Nat. Griffith's blood hound Don Bayo and Chidsey's Gordon setter Spike won in one, two, three order for members' sporting dogs, and Deodora Countess, Dunn's Pride and Chidsey's Lady in sporting bitches. Mr. Hooley is a director of the Lehigh Valley Kennel Club.

Group of Them Will Illustrate Tribal Customs at Concert Next Week.

The company of singers that will camp near the Country Club next Monday on its travels through the North, is the largest body of Hampton singers which has made an extended journey since the days of the old jubilee choruses. Under the auspices of a number of society folk the company will present an interesting program next Tuesday night.

Unlike the jubilee choruses, the company has its small quota of Indians who represent their people's tribal life and customs with the Indian ceremonial songs and dances. This, together with the native chants and intricate measures of the songs and dances of an African tribe by a young Zulu student from Hampton, will give the Hampton open air gatherings a vivid interest and beauty which is wholly novel to the North. These intimate glimpses of the folk lore, customs and legends of two races are planned as a sympathetic study of the early life and environment of the peoples whom Hampton trains.

The plantation choruses more than a score strong, are the best singers of the thousand who join each week in the melody of the plantation songs at Hampton.

The twenty-six men who form the chorus are trained tradesmen, including blacksmiths, carpenters, bricklayers, machinists, farmers and teachers from the upper classes of Hampton.

They are picked from the school battalion, are well drilled in military discipline and will keep military camp by day, rising and performing their camp duties and drills at the call of the bugle and in the evening giving the Hampton open air festivals with their songs and scenes, and a clear description of the method and scope of work of the great pioneer industrial institution.

The camp is formed by the setting of eight tents, six of such brown wall tents as are used in the army and two tall conical tents for use in stormy weather. The camp is so formed as to make a wide street. At one end a flag pole is immediately raised, at the other end a commodious tent is set. There the men gather for meals and religious exercises and in it are pictures and literature which describes Hampton's work. Visitors will be welcomed at camp late mornings and afternoons.

This company of young negroes and indians are travelling north with an earnest purpose. They will travel and march and set their brown tents in eight States. The long journey is their plea for their people; and these students of Hampton travel with the hope that they may help their leaders to lighten the burden and heavy financial strain which greatly increases with Hampton's ever enlarging work of uplift.

Hampton has demonstrated for all time the fact that industrial education makes a character, that character gained by industrial training is the basis for leadership and uplift, that industrial efficiency is a solvent of race friction. Hampton has sent out over 8,000 trained leaders, tradesmen, farmers and teachers. They have had a large share in building up the scores of other institutions which have grown up in the South following industrial lines.

BRIBE COST HIM $8.

At a smoker at a Washington club Representative Henry, of Texas, told one of his stories about international marriages.

"Count l'Oignon," he said, "was perhaps the meanest foreigner who ever hooked a Yankee heiress.

"L'Oignon married Lottie Golde at the Paris registry office and the next day his friend, the Marquis Tete de Veau, said to him heartily:

"'I congratulate you on your magnificent haul. You have landed, l'Oignon, 8,000,000 francs.'

"'Well, no, not quite 8,000,000,' said l'Oignon. "The wedding, you see, cost two louis.'"—Minneapolis Journal.

THREE SHOCKED TO DEATH HIGH IN AIR.

Fire Department Called to Chop Down Bodies.

Elizabeth, N. J., June 15.—Three men were killed by electricity on top of a high pole in this city. Their bodies hung amid the tangle of wires sixty feet in the air for an hour.

When the firemen were called to take down the bodies they had to wait until the current could be cut off from a whole section of the city before they could touch the bodies.

The men killed are William Willridge of Mount Vernon, N. Y., Frank Johnson of Newark and Burt Burbank of Ford Corners. William Sutherland of this city was shocked, but escaped.

In some manner Willridge came in contact with a wire which, it is said, was carrying 13,000 volts of electricity. He was heard to cry out and his three companions started to his aid. Johnson and Burbank reached him and the moment they came into contact with him and tried to lift him off the wires they, too, were shocked and fell back.

Sutherland, who was only a bit behind them as they climbed into the cross arms, saw them and just as he reached out to the aid of the others he recognized his peril and dropped back, receiving only a slight shock.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS.

At Proctor's Fifth Avenue theatre next week the event of chiefest importance will be the re-appearance in vaudeville of Grace Van Studdiford, the light opera prima-donna. Miss Van Studdiford will be heard in selections from her recent operatic successes and in several lighter ballads of the moment, the whole necessitating five distinct changes of costume ranging from a gorgeous empire gown to tights. An augmented orchestra will assist Miss Van Studdiford in all of her selections. In one continuous wave of hilarity Sam Mann & Company will make their final appearances in Aaron Hoffman's most amusing comedy, "The New Leader." Mr. Mann is bidding farewell to this screamingly funny sketch as a vaudeville vehicle, the idea being to elaborate it into a three-act farce with music.

The star revival of "The Pirates of Penzance," under the management of the Messrs. Shubert and Wm. A. Brady, has proved to be the greatest hit of all the Gilbert and Sullivan productions offered by these managers. In fact, Acton Davies, the noted critic of the New York Evening Sun, in his review, calls the performance, "The best Gilbert and Sullivan revival which has been made in this country." It seemed almost impossible to exceed the hits scored by the three previous Gilbert & Sullivan presentations—"The Mikado," "Pinafore" and "Patience"—but there can be no doubt that the present star organization, as augmented for "The Pirates of Penzance," attains the highest standard yet reached. The cast is: Pirate King, Eugene Cowles; Samuel, his lieutenant, Richard W. Temple; Frederic, a pirate apprentice, Arthur Aldridge; Major General Stanley, George J. McFarlane; Edward, a sergeant of police, De Wolf Hopper; Mabel, the general's youngest daughter, Blanche Duffield; Kate, Alice Brady; Edith Viola Gillette; Isabel, Louise Barthel; Ruth, a practical maid-of-all-work, Josephine Jacoby.

"AD" FOR THE DOCTOR.

A Chicago physician recently motored to Columbus, where he spent several days with friends on the East Side. While downtown one day he left his touring car standing in front of the Chittenden Hotel and when he came out he saw King Hughes, the colored doorman, standing back of the machine laughing.

"What's the giggle" queried the doctor.

"Nothing, boss," answered the genial Hughes. "But you're a physician, aren't you?"

"Yes."

"I thought so when I saw the red cross on the front of your machine, but if I owned that car I'd take that sign off the back."

The doctor went around to the rear and looked at the license tag. It read: "35,000 Ill."—Columbus Dispatch.

—"How was the show last night?"

"Dreadfully boring. Everybody left but one man."

"What was the matter with him?"

"He got his foot caught under a seat."—Chicago Record-Herald.

NO FUEL LIKE GAS IN HOT WEATHER

When the temperature is high there is no good reason for further heating kitchens with coal fires.

Here is where the gas range comes in.

Gas ranges call for no preparation of fires. When a meal is ready to be cooked a lighted match and the turn of a valve has the fire ready.

There is no useless heat, no wasted fuel.

When the meal is cooked the fire can be put out instantly and the expense stops.

This is one reason why gas ranges are more economical than coal fires.

We have gas ranges to suit any purse. Sold on easy payment plan.

That has been my slogan for years. I aim to do the best possible painting—using only the best materials that the manufacturers can furnish and employing the most skilled mechanics that can be procured. HOW THE WORK AT PANAMA WAS STARTED

Salutatory Address by Edmund Kenney at N. P. H. S. Commencement.

Friends, teachers, schoolmates and members of the Board of Education, it is my delightful privilege this evening to extend to your a hearty welcome in behalf of the Class of 1912 to our commencement exercises.. The members of this class have just completed four years of useful study in North Plainfield High School and believe we are equipped for the effort of accomplishing other results, in a new life and in new surroundings, among new faces.

We have learned much and we have gained much but we have much more to learn and we have much more to gain when we at last enter into this new sphere of life.

But why do we call these our commencement exercises coming, as they do, at the end of our High School career? We end and commence at the same time. We end, because High School is already a thing of the past to us, we commence because we enter into new activities. We regret to end our High School career and we are glad to be able to enter into this new and to us unknown life.

Since this privilege of speaking to you this evening has fallen to me I will endeavor to portray to you the immensity and importance of the Panama Canal now being constructed under the supervision of the United States government in the Republic of aPnama. It will sever two continents and unite two oceans and will cost hundreds of millions of dollars but in so doing will make the canal the greatest engineering feat of history.

In 1513 Balboa, the intrepid Portugese explorer, discovered the Pacific Ocean. It was this discovery which revealed the existence of what we know as the Isthmus of Panama. The discoverer's explorations in this region were for no other purpose than to find a strait which would make possible the longed-for western passage to the Indies.

In 1550 another Portugese navigator, Galvao, brought to the attention of the Spanish King a plan to cut a canal thru this Isthmus but the proposal was suppressed for political reasons.

Although the necessity of the canal had been agitated from that time on no definite action was taken until 1879 when the International Congress was held in Paris and Ferdinand de Lesseps organized the first Panama Company. Through unfortunate financial management the whole enterprise was a failure although a considerable amount of excavation had been accomplished.

In the meantime the United States was becoming more and more interested in the project and overtures were made to the French Company for the purpose of taking over such interests as might enable the United States to proceed with the building of the canal. It was largely through the efforts of President Roosevelt that the canal zone and all the rights of the former company were purchased in 1903 for forty millions of dollars. Congress authorized the purchase on conditions that satisfactory terms could be made with Columbia, and that the lease should extend over a period of one hundred years to be renewed at the pleasure of the United States.

The Columbian government refused to accept the treaty and this caused the State of Panama to declare her independence, which was soon recognized by the United States, this leaving a desirable way for the latter to begin operations.

Plans were soon formulated for the financing and construction of the canal and great problems had to be solved before the work was begun. The course of the canal was a subject of careful consideration and the Panama route was finally selected. The problem—for it was a problem—was not a simple one to find the region of closest approach of the two oceans and then cut a ditch between them as was possible at Suez. The North American Rockies are continued through the Isthmus and although by no means a mountain of great height nevertheless they have constituted a formdable barrier to canal construction.

The building involved the digging of a prism of earth 32 miles long and with an average height of 200 feet and an average width of 400 feet. At the terminal there were 4 miles of dredging. Notwithstanding that a considerable distance of the canal requred no excavation, the yardage amounted to 212,445,000 cubic yards of earth. Already 151,000,000 yards have been excavated thus leaving 61 millions to be removed. It involved the building of twelve enormous locks, two dams and spillways with breakwaters at both ends. Another tedious undertaking was the relocating of the Panama Railroad because the latter extended over the course of the proposed canal. The most significant obstacle was the rigging of the Culebra Cut seven miles long and 300 feet high in some places.

Upon completion the course of the canal will be as follows: A ship making the passage from the Atlantic will pass through the breakwaters and then on a sea-level stretch for seven miles. It then passes through the Gatun Locks and into Gatun Lake for fifteen miles. The next seven miles will be a wide channel. Culebra Cut will then be entered and after going through the Pedro Miguel Locks the ship comes out on Miraflores Lake which is two miles long. Then the Miraflores Locks are passed and the vessel enters on the last eight miles at the level of the Pacific.

The construction could be properly termed a high-level canal for it does not connect the two oceans at sea-level. It would have been necessary to make the excavation eighty-five feet or more deper n some places and ten years more of labor in order to construct it on that level. Of course this would have eliminated any locks but the excavation would have been nothing short of enormous. Consequently the canal as now constructed has three distinct levels, namely, sea-level, thrty feet above and fifty-five feet above.

Since the canal involves the building of locks and dams concrete will be required. In consequence 5,000,000 cubic yards of cement must be imported from the United States. But the rock and sand are obtained in the immediate vicinity. There are two quarries and the rock is blasted and crushed at these places for the concrete work on the canal.

It might be well in passing to say a word about labor conditions at the canal. In 1910 the employes numbered 50,335. Of this number 9,190 were white and the remainder black. All these employes, their wives and families go toward making 144,000, the total population of the Canal Zone. Considering the climate the death rate for the year was very low, 7.87 per thousand. Most of these besides violent deaths were from pneumonia and malarial fever.

A few statistics will make more vivid the magnitude of the undertaking. The largest steam shovels remove five cubics yards of earth in one operation and the whole apparatus weights seventy tons. The average monthly excavation amounts to 4,000,000 cubic yards. The canal locks are made of solid concrete and the walls are sixty feet thick and 360 feet long. The gates weigh as much as 600 tons each.

The fortification of the canal is very important. After spending over 350 millions of dollars it would be short-sighted and unwise not to expend an extra fourteen million dollars to keep the canal in our possession and for all posterity. Some say that treaties with the strongest foreign nations would suffice. But in this era of dazzling armaments the temptation of strong nations to encroach upon the rights of others warrants the greatest precaution on our part. When the canal is strongly fortified our fleets can move freely from ocean to ocean and then in time of war our country will be in a strong, stragetic position and our western shores free from ravaging enemies. For instance, if in case of war with Japan our Pacific fleet were demoralized or even hard-pressed the Atlantic fleet could rush to its aid and thus any hostile demonstrations on the part of the rising Oriental powers could be met promptly.

The actual importance of the canal rests on the fact that the time of shipping between the eastern and western ports of the United States is lessened by about twenty days. Shipping to and fron the Orient, South America and British Columbia will also be effected by the same time.

Although these are the most important uses of the canal nevertheless our country will be influenced in many other ways. The reciprocal trade relations with such countries as Peru, Chili and Ecuador will provide for an interchange of their wealth in tropical delicacies and our enormous production of manufactured goods. In fact even the present cost of living may be reduced by importations of these food-stuffs. Sea travel to San Francisco will become extremely popular.

When the Suez Canal was projected, people scoffed at the undertaking as impossible. But it was realized. Since the failure of the French attempt at Panama, this enterprise, vastly more difficult than the Suez Canal, was also considered by many people to be impossible, but American energy has overcome all obstacles in an incredibly shor time; and thus the Panama Canal will not only be a great achievement for commercial and naval purposes, but stand for time as an illustration of American genius and enterprise.

Imagine a trip on a coast-wise steamer to the Panama Exposition to be held in San Francisco after the completion of the canal. One will start from our own port of New York the shore-line dotted with hundreds of waving flags, and would gaze on others fluttering from the harbor masts of every port that dots the Atlantic coast until he entered the Mexican Gulf and the new ocean roadway, a new place for our flag at the entrance of the canal. Then he would proceed along between its concrete banks, its enormous locks, masterpieces of modern engineering, and emerge into the soft waters of the Pacific. He would still see that same flat dotting his northern voyage along the western coast and would finally made his entrance through the Golden Gate. The dream of centuries will have come to pass. The toil that we spent and the gold that we paid will then be justified and our nation will be a world in itself.

Expression in playing is guided by your fingers on buttons, which enable you to gain volume and accent by the simple application of pressure—just as the pianist makes loud music by striking the keys harder.

On other player-pianos you do just the opposite. To gain force you relax your pressure. This is not instinctive, and it is why you have to really study and practice before you can get music from an ordinary player-piano.

No other player-piano but the Virtuolo admits of Instinctive Playing. And no other player-piano has the Aeolo buttons. That's why you ought to see, hear, play the Virtuolo before you decide definitely to buy the other kind.

WHISKEY OUGHT TO BE INSPECTED

So Says Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring In a Sermon to Pythian Soldiery.

"COUNTRY IS TOO LAX"

Meat, Milk and Other Articles of Diet Subject to Careful Scrutiny, Says Divine, But Whiskey Escapes—Pythian Memorial Service.

"A man ought to be very careful not to associate with 'red nose' whiskey or any other kind of whiskey," said Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring in the course of the memorial address to Crescent Co. No. 12, U. R. Knights of Pythias in the First Presbyterian church last evening. "Your order, I am glad to see debars any man from its membership who is associated in any way with it. That is along my line. I have seen too many examples and red nosed specimens not to know the evils of it. There is no inspection of the whiskey that is sold through milk and meat and other articles of diet are subjected to vigorous inspection. A Jap said to me that absence of such inspection was the strangest thing he observed in this country. Our country is too lax in this respect; and our city is not as strong as it ought to be."

"In insanity cases," continued Dr. Herring, "it is a common test by physicians to turn on a spigot of water over a trough and then ask the patient to bale the trough out. If he continues baling without turning off the spigot he is hopelessly insane, but if he turns it off there is a chance for his recovery. We are trying to save drunkards, but we have not sense enough to turn off the spigot; we keep baling out."

The rest of the sermon in substance was as follows:

"I note that the essential principles of your order are 'Friendship, Charity and Benevolence,' and from the fact that you are called Knights of Pythias especial emphasis is to be placed on the word 'Friendship.' Friendship is a word of the richest meaning. It has been defined as 'the strong habitual inclination of two persons to promote the good and happiness of each other,' or 'love for another for what he is in himself and not what he is to the loved one.'

"When Socrates was building his house in Athens, his friends criticised it because it seemed too small for a man of his prominence, but he replied that it was perfectly satisfactory to him if he could see it well filled with real friends. The greatest satisfaction in life is that which comes from real fellowship. It was an ancient conceit that the soul of man is a fragment of a larger whole and th tahe must seek the other parts if he would realize his true completion.

"No man should rest satisfied in saying that the ideals of my order are noble and that if a man 'live up to them, he will be a pretty good man.' Ideals are not for our admiration but for our appropriation. They are set before us for us to struggle to realize them. A great athlete does not set a stick a few feet from the ground and then say that would be a great jump if I could clear it. He places it there in order to leap over it. If he fails he tries it again.

"The highest order of friendship has sacrifice in it. Your ideal has that. That story of Damon and Pythias is over two thousand years old, but we still admire the devotion of these two men for each other. It is like the love of David and Jonathan. Jonathan forgot his pride and David his ambition in their mutual love.

"But I don't want to stop here tonight. You say you believe in 'the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man,' but God is not only your father. He wants to be your friend. A boy grows to young manhood and then father and son become friends. They understand each other better. That is your privilege. Religion is not simply the acceptance of a creed, it is getting acquainted with God. Jesus Christ opens the way for better acquaintance. Let us not only admire christianity for its beautiful ideals. Let us appropriate Jesus Christ, make the ideals he sets before us more and more a part of our life. He says to us I will call you friends if ye do whatever I command you."

The service opened with the singing of hymn 345, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and closed with 665, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and benediction by Rev. Dr. Herring.

There were about fifty members of the lodge present. During the day, under the direction of Captain J. E. Flannery, and accompanied by a fife and drum corps, they visited the different cemeteries and decorated the graves of deceased members. On the return to the lodge rooms a collation was served.

Next Sunday the members of the lodge will proceed to Port Chester, New York, to decorate the grave of Harvey Patterson.

WOMAN BADLY BITTEN BY INFURIATED BULLDOG

Mrs. Nora Edmundson, of 136 Central avenue, was attacked and badly bitten about the body yesterday morning, by a bulldog belonging to George Hill, who occupies a room in the top portion of the same building.

Dr. Raphael Yood was called in and dressed the wounds.

The dog has been tied up and is being carefully watched to see if it develops signs of rabies, when it will be immediately destroyed.

MAY GET SEWING MACHINE AS WELL AS TYPEWRITER

Miss Stella Relyea, who has been a Baptist missionary in China for the past fourteen years, and who has been at home on her second furlough, spoke at the First Baptist church, last night, telling something of her work on the mission field. Since going to China, Miss Relyea has established a Bible school, and is now raising funds with which to build another one. She has more than $1,000 raised toward the $2,000 required and is hopeful of securing the balance.

Miss Relyea said that the older people in China are so steeped in superstition and idolatry that there is little to be expected from them in the way of advancing the cause of Christianity. It is in the rising that the missionaries are looking for great things.

The speaker told of the custom which is so prevalent throughout China of the natives giving spirit money to Chinese gods, thereby hoping to secure long life. She described one if these idols known as the "God of the Northern Hills."

Mattie Douglas, a little tot from the Sunday-school, appeared on the platform with Miss Relyea dressed in Chinese costume. During her stay here, the Young People's Society of the First Baptist church has raised money with which to purchase the missionary a typewriter and last night steps were taken to purchase a sewing machine for her.

MR. SAUNDERS IS CONCERNED OVER A HAT AND "THE RING"

Former Mayor William L. Saunders, of North Plainfield and New York, alighted from his Mercedes car at the Plainfield station this morning and while waiting for the 8:30 commuters train to pull up to the station spent a few moments discussing the funny sides of the Republican National convention gathering.

"Umph, George is wearing the hat, all right; hope he don't throw that $100 into the ring," murmured the genial disciple of Thomas Jefferson. Someone had shown him a newspaper picture of George W. Perkins, the "full house" of the Theodore Roosevelt advisory camp. And someone was led to ask why the former mayor didn't want the headgear in the picture thrown into the ring.

"The best reason in the world. You see, 'I am a Democrat,' to use a famous saying of D. B. Hill and I don't want my $100 to go into the G. O. P. ring. That hat, you see, I bought for George when I was last down in Panama. It was the best hat I could find. Well, he might as well throw it away anyhow, if Roosevelt is going to be nominated, for in that event, George will need a larger sized headgear."

Mr. Saunders is an associate of Mr. Perkins on the directorate of the International Harvester Company and is also a fellow director in other great business interests. The two magnates are close personal friends.

ONE-DAY TRIP FOR UNION DEMOCRATS

To Go to Baltimore on Special Train Next Monday—Cheap Meals.

Union county Democrats have practically completed all arrangements for their trip to the nation convention at Baltimore. The committee on transportation has announced that a special train to be run over the Central Railroad has been chartered and that it will leave the Broad street station at 7 o'clock on the morning of Monday, June 24, making stops at Roselle, Cranford, Westfield and Plainfield, in order to pick up the county delegation.

"No Baltimore prices' was the slogan adopted by the committee on catering, Hugh Boyle, the chairman, reporting that all arrangements had been made to have a caterer on the train, and that meals would be served practically at cost price. It will not be necessary for any of the Union county men to patronize Baltimore restaurants at any time during the day. The fact that prices have been almost doubled led to this feature of the arrangement.

The train will leave for the return trip late Monday night. The round trip fare will be $5.75, but those who wish to remain in Baltimore for a longer period may arrange for transportation on any train and at any time by paying $1.35 extra, or $7.10 in all.

The committee on transportation guaranteed the railroad officials that 200 would take the trip, but it is believed that more than that number will purchase tickets. Monday was selected as the day for the trip because of the fact that on the other days there would be little opportunity to get into touch with the "big men" of the convention.

The committee on badges has arranged for attractive badges, bearing a picture of Governor Wilson, in whose behalf the Union county men will appear in the convention city. These badges will be ready some time next week and will be distributed on the train.

The general committee will meet again tonight at 21 Broad street, Elizabeth, and at that time tickets will be distributed.

BALL PLAYER BREAKS LEG, WON'T WALK FOR 3 MONTHS

William Hadley, aged 28 years, of Helene avenue, a member of the Park Avenue Baptist church baseball team, received a fracture of two bones in the left leg Saturday, while playing with his team against the nine of the Temple Baptist church, at Central avenue and West Seventh street. Mr. Hadley was on third base and in trying to steal home, the spikes in his shoe caught in the home plate and threw him over the catcher.

Mr. Hadley found it impossible to stand up and Dr. G. W. Endicott, who was called, discovered that two bones between the knee and ankle were broken. They were set and the patient is now getting along very well. It will probably be three months before Mr. Hadley will be able to walk.

BENNETT BRITTON NEARS 100 MARK

OLDEST PLAINFIELDER

Born in Paterson in 1813—Moved Here After Serving in the Civil War—Vigorous For His Years—Congratulated by Friends.

Bennett Britton, who is well-known as Plainfield's oldest resident, is rapidly nearing the century mark. Yesterday he observed the ninety-ninth anniversary of his birthday, and he enjoyed the occasion in his usual good health. There is nothing about Mr. Britton's actions to indicate that he is almost one hundred years old, and to use his own words, he does not feel his age. He ascribes his long life to regular habits and the proper kind of a diet. He is always cheerful and can tell a good story as well as anyone.

Occasionally, friends get Mr. Britton in a reminiscent mood, and he recalls interesting incidents of his early life, as well as of the Civil War in which he served, and his memory is as clear as ever. Mr. Britton was born in Paterson, June 16, 1813. He is a descendant of sturdy Holland stock. He spent his early life in New York, where he engaged in the hotel business at Sixth avenue and Forty-first street. Business was good in those days. New York was as much of a trade centre then as today, and people came from all parts of the country chiefly by horse and wagon or on horseback. Mr. Britton's trade was largely among the cattle drivers.

Mr. Britton answered President Lincoln's first call for troops at the outbreak of the Civil War, and he served with distinction throughout the conflict between the North and South. At the close of the war, after receiving an honorable discharge he removed to Plainfield, locating in the Netherwood section. For a time he conducted a hotel on South avenue, near Terrill road. In 1880 he purchased the hotel property at Scotch Plains which was owned by William Lee, and for fourteen years he conducted a hotel there. At the end of that time he removed to West Front street and Clinton avenue, where he still resides. He conducts a pool and billiard parlor, and even today is able to play a fine game of either pool or billiards.

Mr. Britton is a member of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, and he still retains his interest in the lodge. He makes frequent trips back and forth to the business section of the city and is unusually vigorous for one of his years. Now that he has live to be ninety-nine years old, he is ambitious to reach the century mark. Yesterday many friends dropped in to congratulate Mr. Britton and wish him many happy returns of the day.

HERO MEDAL IS DUE WILLIAM TREMBATH

He Jumps Into Central Park Lake to Rescue Drowning Little Girl.

There's a Carnegie hero medal coming to William Trembath, proprietor of a job printing plant in North Plainfield. Yesterday, as he was sauntering through Central Park, he heard the cries of a crowd on the banks of Echo lake. Rushing to the scene of excitement he saw that a little girl had fallen into a deep place in the pool, while playing with a boat. Without waiting to take off his coat or shoes, the Plainfield man plunged into the cool water and grabbed the little one, bringing her safely to the banks.

A hundred or more people quickly surrounded him and in the crowd were the parents of the child, who proved to be Tessie Abner, aged three and a half years, of West 98th street, New York. The mother and father were half hysterical but Trembath didn't exactly take to the hugging and cheering that was coming his way so he beat a hasty retreat.

Trembath returned to New York today—not to get his Carnegie medal but to purchase a new suit of clothes for Sundays.

CHEERY PICKER WILL SPEND MONTHS IN THE HOSPITAL

Irving B. Seevers, aged 45 years, a New York business man, of 1125 West Front street, was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital in the ambulance, yesterday, suffering from a compound fracture of the left leg below the knee. Mr. Seevers was preparing to pick some cherries from a tree on his place. He had reached the top of the ladder and in stepping from it to the limb of the tree, the limb broke, allowing Mr. Seevers to fall a distance of more than twenty feet.

Mr. Seevers called his wife and arrangements were made at once to have him removed to the hospital, where the broken bones were set and put in a plaster cast. It will be several months before Mr. Seevers will be able to leave the hospital.

TAFT'S FORCES WEAKENING; ROOSEVELT GAINS STRENGTH

'Tim' Woodruff Among 20 Taft Delegates to Go Over to Colonel--Borah For Chairman--T. R. Greets Jersey Delegation.

STATEMENTS OF CLAIMS.

"Notwitstanding the theft of eighty delegates by the discredited political bosses trying to thwart the will of the people at the primaries I shall surely be nominated."—Col. Roosevelt.

"It is easy enough to size up the situation. President Taft has the delegates necessary to renominate him. The only question is 'Can he hold them?' "—Senator Root.

(By Leslie R. Fort.)

(Special despatch to the Daily Press)

Chicago, Ill., June 17.—It did not take the New Jersey delegation of Roosevelt shouters twenty minutes when they arrived in town Saturday night to make their presence known to all political Chicago. They were met at the station by former Senator Everett Colby and National Committeeman-Elect Borden D. Whiting, as well as twenty-five or thirty who had preceded them here. They were immediately formed in line four abreast and, headed by a full military band, they awakened the echoes and the big downtown buildings as they marched direct to the Congress hotel.

All along the line of march the big Saturday night crowd stopped to watch the Jersey men pass, and frequently to applaud and yell. Frank B. Jess, president of the State Board for the Equalization of Taxes, had blossomed forth as a "poet" on the train and was responsible for a yell which the crowd frequently let forth as follows:

"Rah, rah, rah, who are we,
Who are we?
We are the delegates from New Jersey.
Are we in it?
Just you wait,
For we give Teddy twenty-eight straight."

This was received with yells and applause whenever given. After marching to the Roosevelt quarters on the second floor of the Congress hotel, the party gave its yell and then proceeded through the business streets of the city through cheering crowds to their headquarters at the LaSalle. Here they found a second band established in the lobby and a continuous serenade was kept up there for an hour. It was a tired group of tourists who turned in about midnight.

Sunday was a quiet day for the Jerseymen as individuals, but it was lively enough for the presidential candidates' headquarters. The city saloons and business houses, aside from the big department stores, were wide open and there was plenty for those to do who did not want to go to church.

New Jersey headquarters have been established on the second floor of the Congress hotel, although the delegates had to room at the LaSalle. A big banner of the coat-of-arms of the State, maps showing the Taft and Roosevelt States(flags and pictures of Roosevelt are to be seen in quantities. L. R .F.

(Special Dispatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, June 17.—Colonel Roosevelt this morning received the New Jersey delegation, headed by former Governor Fort as its chairman, at a handshaking reception in his private apartments in the Congress Hotel. So great was the demand for his time that he was unable to address the crowd.

A Chicago dispatch to the Evening World, who bitterly opposes Roosevelt, says:

"Indications today point to the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President on the Republican ticket. The developments of yesterday point to the dissolution of the Taft forces before the actual work of the convention gets under way. The signs pointing to the nomination of Roosevelt are not all direct. His campaign is in a critical position, but if he progresses today and tomorrow as he has progressed since his arrival in Chicago, he will have eliminated Taft, and even the leaders most violently opposed toRoosevelt admit that there is no man in the party upon whom they might centre their forces as a dark horse."

STONE'S FINE PHOTOGRAPHS.

The unusually fine pictures of the Leal's school baseball team and Edmund Kenney and Guy D. Peck, Jr., graduates of the North Plainfield High School, which appeared in the Plainfield Daily Press on Saturday were taken by P. Frank Stone, the East Front street photographer. Mr. Stone makes a speciailty of this kind of work which has called forth the highest praise.

Chicago, June 17, 2:30 p. m.—Excitement is at fever heat at Chicago and all sorts of claims are being made by both the Roosevelt and Taft leaders as to relative strength.

Unbiased opinion among the men who have followed the Republican National Conventions for years and are in close touch with the situation here appears to be that the Taft forces are weakening hourly and that Roosevelt is gaining strongly as the time for the convention draws near.

Since the National Committee finished deciding on contests late Saturday night, twenty of the Taft delegates have gone over to Roosevelt among them being "Tim" Woodruff, of King's county, New York.

Senator William Borah, who had charge of the T. R. claims before the National Committee, was chosen this morning by the Rooseevlt leaders as their choice for temporary chairman. The selection lay between the Idaho man and Gov. McGovern, of Wisconsin, and it was finally decided that Borah should handle the gavel if the T. R. men could win the day. Senator Root, of New York, is the Taft choice for temporary chairman.

New York, June 17.—A Chicago dispatch to the New York Evening Sun, a Taft paper, printed this afternoon, says:

Colonel Roosevelt came, saw and conquered Tim Woodruff. He has also won over some dozen negro delegates, including five from Mississippi and seven from Georgia. Also four New York delegates supposed to be for Taft announced that they would vote for Justice Hughes. They were Frank M. Hugo, of Watertown; Frederick C. Stevens, of Attica; William H. aDniels, of Buffalo, and Frank O. Anderson, of Jamestown. Two Taft delegates from Illinois declared for Robert T. Lincoln. These dfections cut the Taft majority down appreciably.

That is the situation this morning with the convention only twenty-four hours away.

It was a bad day for the Taft forces yesterday, and it may seem strange to New Yorkers that the switching of Timothy Woodruff should be considered an event of vast political importance. Yet that was the case hre. The Colonel took Mr. Woodruff into his private room and talked with him for a clean hour. Mr. Woodruff came out a definite and final convert to the cause.

(By Leslie R. Fort.)

Chicago, June 17.—With a full delegation of twenty-eight members, most of the alternates and enough enthusiastic rooters to make up a group of one hundred or more Roosevelt shouters, the New Jersey delegates, who began to make their presence known here immediately upon their arrival on Saturday night, had pretty conclusively demonstrated that New Jersey was on the political map by this morning. The crowd is occupying the biggest part of a floor in the LaSalle hotel, and the headquarters have been about as busy a place as it is possible to imagine in the heat of the hottest campaign for the Presidential nomination that the country has ever known.

Scattered through the other hotels, but mostly at the Congress, are a number of the New Jersey politicians who would have occupied a much more prominent position, had the primaries for the election of delegates gone differently. Many of these men have come here because they have not missed a National convention for years, and they enjoy the excitement and the crowds as much as any one. Among others in this scattered group are State Treasurer Daniel S. Voorhees, of Morris county; former Governor Franklin Murphy, who has been sitting for the last time as a member of the National committee, and who has announced his intention of finally dropping out of politics because he does not believe in the "new order of things;" Edward W. Gray, secretary of the Republican State committee; Alfred N. Dalrymple, the Essex county party chairman; Frank F. Patterson, who is David Biard's right hand man in Camden county, and two-score or more others.

The Roosevelt party is made up largely of men who have hitherto taken little or no active part in New Jersey or National politics. Forty-three came on the special cars which arrived on Saturday night, and they had been preceded by twenty or thirty Jerseymen who have been active in the Roosevelt movement since its inception in the State. Former Governor J. Franklin Fort and former Senator Everett Colby, delegates at

BIBLE WHICH STOPPED BULLET GIVEN VETERAN

Asbury Park, June 17.—Near the close late Friday afternoon of the annual encampment of the G. A. R., Mrs. Margaret Stevens, of Newark, past department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., presented retiring State Commander Adrian S. Appleget, in Liberty Hall, with a Bible that had once served to save a soldier's life.

Imbedded in the book was a bullet from a Confederate rifle. The husband of Mrs. Hannah Search, who died at her home, 69 South Seventh street, Newark, two weeks, ago, had carried the Bible, a gift from her, over his heart, and in one of the early battles was struck.

The bullet, however, simply imbedded itself in the book. Later Mr. Search died in a Southern prison near Louisville, Ky., and the Bible was sent back to his widow. Since then Mrs. Search held the book above price, but Mrs. Stevens related, had directed on her death bed that the Bible be presented to Mr. Appelget.

SENATOR LEWIS AIMS TO RE CONGRESSMAN

Burlington, June 17.—State Senator Griffith W. Lewis tossed his hat into the political ring Saturday morning, with the announcement that he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Second New Jersey District at the fall primaries. It had been understood for several months that Mr. Lewis might oppose Congressman John J. Gardner for the nomination, but no definite statement of such a decision was forthcoming until today.

Defeat of the Taft district delegates in the Presidential primary by an overwhelming majority is regarded by many politicians as sounding the death knell of Gardner, who was the forefront of the Taft cohorts. Gardner, it is said, also pledged the leaders who nominated him two years ago that he would never again be a candidate, although he is said to have made similar promises at two preceding conventions when opposition to his nomination appeared.

The Second District comprises the counties of Burlington, Atlantic, Cape May and Cumberland.

Mr. Lewis declared this morning that he would make a hot fight for the nomination and would canvass every county for votes.

State Senator Isaac T. Nichols, of Cumberland, is an avowed candidate for the nomination and Harold B. Wells, a young attorney of Bordentown, has been mentioned, but Wells, it is reported, has decided to enter the fight for the State Senate instead.

Bribery Charged to Roosevelt Forces.

NEGRO MAKES AFFIDAVIT

Timothy L. Woodruff Has Deserted Taft Ranks.

SOUTHERN DELEGATES BREAK

Begin Drafting Platform---One of Taft's Planks Indorses Aldrich Currency Plan.

Chicago, June 17.—There have been some quick changes in the lineup of the respective presidential candidates. When the Republican national committee concluded its labors on Saturday night this is the way, according to the best information obtainable, the candidates' voting strength sized up:

Taft, 568; Roosevelt, 464; La Follette, 36; Cummins, 10. Total, 1,078.

After authorized changes the best poll of the strength of the respective candidates, irrespective of enthusiastic and unsupported claims, is as follows:

Taft, 547; Roosevelt, 479; La Follette, 36; Albert B. Cummins, 10; Charles F. Hughes, 4; Robert T. Lincoln, 2. Total, 1,078.

Necessary to choice, 540.

President Taft, it will be noted, has lost nineteen votes.

An affidavit by F. H. Cook, a negro delegate to the Republican national convention from Louisiana, charging an attempt to bribe him for $1,000 to desert the Taft forces and vote for Roosevelt, was made public by Director McKinley of the Taft headquarters.

The sworn charge came at the end of a day of bitter verbal conflict between the Taft and Roosevelt forces.

Woodruff For Roosevelt.

Timothy L. Woodruff of Brooklyn authorized an official statement that he had changed from Taft to Roosevelt. Five delegates from Mississippi announced that they had changed from Taft to Roosevelt and seven delegates from Georgia announced that they changed from Taft to Roosevelt.

The two votes in the Illinois delegation which were President Taft's changed to Lincoln. Four delegates from New York hitherto credited to President Taft announced they would vote for Associate Justice Hughes. They are Frank M. Hugo of Watertown of the Thirty-second district of New York; Frederick S. Stevens of Attica, Thirty-ninth district; William H. Daniels of Buffalo, Fourth district, and Frank C. Anderson of Jamestown in the Forty-third congress district.

President Taft has at present seven votes more than necessary to nominate him, while ex-President Roosevelt is sixty-one votes short of a nomination.

Hotchkiss Booms Hughes.

William H. Hotchkiss, superintendent of insurance for New York under Governor Hughes, appeared on the scene and made his headquarters just outside of ex-President Roosevelt's private room in the Congress. He did not see Colonel Roosevelt. When questioned if he represented Justice Hughes here Mr. Hotchkiss said:

"I have not seen Justice Hughes for six months, and I came to Chicago without consulting him. I have been pleased to learn in the few hours that I have been in Chicago that a large number of delegates are leaning toward Justice Hughes. He would appeal to the whole country. He could carry his own state of New York, which is a prime requisite. I didn't come to Chicago as an opponent of Colonel Roosevelt, whom as an exponent of progressive principle I should support most heartily should he be nominated, but more in an effort to help solve the problem which confronts the party at the present time."

"Doesn't Justice Hughes' statement of last week that he would not permit the use of his name effminate him?" Mr. Hotchkiss was asked.

"I think not," replied Mr. Hotchkiss. "No man, particularly one of Governor Hughes' lofty ideals of civic duty, can refuse to serve the people in a crisis such as the present one."

The assertions of delegations that they would vote for Hughes and for Lincoln is the first official indication, outside of the candidacies of Senators La Follette and Cummins, that a compromise or harmony candidate may be nominated in this convention.

McKinley Still Confident.

Director William B. McKinley of the Taft bureau declared that President Taft will have 590 votes in the convention and will be nominated on first ballot.

"President Taft," continued Mr. McKinley, "will have a plurality of 148 votes over Mr. Roosevelt and a clear majority over all candidates. Mr. Taft cannot now be defeated for the nomination. The first public utterances of Mr. Roosevelt on his arrival in this city was the assertion that 'Chicago is a poor place for men to try to steal in.' Notwithstanding this fact Mr. Roosevelt has been busily engaged throughout Sunday after attending church in the morning in attempting to steal delegates away from President Taft, although these delegates are solemnly instructed and pledged to support the President.

The details of the meeting of the New York state delegates, which was held behind closed doors, became known. The meeting of the delegation not only developed the names of thirty New York state delegates who have come out openly for a candidate for a president other than President Taft, but it also was responsible for Timothy L. Woodruff delivering himself over to Colonel Roosevelt.

Outlines Woodruff's Stand.

This became known when E. A. Van Valkenburg, editor of the Philadelphia North American, issued the following statement from the Roosevelt headquarters: "Colonel Roosevelt has authorized me to state to the newspapers that Timothy L. Woodruff, head of Kings county, New York, has just assured the colonel he will vote for Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt states that the gross and indefensible injustice shown in the unseating of the legally elected delegates from Texas and Washington has forced him to adopt this course.

"Mr. Woodruff stated to Colonel Roosevelt he is convinced that the national committee voted for these outrages, did so knowing fully well that Taft can't win. He therefore feels absolved from any obligation to further support of a candidate whose managers have demonstrated that they have not the good of the Republican party at heart."

The Kings county delegates held a meeting and Mr. Woodruff thought this was a good occasion to begin switching to Roosevelt. At this meeting Mr. Woodruff referred to the "Texas outrage" and began talking like a Roosevelt enthusiast. Colonel Michael J. Dady and Marcus B. Campbell, two of the Kings county delegates called Mr. Woodruff's attention to the fact that the steam roller in use in Chicago was the same that had always been used on such occasions, except there was a different engineer on the pilot seat.

Taft Managers Anxious.

The situation in the New York delegation has created much interest in the Roosevelt camp and some anxiety on the part of the Taft managers. The New York state delegates who are expected to vote for Colonel Roosevelt are Mr. Woodruff and Comptroller William A. Prendergast of the Fourth (Brooklyn) district; J. T. Holtman of the Tenth (Brooklyn) district; Charles H. Murray of the Thirteenth (Manhattan); William Archer of the Twenty-fourth (Mount Vernon) district; William L. Ward and John J. Brown of the Twenty-fifth (Westchester) district; L. N. Littauer of the Thirtieth (Fulton) district, and Percy G. Williams of the Thirty-second (Oswego) district.

Those who favor Hughes are F. C. Stevens of the Thirty-ninth (Wyoming) district; Francis M. Hugo of the Thirty-second (Jefferson-Oswego-Lewis) district; William H. Daniels of the Fourth (Buffalo) district, and Frank O. Anderson of the Forty-third (Chatauqua) district. George W. Aldridge and J. L. Hotchkiss of the Thirty-first (Monroe) also are put in the Hughes column, but would, it is anticipated, vote for Roosevelt as against Taft.

All day at the Roosevelt headquarters governors and big and little members of the camp edged their way through the guarded door of the "presidential suit" on the second floor of the Congress hotel, the bolt rumor persisted and finally it was reported that word had gone out to the Roosevelt men that they were to carry the fight for the unseated Roosevelt delegates to the committee on credentials, then into the convention and that if "injustice" was done they could withdraw and hold separate convention.

When Colonel Roosevelt was asked if such instructions had been given he declared, "That's nonsense." Some one wanted to know how the colonel thought it possible for the Roosevelt delegates to countenance acting with the men whose seats they contested.

Not "Crossing Any Bridges."

"We'll cross that bridge when we get to it," was his reply, and he refused then to answer further questions about the probable action of his supporters in the convention. He announced that Timothy L. Woodruff had come to say that he had shifted from Taft to Roosevelt, but said that he had no idea about the number of New York delegates that Woodruff could bring with him.

Governor Hadley acted as chairman of the conference. He said that there had been merely a general discussion of the situation with particular reference to the course to be pursued regarding the contested delegates, and that if any decision had been arrived at it wasn't time yet to talk about it. He denied that the temporary chairman question had come up.

Alexander P. Moore said that there had been some talk about the temporary chairman and that Senator Borah's name found favor with many.

There was also talk, Mr. Moore said, of Governor Hadley for the job, and much discussion of the influence that Governor McGovern of Wisconsin as Colonel Roosevelt's candidate for temporary chairman might have on the La Follette delegates.

Begin Platform Conferences.

Chicago, June 17.—The first real conference over the platform upon which President Taft will run if he wins out in the convention took place. It was held at the Taft headquarters and those who took part in it were Senator Root, Secretary Hilles, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, ex-Vice President Fairbanks and Charles Hopkins Clark of Hartford, Conn.

Senator Root brought some suggestions from the president, with whom he had a talk just before he left Washington. Mr. Fairbanks is slated for the chairmanship of the resolution committee if the Taft forces win. He has brought here some sections of the proposed platform, one in particular having to do with the indorsement which is to be given the party for past performances.

No praise, contrary to expectations, is to be withheld from the performances of the Roosevelt administration in this platform. The speech which Senator Root has prepared, it was also learned, follows this same policy. Roosevelt condemnation is to come in another part of the platform, as if to show how he himself changed and added to his creed a lot of new ideas which the party repudiates.

One thing which was talked over at the conference of the Taft platform makers was the six year presidential term question. This is going to receive very serious consideration here, but just what the outcome will be is uncertain.

Next to this feature the most interesting fact which developed in connection with the work the two rival sets of platform constructors was the disclosure that whereas the Taft platform is to give what might be described as a mild indorsement of the Aldrich currency plan, not mentioning the measure by name, the Roosevelt platform will absolutely repudiate it.

The Roosevelt plank will advocate a currency system under the absolute control of the government. This Roosevelt money plank will not be far different from the one La Follette's people have. Frank A. Munsey is writing the tentative draft of the Roosevelt platform. Of course everybody believes that the Munsey platform is to be worked over and changed by the colonel himself. Regarding the Roosevelt platform Mr. Munsey said:

"The country need have no anxiety concerning the sanity, the soundness and the wisdom of the Roosevelt platform. It will be short and strong and as free from 'bunk' as it is possible to make it."

T. R. on Woman Suffrage.

There is to be a plank in the colonel's platform handling the woman's suffrage question. It will follow the colonel's ideas that the question is one for all the women of the land to settle by themselves and will advocate a referendum on the subject. Other points are these:

First.—A declaration that the present struggle is one to return the government into the hands of the people.

Second.—A declaration in general terms favoring popular government through such instrumentalities as preferential primaries, initiative, referendum and recall, including the recall of judges, but leaving to every local community the selection of remedies according to its local needs and desires.

Third.—A declaration in favor of the control of the trusts by means of a federal agency.

Fourth.—A declaration in favor of a revision of the tariff downward on data to be secured by a genuine tariff commission equipped with authority and directed to report to congress. Also a commission to inquire into the question whether the workmen in protected industries are receiving their proportion of the benefits of the tariff, the lowering of the tariff to fall first on industries which have treated their workmen unfairly.

Fifth.—A plank declaring for legislation to work out "social justice" and "industrial democracy" in the industrial world.

Sixth.—Conservation, including a revival of the country life commission. A plank favoring the inland waterways program, including the impounding of the waters of the Mississippi and deepening of the channel from Chicago to the gulf.

REAL SUCCESS.

In his baccalaureate address at Yale yesterday, President Hadley devoted the attention of the graduates to a consideration of the industrial and economic problems of the day basing his remarks upon the correct idea that success in life is not measured by wealth but upon sacrifice and service. Private business is a public trust, he asserted, whenever the public welfare is affected by it. His argument was directed primarily to those who hold to the false belief that the measure of success of a college bred man's career is dependent upon the money he has made.

"The question is constantly asked," said Dr. Hadley, "whether our colleges prepare their students to be successful in after life. In nine cases out of ten the man who asks this question measures success in terms of wealth. He thinks of the whole world as playing a game to which money is the prize and the man who makes the most money is the winner. If this were the right way to look at life, the inquiry would be an overwhelmingly important one.

"The true measure of a man's success is the service which he renders, not the pay which he exacts for it. The true measure of a man's ability is the power to help others and to contribute to their advancement. The effort to make money is an important incentive to social service and industrial progress; but the amount of wealth each man acquires is no accurate indication of the service he has rendered or the progress he has made possible."

Contributions for the King's Daughters' Baby Camp fund will be cheerfully received, promptly acknowledged in these columns and quickly transmitted to the committee of the City Union of King's Daughters having charge of the camp where the babes of the poor are cared for during the trying summer season.

Saturday's contributed editorial will be written by a resident of North Plainfield who holds much prominence in the Methodist Episcopal church in this country. He has had considerable experience as an editor of religious journals and his contribution to our editorial columns is sure to be interesting.

Former Governor Franklin Murphy announces from Chicago that he is going to retire from politics after the National convention. This announcement is stale news; the Republicans of New Jersey handed him his passports to political oblivion on Tuesday, May 28.

Some Minnesota newspapers must have been throwing the limelight effectively on political bosses, for according to a dispatch the Assembly in that State has passed a bill providing that all newspaper editorials must be signed with the name of the author.

It wouldn't be a bad idea for the Board of Health to detail one of its inspectors late some evening to examine the condition of the main line trolley cars. To say that some of them are filthy is but putting it mildly.

For complete and latest news from the Chicago convention, read the Daily Press. No pains will be spared to give our readers the best possible political news service from the seat of Republican war.

By its vicious attacks on Governor Wilson, the Newark Sunday Call is demonstrating that it can sink as low as the Newark Morning Star.

Warm temperature followed by storms is the weather man's tip for Plainfield. Quite so for Chicago, too.

ROBERT MARION LA FOLLETTE.

Whose supporters still hope to see named as a compromise nominee of the Republican convention for President.

THE FORUM.

AGAINST S. O. TANKS.

Edtors, Plainfield Daily Press.

In reading your editorials, I note with pleasure, the different remarks in reference to good government. I would say, that Mr. E. F. Barrows hit the nail on the head.

As to Commission Government I would say that conditions, as well as the general public would be greatly benefited, inasmuch as the commissioners at all times would know just what was needed in Plainfield. It would not be (like at present) that one official would give a permit to build and property that another set of officials were considering taking over and opening as a street to benefit the general public, (namely a lot on Clinton avenue in line with proposed opening of Bradford avenue).

Mr. E. T. Barrows speaks of the general air of comfort and refinement that pervades our atmosphere. Should he take a trip to the West End of Plainfield, below Clinton avenue, he would find that we (the taxpayers, taxed in proportion to assessed value of property), feel quite different as we are burdened with all the nuisances of Plainfield. I will say for the West End taxpayers that while we live in hopes of being rid of one of the greatest nuisances (the sewer beds) we feel that our representatives (the Common Council) should vote in our favor and not give a permit for the proposed gasoline storage tanks that always become a public nuisance sooner or later.

While we feel by the removal of the sewer beds that the city in general will be greatly benefited (largely in greater assessed value of property), providing the Common Council does not stand in its own light, and grant the permit for the proposed storage tanks.

Hoping you will give this letter the prominence that it deserves, I will thank you in advance.

Yours Respectfully,
MR. H. O. BOGERT,
1437 Bradford Ave.,
Plainfield, N. J.

FEMININE RIVALS OF BOY SCOUTS ARE HERE

The Young Women's Christian Association has stared a group of Camp Fire Girls, with Miss Bradshaw, the pahysical director, as guardian. The Plainfield Camp Fire girls have been meeting Tuesday nights to do Indian bead work, sing songs, work on the Indian ceremonial dresses and get well acquainted. Thursday nights the girls go on tramps to the mountains, cook their suppers over the blazing camp fire, talk about their law, and come home singing their camp fire songs.

All girls over eleven are invited to join this camp fire at the Y. W. C. A. and they are asked to hand their names to Miss Bradshaw as soon as possible.

POTTED GHOSTS.

An African Tribe's Method of Driving Away Sickness.

One of the most curious and interesting of African tribes are the Banyoro, or cow people, of Uganda, who are powerful clansmen and whose wealth, religion and health are all connected with cows. It is degrading for any member of the tribe to dig, so milk and flesh are their staple food. Their bravery is very great. The only beast they gear is the leopard. Their chief weapon is a long stick, and, armed with this, they go out to meet a lion that is trying to get at their precious cattle and drive him away by the simple process of thrashing him.

Though they are brave, they are inveterate thieves and very subtle in their methods of carrying out their thefts and concealing their guilt by lies. Indeed, one of their favorite mottoes is, "Keep a grave face even though you laugh behind your hand."

When sickness comes to these people they believe that it is one of their enemies, the ghosts, that is attacking them, so they proceed to capture him. Ghosts like hot cooked meat, so meat is cooked in a large pot near the dwelling where the ghost is at work. As soon as the savor of the food reaches the dwelling the evil spirit greedily enters the pot and is at once sealed up. This potted ghost is then taken away from the village and buried, the spot being marked by a ghost shrine.

The position of rest for these people is a half sitting posture, and when they are holding a council they will remain in this posture as long as ten hours. When they die it is in this resting position that they are buried. If it should be the king who dies his successor is generally selected by the drastic process of civil war.

PLUCK OF A DEER.

A Big Buck That Was More Than a Match For a Cougar.

It seems to be generally assumed that wild animals of different species keep the peace, but now and then the experience of some woodsman strikingly disproves this peaceful view of forest life.

Two sportsmen made a trip to the Kettle river region, in the state of Washington, and in the course of the shooting witnessed a rare occurrence.

They had been on the trail of a large buck for some time and, as it chanced, came in sight of him at the very moment when a cougar launched himself upon the buck from the limb of a tree. The cougar landed squarely on the buck's shoulders, almost throwing him to the ground.

The buck quickly recovered and, throwing back his head, drove two prongs of his antlers into the cougar's body and with a swing forward threw him to the ground. Leaping backward, he then waited with lowered head for a second attack.

With a yell of rage and pain the cougar sprang upon him. He might as well have leaped against an array of bayonets, for he was caught on the buck's antlers and hurled several feet into the air.

The instant he struck the ground the buck was upon him, striking savagely with his forefeet, which cut like knife blades, and driving his antlers again

READING IN BED.

Not Injurious to the Eyes if a Few Simple Rules Are Observed.

To those addicted to the practice of reading in bed the remarks of Dr. Carl Seiler will be of interest. He states that there is no valid reason to be urged against using the eyes in a proper manner in a recumbent position—such use is the least tiresome and can be persisted in for longer periods without damage than any other position.

We all know that grave damage is often done by reading in a recumbent posture, but therein possibly some oculists are at fault. Had it been the universal practice during the last twenty or thirty years to give careful directions how to read lying down instead of saying to one and all, "You must not read lying down," there would be less near sight and better eyes in the community than now exist.

Three easily avoided errors cause all the harm possible from reading lying down, the first often leading to the other two. They are insufficient or wrongly directed light, short reading distance and tipping the book out of the plane at right angles to the line of vision.

If, however, every one reading lying down will so arrange his lounge or bed that the light comes over the head without striking the eyes and falls well upon the page, if he will hold his book at a long reading distance and take care that the line of letters shall be at right angles to the line of vision, he can be sure of doing his eyes no more harm than if he were sitting up.

More than this, there is much positively in favor of reading lying down. Dr. Seiler concludes, "The recumbent posture allows more rest of the bodily structures than the sitting posture, and there is greater possibility of resting and repair in that position."—London Globe.

HORSE AND CHIEF DOANE'S CAR OUT OF COMMISSION

"Tom" and "General," two horses at fire headquarters will be shortly placed on the retired list as their services will be no longer required. At least "Tom's" won't, but "General" will be shifted to one of the other companies there to continue his career of usefulness. This change is brought about by the dispatch of the chemical engine to Allentown, there to be equipped with a motor. The engine is expected to arrive back at headquarters about the latter end of the month.

Chief Doane's red automobile is out of commission temporarily. It skidded in rounding the corner of Watchung avenue and Second street last Friday, and shed a wheel. The chief was shaken up but escaped injury.

MRS. SITES BURIED.

The funeral of Mrs. Jean Montgomery Sites was held at 10:30 o'clock this morning at Grace church, being largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. John G. Currier, curate of the church, officiated. The burial was in Greenwood cemetery, today.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

MAKING OATMEAL PALATABLE

OATMEAL is rich in nutritious material. The outside grain, however, is such that unless it is well cooked it is hard to digest. For persons who exercise vigorously it is an excellent food. It is especially rich in fats and is therefore a good diet when the weather is damp or chilly.

If oatmeal is steamed it should be cooked for three hours in case it has previously been soaked or for six or more if it has not.

There are many ways of serving oatmeal other than as the conventional breakfast mush. Many persons who abhor the cereal served with milk and cream will take it in other forms.

Good For the Youngsters.

Oatmeal Cookies.—These cakes will be liked by the little folks. They are as wholesome as delicious. To make them warm and beat together a cupful of honey and three-fourths of a cupful of butter. Add two beaten eggs, a pinch of salt, one cupful of washed and chopped raisins. Sift two teaspoonfuls of baking powder with two cupfuls of flour and stir with two cupfuls of oatmeal into the mixture. Add half a cupful of hot water. Put on buttered tins and bake in a moderate oven. Serve either hot or cold.

Simple Cakes.

Oatmeal Breakfast Cake.—Rub two ounces of butter into half a pound of oatmeal. Add salt to taste and mix with cold water. Roll out rather thinly, form into small cakes and bake in a moderate oven. Butter and serve hot.

Oatmeal and Bananas.—Cook oatmeal in the usual way. After placing it in the cereal dish slice bananas over the top, sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve with cream. If desired other fruit may be substituted for the bananas.

A Nutritious Cake.

Scotch Oatcake.—To prepare it take one pound of medium oatmeal, two ounces of butter or good dripping, a small teaspoonful of salt and water. Put the oatmeal and salt into a basin; rub the butter into it; then mix in enough water to make it into a smooth, stiff dough. Sprinkle some oatmeal over the board and rolling pin. Put the mixture on the board and roll out to the desired thickness; then either cut it in pieces about three inches square or stamp out rounds with a cutter. Slightly grease a frying pan. Put in a few cakes and bake over a slow fire. If preferred, they may be put on a greased baking tin and baked in the oven.

FASHION STRAWS.

Picot Edged Ribbons Return to Modish Favor.

Picot edged taffeta ribbons have returned to favor along with the panniers.

Ribbon velvets in all colors are a marked feature of the smaller costume.

The separate skirt of cotton corduroy rivals linen for summer sporting wear.

HAND EMBROIDERED DRESS.

Short taffeta jackets are trimmed with buttons of exquisite workmanship.

A parasol of black dotted net over yellow satin is beautiful with a deep border of velvet.

Black and white foulard is modish for frocks.

Embroidery is being much used on children's dress this season, and the model illustrated is daintily charming. It is made all in one piece in kimono style, and the embroidery appears at the neck, sleeves and belt.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for children of two, four and six years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7465, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

Good Form

Up to Date Stationery.

For short notes, invitations and the like small note size paper, which measures six inches by four and one-quarter inches or thereabouts, is used. For letters the sheet is more nearly square, approximately five and a half inches wide by six and a half long. Both are folded once and slipped into envelopes that exactly fit.

Foreign correspondence makes the only exception to this rule, and for letters to be sent abroad a thinner, lighter paper is the preferred one. The very latest novelty in envelopes of this thin, satin finished paper displays a lining of one of the new fashionable colors—purple, gray, red or blue.

The lining is not more than tissue weight, yet the color renders it opaque, and it is possible to send a letter of generous length without excessive postage, while at the same time its contents are protected from curious eyes.

The engraved monogram, initial or address at the top of the sheet in the center is always in good taste, or, if desired, the address may be used in combination with the initial or monogram. In the latter case the address may either be placed below the initials or in the center with the monogram or the initials occupying a space to the left.

Simple script letters from half to three-quarters of an inch in height, intertwined, afford a pretty effect and are in excellent taste, says McCall's Magazine. Blocked letters are combined in many attractive ways, and just now there is a marked preference for long, narrow monograms, whether used alone or in combination with the address. Small letters are often inclosed in a little frame of medallion style, but these are mostly preferred by young girls.

Dull blue and dull red inks for printing monograms and addresses are favorites, gray is liked by many, and tan is always effective on a white ground, while both silver and gold are in good style. Bright colors and startling effects are always to be avoided, but there all rule ends.

Owners of country houses and of boats large enough to serve as temporary homes frequently use the name as well as the general address—as, "The Cedars," followed by the name of the town. Every yacht club has its own flag, and often this is used, together with the owner's private signal, in the left hand corner, while the name of the boat or the owner's monogram occupies the center of the page.

Telephone numbers are important when living out of town, and often the center of the sheet shows the address, while diagonally across the left hand corner are printed the telephone call and number, the same style of letter being used for both.

Calling Obligations.

Even though she is not a society butterfly every woman who desires to have a circle of friends or acquaintances must make certain stated calls. Not to make them is to show carelessness and lack of good breeding.

You should have a list of your calling acquaintances and manage to go to see them at least twice a year.

A call after having been entertained at dinner or luncheon or at an evening entertainment is necessary, as is also the call of congratulation after a marriage or birth.

Those who have had a sorrow should be called upon. In the home where there is illness you should call and make inquiry as to the condition of the patient.

The newcomer in the neighborhood should be called upon, as should also the stranger who has been introduced to you by a friend.

A first call should be returned within a week or at least within a fortnight.

Any of the other calls mentioned should be made promptly.

Cultivate Kindness.

Kindness is a quality which every girl ought to cultivate. No matter how pretty and fascinating woman may be, she is of little account unless she has a good nature as well.

So many lives have been marred by unkindness, so many hearts wounded by sharp words or bitter retorts. Much as we may regret a hard word we have spoken, it is out of our power to recall it, and all we can do is to try to efface the memory of it by a softer phrase.

Even then the wound may remain unhealed. The great duty of life is to be charitable and kind in both word and action. Remember that "kind words are the music of the world."

They have a power which seems to be beyond natural causes. Life is short. We should make haste to gladden the world all we can by human sympathy and love.

Birth Announcements.

The correct announcement card which is sent out to intimate friends within twenty-four hours after baby's arrival is a beveled edged six inch square of highly glazed cardboard bearing on its upper right hand corner the idealized head of an infant, while running downward along the left upright side are three dotted lines preceded by the name, date of birth and signature in blue lettering if the recent arrival is a boy and in pink for a girl. The card is signed by whoever sends out the announcement.

For the Children

A Fourth of July Parade of Children in Masks.

The old time noisy, firecracker celebration of the Fourth of July has happily gone out of fashion. Powder and fire are too dangerous for young folks to handle. A masked parade is a jolly way for children to show their patriotism on Independence day. The more grotesque the masks and costumes are the greater will be the fun. Another good plan is to have a colonial parade and perhaps tableaux in the schoolhouse or on some convenient field or lawn. The youngsters, dressed up to represent George and Martha Washington, Miss Columbia, Uncle Sam and the men and dames of colonial times, can be grouped to form many pretty and interesting pictures. It is greater fun, too, than being burned and otherwise injured by firecrackers.

A Fourth of July Game.

Another good Fourth of July game is called "stars and stripes." To arrange for this take a large number of cards and paste a gilt star on each. On another bunch paste a red strip of paper on each, and on another paste a strip of silver on each.

The cards are dealt, one to each player and one to the pool, until all are disposed of. The cards are held figure side in. Each player examines his cards to see whether he has enough stars and stripes to make up the American flag. If he has the correct number and over he counts them out, and after showing them to the table he lays them aside. Perhaps he may have two flags. When no player can form further flags from his own cards the drawing begins. Each player borrows from his left hand neighbor and endeavors to make a flag. If any player gets out of cards he still may draw. The person on the right of the one out of cards draws from the pool. The pool is only used when absolutely necessary. No one is allowed to answer any question as to the flag during the game, and much fun will be made by the players displaying their ignorance as to the correct number of stars and stripes of our emblem. When a player lays down his hand with a wrong number of stars and stripes to make up one flag those cards go to the pool, but no one must tell him in what way he erred or the others will be helped. The one making the most correct flags wins a prize.

A "Nation" Game.

Hand a slip of paper and pencil to each guest and ask them to write answers to each of these questions. Each answer must end in the word "nation."

A floral nation?
A poet's nation?
A schoolgirl's nation?
A teacher's nation?
A traveler's nation?
A preventative nation?
A ruler's nation?
A churchgoer's nation?
A murderer's nation?

Answers: Carnation. Imagination. Examination. Explanation. Destination. Vaccination. Coronation. Donation. Assassination.

Origin of Arizona Town Names.

Nogales—Derived from the Spanish word nogal, meaning "common walnut tree."

Oro Blanco—The Spanish words meaning "white ore."

Calabasas—A Spanish word meaning "pumpkins" or "gourds."

Yuma—Named for an Indian tribe, the name meaning "sons of the river."—United States Geological Survey.

Snow Ball.

Have prepared balls made of tissue paper. In the heart of each ball place a slip of paper on which is written a conundrum. The fun will come in unwrapping the balls, and the prize will be given the one answering the riddle correctly.

Fourth of July.

In seventeen hundred and seventy-six
At the sound of Liberty's call
Our ancestors, tired of England's rule,
Assembled in old Town hall.

On the Fourth of July they signed the word
That makes us free today.
Great honor is due to these noble men
Who broke from England's sway.

And so to show our gratitude
On this day of the year
We bless the memory of those brave,
Whose strong hearts knew no fear.

May we in turn our country serve
And earn the right to say
It was for us those patriots made
Great Independence day.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

REGARDING CHARGE ACCOUNTS

"This is the first time in my married life that I have ever had a charge account," smiled a Plainfield woman Saturday as she wound up a half day's shopping tour in our store. "I can't begin to tell you how pleased I am. My husband has always been opposed to opening an account, his motto being 'pay as you go,' but I had heard so much about the convenience of a charge account, particularly at your store, that I finally overcame his scruples. I'm sure he will be pleased when he finds out how nicely I have been treated here today."

After hearing what our delighted Plainfield customer had to say, it occurred to us that there must be hundreds—yes, thousands—of substantial folks who, for one reason or another, are opposed to charging goods.

Have YOU a charge account here? If not, come in and let us talk it over. You have no idea how convenient it is to simply say "charge it" or how advantageous it is to have a monthly account at a store whose merchandise is marked on a cash basis, strictly.

VISCOUNT HALDANE.

He Is the New Lord High Chancellor of England.

The lord high chancellor of England, to which office Viscount Haldane, former secretary of state for war, has just been appointed, is the highest judicial officer of the realm and the first lay person after the royal family, ranking between the archbishops of Canterbury and York. He is ex officio a privy councilor and speaker of the house of lords. He issues writs for the assembling of parliament, appoints all judges of both superior and county courts and presides over the court of chancery and the supreme court of judicature. The style has been accorded him of "keeper of the king's conscience."

The appointment of Lord Haldane may be regarded as recognition of the part he played in the recent peace pourparlers between Great Britain and Germany. Haldane was sent direct to Berlin, where he laid the basis for negotiations which may terminate in an Anglo-German entente. The appointment recently of a new German ambassador to London is regarded as one of the results of Haldane's mission.

Viscount Haldane, who was born in 1856, besides being distinguished as a statesman, is one of England's foremost philosophers. He is the translator of Schopenhauer's "World as Will and Idea," as well as the author of numerous philosophical works. He entered the ministry as secretary for war on the formation of the Campbell-Bannerman cabinet in 1905 and held the post ever since.

The chancellorship carries a $50,000 salary.

AEROPLANE GUN.

Forty Shots In Fifty Seconds Fired From It In Preliminary Test.

Preliminary tests were made recently at College Park, Md., of the army's new rapid fire aeroplane gun operated from an aeroplane and capable of firing 500 shots a minute. The tests gave every indication of success, though the gun was not taxed to its fullest extent as a weapon of offensive warfare.

Captain Charles DeForest Chandler, U. S. A., in charge of the aviation school at College Park, handled the new gun in a biplane operated by Lieutenant Thomas DeWitt Milling. When the biplane had risen about 300 feet the gun was trained at various angles and began spitting out shots at the rate of forty missiles in fifty seconds. This is, of course, slow firing compared to what the weapon is expected to do when the officers have had practice in handling it. Captain Chandler used it cautiously, as firing from an aeroplane was in itself a novelty.

The gun is the invention of Lieutenant Colonel I. N. Lewis of the coast artillery, who has made a specialty of ordnance inventions. The gun is of the same caliber as the Springfield rifle. Ordnance and signal corps officers showed particular interest in the preliminary test, as the practicability of the gun for aeroplane use is considered highly important in that it changes the aeroplane into an offensive weapon capable of mowing down infantry at the rate of eight in one second when taxed to its maximum capacity.

The Brotherhood of the First M. E. church will hold its last meeting until fall on Friday night, June 28, in Vincent chapel.

ATLANTIC CITY IN TRI-STATE.

Atlantic City, June 17.—John H. Myers, of Lancaster, president of the Lancaster team of the Tri-State League, came here Saturday and completed arrangements for the transfer of the team to this city by taking a lease upon the baseball park at the Inlet. Lancaster, which is to be known in future as Atlantic City, will open the season at the seashore on Friday, June 21, with Reading.

—Lots of people are contented because they don't know any better.

—Wigg—"What sort of fellow is Addlepate?" Wagg—"He's one of those fellows who are afraid to sneeze for fear of blowing their brains out."

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

All local baseball games had to be called off at the last moment Saturday afternoon when the weather man began his series of showers just before game time.

The 'Plains game with the All-Stars of Newark, also had to be called off.

It is unfortunate that the Scotch Plains team had to be deprived of their two week-end games, as they have just struck their winning stride and work is what they need to make it last a while.

The 'Plainers are hitting like demons and with a pitcher like Slocum to take care of the box work, they ought to take a turn of any semi-professional team.

They defeated the Newark Colored Giants the previous Sunday by the score of 14 to 4. Hand led the home stickers with three two-baggers and two three-baggers out of six trips to the rubber.

Speaking of the Scotch Plains aggregation, Nibs Hand, the other half of the United States League battery, is being ranked as one of the best catchers in the semi-professional ranks.

There is a great deal of rejoicing in the Phillies camp as they have landed Rixey, the star pitcher of the University of Virginia.

Rixey was offered $650 a month to join the White Sox but he signed the contract offered him by Rigler for the Phillies.

Babe McDonald, the big traffic policeman, one of the leading shot-putters of the American Olympic team, was presented with a large silver loving cup by a score or so of newsboy contributors as a token of appreciation of their love for the big cop.

When the Canadian Olympic team sailed with forty-five athletes for the Olympian, they were minus the services of Robert Kerr, winner of the 200 meters race at the London Olympic.

It has been decided that he has gone back in speed and thought it would not be fair to his country to attempt to represent it and resigned.

The Detroit Tigers have asked for waivers on Mullin and Summers of their pitching staff.

This may be an opportunity for the Yankees to bolster up their pitching staff. Mullin is a favorite with the New York fans.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS.

E. C. Ostlin, of the local Y. M. C. A., has been selected to represent the Plainfield association at the fifteenth annual invitation conference of the physical directors of the State of Pennsylvania. Mr. Ostlin will be accompanied by George L. Listman, formerly director of the Plainfield branch, who will deliver a lecture on the "Hygiene of Lockers and Baths" at the conference Wednesday afternoon. The general theme of the conference, which will be in session all of this week, will be "Hygiene and Eugenics." Mr. Ostlin is at present very busy completing the final details of the big city athletic meet to take place on Independence Day and he will probably not get off until the latter part of the week.

STILLMAN BOYS HOLD FOURTH ANNUAL MEET

Keen Rivalry Displayed by Junior Entrants—Senior Half-mile Closely Run.

The fourth annual field and track meet held under the auspices of the Stillman Grammar School, was run off at Parker Field Friday afternoon. It was a success and eclipsed the three previous meets both in entries and events.

The greatest amount of keen rivalry was displayed by the junior class entrants who fought for every individual score they could scrape together. Although Condray, the little blonde junior champion, were his title by taking first place in two runs and one field event, he was given a close rub by Trowbridge and Thickstun.

The most exciting and closest race of the afternoon was the senior half mile. After Parvin had set a terrific clip the greater part of the 880 yards Waller shot to the front about twenty yards from the finish and won handily.

The individual point winners in each class will receive a silver medal and ribbons will be awarded to the first, second and third men in each event.

The summary—Senior class:

100 yard dash—First, Waller; second, Noonan; third, Borden.

220 yard dash—First Waller; second, Borden; third, Noonan.

880 yard dash—First, Waller; second, Pawin; third, Saunders.

High jump—First, Waller; second, Saunders; third Noonan. Height 4 feet 8 inches.

Running broad jump—First, Waller; second, Borden; third, Saunders. Distance 17½ feet.

Shot-put (12-lb.)—First, Waller; second, Noonan; third, Saunders.

Junior class:

50 yard dash—First, Trowbridge; second, Smith; third, Thickstun.

100 yard dash—First, Condray; second, Trowbridge; third, Smith.

220 yard dash—First, Condray; second, Smith; third, Clay.

Shot-put (8-lb.)—First, Thickstun; second, Trowbridge; third, Hirsh. Distance 30 feet.

Running high jump—First, Condray; second, Bower; third, Hirsh. Height 4 feet 6 inches.

Standing broad jump—First, McDowell; second, Thickstun; third, Hirsh. Distance 7 feet 4 inches.

The highest individual scores in the senior class were made by Waller with 30 points, Noonan 8 points and Borden 7 points. The junior high score went to Condray with 15 points, Trowbridge with 11 points and Thickstun with 9 points.

JUNIOR GOLF ENTRIES.

Entries are beginning to come in for the First Metropolitan Junior Golf Tournament at the Plainfield Country Club on Tuesday, June 25. All boys under nineteen years of age are eligible to compete for the handsome prizes offered by the local club and as this tourney has been prepared especially for the younger boys, to give them a good time and stimulate their interest in the game a large number of novices are expected to take part. Most of the events are handicaps and every boy will have a chance.

DE ORE WINS.

Alfred De Ore, challenger for the world's championship at pocket billiards, defeated Edward I. Ralph, the Hightstown player, in the final block of 200 points in their match at the Masonic Temple, in Trenton, and thereby wins the match. Ralph is well-known around these parts and it has been only recently that he sprung in to prominence as a billiard player in a world's series.

LIBERTY A. C. NINE WINS AGAIN FROM FRANKLINS

The Liberty A. C. team took their second fall out of the Franklin A. C. team on Parker Field, Saturday. Snappy fielding and timely hitting won the game for the Liberty team who put up an errorless game until the ninth, when Bohl contributed two misplays and Sears one.

TRENTON TRI-STATE CLUB AFTER CLAYTON SMITH

Clayton Smith, the New Brunswick High School twirler, who held the North Plainfield High School lads to two scratchy hits in their recent meeting, is in receipt of several professional offers, one of them coming from the Trenton Tri-State League team.

Smith has been attracting widespread attention this season as he has great speed and sharp breaks, a combination which has puzzled many opposing batters. As a result of his fine work in the box, the New Brunswick High School closed a most successful season, winning over three-quarters of their games. Smith, however, has three more years in High School and this, together with the objection on the part of his parents to professional baseball, has caused him to turn down all offers.

SECOND ROUND MATCH PLAY FOR THE JUNE CUPS

The only event in golf at the Plainfield Country Club Saturday was the second round match play for the June cups, both classes, which was begun the first Saturday in the month. The players were pretty evenly matched, but in one match, between G. M. Holstein and C. W. King two extra holes were necessary to decide the winner. Mr. Holstein won 1 up. The day's scores:

Class A—W. Lester Glenney defeated D. O. Rogers, 6 and 5; A. J. Watson defeated H. D. Hibbard, 5 and 4; H. R. Stockton defeated L. G. Carman, 2 and 1; Will T. Glenney defeated F. O. Reinhart, 1 up.

Class B—E. T. Perrin defeated L. H. Van Buren, 2 up; R. B. Corey defeated B. C. Kenyon, 3 and 1; J. V. Beekman defeated Duncan W. Taylor, 3 and 2; G. M. Holstein defeated C. W. King, 1 up (20 holes).

R. V. CARPENTER WINS A PARK CHAMPIONSHIP

R. V. Carpenter won the spring championship at the Park Golf Club Saturday, defeating J. H. Greene, Jr., in the final play, 2 up. The match was close throughout, and was not decided until the last hole was played. A. M. Morrell and Dr. H. K. Carroll, challengers in the "goat" competition, defeated Charles B. Morse and U. G. Tingley, holders, 4 up and 3 to play. The winners will now be challenged by another pair. In the weekly competition for the President's and Golf Club cups, these scores were returned:

H. L. Moodey, 99, 21-78; Charles B. Morse, 101, 20-81; R. V. Carpenter, 100, 16-84; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 97, 10-87; A. M. Morrell, 101, 13-88; J. H. Greene, Jr., 105, 14-91.

PREMIER ASQUITH.

English Statesman Who Is Accused of Attacking Suffragette.

In a statement issued by the Women's Social and Political Union Premier Asquith is accused of striking a suffragette. It is charged that the premier struck her a hard blow on the arm with his cocked hat, which "buckled" under the force of the blow.

I'm Boiling Over With Enthusiasm Over These Summer Suits.

That's one of my biggest assets, outside of my merchandise—enthusiasm!

A business without enthusiasm is like an engine without steam—it can't go.

But then, who wouldn't be enthusiastic about selling garments styled, mannered and tailored like mine—garments made by men "who know how;" men who have made a life study of clothing manufacture.

They come in all shades that well dressed men will wear this Summer—and just see how I've priced these suits.

$10, $12, $15, $18 and $20

You'll become enthusiastic, too, when you see them, besides there's a saving of $5 to be considered.

WHARTON MINES CLOSE; 200 MEN ARE LAID OFF

Rockaway, June 17.—Mining operations in the Wharton mines at Upper Hibernia were suspended Saturday. The pumps will be kept going to keep out the water and the preparations to drain the water out of the old mines will be continued.

It is believed the low prices of iron ore and pig iron are the cause of the shut-down, although in other mines in Rockaway Township, at Mt. Hope and the Richard Mine, where conditions are about the same, the number of men is being increased, and the Empire Iron and Steel Company, whose mines are at Mt. Hope, has just made an agreement with the Wharton Steel Company to take five carloads of Hibernia ore daily. The first shipment was made from Hibernia Friday.

Hibernia miners cannot understand the action of the Wharton Steel Company, because, they say, a rich twelve-foot vein has just been found in level 18 of the new shaft, and as soon as the old mines can be cleared of water, access will be had to the richest iron ore veins of any mine in New Jersey. There is a persistent report that another company intends to acquire the Hibernia mines, but thus far it cannot be verified.

The men laid off number about 200, while thirty will be retained. There is plenty of other work in this vicinity and all will probably find employment. Some of the men will go to work in the Mt. Hope mines today, and others in the Rockaway rolling mill.

It is said this is the first time in the history of Hibernia that there is an entire standstill of mining. The big store of the MacKinnon Company, where the miners bought all their supplies, was also closed today. The men received two weeks' pay Saturday, and the final pay day will be Wednesday or Thursday.

POMPTON SCHOOL FACULTY.

Pompton, June 17.—The Board of Education of Pompton Township Thursday night made the following faculty appointments for next year: Bloomingdale School, principal, Oscar L. Fleetwood; vice principal, Martha B. Day; teachers, Misses Clara J. Moody, Cathelina Pendleton, Elizabeth Haerter and Grace Coram, of Ridgefield Park; Miss Arnold and Miss Roat, Ringwood School, principal, Miss Munson; Stonetown School, principal, Miss Smith; Erskin School, principal, Harold Davis; Midvale School, principal, Miss Patrick; Haskell School, principal, Miss Granford. There was considerable discussion regarding a supervising principal, and it was stated that by having one for the township, it would mean a saving of nearly $500. Definite action was deferred.

COURT'S SOLUTION OF GRADE CROSSING FIGHT

Trenton, June 17.—The Supreme Court Friday allowed a per-emptory writ of mandamus which makes it obligatory on the part of the Trenton, Hamilton and Ewing Traction Company to proceed with the work of crossing the tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at Trenton Junction and to carry its trolley line into the junction proper.

Whether the crossing will be at grade and whether there will be elevation or depression will be decided through the application to the chancellor. The municipality must also be consulted.

The traction company some years ago secured the right of way to continue the trolley line from the railroad, where it now stops, into the village and over the tracks of the steam road. It was decided, however, by the township committee that it would be dangerous to have a grade crossing at that point, where the trains travel at a fast rate of speed.

ENGINE NAMED AFTER HIM.

Hackensack, June 17.—Calvin Voorhis, an engineer on the New Jersey and New York Railroad, was all smiles Saturday when he drove his locomotive into this place. On both sides of the engine his name was lettered in gold. The Erie Railroad recently inaugurated the system of naming its locomotives after faithful employes, and though the main line and several branches have been so honored, Saturday morning saw the first named locomotive on the New Jersey and New York branch. Voorhis has been in the employ of the Erie for thirty years.

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR RESIGNS.

Lakewood, June 17.—At the meeting of the board of directors of the Lakewood Young Men's Christian Association, Edward A. Osborne handed in his resignation as physical director of the association. The resignation was accepted and Mr. Osborne will leave the first of July to take up his duties as secretary of one of the departments in the Brooklyn naval branch of the Y. M. C. A. at the navy yard. In 1908 Mr. Osborne came to Lakewood from Newark, which had always been his home.

MAJOR HALL RESIGNS.

Paterson, June 17.—Feeling that the stress of private business precluded the possibility of his devoting sufficient time to his municipal and military duties, Major Isaac A. Democratic National Convention In Baltimore

None of the Presidential Candidates Will Have Enough Votes at Outset.

Second Highest In the Balloting May Be Nominated For Vice President.

ATTENDANCE at the Democratic national convention of 1912 in Baltimore will go down as the largest in the history of the Democratic party. This is due to the uncertainty as to the outcome of the convention and the fact that there is a population of 15,000,000 within a few hours' ride of Baltimore.

The committee on arrangements had its hands full in assigning the tickets. There were about 10,000 tickets to be distributed, and it was estimated that nearly 200,000 requests had been received. The convention hall has a seating capacity of 15,000, or 4,000 more than could be accommodated at the Republican national convention in Chicago. Season tickets were distributed to members of the national committee and to delegates, and these could be exchanged for eight session tickets. Through this system party leaders were able to grant many more requests from their constituents than if they had only season or daily tickets for distribution.

The Democrats were especially fortunate in the matter of contests, very few of which had been filed. There were contests from the Philippine Islands, Alaska, Porto Rico and the District of Columbia. Uncle Sam's possessions in the far east have never been permitted to participate in a Democratic national convention. Because of the anti-imperialism issue of 1900 the Philippine delegates were barred and the precedent established then was adhered to in 1904 and 1908. Through an error in issuing the call this year, the Philippine Islands were not eliminated, and two sets of delegates were chosen.

It was well known, of course, that no candidate would go into the convention with even a majority of the delegates, whereas a two-thirds was necessary to nominate. For that reason the outcome could not be forecasted. Some Democrats think that the two-thirds rule is un-Democratic and that it ought to be changed, and until very recently there were Democrats ready to lead a movement to have the rule abrogated so that future conventions should follow the course of conventions of the other party.

Credentials were received for three women delegates from Colorado, and one or two other women delegates were sent by other western states.

Because of the many contests to be decided, it was necessary for the Republican national committeemen to gather at Chicago fully two weeks before the convention date. Not so with the Democrats. While there were more candidates seeking the presidential nomination on the Democratic side, there was not the bitterness displayed between them or their respective followers as there was on the Republican side, and it was necessary for the Democratic national committeemen to gather in Baltimore only four or five days in advance of the convention.

The Baltimore convention may run for four or five days. The business might be got over within three days, but it must be remembered that the hotel keepers and merchants put up $100,000 for the convention and that they expect a reasonable opportunity to get this back via the visitors.

Present plans, which are, of course, tentative, call for adjournment after the convention officers have been chosen on the opening day and the usual committees appointed. The second day is to be given over to the reports of these committees and the discussion and adoption of the platform. Then will come the nominations. The multiplicity of candidates makes it certain that a number of ballots will be necessary, and the nominee may not be determined at a single day's session.

The first ballot or two are expected to dispose of the "favorite sons'" candidacies. This will eliminate Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, Governor Simeon E. Baldwin of Connecticut and Governor John Burke of North Dakota. Then will come the test of strength between the leading candidates—Speaker Champ Clark of Missouri, Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio and Representative Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama.

While it is regarded as likely that one of the candidates already actively in the field will receive the nomination, there is yet a possibility of a deadlock which might result in a "dark horse" being chosen. In such event Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York is regarded as the most likely to be chosen, while William Jennings Bryan is always a possibility.

The Indiana votes and the North Dakota votes, it is generally supposed, would go to Harmon if it is seen that the Ohio governor has a chance of being nominated. The Connecticut vote would be divided after the complimentary vote for Baldwin. A newspaper poll of the fourteen Connecticut votes shows seven for Bryan, six for Clark and one for Underwood as the second choice of the delegates.

Senator James A. Reed of Missouri will nominate Clark, ex-Judge John W. Wescott of Camden, N. J., will present Wilson's name, and M. A. Daugherty of Lancaster, O., and Representative J. Thomas Heflin of Alabama will perform similar offices for Harmon and Underwood, respectively.

SENATOR REED (ABOVE) AND EX-JUDGE WESCOTT, WHO WILL NOMINATE CLARK AND WILSON RESPECTIVELY.

There is a disposition among leaders of the party to make an effort to induce the presidential candidate who gets the second highest number of votes to accept the nomination for vice president — for instance, if Clark should be named for president Wilson to take second place, or vice versa, and so on through the list. Through such a combination it is the leaders' idea to effect more complete harmony and strength for the whole ticket.

While a change of 1,000,000 votes will be required to elect a Democratic president in November next, the party chiefs declare that this number will be easily forthcoming because of the unity in their own ranks and the disturbed condition of the Republicans.

There is talk of a new office in the Democratic national committee to be known as chairman of the campaign committee, whose duty it will be to work with the chairman of the national committee, of which he may or may not be a member. If the office is established the incumbent will be named by the presidential nominee after a conference with the new national committee members. The national committee chairman, however, will continue in general charge of the campaign. Senator O'Gorman's name is being discussed for the new position.

TAGGART DENIES MURPHY COMBINE

Not For Gaynor, but With Governor Marshall.

DEMOCRATIC BATTLE IS ON

Senator O'Gorman Admits Mayor Gaynor Would Make Strong Candidate, but Has Kind Word For All—Is Confident Bryan Doesn't Want to Run.

Baltimore, June 17.—Thomas Taggart, the Democratic leader of Indiana, denied emphatically that he was concerned in any way in a reported deal with Charles Murphy of New York regarding the Gaynor boom.

"I am absolutely and sincerely for Governor Marshall of Indiana, and I'll go into no deal unless our Indiana man is at the head of it," said Mr. Taggart.

Taggart and the committeemen discredit the report from New York to the effect that the proposition to nominate Senator O'Gorman for the position of temporary chairman is a fling at Leader Murphy.

There was no truce in the Democratic battle. The workers for the several candidates for the presidential nomination were occupied in drawing their lines closer, in putting in a good lick here and another there.

Situation Is Unsettled.

With only one week remaining for preliminary jockeying, the situation is just as unsettled and the final outcome more in doubt than ever. The Democrats who are in town for the big convention spent the day for the most part in earnest confabs and conferences.

Senator Pomerene of Ohio, who will head the Ohio delegation to the Baltimore convention, was a caller at the Harmon headquarters in the Emerson later returning to Washington. He gave it as his opinion that Governor Harmon would be nominated on the fourth ballot.

O'Gorman Noncommittal.

New York, June 17.—United States Senator James O'Gorman, chatting at his home in New York about what may and what may not come to pass at the Baltimore convention, said the New York delegation will not pick its candidate until its first caucus is held in Baltimore. He was sure that the selection made at that time will be the candidate who on the eve of the convention seems "most available."

The four leading candidates, Harmon, Wilson, Clark and Underwood, the senator said, were all splendid men. He did not count in Bryan because he was confident that Bryan's repeated statements that he was not after the job were sincere. It being suggested to the senator that Mayor Gaynor is looming up, he said:

"Mayor Gaynor would make a good, a great president. Any one who can administer the affairs of a city like New York as he has done is a strong and acceptable man. He could carry the state of New York tomorrow."

THAW'S MOTHER ARRIVES.

Will Attend Hearing to Secure Release of Son Harry.

White Plains, N. Y., June 17.—Mrs. Mary Copely Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, arrived here from Pittsburgh to attend the hearing, which begins today before Justice Keogh of the supreme court, when Thaw will make another effort to secure his release from the state insane asylum at Matteawan. Justice Keogh will determine whether Thaw is still insane or not.

Mrs. Thaw drove at once to her hotel, where she denied herself to all callers. She said she was tired as a result of her journey. She celebrated her seventieth birthday last Friday.

A Salute Returned.

It was the last music lesson before the Christmas holidays, and the children had been thinking more about the coming festivities than about their studies, so it had been rather unsatisfactory.

"Well, children," said the supervisor as he was about to leave, "I wish you all a merry Christmas, and I hope that when you return after the holidays you will have more music in your heads than you have today."

Without a moment's hesitation came the reply from forty little urchins, "The same to you, Mr. Browning."

Granddaughter of Gen. Garibaldi

SIGNORINA ITALIA GARIBALDI, General Garibaldi's granddaughter, is spending a few weeks in this country and is working in the interests of the women of Italy.

"I am particularly interested in two things," she said, "and both of them have to do with women and with emigration. One is the effort to establish a headquarters in America to look after the Italians—especially the women—who go from our country to yours. The other is the settlement of the colony in Tripoli and the furtherance of the 'home industries' among the women, that will help, I feel sure, in making the colony a success."

Signorina Garibaldi speaks English perfectly, and she has made several visits to this country. She was a student at Columbia university, New York, a few years ago.

"I am helping in a fight against the American factory," she went on. "The Italian girls who come to this country do not want to go into factory work. Unless it is an absolute necessity they don't do it. The love of home and the desire to stay in the home, however poor it is, are born in the Italian girl.

"And we women who are interested in various kinds of social activities in Italy are working especially hard just now to revive the home industries of the Italian women—the lacemaking and the embroidery. We want the Italian girls to be proficient in the work that their grandmothers did so beautifully. And if these girls emigrate to America we do not want them to go into factories here, but to go on doing the work that they did at home.

"So the Council of Italian Women, of which both my mother and myself are members, is trying to establish an office in New York to keep in touch with the Italian women and girls who come here. At present the Italian government takes very good care of them until they land in New York. Every ship that carries emigrants out of Italy has to have a government officer who is also a physician on board to look after them. But when these people get to New York Italy abandons them entirely, and they are alone in a strange land.

"Now, the Council of Italian Women wants to stop that. It wants to have headquarters here for nothing else but to look out for the women and girls who come from Italy.

"Just now we are discouraging emigration to America for a new reason. We have this new country in Tripoli, and we want our people to go there instead of coming to America.

"There are two reasons for this. One is that it is, of course, better for them to be in their own country, under their own government, among their own people, than in this strange, big country across the sea. The other is that the Italians are not an industrial but an agricultural people, and the new land will be developed, not as an industrial, but as an agricultural colony.

"The Italians who go to Tripoli will be enabled to carry out the work and the way of living with which they are already familiar. The women will be making homes. We are encouraging the Italians to go to Tripoli in greater numbers instead of coming by so many thousands here.

"Of course we have to have emigration. There are too many Italians for Italy. Every week steamships bring thousands of Italians to New York. There were 1,700 in the boat I crossed on. And Italy is still crowded. They must go somewhere.

"Italy has never been successful as a colonizing nation. Tripoli may fail. But we have hopes of this new experiment."

"I do not believe in woman suffrage," said Signorina Garibaldi, when the question was put to her. "I think it tends to take women away from the home, and I think it far better for women to concentrate on the work that has to do with the home than to try to take part in the government. The Italian women as a whole are indifferent to suffrage. They are more conservative than you in America. But I do not believe in women working for other women and for the people who need help."

Mrs. Dyckman Winckler and her sister, Miss Mary Hoagland, of the borough, have returned from a sojourn at Atlantic City.

RIOTS OVER; MEN RETURN TO WORK

One Hundred Deputies Withdrawn From Perth Amboy.

OUTBREAKS HAVE CEASED.

Eight Hundred Employees of Asphalt Company at Work Today — Smelting Plant Hands Plan Settlement — Understood That Demands of Men Have Been Granted.

Perth Amboy, N. J., June 17.—There is every indication that the strike that for a week has been marked with riot and bloodshed is at an end. Adjutant General W. F. Sadler, after a long conference between the officials of the American Smelting and Refining company and a committee of the strikers, telephoned Governor Wilson that the backbone of the strike had been broken. General Sadler leaves Perth Amboy, and so do about 100 of the special deputies who have been held in reserve for strike duty.

For the first time since the opening of the strike there has been no violence. The town spent a quiet Sabbath. The funerals of Stephen Budoc and Tony Trudy, shot in Friday's riot, were to have been held, but on the orders of the sheriff were postponed until 12 o'clock this afternoon.

The "dead line" about the smelting company's works was abolished and visitors were allowed to go about as they pleased, but were kept moving.

A settlement has already been reached between the Barber Asphalt company and their 800 or so striking employees, by which all the men go to work today. The 1,500 out at the American Smelting and Refining company's plant, it is believed, will soon go back. The committee from the men who conferred with their employers are to report the result of the conference. Although no official statements have been given out it is understood that they have secured pretty much everything they asked for.

CATCH MURDER SUSPECT.

Andrew Komor, Farm Hand, Charged With Killing Mrs. Mack.

Seacaucus, N. J., June 17.—One of the farm hands sought since the mysterious murder of Mrs. Minnie Mack on May 14 was found by detectives and locked up in Brooklyn to await identification by the woman's husband, Charles, and niece, Miss Mamie Kahn. Since the day of the murder the farm hand has been working on a truck farm in South Jamaica under his own name, Andrew Komor.

William Sharlock, a detective attached to the prosecutor's office in Hudson county, got trace of the man about a week ago. With Detectives Ruddy and Dunellen, he sent a decoy letter to the man, telling him to come to a Brownsville banker's office. The man appeared in response to the letter, accompanied by several other Poles.

Komor is more than six feet tall and powerfully built. When the detectives seized him, they allege, he drew a nicked razor and attempted to slash them. After a hard fight they subdued and disarmed him.

BOMB IN FEUD WAR.

Louis Gorsky Fatally Hurt and Three Buildings Burned.

Burlington, N. J., June 17.—Explosion of a bomb in a midnight effort of would be assassins to kill Louis Grosky, head of a warring faction in the East Burlington foreign colony, and members of his family, resulted in the probably fatal injury of Grosky, destruction of three dwellings and a barn on Bordentown avenue and started a conflagration that threatened to wipe out the entire colony.

The police are looking for the men. The explosion blew out the side of one building, shattered the concrete foundations of another and shook up the entire eastern end of the city. The burst of flames immediately following caused the police to believe that the plotters had saturated the exterior of the Grosky home with kerosene.

MOSQUITOES ON GRAVES.

Essex County Exterminators Have Delicate Task In Their Hands.

Verona, N. J., June 17.—Although they won't be required to do the work in the dark of the moon, some of the large corps of inspectors engaged throughout Essex county in exterminating mosquitoes look with dread upon the task that has been assigned them for the coming week.

It has been ascertained by the chief of the mosquito exterminators that millions of the insects are bred in receptacles that are used to hold flowers that decorate the graves in the various cemeteries of the county, and the inspectors have been instructed to visit all the burying places this week and destroy every vessel that they find which is capable of holding water.

Kicked to Death by Mule.

Camden, N. J., June 17.—Earl Magin, aged fourteen, was kicked in the stomach by a mule on his father's farm at Paulsboro. He died in the Cooper hospital here shortly afterward.

Submarine Bell Signaling

RECOMMENDATIONS by the senate Titanic committee and the fact that it has been accepted by the American Museum of Safety have brought the submarine sound signal into prominence. There are nearly 200 signal stations in all parts of the world, and more than 900 vessels are equipped with the receiving apparatus.

Much of the submarine bell's importance is due to the fact that it is as reliable in fog as in clear weather. There are four kinds of bells—the pneumatic, electric, automatic and the hand bell, named to designate their motive power.

The pneumatic bell is the most compact. It is the one installed on lightships and is struck by what is known as the diaphragm method by compressed air. The air is carried to the clapper mechanism by means of twin hose and piping. It is lowered from the lightship to twenty-five feet below the water, but on submarines it is bolted to the top of the deck in an inverted position. The compressed air from the ship's boilers passes through one tube, enters the upper cylinder and releases a spring, rings the bell and is released through the other tube when the spring resumes its position. The strikings can be made as rapidly as desired.

The automatic bell is the most useful and also the most complicated. It is installed in places where it is too far from shore to be reached readily by a cable and is in the bell buoy class. It has no connection with the shore or ocean bottom except that it is anchored there and is rung by the action of the waves. The special buoy consists of a cylindrical float with crowned ends about eight feet in diameter by seven feet high. On the bottom of the buoy is riveted a framework to which is attached a receptacle of square tube four feet square by five feet long made of boiler plate. This receptacle is open at the top and bottom and contains the mechanism for ringing the submarine bell. The bell itself projects slightly below the bottom of the receptacle.

The mechanism for ringing the bell is inclosed in a water tight case containing oil. Through one end of the mechanism case passes a horizontal shaft, to which is fastened a vane which nearly fills the opening in the receptacle. It is normally held in a horizontal position by means of two counterweights. As the buoy moves up and down with the waves the water passes through the receptacle first one way and then the other, causing the vane to rock its shaft. As it does so, by means of gears and ratchets, a spring attached to the hammer arm is stretched until the desired tension is produced when it is released. This rings the bell.

BIG ASSEMBLAGE OF ADVENTISTS IS NEAR

Conference Will Begin June 27—Tent City to Be Set Up.

Seventh-Day Adventists of this city, Trenton, Newark, Hoboken, Jersey City, Pleasantville, Bridgeton, Irvington, Rockaway, Paterson, Haledon and other places in the State will gather here for the annual camp meeting of the New Jersey Conference of that denomination which will be held from June 27 to July 7. Pastor A. A. Sandborn, of Trenton, is president of the Conference, and W. B. Walters, of the same city, is secretary and treasurer. Tent meetings, preliminary to the Conference, began at Fourth street and Spooner avenue, last night.

Many tents will be pitched, as the canvas structures will be occupied as homes while the camp is in session. A large canvas pavilion will be erected for the principal services while there will be small tents for the children's and young people's meetings, as well as for dining where only vegetarian meals will be served. Practically all Seventh-Day Adventists are vegetarians.

Not only will all the ministers of the New Jersey Conference be present, but several from the General Conference, the governing body of the denomination, which has its headquarters in Takoma Park, D. C., will also attend. Among the leaders expected are E. R. Palmer, and A. J. Haysmer. Those in the New Jersey Conference who are booked to attend in addition to President Sandborn are Pastor J. G. Hanhardt, of Glasbrouck Heights George W. Spies of Pleasantville; W. H. Smith, of Irvington; W. G. Kneeland, of Jersey City; M. C. Whitmarsh, of Atlantic City, and J. W. Hofstra, of Haledon.

The annual business session of the Conference will be held in connection with the camp meeting. Officers will be elected, reports of the different department heads read, and plans will be outlined for the following year.

The Adventists believe that a definite Advent message is due the world today, and that they have been called to give that message. In speaking of the teachings of the denomination, one of the ministers said:

"Our message is summarized in Revelation 14:6-12. Here are three messages which combine into one, and thus form one great, world-wide three-fold message, which is immediately succeeded by the second advent.

"A careful perusal of the message shows that it is God's final and mighty protest against sin, errors of doctrine, and corruption of every form both in and out of the church. It is not merely the promulgation of certain 'isms,' but it is a definite call for reformation on every point of doctrine which has ever been obscured by indifference and apsostacy. It is God's final plea for a return to primitive Christianity, and a fearful warning against the worldliness and frivolities of the present age."

The movement with which Seventh-Day Adventists are connected began in 1845, when Captain Joseph Bates, of Fair Haven, Mass., began the promulgation of the message now going to the world. From that humble beginning, the message has gone to forty-seven countries of the world, declare leaders of the denomination. In a report the statistical secretary of the General Conference of the work accomplished up to the close of 1910, he said that the denomination has organized 106 local conferences, which are divided into 35 union conferences, 87 missions, nearly 4,500 evangelical workers, nearly 3,000 churches and more than 195,000 believers. The statistical secretary further declared that a tithe of $1,388,689.65 was paid in by the membership in 1910 and that $458,943.70 was given in free-will offering for the support of foreign missionaries. He said there was a large increase in the tithes and offerings last year.

large, as well as George L. Record, a district delegate from Hudson county, were in the advance guard who have been here nearly a week. They were all at the station on Saturday night to greet the travelers, and had most optimistic reports as to the outlook at that time.

Frank B. Jess and Edgar B. Bacon, two alternates at large, headed the party on the special train which was under the chaperonage of Harold Howland, who conducted Roosevelt's tour through New Jersey. Mr. Howland had completed all arrangements to perfection except that the train chosen was one of a decidedly slow character, making frequent and long stops.

The Fifth Congressional District was represented in the party by Edgar A. Knapp, of Elizabeth, and Charles W. Ennis, of Morristown, the delegates, and Mayor G. W. V. Moy of Plainfield, and Mayor Robert F. Oram, of Wharton, as alternates. Others from the district were Stephen S. Day, of Morristown, and Leslie C. Fort, of Plainfield.

There was much contrast between the way the delegates traveled on Saturday, and the manner of those of four years ago. At that time the party was made up of a large number of wealthy men, who had private cars, their own groups of servants, all sorts of things to eat and drink, and who were not averse to an all night poker game. It was said at the time that one politician lost $500 that night. This year it was different. Most of the delegates are men in moderate circumstances. All paid their own expenses, and each occupied a berth in a regular Pullman sleeper. Many had never made the trip to Chicago before and during the daylight hours were contented to watch the country through which they were passing. In the class were Messrs. Knapp and Moy. There was not a gambling game of any kind in progress at any time and all turned in before midnight.

Each member of the party received an attractive badge. On the top cross bar were the words "New Jersey," and printed in gold across a blue ribbon appeared "28 Solid for T. R." Suspended for the ribbon was a medallion, in the centre of which Colonel Roosevelt's latest likeness was to be found.

The first real Roosevelt shouter encountered, aside from those in the party from New Jersey, was Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota. He boarded the train at Harrisburg coming direct from Washington. "There's nothing to it but Roosevelt," said he enthusiastically. "Taft has not enough votes to win on the first ballot, and if he does not win then he will not win at all." Senator Clapp was originally for LaFollette, but thought the Wisconsin man would not make an ideal candidate and shifted to the Rough Rider.

Not a delegate in the crowd would admit that he thought his success had been due to personal effort. All say that it was Roosevelt's personality that carried them through. There were numerous yarns about the trouble in getting petitions signed, but the one which went best was told by a delegate who is a magistrate. He said that he was too busy to get out after names, so he made up a list of those whom he knew well and thought were Roosevelt men. Then he made out summons and had them served by a court officer. Not a man failed to appear, and the delegate said that all were relieved to learn that they could get away from court by the mere signing of their "John Hancocks."

New Jersey delegates expect to be in the forefront at the Roosevelt meeting scheduled for tonight at the auditorium. They say they have the largest solid delegation of any State, and therefore should be given the place of vantage in their efforts to prove that "Teddy" is wanted as a candidate. R. R. F.

TWO KILLED IN TORNADO.

Storm Damages Catholic Church, Fatally Injuring Worshipers.

Zanesville, O., June 17.—As the result of a tornado that struck this place two persons were killed, two others injured fatally, a dozen more received hurts of such character that the outcome is doubtful, while scores of others were less seriously injured and property valued at $500,000 was destroyed.

The tragedy of the storm centered at the magnificent St. Thomas Catholic church, where the early mass was being celebrated by Rev. Father J. P. Roche. The auditorium was occupied by 600 people when the storm broke with a brilliant electrical display and crashing peals of thunder.

The golden cross crowned steeple, standing seventy-five feet above the roof, was twisted off and with several of the huge bowlders which supported it crashed through the roof of the auditorium among the worshipers.

INSPECTION CAR KILLS TWO AT A CROSSING IN LINCOLN

"No. 900," Carrying C. R. R. Officials, Smashes Auto in Which Young Minister and Wife of N. Y. Man Are Traveling.

Observation engine "900," westward bound, carrying on board three of the New Jersey Central Railroad officials on an inspection trip, ran into an automobile yesterday afternoon at Cedar avenue crossing, Lincoln, and instantly killed the one woman passenger of the motorcar and so seriously injured two men that one died an hour after admission to Somerville Hospital, and the other's life is despaired of.

The dead are: Rev. Nathaniel N. Foster, Princeton, and Mrs. Samuel Zucker, of Pelham Manor, N. Y. Eugene Nauheim, 561 West 149th street, New York, was the third victim. The automobile was smashed into matchwood and the debris strewn all over the tracks.

On the observation engine were K. W. Huntington, general superintendent; Charles H. English, touring passenger agent, and E. E. Kerwin, district superintendent. The engineer was Grover Apgar, of Dunellen, and the fireman, Francis Doyle, of Jersey City.

There are different versions of the accident. It is said that the officials stated that shortly after leaving Dunellen station and when nearing the crossing they heard Engineer Apgar blow his whistle. They did not see any sign of an automobile, but they felt the engine strike something.

The brakes were immediately applied, and the engine was run back to the scene of the accident. The officials leaped from the car and rendered aid to the victims. Examination of Mrs. Zucker showed that life was extinct, her body and head being frightfully bruised and mangled. A little bulldog that she was presumably holding in her arms at the time of the accident was lying dead a few feet away from its mistress.

The two men had their clothes almost torn to shreds and were lying among the debris of the car mangled and unconscious. The body of the woman was taken to W. G. Runyon's mortuary in Dunellen. Rev. Mr. Foster and Nauheim weere taken on No. "900" to Somerville, where an automobile carried them from the station to Somerset Hospital. An hour later Rev. Mr. Foster died. Nauheim rallied sufficiently to give the names of himself and companion.

Mrs. Nauheim was almost prostrated last night by the news of the accident to her husband and the death of Mr. Foster and Mrs. Zucker. She said her husband was chauffuer for Samuel Zucker, of Pelham Manor, a retired manufacturer of artificial flowers, and that yesterday morning he started to drive Mrs. Zucker and Mr. Foster to Philadelphia. They intended to stop in Philadelphia for a few days and then tour back home.

The Rev. Mr. Foster is believed to be the young pastor of the Cuyler Presbyterian church, of Brooklyn. He was a graduate of the Princeton Seminary in May, and was ordained only three weeks ago. The Rev. Dr. C. B. McAfee, of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian church, of which the Cuyler church is a branch, said last night that the young pastor started yesterday to perform a marriage ceremony for a classmate somewhere in New Jersey.

A wrecking crew was speedily summoned after the accident to clear the debris off the track. Wearing apparel of all descriptions from burst open "grips" lay around. These were gathered up and deposited on a hand truck and taken to the Dunellen station. Several pieces of jewelry were also discovered, as well as an expensive hat crushed out of all shape.

The car was a complete wreck. There were two numbers on the car; one 4,407 N. Y., and the other 15,579 N. J. There were also the initials S. Z. on a piece of broken woodwork. The auto was a handsome limousine, with exceptionally heavy roadster tires.

Judging from the position in which the automobile was hurled the engine must have hit it on the right side, as the car swerved to avoid the collision. This surmise is borne out by the fact that the two wheels on the right side were smashed completely off and the two on the left side remained intact.

An eyewitness of the accident said it was the most horrifying spectacle that he ever saw. He went on the describe how he saw the car shoot out from behind a clump of trees and directly in front of the approaching engine; how he heard the crash; sow the automobile tossed into the air; the stifled shriek of the woman, the yelp of the dog and the groans of agony from the men; then the crunch of the brakes; the rush of officials from the car, and the exclamations of horror at sight of the bruised and mangled bodies. Then with the scene ineffacably burned into his memory he turned away.

That the party in the car were

PLAN OUTDOOR AND MONTESSORI CLASSES

At Hartridge School—Edison Films and More Teachers —'Oakwood' Purchased

The Hartridge School announces some changes for the coming year. An out-of-door department will be conducted for some of the younger children who need open-air work. A broad low piazza like a ship's deck, 100 feet long and 15 feet broad, will be constructed along the recitation hall on the playground side. This will have a southern exposure and will be sheltered from the northern and eastern winds. No more ideal spot for an open-air class could be devised.

A Montessori class for children below the first grade will also be inaugurated in the fall. In this class the Montessori methods and materials will be used. The first, second and third grade teachers attended the Montessori lectures during the past winter in order that they might obtain the benefit of any new principles that would apply to the teaching of children in the elementary department.

In order that each pupil may receive as much individual attention as heretofore the teaching force will be increased by the addition of two new grade teachers.

Plans are also being made for the use of the new Edison moving pictures in the teaching of geography, history and science. The school auditorium is admirably adapted for such a purpose and it is thought that fortnightly lectures with the films will add greatly to the interest and the information of the pupils without causing any eye strain.

In May the school purchased for its resident department the former McCutcheon estate known as "Oakwood." This in connection with the recreation hall property on West Seventh street makes it one of the largest real estate holders in the town.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT HER SUMMER HOME

Many friends in this city learned with regret of the death of Mrs. Hannah M. Nichols last Friday at Bangall, N. Y., where she had gone for the summer. She was the wife of Adelbert S. Nichols, a real estate operator of New York and president of the Harlem Board of Commerce. Mrs. Nichols was born in this city, where she resided until several years after her marriage.

She was a devoted member of the Mt. Morris Baptist church, a member of the Philharmonic Society, a manager of the Baptist Home for the Aged and a director of the Silver Cross Day Nursery. She is survived by her husband and son, Walter C. Nichols, of New York and Poughkeepsie. Of her immediate family her sisters, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, Mrs. Margaret Randolph, Mrs. Calvin Boice, of this city; Mrs. Frank W. Miles, of Grahamsville, N. Y., and a brother, David J. Coon, of Kansas City, Mo., survive her.

Her funeral took place yesterday afternoon at her late home 2005 Madison avenue, New York. Interment was made at Woodlawn cemetery.

GARBAGE FIGURES SEEM BIT HIGH

Council Somewhat Feazed by Size of Bids Submitted for Removal Contract.

FOUR OFFERS RECEIVED

Lowest is $75,600 for Five Years, Highest $48,000 a Year on a Twelve-Year Contract — Three Plainfielders Bid.

Four bids were received for the disposal of ashes and garbage at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night. In each instance the estimate was generally considered high, with the possible exception of one, that of Daniel Donovan, of Bayonne. He offered to do the work for a term of five years for $75,600.

The only local bid was that of F. W. Hand, J. B. Guttridge and Theodore Glaser, but their figures were much higher than the others. They want $48,000 a year for a period of twelve years. They proposed to install what is known as a vacuum system, and to provide the very latest equipment as to wagons, etc. If collections of ashes or garbage are to be made from the rear of a premises an additional charge of ten cents a can is to be made.

Henry J. Coughlin, of Elizabeth, offered to do the work for five years for $50,000. This bid does not specify whether one year or five years is meant, as is indicated in the other bid. Michael Loprette, of East Orange, who has performed similar work for the above place, said that he would take the contract for $1 per month for each house and business place in the city, if daily collections are to be made. Proportionate charges are to be made for more frequent collections and if collections are to be made from the rear of premises the charge is to be made about 25 cents higher, according to the number of collections. If made from the curb the price would be about $18,000 a year. All of the bids were referred to the public affairs committees without comment.

PERMIT GRANTED FOR S. O. PLANT

Fourth Ward Councilmen All Vote Against Granting the Company's Application.

COMMITTEE FAVOR IT

Objections Were Expected, Says Chairman; Preferable to Keep Plant in City Limits—Objector Hints at "Money Going Around."

The Standard Oil Company was granted permission to build its $50,000 plant at Rock avenue and West Front street, at an adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night. The application was again presented by Councilman Duncan W. Taylor, chairman of the fire and building committee, and after making a few remarks, his motion that the application be granted was adopted. Councilmen Dunn, Reville and Wilson, Fourth ward members, voted in the negative, while Councilmen Clay, Endress, Gloak, Holt, Mygatt, Taylor and Tolles voted in the affirmative.

Mr. Taylor said that the committee had given the matter careful consideration, and at its suggestion several changes were made in the plans as prepared by the company. He declared that all the members of the fire and building committee favored the proposition, and while there had been objections, they were only what one might expect. Mr. Taylor said that the Council preferred to keep the company's plant here, where the city would derive benefit in taxes and the residents would be able to get gasoline or refined oils in any quantity.

Being given the permission of the floor, Harry Bogart, of the West End, who on a previous occasion protested against the erection of the plant, again entered objection. He said that the plant would be a nuisance. It was easy to understand, Mr. Bogert said, why some people are not opposed to the oil plant when a little money is going around. He declared that he did not want any money. He suggested that the company enlarge its plant where now located, instead of building a new one in the West End of the city where it will mean a loss in property values.

Amos Stites, who said that he owns property one a line of that purchased by the Standard Oil Company for its plant, said that he could not see that the plant would be objectionable. In fact, he said, he would not object if it was placed in the rear of his property.

OLD RESIDENT DIES; LIVED IN ONE HOUSE 52 YEARS

One of Plainfield's oldest residents, George Mehl, of 137 West Second street, went over to join the great majority last night, after having attained his eightieth year. The burial will take place on Thursday in Hillside cemetery, the funeral being private.

The late George Mehl came from Alsatia, Germany, to this country in the early fifties and for sixty years has been a resident of this city. He lived in the present house on West Second street for fifty-two years. He was of a quiet and retiring disposition and was widely respected for his high character and sterling qualities.

For twenty-seven years he was in the employ of the Central Railroad and built many of its bridges. As a mason he was an expert workman and as a contractor he was equally successful.

He is survived by one brother, John Mehl, of Hoboken; two sons, John Mehl, Hoboken; and Captain George Mehl, of the Plainfield Fire Department; three daughters, Mrs. George R. Schlereth, Mrs. Charles F. Debele and Mrs. B. F. Priemer; also twenty-two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

ADVENTIST TOPICS.

The keynote of the topics this week at the Adventist tent, corner Fourth street and Stebbins place, will be "God's Message to Men Today." Tonight, "God's Present Message;" Wednesday night, "Today's Message of the Transfiguration;" Thursday night, "The Truest WealthToday;" Friday night, "Man's Need of God Today." The Adventists hold that with prophetic might the Bible writers saw the world as it is today and penned God's message for this time with unerring hand. The attendance at the meetings has been excellent.

MAKE READY TO WIDEN STREETS

To Improve Somerset St., East Second St. and Madison Ave.

PREPARING ORDINANCE

Opposition to Somerset Project Not Considered of Great Weight—Post Office Plans Lead to East Second Street Petition.

Steps were taken by the Common Council at its adjourned meeting, last night to widen Somerset street, 50 to 60 feet ,between Front street and the brook; East Second street from Watchung avenue to Church street; also Madison avenue from Front street to the railroad bridge, the last named improvement to be made in accordance with an ordinance approved June 5, 1893. Councilman W. L. Gloak, chairman of the street committee, introduced these matters and the corporation counsel was authorized to prepare the ordinances under which the work will be done.

Numerous petitions have been received requesting that Somerset street be widened and while there has been some opposition, the committe does not think it to be of sufficient weight to hold up the improvement. Recently, residents of East Second street asked that that thoroughfare be widened between Watchung avenue and Church street, preparatory to the erection of the Federal building at Watchung avenue and Second street.

From time to time there have been petitions requesting the widening of Madison avenue, the street being considered too narrow for the great amount of travel. After ordinances are prepared for the improvements the usual procedure will be followed.

In accordance with a resolution by Councilman Duncan W. Taylor, chairman of the fire and building committee, a fire-alarm box was ordered to be located at Berkeley and Leland avenues.

COUNCIL AUTHORIZES NEW LIGHT CONTRACT

Lower Bills Under Changed Schedule—Twenty Arcs for Business Section.

The Common Council at its adjourned meeting last night, adopted a resolution offered by Councilman John E. Dunn, authorizing a new electric lighting contract with the Public Service Corporation. The cost for lighting is to be cheaper, according to the new schedule adopted by the Public Service Corporation. The contract, which is for five years, provides that the charge for 2,000 candle power arc lights shall be $80 a year; $16 a year for 32 candle power incandescents, and $14.40 for 25 candle power incandescents, with the usual 2½ per cent. discount.

The resolution further provides for twenty 2,000 candle power arc lights in the business section of the city, as follows: Eleven, on Front street, between Watchung avenue and Grove street; three on Park avenue, the third to be at North and Park avenues. The others are installed: three on Watchung avenue, between Front street and North avenue; three on North avenue, between Watchung and Park avenues. In addition there are to be 400 32 candle power incandescents, and 611 25 candle power incandescents throughout the city.

HADLEY BEGINS THE BATTLE WHEN CONVENTION STARTS

Missouri's Governor Declares the Recognition of National Committee's Seating of Contested Delegates Means Representative Government Has Ceased to Exist.

(By American Press Association.)

Chicago, June 18, 3 p. m.—The Republican National Convention was called to order at 12:02 o'clock by Victor Rosewater, chairman of the Republican National Committee. Sergeant-at-Arms Stone started to make the announcement that a flash-light photograph of the convention would be taken as usual.

Instantly, there was an uproar from the delegates and Stone's voice was drowned. Chairman Rosewater pounded the gavel for order, but without avail. Stone then sent his deputies to clear the floor and restore order.

At 12:18 all in the hall was brought to their feet by the strains of the Star Spangled Banner. At 12:30, Father James F. Callahan, of Chicago, invoked the divine blessing. At 12:21, when the opening invocation ended Secretary Hayward was called upon to read the call for the convention

At 12:26 the chair recognized Governor Hadley, of Missouri. Chairman Barnes, of the New York delegation, rose to a point of order, but was not recognized by the chair. At 12:30, Governor Hadley moved to amend the temporary rule. Hadley then started the battle.

"Mr. Chairman," he said, "I rise to a point of order. I desire to know whether the temporary rule has been temporarily framed."

Here the Taft parliamentarians broke in and rose the point of order that there could be nothing done before the convention until it had been formally organized. Rosewater ruled the point of order well taken and said he was willing to listen to argument on the question.

Governor Hadley continued: "I rise to a question of information." There was nothing before the convention at that time. "I move that the list of delegates prepared by the National Committee, known as the temporary roll, be amended by substituting the following list of delegates who are known as number 2, to be known as list of temporary delegates for this convention, which I have presented to the consideration of the chairman of the committee of this convention. This chair has stated that in its opinion the point of order will be taken in the same spirit of that illustrious leader, William McKinley, has adopted, which is a fair plan of permitting debate."

"On the question that the National Committee had absolute power to control the list of delegates the chairman said they would be establishing a political organization or political oligarchy with powers to make condidates, to make and pass laws within the power of twenty-seven men, to say what shall be considered the majority of the convention. Then we have ceased representative government in our party."

Chicago, June 18.—If any doubt had remained that there was to be a "fight from the jump" when the National Republican convention was called to order at noon today (1 p. m. New York time) it was settled when the Roosevelt delegates in caucus early this morning voted that it was the sense of the meeting that nothing less than 540 of the uncontested delegates could be regarded as a binding majority of the Republican National convention.

This conference last night, which lasted until 2 o'clock this morning, was attended by Roosevelt delegates and alternates, contested and uncontested, from all the States favorable to him.

The plan indorsed by the conference called for the presentation immediately upon the opening of the convention of the following resolution by Lawrence Y. Sherman, progressive Senator-elect from Illinois:

"Resolved, That no election of temporary or other officers of this convention or resolution or other proceedings shall be taken as the act of this convention or have any effect unless it shall receive on a roll call the affirmative votes of 540 delegates whose seats are uncontested, and this resolution shall govern and be enforced during the temporary organization of this convention and until the permanent organization shall have been effected."

The resolution adopted by the conference had previously been adopted by the Illinois delegation at the suggestion of State Senator Hay. Mr. McCormick introduced it in the Massachusetts meeting and said that it passed unanimously. Its adoption would eliminate the Taft majority by preventing the 76 delegates whom they contest from voting on temporary organization. Could this be effected the Roosevelt people would count on winning a majority for themselves by bringing over La Follett's Wisconsin delegates by putting forward Governor McGovern, of that State, for temporary chairman, which was part of their program.

(Special Dispatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June 17.—With the Republican National Convention under way at noon today, the fight for the selection of the man who will represent the Republican party as its Presidential candidate at the election next November is fully launched, and New Jersey is playing a prominent part in the battle. Its twenty-eight delegates, the largest solid delegation from any state in the Union favoring the selection of Theodore Roosevelt, are occupying seats in the centre of the fray and the members of the party are attracting more attention than those of any other state in the Union, save California.

Former Governor John Franklin Fort and George L. Record have been in every conference of the Roosevelt men since they arrived here a week ago, and both will play prominent parts in the sessions. Mr. Fort is one of a committee of three in charge of the floor arrangements for the Roosevelt faction. Governor Hadley, of Missouri, being the chairman and Governor Johnson, of California, the member.

The fight started almost before the echoes of the opening prayer offered by Father Callahan, of Chicago, had died down in the convention hall, and the name of Senator Elihu Root was proposed as temporary chairman of the convention. The progressive element, although expected to present the name of Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, immediately started a fight to place the name of Governor Francis E. McGovern, of Wisconsin, before the convention in place of Mr. Root. Former Governor Fort is slated to make the speech seconding the nomination of Governor McGovern and his opportunity will probably not come until later this afternoon or possibly tomorrow morning.

The New Jersey delegates gathered at their headquarters in the Congress Hotel and were in their seats at the coliseum an hour before the session opened. They spent that hour in the cheering and putting in a Jersey Yell once in a while for Teddy, greeting the various delegations from other states in a lively manner, as they arrived on the scene.

A number of men who have been conspicuous in the councils of the party in New Jersey, but were with the Taft faction at the recent primaries have drifted into town. Former Senator John Kean, accompanied by Donald McLean formerly his secretary, arrived on the eighteen-hour train from Elizabeth. When he was seen by the newspaper men he took an optimistic view of the situation and was sure Mr. Taft would be the nominee as a result of the action of the National Committee. Thomas N. McCarter, president of the Public Service corporation, was another of the day's arrivals and he had been here but a short time, when he became satisfied from what he had heard that things were not so rosy as some others were saying and he told a newspaper man that in his opinion Mr. Roosevelt was to be nominated, although he was not particularly cheerful in his method of telling. Others here are David Baird and Harry J. West, of Camden, and Senator Robert Hand, of Cape May; John E. Gill, delegate from the Fourth District, came in with former civil service commissioner James Kearney, former Congressman Richard Wayne Parker, of Newark, was in the throng of Jerseymen at the Congress. As a result there is a big representation from all factions in the party in New Jersey.

The New Jersey delegates are all cocksure today that it will all be over except the shouting within twenty-four hours. It is generally predicted that if Taft loses the organization of the convention, Mr. Roosevelt will be named on the first ballot. But with all predictions the whole matter is very much in the air and no one is making any definite statement as to what will happen. Both sides are publicly claiming that their man will be named, but both are really very much in doubt as to the final result. The odds seem to favor the Colonel, but that is as far as it goes.

The New Jersey crowd occupied seats at the Roosevelt mass meeting last night and their yell was frequently heard during the excitement It and the yell of the California men are the best two to be heard here. Former Governor Fort is very optimistic over the prospects of Roosevelt's victory and in an interview today said: "We are going to win, we will fight the fraudulent temporarily roll made up by the National Com-

TWO KILLED AT CROSSING

strangers to the neighborhood was mannifested by inquiries which they made of a pedestrian in Lincoln boulevard as to the road to New Brunswick. Having obtained instructions as to their route the party continued down the boulevard and into Cedar avenue, wheeling to the left to cross the railroad tracks. Once thel entered Cedar avenue their vision of the track and the approach of westbound trains was concealed by a clump of trees. And it was this lack of view that is said to be responsible for the accident.

Cedar avenue crossing is said by residents in the vicinity to be one of the most dangerous in the county. It is unprotected. There are no gates, no watchman, no warning bell to give indication of the approach of trains. Of course there is the train whistle, but autoists say it is difficult to hear it on account of the noise made by their own car. George Harris, a prominent farmer in the neighborhood, has been agitating for a long time to have the crossing protected with gates.

Trenton, June 18.—Rev. Nathaniel Rue Foster lived at Imlaystown, Monmouth county, near Freehold. He received the degree of bachelor of arts from Lafayette college in 1909, and while at Princeton lived at Hodge Hall in the seminary.

New Brunswick, June 18 (Special)—Coroner William Harding, of New Brunswick, went to Dunellen this morning and viewed the bodies of Mrs. Louise E. Zucker and Rev. Nathaniel N. Foster, victims of the automobile accident at Lincoln, yesterday afternoon, and gave permission for the removal of the bodies to their respective homes for burial.

George Lindenmeyer, of New York, brother-in-law of Mrs. Zucker, also visited Dunellen this morning and saw Walter G. Runyon, the undertaker, relative to having the woman's body sent to Pelham Manor, N. Y., this afternoon. The body of Mr. Foster will be sent to Imlaystown, tomorrow, his brother-in-law being expected at Dunellen this afternoon to complete arrangements. The opinion is that there will be no inquest, it being considered unnecessary. So far as known the Middlesex county authorities have taken no action in that direction.

DOGS, DOG BISCUIT AND FRANKFURTERS AT SMOKER

The smoker of the Plainfield Kennel Club, to be held tomorrow evening at Truell Hall, is attracting a lot of attention amongst the Kennel Club men and their friends. Women are also to partake of the fun as well as the men, and there is a list of good things on the tapis for the evening: pipes and tobacco for the men; pretty favors for the women; refreshments for all, and vaudeville too.

The bugle will sound at nine o'clock sharp from the front lawn of the hotel, when it behooves all to be on hand. Have you seen the ticket of admission? It not, get one from any member of the committee, Messrs. Mackenzie, Hobble or Wilmerding, who have the smoker in charge, or they may be purchased at the door.

"Go to the show and help boost the Kennel Club," said an enthusiastic committeeman today, "for when one remembers that dog biscuit and frankfurters, in which there is always a little dog, are to be had for the asking, why not take it, and them in? One of the officials says there will be a dog or two there, and that anyone can fondle them, but as he has had some undesirable experience apparently in this direction lately, he fell to the humming 'You gotta quit akickin my dawg aroun'.' Which is no doubt good advice, so take notice."

To Gettysburg and Return $2.50.

A fine opportunity to visit famous Gettysburg battlefield at low cost is afforded by special excursion via New Jersey Central, Sunday, June 23. Special train leaves Plainfield, 12:46; Grant Ave., 12:48; Clinton Ave., 12:50 a. m. Round trip $2.50, children $1.25. Return at 3:00 p. m.

DYNAMITE FEARED AT PERTH AMBOY

Riots Break Out Again as Strikers Refuse Offers.

GEN. SADLER HAS RETURNED

Eight Hundred Employees of Asphalt Company Make New Demands, Which Are Refused—They Hurl Bricks and Paving Stones at Factory Buildings.

Perth Amboy, N. J., June 18.—Following half a dozen riots and disturbances a mass meeting of 4,000 strikers declared their unanimous intention to remain on strike and refuse any offers of compromise from the officers of the American Refining and Smelting company and other plants from which they walked out. Instead of being settled, as was predicted, the big strike gained strength and fury. Dynamite is said to have been obtained in large quantities and hundreds of the strikers have obtained arms.

The mass meeting at which the vote was taken was held in Pulaski hall and in the park which it faces. The hall and all the streets about it were jammed and several leaders harangued the assemblage in different languages. When the question whether or not they wished to remain on strike was put to the packed masses of men and women they yelled with one voice that they would not yield until all their demands were granted.

The effect of the mass meetings and the missionary work of the labor agitators was to call out 450 men from the Federal Terra Cotta company's plant at Woodbridge and 450 men from the D. E. Tining company's plant at Seaworen.

This alarming spread of the strike caused Governor Wilson to send General Sadler, his military aid and chief of staff, back to Perth Amboy to consult with the sheriff and the mill owners, all of whom admitted that the situation was extremely grave.

Eight hundred employees of the Barber Asphalt company seemed to have been won over, but when they marched to the plant they made new demands which were refused, whereupon they declared they were on strike again and hurled bricks and paving stones at some of the factory buildings. Before they were driven from the scene they had persuaded thirty men who had not originally joined their ranks to walk out with them.

MARRIAGE REVEALS DIVORCE.

T. A. Ryerson, Jr., Divorcee of a Month, Weds Miss Ora M. Starr.

New Brunswick, June 18.—An announcement made of the wedding of Miss Ora M. Starr of Cambridge, N. Y., and Theodore A. Ryerson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ryerson, which was solemnized at the Ryerson home, this city, on last Saturday evening by the Rev. Alan D. Campbell of this city, revealed the divorce of Mr. Ryerson and his first wife, who was Miss Helen M. Walters of Chicago, whom he married on April 1, 1910, and was divorced from on May 27 last.

Mr. Ryerson met his first wife two years ago at Atlantic City. Their acquaintance ended in a suit by Miss Walters in the New York courts for breach of promise. She received an award of $3,000 in March, 1910, and the following month Mr. Ryerson married her. The first Mrs. Ryerson is now on the stage. Mr. Ryerson and his present wife have been friends for years.

BOAT UPSETS; THREE DROWN.

One Loses His Life Trying to Rescue a Comrade.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 18.—Three men were drowned and four brought ashore by the Federal life guards at the Island Beach station when a power boat upset and hurled all of its occupants into the water. One of the men who was drowned lost his life while trying to rescue a comrade. The other two sank immediately.

The dead are Leroy Larsen, Holmer Bergen and Peter Olsen, all of whom lived near Island Beach.

The four survivors are Captain Frederick Swanson, William Wilmer and two others whose names could not be learned.

LIGHTNING HITS RUTHERFORD.

Considerable Damage is Done by Severe Electrical Storm.

Rutherford, N. J., June 18.—Lightning destroyed much property in Rutherford and East Rutherford during the severe electrical storm. It struck the residences of Jacob Lempert on Rome avenue and William Jacoby on West Passaic avenue. In Rutherford the latter was set afire, and water added to the damage. The roof was torn from the Lempert home.

Two houses were hit in East Rutherford. Trees were torn to pieces in Hackensack by bolts.

See Who's Here! Dr. Cook.

New York, June 18.—Among the passengers who arrived on Prinz Frederich Wilhelm from Bremen was Dr. Frederick A. Cook. He had been lecturing in England and Germany trying, as he said, to convert "the average man" to the belief that he had discovered the north pole.

Plainfield, N. J., June 18, 1912.

Every time a trust is dissolved the public bears the cost of litigation and subsequent legal expenses, the recoup being made by raising the price of the affected commodity. In the case of the beef trust there has been some evidence to show that this contention is correct, and from this same source there is reason to believe that there is going to be another boost of prices in the near future as most people had expected. Attorney General Wickersham has been advised, we learn by a press dispatch, that the National Packing Company will be voluntarily dissolved. This giant corporation, with a capital of some $15,000,000 is owned by the Armour, Swift and Morris interests, according to the Government's contention and practically controls the meat industry placing prices as it pleases. The so-called trust leaders were acquitted some months ago of criminal violation of the Sherman law and the Attorney General was about to begin civil proceedings. This proposed action will be held in abeyance until after August 1, the date set by the packing company for final dissolution. While this decision on the part of the meat trust is a great victory for the Government, will not the public have to really pay the expenses of the dissolution?

In the canal zone, a tropical belt, prone to dense growth and afflicted with a wet as well as a dry season, the mosquito, we understand, has ceased to be troublesome. Why is it that in Plainfield the citizens are willing to put up with the pest? The mosquito is far more active here today than at any time in the past nine years. This means that out of door life in the Spring and Fall is a pain not a pleasure, that those who are able leave town at the earliest possible date, and that strangers are not attracted to our city either for the summer or for permanent residence.

Even if the wealthy residents are willing to be subjected to unnecessary and one might almost say uncivilized torture, why, as a business proposition, is the situation tolerated by the tradespeople? This is not a poor community, not an unintelligent community, not a lethargic community. If the funds of the city are inadequate why not raise money for the peace and the additional prosperity that the extermination of the mosquito would give? One resident will gladly be one of five thousand citizens to subscribe ten dollars each to the cause. How does this proposition strike you?

During the present term of the Court of Errors and Appeals, the question of women's suffrage will come up for consideration. A Morris county woman claims the right to vote under the old Constitution of 1776. When the election officers refused to let her register last fall, a writ of mandamus brought the matter into the Supreme Court which decided against her. The decision comes up for review now by the highest court in the State. The Morris county woman contends that a law passed in 1807 denied equal suffrage and the inasmuch as women were not permitted to cast their ballots when the Constitution was adopted they were deprived of their property without due process of law. As only men were selected for the Constitutional convention of 1844, the Constitution adopted at that convention was invalid since according to her argument the act of 1807 was unconstitutional.

In the last seven years, the Cleveland Board of Health estimates that the house fly has caused the deaths of 896 persons in that city. It has been found by a careful investigation there that typhoid fever has been more prevalent during the fly season and one-third of all the deaths from that disease the board believes was due to that dangerous little insect. The Jersey Journal in commenting on these statistics calls attention to the fact that several cities have inaugurated fly-killing campaigns and predicts that "the time will come when it will be a crime known to the law to maintain breeding places for flies or mosquitoes and that time cannot come too soon."

The Common Council has very wisely decided to have two of the principal approaches to North Plainfield, Madison avenue and Somerset street, widened. The parts of these two important througfares between Front street and the brook bridge, the dividing line between city and brough, are much too narrow for the traffic demands. Credit for the successful agitation which insures the improvement is due to former Mayor N. B. Smalley, of North Plainfield, and Elston M. French, and the affected property owners whose support they enlisted.

It occurs to us that the bide for the collection and disposal of ashes and garbage opened by the Common Council last night, as noted in the news columns today, are so indefinite and mixed that there should be a re-advertisement. Specific details, on which a contractor can make a concise and definite offer, should be given there, for only when this is done will the city fathers know where they are at in passing upon the matter.

Continental chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has passed the $1,000 mark in its campaign for funds for the proposed memorial to be placed at the historic Washington Rock. Any contribution, whether it be $1 or $100, will be welcomed by this wide-awake society which is making a commendable effort to suitably mark the spot on which General George Wahington watched the movements of the Hessian troops.

It is not at all surprising that Dr. B. D. Evans, the New Jersey alienist, should refuse William T. Jerome's request to testify at the Thaw hearing. The shameful treatment he received at the hands of the former District Attorney of New York when testifying at the Thaw trial some years ago is sufficient excuse for his declining to offer himself as a subject for insult again.

It's the "Little" White House not the coveted White House, that Governor Wilson is occupying just at present.

Our Common Council "got a move on itself" last night.

mittee. If these gentlemen are to make a roll now by fraud, and we submit to it self-government is dead and we may as well turn the party over to a few men for they can perpetuate themselves as they are now trying to do notwithstanding the fact that their states have repudiated the. It is the end of the machine or the party. Which will they have?" Mr. Fort has been busy with conferences with the Roosevelt leaders and the leadership of the New Jersey delegation until the convention opened was turned over to the vice chairman, former Judge Adrian Lyon, of Perth Amboy.

(Special Dispatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June 18.—Unless all signs fail, Theodore Roosevelt will be the nominee of the Republican party for President before the week ends. His managers are positively claiming that they have the votes to name him and they are showing figures to prove their statements. On the other hand the old time machine politicians in their desperate struggle to keep their last tottering organization together, have absolutely forgotten all else and are making the candidacy of President Taft merely an excuse for holding the organization together. All fully realize that after the deliberate theft of nearly eighty regularly elected delegates from the Roosevelt forces by the Republican National Committee it will never be possible to elect the ticket this fall, unless the Colonel is the nominee. The Roosevelt forces who represent a goodly majority of the Republicans who voted in the primaries in the various states are so bitter that last night and this morning several passed resolutions by delegeations of such a character that a third ticket will surely be in the field if the Roosevelt men are not given the seats to which they are justly entitled, notably those in California, Washington, Texas and Arizona. The situation is a tense one in every sense and the Roosevelt men are fighters because they are in the right and know the people will not stand for fraud of such a gross character as has been perpetrated here.

WOODBRIDGE CHURCHES CLOSED BY DIPHTHERIA

Woodbridge, June 18.—Three more cases of diphtheria have been reported. On investigation it was discovered that all of the original cases had occurred in families that were taking milk from the same milkman. This milkman started a route here only a few months ago.

The Board of Health on going to the house, found that there was a severe case of sore throat there and the board immediately isolated the case and took all precautions.

No services were held in any church Surday, but St. James' Catholic church, because of fear of epidemic, and there the service was a very brief one. The colored Baptists had arranged for a baptism in Staten Island Sound at 3:30 o'clock, and as the pastor, Rev. Thomas E. Johnson, comes from a distance, and all arrangements had been made, the baptism was held without other service.

John Ringwood, of Perth Amboy avenue, is quarantined with diphtheria. He assisted his teacher on Friday morning to pack away the books and notebooks and early in the afternoon it was discovered that he was suffering from diphtheria. All books and notebooks from that room were taken to the furnace and burned, and the room was thoroughly fumigated by the Board of Health.

Other new cases reported include Ralph Ensign, of Rahway avenue, and Henry Brown, of Spa Spring.

GEORGE C. THOMAS.

George C. Thomas, 57 years old, died on Monday at Muhlenberg Hospital after 5 months' illness. Latterly he made his home with his sister, Mrs. W. E. Benjamin, 164 Washington avenue. The body will be sent this afternoon to Providence, Rhode Island, where the funeral will be held.

WATER COMMISSIONERS VIEW ICE CO.'S DAM

For the purpose of instituting an investigation into the condition of the Plainfield Ice and Supply Company's dam at Watchung, which in the opinion of the members of the Borough Council is unsafe, six of the State Water Commissioners visited the dam this morning and examined it.

They listened to the expressions of opinion vouchsafed by representatives of the interests involved and heard complaints from residents in the vicinity.

Harrison Coddington, Andrew Wilson, Peter McDonough and W. J. Titus represented the Ice Supply Company. John Mobus was present on behalf of the township and the borough was represented by Mayor Robert Clark, Street Commissioner W. J. Hudson, Councilman L. B. Woolston and Harry C. Van Emburgh engineer.

The commission will announce its decision later, based on the evidence heard.

TAFT MEN DEPRIVED OF SEATS

Riot Feared as Convention Meets.

GOV. DENEEN INVOKED

Entire Police Force of Chicago in Readiness.

T. R. CHEERED BY THOUSANDS

Roosevelt Making Fight on Root. Illinois For T. R.'s Chairman. Both Sides Confident.

Chicago, June 18.—With the Republican national convention about to open today the anger of the Taft men is at the boiling point. The Roosevelt plan, engineered by William Flinn, to oppose the seating of the Taft contested delegates caused them to confer with police. The convention hall is teeming with policemen and everybody is fearful of wild scenes.

The Roosevelt men, it is said, will begin their fight immediately after the prayer when Chairman Rosewater directs the secretary of the convention to call the temporary rolls. The fight is to begin, according to current talk, when the state of California is called. Governor Johnson has insisted that he would vote the delegation as unit for Roosevelt, although there are two Taft men in the delegation.

When the chairman of the California delegation was handed the tickets for the delegation by George Knight, national committeeman for the state, he gave the twenty-four Roosevelt men their seat tickets, but refused to give the two Taft men in the state their seat tickets and their badges by which they could gain access to the convention.

The same process was gone through in the seating of Oklahoma, and thus two of the twenty delegates for the state accredited to Taft could not get into the convention. When the national committee heard of this they deputied National Committeeman P. D. Parker of Alabama to see to it that the Roosevelt delegates from the Third Alabama congress district should not be given seats in the convention. But Major Barker had already distributed these seats, it was stated.

Extraordinary Police Guard.

The Taft chieftains have been busy taking steps to preserve peace in the convention if possible. Twenty members of the national committee, headed by Senator Crane, had a long conference with Governor Deneen of Illinois, and with the police authorities of Chicago. At this conference, it is stated, it was decided that the entire police force of Chicago, if necessary, shall be in the Coliseum.

Governor Deneen, after this conference, visited Colonel Roosevelt and Flinn and informed them that he would insist on lawful and orderly procedure in the convention. When the national committee ascertained that the Roosevelt state chairman of California and of Oklahoma had not given the Taft delegates of those two states their tickets to the convention, the national committee ordered new tickets printed for the delegates, and so the Taft men will be on hand.

The Taft chieftains issued a statement saying in substance that the efforts of the Roosevelt men to win delegates from Taft have resulted in the acquisition of but two southern delegates.

President Koenig of the New York county Republican committee, declared that the New York state delegation was stronger for Taft than at any time during the past month. It looks, he said, as though all but ten, and perhaps eleven, of the delegates would stick to Taft.

Plans were formulated for taking before the convention committee on credentials contests representing seats for between ninety and 100 delegates, which Colonel Roosevelt insists he is entitled to.

Roosevelt Fights Root.

An intense fight has been going on by the Roosevelt people in an effort to defeat Senator Root for temporary chairman. Roosevelt has buttonholed delegates in his headquarters at the Congress in the interest of his candidate, Senator Borah. There is no evidence, no indication, however, that Senator Root is to be defeated.

The Illinois delegation at a meeting, however, furnished a surprise to the Taft managers. The latter believed that twenty-two of the fifty-eight delegates would vote for Root. Medill McCormick presided at this meeting. At the suggestion of Governor Deneen the question was put up to the delegates as to whether they would support for temporary chairman any man whom Mr. Roosevelt might select. When the roll call was called fifty-one voted in the affirmative and seven in the negative.

Roosevelt Gets Ovation.

Chicago, June 18.—While waiting for Colonel Roosevelt to appear in the Auditorium the men and women who packed the theater cheered for the colonel and sang Roosevelt songs. Senator Borah declared it to be useless for the party to "nominate a man that it cannot elect" and then gave his reasons for believing that Colonel Roosevelt can be elected if nominated.

Senator Borah had not concluded when Colonel Roosevelt came in. The senator's voice was drowned in the great roar that went up. The cheering continued until the organ began the national anthem, and when the hymn was finished started off again.

Mr. Roosevelt said in part:

My Friends and Fellow Citizens—I address you also as my fellow Republicans, for this has now become much more than an ordinary party fight. The issue is both simpler and larger than that involved in the personality of any man or than that involved in any factional or in any ordinary party contest. We are standing for the great fundamental rights upon which all successful free government must be based. We are standing for elementary decency in politics. We are fighting for honesty against naked robbery, and where robbery is concerned the all important question is not the identity of the man robbed, but the crime itself.

Refers to Political Theft.

As far as Mr. Taft and I are personally concerned it little matters what the fate of either may be. But with Mr. Taft's acquiescence or by his direction and in his interest his followers have raised an issue which is all important to this country. It is not a partisan issue; it is more than a political issue; it is a great moral issue. If we condone political theft, if we do not resent the kinds of wrong and injustice that injuriously affect the whole nation not merely our democratic form of government, but our civilization itself cannot endure. If the methods adopted by the national committee are approved by the convention which is about to assemble a great crime will have been committed.

The triumph of such proceedings at the moment would mean the wreck of the Republican party, and if such proceedings become habitual it would mean the wreck of popular government. The activities of the leaders of the national committee, taken with the active aid of Mr. Taft's private secretary and one of Mr. Taft's cabinet officers, are monstrous, and they should be indignantly condemned by the moral sentiment of the whole country. We come together to protest against a crime which strikes straight at the heart of every principle of political decency and honesty—a crime which represents treason to the people and the usurpation of the sovereignty of the people by irresponsible political bosses inspired by the sinister influences of moneyed privilege. We are engaged in a fight for the rights of every decent American whatsoever his party may be.

Worse Than Robbing Bank.

Mr. Roosevelt reviewed the reasons which led him to enter the present contest, chief among these to prevent Mr. Taft's renomination. He had, Mr. Roosevelt, asserted, espoused the cause of the people and only represented the bosses. He continued:

It now has become evident that Mr. Taft is willing to acquiesce and to condone and accept the fruits of any course of action on which the bosses embark, even though such action represents treason as well as destruction to the Republican party, to which they nominally belong, and also treason to the cause of the American people as a whole. Men like Messrs. Crane of Massachusetts, Brooker of Connecticut and Nagel of Missouri, who trail behind their bolder associates, such as Messrs. Penrose, Murphy and Mulvane, are doubtless genuinely shocked at the misconduct of a defaulting bank cashier or at the action of some small election official who on election day falsifies the returns. Yet the wrong to the American people, the damage to the country, by such action as these national committeemen have taken in deliberately seeking to nullify and overthrow the will of the people legitimately expressed as to their choice for president is indefinitely greater than the wrong done by the tempted cashier or the bribed election official.

Mr. Roosevelt recommends that the people read Judge Ben Lindsey's book, "The Beast and the Jungle," and learn therefrom the manner of man Mr. Stevenson is, whose help Mr. Taft and his associates accept in the present movement to rob the people of their right to rule themselves.

The big bosses, he continued, who control the national committee represent not merely the leading captains of mercenary politics, but the great financiers who stand behind these leading captains. These political bosses are obnoxious in themselves, but they are even more obnoxious because they represent privilege in its most sordid and dangerous form.

Predicts Wreck of Party.

The action of these men is in no sense "regular," as they claim to be. They in no way represent the people; they in no way represent the rank and file of the Republican party, and theft and dishonesty cannot give, and never shall give, a title to regularity. One thousand and seventy-eight men are to meet here in convention to decide the future of the Republican party. At least seven out of eight of these, among them those who really represent the people, are against the nomination of Mr. Taft.

It is the duty of all of them, their first duty, to throw out of the convention every man fraudulently seated there by the national committee. If the convention proves false to the cause of the people, if it records the will of the bosses whether yet unbeaten, as in New York and Colorado, or beaten, as in Massachusetts and New Jersey, in Pennsylvania and in Kansas, it will wreck the Republican party; it will put back the cause of democracy; it will be false to every principle of honor and justice. I cannot with honesty or propriety stand in any shape or way for the action of the national committee, neither by accepting that committee's nomination of the temporary chairman nor by accepting its decision as to the seating and unseating of contested delegations. I hold that the convention itself is of right the only judge of the qualifications of its own members.

From Washington, California, Arizona, Texas, Kentucky, Indiana, Alabama and certain other states the people elected certain delegates, who are legally and morally entitled to sit in the convention. The discredited politicians making up the majority of the national committee with determination to nullify the will of the people have substituted for these men certain others who have not the slightest claim to seats in the convention. By every consideration of real justice we are entitled to have the men elected by the people put on the roll call at once.

Convention Should Decide.

But we do not ask this. Although we are deprived of our just rights when these men are not allowed to vote on the beginning, we ask merely that neither set of contestants be allowed to vote on any question before the convention until the thousand members of the convention whose seats have not been contested shall themselves decide which of the contested delegates are entitled to membership. I believe that, even with the addition of these fraudulent delegates, Mr. Taft's supporters are in a substantial minority of the convention, and I do not merely believe, I know, that we have a large majority of the legally elected members of the convention.

We refuse to recognize or abide by this theft of the rights of the people by the national committee. It is our duty to the people of the country to insist that no action of the convention which is based on the votes of these fraudulently seated delegates binds the Republican party or imposes any obligation upon any Republican. The man nominated by the national committee as temporary chairman, whoever he may be, must under these circumstances be considered as merely an instrument chosen by them for their purposes. If such a man, whoever he be, Mr. Root or any one else, and whatever his previous career, is willing to accept an election by the aid of these fraudulently selected delegates he at once becomes the representative of forces which no honorable man, no loyal Republican, can afford to see triumph, whether within the party or in our national life.

FRESH RASPBERRIES.

RASPBERRIES fresh from the garden are served with powdered sugar alone or with cream.

It is said that berries should not be washed, as the water destroys the delicacy of their flavor. If not washed they should be looked over carefully for small insects.

A Delectable Dessert.

Raspberry Charlotte.—Take a pint of stewed raspberries and mash them well. Get some stale sponge cake, cut in thin small squares and place a layer of these in a mold. Wet the cake with some of the mashed fruit, then put in another layer of cake, then more fruit, and so on until the mold is full. Garnish with whipped cream and whole ripe raspberries.

Fresh raspberries are nice served in individual dishes or in sherbet cups with whipped cream and powdered sugar.

Berries and Cake.

Raspberry Sponge.—Take small round sponge cakes, scoop out the center of each, cover the cakes inside and out with chocolate icing and fill them with ripe red raspberries, sweetened and mixed with whipped cream. Heap whipped cream on top of each.

Light and Dainty.

Raspberry Cream. — Dissolve and warm half an ounce of gelatin in half a pint of milk, let it cool, whip three-quarters of a pint of cream, adding by degrees half a pound of sieved raspberries and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Stir in the gelatin when cold. Pour into a mold to set.

Raspberry Charlotte Russe.—Line the bottom of a mold with white paper and the sides with split lady fingers. Soak one ounce of gelatin in a half pint of cold water and when soft place it over the fire until dissolved. Press one quart of fresh raspberries through a sieve and add one cupful of powdered sugar. When the gelatin is cold mix with the berries and sugar, add one pint of whipped cream sweetened to taste, pour into the lined mold and place on ice. This should be eaten cold.

Red Grod.—A Danish dish is made with raspberries. Take a pint and a half of the berries sweetened to taste. Put on the fire to boil. When boiling add three ounces of ground rice and let the whole simmer for twenty minutes, then throw in one ounce of sweet almonds, pounded, and two ounces of gelatin. Pour into a mold and set it into cold water; turn out and serve in a glass dish with thick cream.

BOROUGH PUPILS MAKE FINE RECORD AT EXAMS.

The state examinations given in New Jersey last week were taken by the eighth grades of the borough schools as elsewhere. Fifty-two pupils were examined. Of these sixty-five per cent. recived above 90 in arithmetic, seventy-one per cent. above 90 in writing, ninety per cent. above 90 in spelling, seventy-three per cent. above 90 in grammar, and eighty per cent. above 90 in history. The possible number of points was 115.

Two pupils, Emily Pleydell and Horace Bunker, did not drop below 100 in any subject. The passing mark set by the state authorities is 70. Out of 260 papers handed in, only 5 were below the passing mark—history one, arithmetic two, grammar two. In spelling and writing all passed.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Because he took a few slams at an umpire in last Saturday's H. C. Frich League game at Pittsburg, Charles Hague will have to fork over $100 and costs of prosecution and nine months in jail for his exceptions.

Another come-back to go down in athletic history. Mike Donlin is now hitting the pill at a .421 clip.

Sixteen consecutive victories gives the Washington team a world's record in modern baseball.

A line of fans one-half mile long waited the opening of the sale of tickets for their first home game this afternoon, after their victorious return from the West.

Walter Johnson, their star pitcher, is threatened with tonsilitis and will not work in todays' game.

After taking a slant at recent records made in the American try-outs for the Olympic team, the European contenders are discussing the advisability of postponing the historic jubilee on account of wet grounds and darkness.

The vote is said to be in favor of a double header in 1916.

Marquard tied the modern record for consecutive victories when he won a corking eleven inning pitcher's duel with Marty O'Toole.

Marquard has now won 14 straight games.

The game was played between thunder-storms, time being called for about a quarter of an hour after the fifth inning.

Manager Dorflinger, of the local baseball team, has secured the Bound Brook nine for July 6.

This means another meeting of Frederickson and Slocum, the local strike-out phenoms.

When McGraw took a photographer by the neck and put him off the field it got O'Toole's Irish goat and for a while he was unable to locate the plate.

"Babe" Adams and Matty are billed for today.

An attempt has been made on the part of Governor McDonald to prevent the Flynn-Johnson fight for July 4.

Flynn, who is training for his Independence Day fight with the dusty champ, seems to be having a few troubles on the side.

Tommy Ryan, his trainer-in-chief, handed in his resignation today, because of a disagreement arising between him and Curley.

BASEBALL TOSSERS WILL ROMP AND WARBLE ON STAGE

The first annual minstrel show of the Clinton avenue baseball team will be given at the Heavenly Rest church tomorrow night. The charcoal artists have been holding regular rehearsals under the supervision of Harry Pennoyer, and his connection with an entertainment of this kind alone places the show on a high basis. The proceeds will be turned over to the club treasurer for the purpose of purchasing suits and other necessary outfitting material.

The program is as follows: Part I: Opening chorus, "Nellie Gray;" "Moonlight Bay," Sambo's jokes, by Erickson VanNorden; solo, "Goblin Man," by G. Nelson; Bones Jokes by A. Crozier; solo, "Where Are You Going?" by A. Crozier; a ballad, by Charles Creager; Sambo's Jokes, by E. Rochen; solo, "I Want to Be Down in Dixie," by E. Rochen; Rufus' Jokes, by F. VanNorden; solo, "Back to the Jungle," by G. Nelson.

Intermission—Quartet, composed of T. Apgar, Jack Ricketts, Thomas Ricketts and Jack Hallard.

Part II: "Fun in Our Restaurant," sketch. After the show the seats will be cleaned out and dancing will be enjoyed until a late hour.

SLOCUM WILL WEAR BOUND BROOK UNIFORM

Lou Slocum, the ex-United States League twirler, has been signed up by Manager Nick Powers, of the Bound Brook baseball team to take Ortlieb's place on his pitching staff. Ortlieb will go this week to the Lawrence team of the New England League.

Slocum will report next Saturday at Dunellen in a Bound Brook uniform and things are likely to happen when this phenomenal youngster stacks up against the old war horse McLaughlin.

Slocum has been playing independent ball since he severed connections with the New York team of the outlaw league. He has been occupying the mound for the 'Plains nine in their Saturday and Sunday games, but because of the irregular schedule of this aggregation he has not been getting sufficient work to keep him in shape. Now that he has landed a regular job he will more than likely show the kind of stuff that is in him.

MORE PATRIOTISM FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

S. S. Swackhamer Would Have Youth Drink Draughts of Wisdom.

S. S. Swackhamer, of this city, made the address at the annual graduation exercises of the Bound Brook Public Schools last night, taking for his subject "The Public School and Popular Government." In part he spoke as follows:

"Years ago there were Washington societies and little boys walked in processions and each boy had a copy of Washington's farewell address bound in red hung about his neck by a ribbon. Years ago the school readers were devoted largely to the prose and poetry that told of American prowess and patriotism.

"I remember with what a gush of feeling we used to recite the words of Patrick Henry, 'Is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but for me, give me liberty or give me death.' I remember with what emotion we used to quote the peroration to Webster's great speech in reply to Hayne. I remember with what genuine feeling the class used to read that beautiful poem of Henry W. Longfellow's entitled, 'The Ship of State,' and I remember what a deep and lasting impression was made upon my mind by the reading of Paul Revere's Ride. Its last words stick to my memory like burns. I would have more stress and emphasis laid upon our political history and the principles of civil government.

"I would have the youth in our public schools drink deep daughts of political wisdom and lofty patriotism from the great state papers of the nation. I would have the pupil commit to memory the 'Mayflower Compact,' and 'The Declaration of Independence.' I would make him as familiar with Washington's farewell address and with Lincoln's Gettysburg speech and second inaugural, as with the Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer.

"I would have him analyze and study the State and Federal constitutions. I would put into his hands a copy of Bryce's 'American Commonwealth,' and have him master in detail the executive, legislative and judicial functions of our government.

"When he really comes to understand the inestimable privileges of American citizenship; when he really comes to know the true value of civil and religious liberty; when he really grasps the vast superiority of this government to any other government on earth, then he will be ready to follow the flag, if need be, into the jaws of death, into the mouth of hell to uphold and perpetuate our free institutions."

KILLING OF LINEMEN SUBJECT OF INQUEST

Elizabeth, June 18.—A coroner's jury of six men was impaneled yesterday to investigate the killing of three Public Service linemen, who were electrocuted while working on a pole at Murray and Chilton streets here Friday.

The jury was drawn by order of Coroner Frank H. Warncke, who, with Prosecutor C. Addison Swift, will conduct the probe.

The jury viewed the body of one of the victims, William W. Wildridge, who was the first to meet death when he fell across a high-tension wire. The inquiry will be based on Wildridge's death.

Following an autopsy at Martin's morgue, the body was taken to the home of Wildridge's grandparents, 162 Grand avenue, where the funeral services were held last night. The inquest has been adjourned until Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock when sessions will begin at the Union county courthouse.

The body of another victim, Frank K. Johnson, who boarded in Newark, was identified Sunday afternoon by his sister, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, of Lakewood. It was shipped to that place last evening and buried this afternoon in Evergreen cemetery. The third victim was Frank Burbank.

I'm Boiling Over With Enthusiasm Over These Summer Suits.

That's one of my biggest assets, outside of my merchandise—enthusiasm!

A business without enthusiasm is like an engine without steam—it can't go.

But then, who wouldn't be enthusiastic about selling garments styled, mannered and tailored like mine—garments made by men "who know how;" men who have made a life study of clothing manufacture.

They come in all shades that well dressed men will wear this Summer—and just see how I've priced these suits.

$10, $12, $15, $18 and $20

You'll become enthusiastic, too, when you see them, besides there's a saving of $5 to be considered.

Rev. Henry R. Rose of Newark, N. J., in a Recent Sermon Said:

"A friend came to see me when I first entered the ministry and asked me to take out an Endowment life insurance policy. I told him that my salary was just about covering my living expenses and I could not do it. But he put the duty before me in a compelling light and I finally said that I would take out the policy.

"When I told him the sum, he said: 'That amount is too small. I want to write you a policy for five times as much.'

"It staggered me and I answered: 'No, no; I simply can not afford it and I won't take the risk.'

"'But,' he replied (and this is the thing that I would have every young man remember): 'Your income will increase. You are not going always to stand where you are today.'

"And I listened to him and took out a policy five times as large as I at first intended.

"I WISH TODAY THAT I HAD TAKEN OUT ONE TEN TIMES AS LARGE.

"THE VERY FACT THAT I ASSUMED A LARGE OBLIGATION MADE ME WORK ALL THE HARDER AND ECONOMIZE ALL THE MORE, IN THE RIGHT DIRECTIONS.

"And the fact that that policy has been over my family all these years like a protecting hand has made my sleep sweeter We must believe in ourself and in our future."

CONTRACTS LET FOR PAVING ROADWAYS

Council Reviews Number of Petitions—Routine of an Adjourned Meeting.

Joseph A. Burke, of this city, received the contract for macadamizing certain streets at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council last night. There were only two bids, Mobus Brothers submitting the other one. That of Mr. Burke's was the lowest. The streets to be macadamized are Lenox avenue, Laramie road, Cammeron avenue, West Third street, west of Clinton avenue, Arlington avenue, George street, Netherwood avenue, West Third street, near Madison avenue.

William J. Douglass and others petitioned for a light on St. Mary's avenue. This was referred. L. Moraller & Son, was given the contract to take care of the town clock for a year for $30. This is a renewal of the contract which has been in force for sevral years.

United States Senator James E. Martine and other members of his family asked for permission to install an eight-inch sanitary sewer through Cedarbrook Terrace, to connect with the sewer on Prospect avenue. This petition was granted.

Dr. Marcus L. Clawson and others petitioned to have Madison avenue, between Front street and the railroad bridge, widened, setting forth the urgent need of the improvement. The matter was referred. T. Cantor was given permission to remove a building about sixty feet on his property at Arlington avenue and West Fourth street. John A. Kriney asked for permission to withdraw his name from the petition protesting against the erection of a plant in the West End by the Standard Oil Company and the same was granted.

Four petitions signed by J. P. Homan, Charles H. Hand, J. W. Brady and Marcus Hoyt requested the Council to take steps to widen Somerset street, between Front street and the brook, and to establish a building line. This was referred to the street committee, which reported on the matter later in the evening.

Cormick McDonough and others petitioned for lights on St. Mary's avenue. Referred. The Public Service Corporation reported the location of lights as ordered. The report of the Plainfield Library and Reading Room was filed. Resolutions offered by Mr. Mygatt and adopted, authorized the transferring of $2,000 from the general fund to the fire fund and the borrowing of $2,000 on account of sewer extension work. A resolution offered by Mr. Endress and adopted, appropriated $200 for alterations at the Industrial Home. The Council adjourned to meet again Friday night at 8 o'clock to consider the sanitary sewer proposition.

WASHINGTON, N. J., LID IS NAILED DOWN TIGHTLY

Washington, N. J., June 18.—The lid was on tight in Washington Sunday and all the candy and cigar stores were closed, while the cigar counters at the hotels and restaurants were covered up. The proprietors of the stores complied with the plan to observe the law and make special efforts to have the ordinance repealed.

With that idea in view, the work of getting signers to the petitions is being pushed and more than 400 names are said to be on the three petitions. The promoters claim they will have two-thirds of the voters of the town on the petitions when they are presented to the Council on July 1.

When the lid was on three years ago the stores were closed for fifteen Sundays. The reform began in the winter, and when the warm weather arrived there was such a demand for ice cream that the lid was pried off a little and the restaurants were allowed to sell ice cream. Then the other stores also opened.

This time John Hogan, proprietor of one of the three local restaurants, and the only one handling ice cream, has been given the privilege of selling cream. It is expected this fact will cause the other stores to find a way to get around the ordinance should it not be repealed.

The ordinance says that all candy and cigar stores shall be closed on Sundays. All the above stores selling ice cream thus come under the ordinance, and could not open for the sale of ice cream without having the entire store open. The restaurants, however, cannot be closed.

The Union News Company's stand at the Lackawanna station, can also sell ice cream and soft drinks, but cannot sell candy and cigars. The restaurant feature gave the stand the privilege of being open. The hotels refused to sell cigars to patrons Sunday.

None of the pastors of town touched upon the Sunday-closing ordinance in their sermons Sunday, except Rev. Dr. F. G. West, in the Methodist church.

Dr. West, in the course of his morning sermon, referred to Sunday observance, and declared that violators of law would criticise any just Sunday law. In regard to the "blue laws," he said, "they are founded upon God's law in regard to Sabbath observance and reference was made to the danger of criticizing God's laws.

REQUESTED FIREMEN NOT TO PUT OUT BLAZE

Long Branch, June 18.—Fire, supposed to be of incendiary origin, practically destroyed the old Samuel Hall building on Broadway. The building had been condemned by the local Board of Health, and last week the Board of Trade asked the city commissioners to communicate with the State Board of Health in an effort to have the old building razed.

While the fire was burning anxious residents urged the firemen not to put out the blaze, but let the old building burn up, so great was the anxiety to have it removed. The building was burned so badly that it is beyond repair. At one time five families lived in the building. They were ordered to vacate by the Health Board.

ATTACKED BY DOG SHE SOUGHT TO ASSIST

Household Pet Savagely Assails Miss VanWinkle Who Interfered in Fight.

Miss Violet VanWinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah VanWinkle, of 207 West Fifth street, in her attempts to separate a greyhound, owned by the family, in its fight with a strange dog, at her home, this morning, was attacked by the greyhound. A gold bracelet which she wore on her left arm was probably all that saved her from serious injury. As it was the dog succeeded in lacerating the flesh about her ankle, while there was an abrasion of the left arm.

In trying to bite the young woman on the arm, the canine sank its teeth into the bracelet, twisting it all out of shape. Mr. VanWinkle, hearing his daughter's cries, ran into the yard and with the aid of a club succeeded in beating off the dog and releasing its hold on the young woman. Dr. N. W. Currie, who lives nearby, was summoned and he cauterized the wounds at once.

The strange dog wandered into the yard early this morning and a few minutes later was engaged in a fight with the greyhound. The fight was progressing in lively fashion when Miss VanWinkle sought to separate the animals. She succeeded in her purpose, but only to have the greyhound attack her. The dog has since been killed by Dr. Herbert. The head will be sent to Trenton for examination.

DECIDE TO CLOSE T. B. PAVILION

Anti-Tuberculosis Society's Funds Too Low to Maintain it After This Month.

BUT THE WORK GOES ON

Arrangements Have Been Made to Care for Patients After Camp is Shut Up—Campaign That Fails of Health.

The Anti-Tuberculosis League of Plainfield and North Plainfield has decided to close the tuberculosis pavilion on the hospital grounds in July. The resolution on closing was adopted at a largely attended meeting this week, after a discussion occupying the greater part of the evening. In the end it received the unanimous vote of all the trustees present.

Special provision will be made for the care in one way and another of all the patients now at the pavilion under the direction of the physician in charge, Dr. F. G. Hughes, as it will take some time to dispose of all the cases in such a way as to insure them against loss of the improvement of the patients during their stay at the pavilion. The action as taken makes provision for the care of the patients at the expense of the league until other satisfactory provision shall be made for them.

The pavilion on the hospital ground was opened in December, 1909, and its eight beds have been filled almost all the time during the intervening two and a half years. Although it has been recognized that the number of patients which could be cared for in this way is small in proportion to the large number of persons suffering with tuberculosis in Plainfield and North Plainfield, the pavilion has been the means of bringing home to the people the fact that this dreadful disease can be cured. The expense of maintaining the pavilion has been large and has absorbed more than three-fourths of all the funds of the league.

Meanwhile the campaign of education for a larger measure of public support in the fight against the disease has resulted in the building of a county sanitorium. The members present at the meeting pointed with pride to the important part taken by the Anti-Tuberculosis League in bringing the matter to an issue before the Legislature and the fact that it was probably due to the efforts of the members of the league, as much as to any other cause, that the present law was adopted when it was. "Bonnie Burn" Sanitorium has since been built and is nearing completion in the hills back of Scotch Plains. It was expected that it would be ready to receive patients in July, but the opening has now been postponed until October and is again likely to be postponed until later in the winter.

Although there was a wish on the part of all present that the pavilion might be continued in operation until the opening of "Bonnie Burn," it was pointed out on the other hand that even in that event only a small proportion of the patients would go to "Bonnie Burn" and that the problem would have to be met and the same measures adopted for the care of the patients as will be adopted under action now taken.

With the care of advanced and incipient cases about to be provided for at public expense, it is coming to be recognized that the main fight against the disease is only beginning, and that the burden of the fight will rest upon private organizations as never before. Less than ten per cent. of the disease can be dealt with at these public sanitoria. The strongholds of the disease are in the thickly crowded centers of population where the germs of tuberculosis are bred and communicated from unhappy victims to their still more unhappy neighbors who are helpless to protect themselves.

The problem and task of dealing with this larger ninety per cent. of the disease in the centers of our population of Plainfield and North Plainfield is one which will require all the funds which the league can muster to say nothing of the courage and intelligence of the members backed by sound public sentiment in favor of the work. The plan is one for a larger saving of life: for the cure of a larger number of victims, and best of all, for the prevention of the spread of the disease to new victims who should never be permitted to catch it.

The expense of maintaining the pavilion during the last few months has been steadily increasing. On the other hand, the impression has gained ground that with the building of the county sanitorium the work of the league will come to an end, and subscriptions have fallen off to such an extent that to maintain the pavilion through the summer months and perhaps fell on into the coming winter, would encroach largely upon the principal of the invested funds

HOPE EXTENDED BY STATE BOARD

Sewer Committee Encouraged by Health Authorities' Attitude.

MEETING IN TRENTON

Outline of Plans Laid Before the Board, Which Advises the Allied Communities to Go Ahead With Their Preliminary Steps.

Another step was taken in the project of the several municipalities to build a joint trunk sewer, with disposal works on the Darling farm in Piscataway township, when representatives of the "steering" committee, appointed recently, waited on the State Board of Health yesterday, and laid the tenative plans before that body. The report of that conference was presented at a meeting of the committee held here last night.

Councilman Duncan W. Taylor, of Plainfield; Councilman William J. Buttfield, of North Plainfield; Councilman A. J. Hamley, of Dunellen, and Councilman T. J. Nichol, of Fanwood, together with Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett comprised the committee that met with the State Board of Health. The board was informed exactly as to what had been done and what was proposed, the purpose being to see whether a sufficient amount of encouragement could be secured to warrant going ahead with the plans, and thus avoid much unnecessary expense.

The State Board of Health told the committee to go ahead, prepare its plans and specifications, etc., present them and the board would do what it could to help the municipalities carry out the scheme successfully.

The representatives in making their report last night seemed to feel encouraged over he action of the State Board and it is thought that possibly the board will approve the proposition as now outlined by Plainfield, North Plainfield, Dunellen, Fanwood and Scotch Plains.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES OF NOVEL CHARACTER

Highly Interesting Program is Cleverly Carried out by the P. H. S. Seniors.

A novel plan was carried out in the class day program given by the Plainfield High School seniors in the school auditorium last night. The scene represented a theatre manager's office, and the event pictured was the breaking up of a stock company. This idea was of the disbanding stock company was well carried out, and proved highly interesting Dancing followed the exercises.

The program was opened with a short prologue, "All the Worlds a Stage," suitably adopted for the occasion by Roy E. Titsworth. This was followed by an opening song, "1912," by the entire class.

The class history was presented in four parts with a different pupil reviewing each year. The first year was given by Schuyler Line. Bruce Conlin, Helen Ryder and Ruth Douglas followed by telling in an interesting manner the history of the last three years at P. H. S.

The class statistics, which represented the vote of the class, were presented by Madeline Strader on small flags. Roy Titsworth was elected the most popular boy and Jessie Stewart received the same honor among the girls. Miss Blanche Beekman was chosen as the prettiest girl. From among the large number of able actors in the class Helen Woolley and Bruce Conlin were selected as the best. Nearly every member of the class received something in the statistics.

The class prophecy was given by Helen Woolley and Helen Crane. The foretelling was done by the aid of the cards and Miss Woolley, who presented the first half of the prophecy, represented Julia Marlowe. They were for the most part very clever and to the point.

Elmer Hunting, who has written a number of songs and poems during the year, wrote the class poem and recited it. He also wrote both of the class songs for the occasion and the prologue at the beginning of the entertainment.

The class will was read by Frank Cullen, president of the 1912 class. The will was followed by the closing song. Miss Margaret Hawkins was the accompanist.

A dance followed this program with music furnished by Suhr's orchestra. The class day committee follows: Madeline Strader, chairman; Blanche Beekman, Margaret Hawkins, Helen Woolley, Gertrude Prior, Roy Titsworth, Raymond Manley and Bruce Conlin.

WEDDING PLANS QUIETLY MADE

Miss Smith's Parents Told of Intended Nuptials Short Time Before Ceremony.

NO OBJECTION OFFERED

Bridegroom William B. Cragin, Jr., Crack Tennis Player and Former Plainfielder—Recently Divorced His Wife.

The announcement made here today by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Branch Smith, of 1200 Denmark road, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emma Booth Smith, to William B. Cragin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cragin, of New York, occasioned some surprise among the friends of the two families. The ceremony was performed on Monday at All Souls' church, New York, Rev. Dr. Thomas Slicer, the pastor, officiating.

The marriage plans were kept so quiet that the bride's parents did not know of the wedding until a short time before the ceremony was performed. However, there were no objections on the part of the parents. Mr. and Mrs. Cragin are spending their honeymoon at Old Point Comfort, Va.

Mr. Cragin, who is widely-known as a tennis player, divorced his first wife within the past year, the divorce being granted on the grounds of desertion. The first Mrs. Cragin's maiden name was Miss May V. Bruce. Her father is vice president of the Hanover Bank, New York.

Since the divorce was granted she has remarried, her husband being Mr. Scammel, of Trenton, who was her counsel in the divorce procedings. The couple are living in Trenton.

By the first Cragin marriage there was one child, Marguerite, aged 5 years. By the terms of the divorce she is in possession of her father.

Mr. Cragin is the New York salesmanager for the Borden Milk Company. Upon their return from Old Point Comfort, Mr. and Mrs. Cragin will live at the "Hargrave" on West 72d street, New York. Mr. Cragin formerly lived on East Seventh street, this city, and has been a familiar figure in the tennis tournaments at the Plainfield Country Club.

MR. AND MRS. CODDINGTON SURPRISED ON ANNIVERSARY

Sixty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Coddington, of Fairview avenue, agreeably surprised them on Monday evening, which was the twelfth anniversary of their wedding. They met by agreement at the house of Mr. and Mrs. William Cochran and then proceeded to the Coddington home, where they walked in unannounced and showered congratulations upon the couple and wished them every prosperity and happiness.

Tables were arranged and the party joined in playing "500." Prizes were distributed at its close to Mrs. Clark, Mrs. E. A. Giddes, Mrs. Arthur McVoy and Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Adam Seals, Dr. E. A. Giddes, U. G. Tingley and Harry Coddington.

Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. H. W. Woodward piano, and Allen Woolston guitar. A handsome silver casserole dish was presented to the host and hostess.

AUTO-BUS CHAUFFEUR WEDS AFTER SWIFT COURTSHIP

Bernard Gill, of London, Eng., who has been in this country but a few months and is employed by the Michelin Tire Company, of Milltown, as the chauffeur for the auto bus which is operated between New Brunswick and this city, was married at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon to Miss Anna M. Heyl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heyl, of Milltown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Barney, pastor of the Milltown German Reformed church, at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Barbara Heyl, sister of the bride, was the bridemaid and John Love, of Milltown, was the best man. The couple is now enjoying a honeymoon at Atlantic City. Upon their return they will live on Cottage street, Milltown.

Another wedding of interest took place last night, when Miss Mena Wafner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wagner, and William R. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Evans, both of Milltown, were married at Toms River by Rev. Leon Chamberlain, formerly of Milltown. The bride was employed in the mailing department of the Michelin Tire Company, and the bridegroom was employed in the branch department of the same concern. Their work brought them together a great deal and in this way they fell in love with each other. They will reside at Milltown.

HADLEY RENEWS THE FIGHT TO SEAT 78 'T.R.' DELEGATES

(By American Press Association.)

Chicago, June 19, 3 p. m.—The second day of the session of the National Republican Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock this morning (noon by New York time) by Senator Elihu Root, the temporary chairman.

Root announced that the unfinished business was the Hadley amendment to substitute the Roosevelt roll call for the National Committee's roll call, and that an hour and a half would be allowed to decide the argument.

Governor Hadley, who opened the debate, declared that there were 78 delegates placed on the temporary roll by the National Committee that did not belong there. He demanded that the names of the men seated by the votes of 14 members of the National Committee be eliminated from the roll and that the names of 78 delegates refused seats by the committee be substituted on the roll.

Senator Allen, of Colorado, who followed Governor Hadley, spoke in favor of the Roosevelt delegates. Senator Hannaway, of Indiana, spoke next. He declared that the action of the Roosevelt forces was unsound and unfair.

Chicago, June 19.—Final instructions were delivered by Colonel Roosevelt at a meeting of the Roosevelt delegates shortly after midnight.

"Stick to your leaders," said Col. Roosevelt. "Support Hadley, Johnson and Record. They will lead a fight to purge the roll. That fight must be made regardless of any other thing. It is nt a question of my nomination. If I could be nominated by the use of that roll I should not accept it. The roll is fradulent. Mr. Root's position as temporary chairman was obtained by the use of sixty votes which are on the roll by fraud. Anything done by the use of these sixty votes is tainted with the fraud and is not binding. Any convention controlled by the use of those sixty or more votes is irregular and is not binding on anybody."

The Roosevelt board of strategy in the small hours of this morning planned to carry on the fight in the same orderly parliamentary fashion that marked the final few minutes of yesterday's session, when a working arrangement between the factions averted any violent methods. By this armed truce, certain persons were to be recognized ,and a clash has so far been avoided.

At the opening of todays' session it was agreed under the terms of the truce Gov. Hadley should have recognition to press a resolution offered as a substitute for the resolution of James Watson of Indiana for the usual appointment of a committee on credentials.

The Hadley resolution offers a substitute roll for that of the national committee and this roll will be urged also in a minority report by Senator Borah, national committeeman from Idaho.

The sixty contested cases had been briefed so that their facts must be presented to the convention. The Roosevelt people were prepared to insist that nothing be done until the cases have been finally acted on by the convention, minus the challenged votes. It was their plan to insist that the challenged votes stand aside until their contests have been decided and that at no time shall they vote on their own cases.

"We hold," said Gov. Hadley today, "that we are at the present moment a regular and legal majority of the regular convention. The vote of yesterday shows this perfectly clear. The addition of sixty names to the voting list—names of persons with no right to vote—cannot upset that fact. We shall govern ourselves accordingly."

(By Leslie R. Fort.)

(Special despatch to the Daily Press)

Chicago, Ill., June 19.—President Taft's renomination, unless the bosses by some method should bring it about with the deliberate idea of losing the election in November, today sems entirely out of the question. His decidedly poor showing of strength on the first test in the election of Senator Root as temporary chairman, in which Root only received 558 votes, has made every one sure that to nominate him spells defat in the fall.

It is freely predicted that if he is named he will not carry a single state. Almost to a man, those who supported McGovern yesterday became so embittered by the refusal of the convention to purge the roll of the delegates who have been seated without the slightest right that they freely predict a Democratic landslide such as the nation has never before seen, in case Taft should be nominated.

Some idea of the extent to which the National Committee went in this desperate effort to seat enough Taft delegates may be gained from the fact that when Franklin Murphy was

RAPID PROGRESS MADE ON STATE HIGHWAYS PLAN

Trenton, June 19.—Work is progressing rapidly upon the preliminary surveys and the gathering of the necessary data for the establishment of the system of state highways. State Road Commissioner Stevens said today that the surveys had been completed in Atlantic, Cumberland and Cape May counties and that they were well along toward completion in Gloucester, Salem and Somerset counties. The information being gathered includes the location and character of bridges as well as the general information of county and township highways. As soon as the gathering of the information is completed in the other counties the State Highway Commission, of which Governor Wilson is a member, will meet at the Governor's cottage at Sea Girt to consider further steps in the highway work.

The law provides that certain highways connecting the county seats and various other main roads shall be designated as part of the state system and that then these roads shall be taken over by the state and improved and maintained at state expense, thus relieving the counties of the further burden of keeping these roads in repair.

ELECTOR CONVENTIONS ARE NOT TO BE HELD

Done Away With a Geran Act Amendment—Possibility of Acute Situation.

Trenton, June 19.—One of the new features of the Presidential campaign in this State this year is that there will be no separate State convention for the nomination of Presidential electors. The two parties will name their electoral tickets at the regular State conventions in September, provided by the Geran act at which platforms will be formulated. These conventions will be composed largely of candidates chosen at open primaries and this fact, as far as the Republicans are concerned, may be charged with great significance in view of the large vote received by Roosevelt in New Jersey and also in view of the talk being heard in Chicago of a possible vote in the Electoral College if President Taft shall be re-elected.

The Geran act does not provide for the nomination of Presidential electors so it became necessary to make this provision during the last legislative session. An act was passed, which Governor Wilson approved May 13, last, providing that the electors shall be nominated at the regular State conventions. Both conventions are held on the same day, namely, the Tuesday following the primary election in September. The act provides that in certifying the nomination of the electors the certificate may contain the names of the candidates for President and Vice President for whom the electors are to vote. It is provided, too, that the candidates for elector shall be amenable to all the provisions of the corrupt practices act with reference to accounting for all money contributed for and expended in the campaign, etc. The respective State Committees may be the financial agents of the candidates, or they may name other agents if they see fit.

The State conventions are composed of the holdover senators, the candidates for the Senate and the Assembly, and in case of the prevailing party, this year the Democrats, the Governor. Thus, it is seen that more than nine-tenths of each convention will be composed of candidates fresh from the people at the polls. What will this mean in the Taft camp if the Progressive vote shall line up as strongly as it did at the Presidential primary on May 28? This question is causing the regular Republican leaders some concern. Of course, the situation all hinges on whether or not President Taft is nominated, and the leaders are waiting until the nomination is made to deal with it. It readily can be seen that if the Progressives should elect any large proportion of the legislative candidates, there would be a fight over the choice of candidates for elector favorable to President Taft, and this situation will be all the more grave if the Roosevelt followers, under the lead of the Colonel, shall bolt the National convention.

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church is spending the day at the home of Miss Elizabeth Nash, in Washington Valley.

LA FOLLETTE MAY JOIN T. R. FORCES

Split In Progressive Following Causes Comment.

QUESTION HOUSER'S STAND

Claimed That He Is Helping Taft. Houser Declares That Neither Taft Nor Roosevelt Has Chance For Nomination and That La Follette Will Eventually Win.

Chicago, June 19.—It is believed that many of the supporters of Senator La Follette are preparing to cast their lot with Mr. Roosevelt. It was plain in the vote of the Wisconsin delegates on the temporary chairmanship that a large part of the La Follette following is restive.

The split in the La Follette rank was one of the most interesting features of the convention. It followed an all night meeting of the Wisconsin delegation at the Grand Pacific hotel. It was an exciting meeting, and showed, contrary to expectations, that a large number of the delegates were not disposed to take orders of Walter L. Houser, Senator La Follette's campaign manager. Mr. Houser, Alfred T. Rogers, Senator La Follette's law partner, and John T. Hannin, his private secretary, pleaded with these delegates to stand by their chief, but even a telegram from Senator La Follette himself failed to hold them in line. In this message the senator said that he believed that for Wisconsin to present a candidate would be fatal to his candidacy.

Governor McGovern and Henry F. Cochems led the fight against Houser. It was charged that Houser had been out to help the Taft side and was working against the progressive wing of the party. Both Cochems and McGovern said that on such a question as the temporary chairmanship the progressives should stand together. These were but words. Some of the delegates declared that those who followed McGovern were betraying Senator La Follette.

"You had better go back to Wisconsin by way of Europe," they told the McGovern men Houser moved that no name be presented by Wisconsin, but he was beaten in the caucus. The North Dakota men, with one exception, decided to follow the McGovern faction.

Say Houser Is For Taft.

The action at the caucus in the convention is regarded by some as foreshadowing another bitter fight in Wisconsin with McGovern trying to dispute Senator La Follette's leadership. A majority of the delegates here are candidates for nomination for state offices and have been told that their action in opposing La Follette's wishes will mean the selection of other men. The feeling against Houser tonight at the Wisconsin delegate headquarters seems to presage serious trouble and possibly a break to Roosevelt, Henry F. Cochems said.

"Mr. Houser has been playing into the hands of the Taft men for some time, and we have known all about it. He is afraid of helping unprogressive spirit in this convention. In spite of his wishes it was agreed by the delegates to vote with the progressives and most of us did so."

"Are you and those with you still going to vote for Senator La Follette?"

"We shall either vote for him or return our credentials, I think," replied Mr. Cochems.

Mr. Houser said that he believed all would vote for La Follette notwithstanding their action.

He said: "It looks certain to me to be a tie-up between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt. The vote shows that neither Mr. Taft nor Mr. Roosevelt has command of a majority for the nomination. That is clear. In view of the showing today we expect to nominate our candidate who has taken that course which makes him most available before the people. He can be nominated and can be elected."

THE TAFT PLATFORM.

Little Change Likely In Butler's Draft of Document.

Chicago, June 19.—Just before the convention opened Nicholas Murray Butler, who heads the Taft platform builders, gave out the first official draft of the platform. The president of Columbia and his colleagues had labored on this draft.

Little change in this platform was expected by its builders. It was intimated that at most the draft might be changed in only one plank before going to the committee on platform and resolutions.

Plainfield, N. J., June 19, 1912.

Not very long ago it was quite fashionable for public servants to transact their business behind closed doors. As a general thing they accepted as their motto the saying of one Vanderbilt, "the public be damned," but times have changed and officials, whether they be of high or low station, realize that the people are their masters and as such are entitled to know their own business. We do not have to go very far away from home to appreciate how different the situation is now from what it was but a few years ago. The change has been for the better. The Hudson Observer makes this prediction, to which we concur: "After awhile we shall have laws which will make it a criminal offense for any of our public servants, municipal, county or State, to sneak off into the dark and pretend to there serve the public. These laws will come, because it is apparent to everybody that the only reason for secrecy is to misuse power for private and dishonest ends."

It is unreasonable to expect Governor Wilson to commit himself at this time as to whether he will resign his office as chief executive of New Jersey in the event of his obtaining the Democratic Presidential nomination. It is unreasonable to expect him to resign his present office should he be named as the party's standard bearer at the Baltimore convention. If memory serves us right, Grover Cleveland did not do so when nominated for the Presidency while serving as Governor of New York. Many precedents to warrant Woodrow Wilson in continuing to discharge his duties as Governor in the case of his running for the highest office in the land might be cited. In fact, we take it, Wilson owes it to his own State to serve in the office to which he was elected unless and until he is called to a more exalted position.

The Census Bureau has compiled some instructive tables concerning the iron and steel industry and the average number of wage earners. Here are a few of the important statistics: Pennsylvania, 126,911; Ohio, 38,586; Illinois, 17,584; Indiana, 12,255; New York, 10,091; West Virginia, 5,060; and New Jersey, 4,671. In value of products the ranking order was: Pennsylvania, $500,343,995; Ohio, $197,780,043; Illinois, $86,608,137; New York, 39,532,414; Indiana, $38,651,848; West Virginia, $22,435,411; Massachusetts, $13,567,628. In value added by manufacture: Pennsylvania, $171,330,574; Ohio, $58,536,888; Illinois, $39,363,674; New York, $13,643,244; Indiana, $12,553,089; West Virginia, $6,539,111, and New Jersey, $5,378,679.

Not alone the merchants but the people of the community generally who have the city's interest at heart will approve of the action of the Common Council in ordering arc lights for the business section. First impressions are great things, often most lasting, and when a stranger comes within our gates at night for the first time he is very apt to think it a "dead" town when he finds it is poorly lighted in the shopping district. Appearances count for much and if for no other reason, but there are better reasons, the city fathers made a good move in arranging for better lighting for the central part of the city.

Fresh air is the best health builder for the human race. Medical science teaches that to live in it is the best prescription in the world. Children especially should be out in the open as much as possible. This fact is recognized by school authorities generally and many of them plan to conduct open air classes. In our own city, the Hartridge school management has recently decided that the younger pupils shall pursue their studies out of doors. A broad, low piazza with a southern exposure will serve as a fresh air class room. It is safe to say that the innovation will be an attractive feature of the institution.

As a general rule, William Jennings Bryan charges a fee of $500 for delivering a lecture, but we'll wager that he would cut prices if given a chance to preach a little sermon at the Chicago convention.

Some betting people are cocksure what the result of the Chicago convention will be but it is noticeable that the Wall Street gamblers are not backing up their opinions with any considerable amount of cash.

HADLEY RENEWS FIGHT

asked by one of the New Jersey men who the National Committee placed the illegal Washington delegation on the temporary roll, he stated that it was done bcause the votes were needed for Taft.

He even threatened to have the committee take the seat which is to be occupied by Mr. Osborne, of Essex county, from the Roosevelt men, and seat one of the Taft delegates, because Mr. Osborne, who was in Europe, was unable to personally file his expense statement, thus not giving Harold J. Rowland, the Osborne alternate, who had complied with the law, a chance to fill his place. This threat, however, did not materialize.

The most that the correspondent of one of the biggest New York papers supporting Taft could possibly claim for him, after yesterday's continuation of the political piracy, was a majority of four, and his is only on paper.

If Mr. Taft's nomination is forced, it is generally admitted here that it will be with the idea of killing Roosevelt, and the party is to be sacrificed for the next four years to bring this about. It can be readily seen, in view of Mr. Roosevlt's victories in the district primary states, that such action would result in making him a bigger man than ever and would assure his selection at the end of the four years so decisive that he would sweep every Republican state in the Union, for by that time a large majority will have direct primaries.

While adhering to the belief that Roosevelt will be named, it can be positively said that in case he is not, Mr. Taft will not be the candidate of a united Republican party.

(By Leslie R. Fort.)
(Special despatch to the Daily Press)

Chicago, June 19.—Prepared to stick to the Roosevelt standard to the end, and feeling satisfied that President Taft has not enough votes to secure renomination, the New Jersey delegates entered the convention this morning ready to help sit on the lid for a couple of weeks if necessary.

Although they were with the defeated element in the first round of the struggle not a single man of the Jerseymen is downcast, and not one of them believe that Mr. Taft will be nominated.

After their nine-hour vigil sitting on the hardest kind of chairs and with nothing to eat from early morning yesterday until late in the evening, the party was better prepared this morning, some of them carrying cushions and with more or less sandwiches and other nourishments stowed away in their pockets.

There was a meeting of the delegation in the New Jersey headquarters at the Congress Hotel prior to going to the convention hall, when the entire situation was gone over, which, following the enthusiastic meeting at the Roosevelt headquarters last night, assured all that they will win in the end. The least that they expect is the defeat of Mr. Taft and as there seems to be no other candidate in sight beside Roosevelt, they look for him to eventually win.

After talking the matter over with the leaders of the New Jersey delegation last night, former Governor Fort, speaking for them, gave out the following statement for his state:

"The result of the vote on the temporary chairman, if it is to stand, means the ultimate control of the political bosses and the perpetualing of themselves and their power indefinitely. It means the destruction of honest party management, and the substitution of political fraud and crime. Any man nominated under such circumstances cannot expect to be able to go before the American people with any hope of success.

"If a great National Republican Convention can put out such a steal as that done today, and get away with the goods, it is time to despair of the country and to seriously contemplate whither the party of Lincoln is tending.

"One thing is clear on the vote today—Taft cannot be renominated. Root's vote was only 558, and it takes 540 to make a selection. With the pledged vote in Illinois, Maryland, Oregon and other states Mr. Taft will be short of the necessary votes to nominate at any stage in the convention. We shall have eight more votes in Illinois, three in Oregon, eight in Maryland and should gain at least four in New York, making a total reduction from the Root vote of enough to leave Mr. Taft with less than 540 which would prevent Mr. Taft's renomination.

"The Roosevelt men will stand fast to the end, I do not believe that one can be gotten for Taft, and the La-Follette vote in Wisconsin and Minnesota, will never be for Taft."

New Jersey has a candidate for Vice President. He is Edgar B. Bacon, one of the delegates at large from Jersey City. A number of his fellow delegates have had ribbons printed "For Vice President Edgar B. Bacon," and they are wearing them at the convention. James J. McCarthy, the Hudson county alternate at large, is his "Shampain" manager, and Mr. Bacon is coming in for a lot of fun. The real Vice Presidential candidates have become so overshadowed in the struggle to land the head of the ticket that no action of a serious nature has been taken by any one, although it is highly probable that if the Roosevelt element win they will be for Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, who has frequently been at the state headquarters and talked to the members of the delegation. If some other candidate beside Mr. Roosevelt should be named, it is hard to tell whom the New Jersey men would support, for in case of Taft's running, Governor Johnson, it is said, would not under any circumstances be a candidate for the nomination.

Most of the Jersey men have now given up hope of getting home by Saturday night as they originally planned. Practically all are of the opinion that there will be continuous fighting at each gathering and if the scrap over the temporary organization should be completed by tonight, there will be the fight over the platform, followed by another over the nomination so that the convention may last until next wek.

It is hard to predict what may happen in the way of a bolt, but if there is a bolt the New Jersey men are prepared to join it to a man. Several of them are outspoken in their statement that if Mr. Taft should land the nomination they will not support him, and they do not hesitate to assure all delegates from other states who ask them that if Mr. Taft is named they think New Jersey will go 50,000 to 100,000 against him.

Former Governor Murphy is one of the most interested of the spectators at the sessions. Alfred N. Dalrymple, chairman of the Essex County Republican Committee, came in for a small honor, through the efforts of Mr. Murphy, when he was named as one of the assistant secretaries of the convention, on the temporary list of officers yesterday.

Mr. Murphy received all of the tickets as the national committeeman from New Jersey, and he handed them out to his friends with a lavish hand. Not a dozen admission tickets wer given to the delegates for their friends to use.

BITTER OVER "LID" IN WASHINGTON, N. J.

Acrimony Over Sunday Closing is on the Increase in the "Protectors" Town.

Washington, N. J., June 19—Bitterness over the Sunday-closing issue, instead of subsiding after last Sunday's experiment, is decidedly on the increase. The list of petitioners for a repeal of the drastic Sunday ordinance are being carefully scrutinized by some of the church people when they can get access to them, and one local pastor, who copied from a petition the names of the members of his church who had signed it, found himself involved in a wordy war with its custodians.

Rev. Dr. F. L. West, pastor of the Methodist church, is the preacher who has been most active in "spotting" church members who have signed. Monday he visited the store of Charles A. Miller, and, with the latter's acquiescence, he noted the members of his own flock who had signed the petition for an open Sunday.

But when the pastor reached the store of Lewis Zanelli he fared a little differently. There he found Miss Johanna Zanelli in charge. Dr. West asked to see the Zanelli petition, and it was shown him. But when Miss Zanelli saw him copying names from the petition upon the margin of a newspaper he carried, she hurried in search of her brother, John Zanelli

Zanelli came on the run from his nearby shoe store, and without waste of words snatched the petition from the grasp of the interested preacher. The debate that followed among the three is described by its participants as "rather warm." Dr. West says the choice of words employed by his antagonists was shocking. He did not copy any more names at the Zanelli establishment.

Ringing sermons on the subject of Sunday closing have been promised for next Sunday by the pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches, all of whom are active in the Lord's Day Alliance movement, and among those church members who have signed the petition for what they characterize as a "liberal" Sunday, there is beginning to be manifested a feeling of decided uneasiness.

Washington's great issue today is whether or not the petitions that are being signed to have the ordinance repealed are the private property of those who are obtaining signatures until submitted to the Common Council, or are to be open to the scrutiny of the pastors and those who are back of the Sunday closing move. Private property, say some of the custodians; public property for all to view, say the pastors, declaring that any other course will convict the "liberal" party of a disposition to play underhanded tricks.

One church member who signed the "liberals'" petition, has weakened to the extent that he has asked to have his name erased, and strong influences are being brought to bear on other members of churches who have signed the petition to take the same action.

Meanwhile the proprietors of candy, ice cream and cigar stores are circulating their petitions eagerly, and getting a good many signers. The list now approaches 500, it is said.

HOPATCONG COTTAGES RAPIDLY FILLING UP

Lake Hopatcong, June 19.—The cottages along the boulevard are becoming inhabited for the summer season. Each day brings some new comer and ere this time next week most of the cottages will be occupied.

Mrs. C. Bricus and Mrs. W. Dunston, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at the Big Indian.

Dr. O. Rittenhouse and family, of Paterson, are comfortably located at the Little Chester, in Maxim Park.

Mrs. Shtradman, of Hoboken, is occupying the Hawthorne, on the boulevard.

Hudson Maxim has purchased the Holdrith cottage in the park. This gives to Mr. Maxim an uninterrupted water frnt of three and one-half miles.

While there are several conditions that might be improved along the boulevard and the west shore of the lake, one thing in particular that residents feel is badly needed is a better mail system. Cottagers, campers and hotel patrons are compelled to wait a day for their mail coming to the postoffice at Landing. At present the only means of getting the daily mail is by the boat or stage line. When either of these have a good many passengers from the evening trains and the postoffice clerks are a trifle tardy in sorting the mail, the passengers refuse to wait and as a consequence the mail is not delivered until the next day. What is being seriously considered is the establishment of a sub-office about half way between the River Styx and Landing, or a rural delivery for the summer season.

PRESBYTERY LICENSES TWO NEW PREACHERS

Morristown, June 19.—James F. Riggs, Jr., of Orange, was licensed to preach yesterday morning by the Presbytery of Moris and Orange, in session here. Jesse Herman, of Stirling, was also licensed, and Roland Grant Richmond, son of the pastor of the Boonton Presbyterian church, was received under care of the presbytery as a student for the ministry. He is now a student in Lafayette College.

Arrangements were made for the installation of Rev. Alfred R. Ehmann as pastor of the St. Cloud church, Orange, on Friday evening. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Chauncey W. Goodrich, the charge to the people will be made by Rev. William Adams Brown, and to the pastor by Rev. Charles Townsend. Rev. David Irving will preside, and Rev. Charles E. Bullard will make the prayer of installation.

Vacancies caused by the removal of Rev. Wendell Prime Keeler, of Madison, were filled by the election of Rev. R. H. M. Augustine, of Hanover, to the committee on synodical home missions, Rev. David A. Craig, of Parsippany, to examination of candidates, and Rev. Minot C. Morgan, of Summit, to the executive commission.

TAFT'S MEN ELECT ROOT, 558-502; T.R. FORCES BEGIN NEW FIGHT TODAY

Slender Surplus Is a Surprise.

FLINN CAUSES TUMULT

Keeps Yelling "You Are a Pack of Thieves!"

CALL POLICE TO CLEAR AISLES

Contestants Neck and Neck as South Dakota Is Reached. Tennessee Turns Tide.

CLAIMS OF THE RIVAL LEADERS.

By McKinley, Taft Manager.

President Taft demonstrated his absolute control of the Republican national convention. His candidate for the position of temporary chairman, Senator Root, was elected to that position by an ample majority, the vote disclosing the weakness of the Roosevelt following. President Taft's renomination, always certain, is made positive and inevitable by the developments of the first day of the convention.

By Dixon, Roosevelt Manager.

We have them whipped. The vote proves it. It demonstrates beyond a doubt the impossibility of Taft's nomination.

Chicago, June 19.—There was a tense feeling in the big hall as the Republican national convention began its second day's session shortly after 11 o'clock today. The closeness of the vote by which Senator Elihu Root was elected temporary chairman gave the supporters of Mr. Roosevelt renewed hope. The first order of business was the election of other temporary officers of the convention. Mr. Roosevelt's supporters were prepared to fight every bit of the way and they expect a break that will give them the control of the convention. The Taft men, flushed with victory over the election of Senator Elihu Root, were more confident than ever in their prediction that the president will be nominated.

It was after six hours of tumultuous scenes that Senator Root was named temporary chairman. This was the first victory of the Taft forces. The vote was as follows:

Elihu Root of New York, 558; Frank E. McGovern of Wisconsin, 502; W. S. Lauder of North Dakota, 9; Walter L. Houser of Wisconsin, 3; Asle J. Gronna of North Dakota, 1. Absent or not voting, 5. Total, 1,078. Necessary for choice, 540.

It will be observed from the foregoing figures that Senator Root swung out the lineup victory by a margin of fifty-six votes, or eighteen more than 540 votes needed to nominate a president.

Colonel Roosevelt and his supporters assume the air of pronounced confidence over what they describe as the "shallow victory" of the Taft men, and they hint at a sensational termination of their fight after the convention has been permanently organized.

The Taft captains, while expressing complete confidence in their ability to hold their lines against the assaults of Colonel Roosevelt and his impassioned friends, were obviously chagrined by the narrowness of the majority by which they compelled the election of Senator Root as temporary chairman.

Flinn and Quay Bitter.

The ballot started with Senator Root in the lead. When Pennsylvania was reached there was a terrific tumult over the calling of a name of an alternate.

William Flinn and Richard R. Quay, the latter decorated with a badge which read, "Thou shalt not steal," and their friends in the delegation disputed the naming of this alternate, but the roll clerk kept right on calling the names while Mr. Flinn and Mr. Quay sharply interrupted with "That's a steal; thief; you are a pack of thieves; that's what you are."

Sergeant at Arms Stone, as Mr. Flinn and Mr. Quay and their following moved toward the platform, directed the police to clear the aisle. And yet Mr. Flinn and Mr. Quay kept on shouting, "You are thieves and robbers."

The ballot became a neck and neck race as South Dakota was reached. After the South Dakota ballot the vote stood McGovern, 453; Root, 441. But Tennessee turned the tide, and after the Texas vote the total was, Root 495; McGovern, 462. After the vote of the state of Washington was tallied the total was Root, 544; McGovern, 467 and from that time on Root's vote was increased amid the cheers of President Taft's friends and Root's friends in the convention.

Chairman Rosewater announced the election of Senator Root. Immediately Senator Root came to the front of the platform. The vast audience was pretty well fagged and began to leave the hall. This gave Senator Root an opportunity to deliver his speech with no interruptions except the applause of the delegates who had stood sturdily by his side during that eventful ballot.

Police Quiet Flinn and Quay.

"Are you willing to take an election that was stolen?" cried Flinn, Quay and Ziba T. Moore, getting up on their chairs as usual.

The chief of police got busy at once and made them sit down.

People had begun to pour out of their seats and move toward the exits in such volume then that Senator Root saw it was no use to proceed for awhile. He waited quietly for ten minutes while all those who wished to do so could leave the building. Most of the galleries were empty when he resumed talking. He was listened to throughout his speech with great attention by the delegates and spectators who remained, and his telling points brought frequent applause, particularly when he spoke upon the limitations which must be put upon arbitrary power by an independent and courageous judiciary. There was another loud outburst of cheers when he finished speaking. It was then 7:30 o'clock, and delegates and spectators had been sitting in their seats then for eight hours and were plainly tired out.

Root Cool as Icicle.

All during the voting and throughout the speechmaking, some of it mighty bitter, Senator Root was on the platform, calm and undisturbed, chatting with Colonel Harry S. New, George B Cortelyou, Elmer Dover, George R Sheldon, Secretary Hilles and Dr Nicholas Murray Butler. Governor McGovern of Wisconsin was on the floor seated with his delegates. Neither Senator Root nor McGovern voted. The victory of Senator Root would have been of more ample proportions had not the Wisconsin delegation disregarded the personal request of Senator La Follette, sent through Mr. Houser, not to have any entangling alliances. Instead of regarding Senator La Follette's wishes the Wisconsin delegation practically went over to the Roosevelt side and plumped thirteen votes for Governor McGovern, nine for Mr. Lauder, three for Mr. Houser and one for Senator Gronna. One did not vote.

Mr. Houser also got a vote from North Dakota. The split in the Wisconsin's delegation developed ugly sentiments among them. Henry Cochems of Milwaukee put McGovern in nomination and Mr. Houser, Senator La Follette's manager, in an impassioned speech, speaking for La Follette, declared that Mr. Cochems' act was without authority.

The arrangements for the convention were almost perfect. There was not the slightest sign, not the faintest indication of a disorder that required the intervention of municipal or state authorities. Governor Deneen and Mayor Harrison and the police officers had made it very plain that the first signs of mob trouble or riotous efforts would be put down with a strong hand. When the strong arm men in the Roosevelt camp became sufficiently impressed with these facts they decided to keep the peace.

Two hours before Chairman Victor Rosewater called the convention to order the convention hall was one great sea of faces, one gigantic rainbow of colors. The brilliant electric lights, the many hued gowns of the women and their gorgeous hat plumage, the brilliant colors of the badges of the delegates and the hundreds of ornamented state banners made a scene that will long be remembered by those who participated in it. The crashing strains of the band, the buzzing talk of 1,078 delegates and their alternates, the humming conversation in the galleries, the little army of bluecoats on hand in case of need, the swishing of thousands of fans, were other features of this tremendous assemblage, numbering all told 15,000 persons. Vast numbers in that audience expected tumult. Some believed that a riot was imminent. All were expectant, all were enveloped body and soul with excitement.

The Californians came in with a banner, atop of which was a huge gold Teddy bear, beneath which was the legend, "The people must rule." Strange to relate, the banner did not receive even a handclap. Indeed, few if any of the well known figures in the Republican national party received the slightest greeting on entering the convention. The delegates and the audience apparently were imbued with emotions of such intensity that they had no desire to expand them on the delegates or the banners which represent different factions of the Republican party.

Not until nearly thirty minutes after Chairman Rosewater called the convention to order was there even a semblance of quiet. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Charles P. Taft and others in the diplomatic box, the delegates, guests and all, continued to have pleasant little chats and exchange views on the situation in the Republican party which has attracted the eyes of all nations.

Flinn Gets a Cheer.

At last came something like quiet. This was broken into though when the Pennsylvanians cheered their new leader, William Flinn. Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania by this time had joined Senator Root on the platform and ex-Governor Franklin Murphy of New Jersey and Charles H. Booker of Connecticut joined the group. Chairman Rosewater was now thumping away for dear life. Beside him were Secretary William Hayward and Sergeant at Arms William F. Stone of the national committee.

When he could speak so that he could be heard, Mr. Rosewater started the official work of the convention, but was interrupted by the Pennsylvania roaring of "Senator Borah, Borah, Borah!" and the Wisconsin answer took up the cry of "La Follette, La Follette, La Follette!" There were no choruses, faint or otherwise, for President Taft or as to how they should vote on the temporary chairmanship. The convention began to get away from Mr. Rosewater, but Mr. Hayward and Mr. Stone used their megaphones to good effect and at last order was restored. Not to last for a moment, though, for Mr. Flinn of Pennsylvania began a dispute with the New Yorkers adjacent to him over a seat in the convention. This little matter was finally adjusted and the Rev. James F. Callaghan, pastor of St. Malachi Roman Catholic church, delivered an invocation closing with the Lord's Prayer. Mr. Hayward then advanced on the rostrum and read the official call for the election of the delegates to this convention.

Hadley Jumps From Seat.

While this call was being read Governor Hadley left his place at the head of the Missouri delegation and was hoisted to the platform to a seat close to Mr. Rosewater, where he was joined by Lawrence Y. Sherman, the newly elected Republican United States senator from Illinois, and ex-Governor Franklin Fort of New Jersey. In a few minutes Governor Deneen of Illinois joined the party. Governor Hadley, Mr. Sherman, ex-Governor Fort and Governor Deneen were the leaders of the Roosevelt lawyers in a controversy soon to follow after Secretary Hayward finished reading the call for the convention.

Governor Hadley and his friends had not been upon the platform a moment before ex-Representative James E. Watson of Indiana and Representative Sereno Payne of New York, formerly chairman of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives, was seated directly opposite them. Governor Hadley and his friends were to speak for the Roosevelt side of the controversy and Mr. Watson and Mr. Payne were to combat them in the interest of President Taft and his friends. With quiet absolutely assured Mr. Hayward had not finished the reading of the call before the Roosevelt people started to fight to prevent the seating of the delegates on the temporary roll of the convention. It was led by Governor Hadley.

Rosewater Names Root.

Chairman Rosewater then declared:

"I have the honor to present the name of the Hon. Elihu Root, a delegate from the state of New York, as temporary chairman of this convention and invite other nominations. Are there any other nominations?"

Henry F. Cochems of the Wisconsin delegation, who placed Senator La Follette in nomination for the presidency in the national convention four years ago, then, in disregard of Senator La Follette's dispatch to Walter L. Houser La Follette's campaign manager here, that the Wisconsin delegation should not engage in entangling alliances, jumped to the platform and put Governor McGovern of Wisconsin in nomination for temporary chairman. He closed his speech by saying:

"I desire on behalf of the progressive Republicans of this republic to place in nomination our excellent governor of Wisconsin, Francis E. McGovern."

There were mighty cheers, and North Dakota seconded the nomination. In due order Governor Hadley and Governor Johnson of California seconded McGovern's nomination. The latter declared that the twenty-six votes of California would be cast for McGovern that the two Taft votes in the delegation would be ignored and, added Johnson, "We will ignore them on every vote in this convention."

Some of the trustees felt that it would be a breach of the confidence reposed in them by the contributors of funds to wilfully continue a financial policy which would tend only to weaken the forces upon which the league must depend for undertaking its larger work about to be undertaken in the coming months.

The work of the fall campaign is now being planned and will be in shape for definite action within a short time. The plans will probably include some method for the care of persons suffering with the disease near to their homes, where they can be reached in larger numbers and to better advantage, and along lines perhaps not very different from those in operation at the present pavilion. The plans will also include clinical work and various other methods of reaching the disease in places where its destruction is most terrible.

"SCOTTY" ADMITS HE WAS FOUR-FLUSH MILLIONAIRE

"Death Valley Scotty" told the County Grand Jury at Los Angeles, Cal., yesterday, that A. M. Johnson, president of the National Life Insurance Company of Chicago, has grub staked him for years and that E. Burt Gaylord, a mining engineer of New York, put up the $10,000 which "Scotty" paid for the special train in which the Death Valley man made his spectacular trip across the continent several years ago. At the time of his trip Scotty became acquainted with a number of Plainfielders, who remember him well.

"Scotty's" testimony contained this other bit of interesting history: He never located a mine either in the Panaminst Range, the Funeral Mountains or anywhere eles; he never owned a mine and was not a miner. His only role was to make a big splurge, to advertise himself as the spectacular and unbridled spendthrift, while all the time cunning schemers were formulating plans upon which they should profit by this shown. And all "Scotty" got, he says, was an amount of money that could not be dignified by a loftier title than a "hand-out."

FIRE HOSE TOO COSTLY, SAYS MAYOR IN VETO

New Brunswick, June 19.—Mayor John J. Morrison objects to the city paying $1.25 a foot for hose, when hose costing sixty-five cents a foot has been in service and has given satisfaction, according to the opinion of the chief of the fire department. Accordingly he returned to Common Council Monday night, unsigned, a resolution directing that hose be purchased from several firms at rates ranging from sixty-five cents to $1.25 per foot.

The veto was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Bids were received for a new motor-driven apparatus for the New Brunswick Truck Company. Six companies bid, the lowest being the Robinson Fire Apparatus Company, New York, at $5,675. Two companies bid on two or three styles of trucks. The fire committee will report upon the bids later.

By a unanimous vote Theodore Boice, Jr., was elected city weigher, succeeding his father, the late Theodor Boice.

The contract made with Lewis Board for $11,330 for a new firehouse for Hibernia Engine Company was confirmed.

An ordinance making the fire alarm superintendent inspector of electric wires and lights at a salary of $500 was passed in two readings.

The Pillars of Hercules.

The "Pillars of Hercules" was the name anciently given to the mountains of Calpe and Abyla, standing opposite to each other, the one on the European and the other on the African shore of the strait which connects the Mediterranean sea with the Atlantic ocean. The mountains are now called the Rock of Gibraltar and Jebel Zatant. The word Gibraltar, which is at present also applied to the strait, was originally "Jebel Taric," or "Mountain of Taric," Taric being the name of the leader of the first Mohammedan band which crossed at that point over into Spain in the year A. D. 710.

Power of St. Francis.

The power of St. Francis of Assisi, son of the practical Peter Bernardone and the tender Madonna Pica, over the western world of his time and over our hearts in our time has been explained in many ways. But it has only one source, and that is love. Love made him a poet, love made him a saint, love gave him life and fire and understanding and all the things that were added to him.—Century Magazine.

His Sole Regret.

"You are not afraid to die, are you?" asked the weeping watcher by the bedside.

"No," whispered the chronic kicker, "but it does worry me to think that I shall soon be with the silent majority when all my life I have so enjoyed being in the noisy minority."

Too Small a Ring.

"What you need," said the wordy medic in his ponderous way, "is an enlargement of your daily round, a wider circle of activity."

"Mebby that's right," said the patient. "I'm a bareback rider in a one ring circus."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Making Headway.

"Have you a spare cigar about you, old chap?"

"Certainly! But I thought you were going to stop smoking."

"So I am, but not too abruptly. I've already quit smoking my own cigars."—Boston Transcript.

HEAVENLY REST CLUB SUMMER FESTIVAL

Afternoon and Evening Affair Next Saturday—Baseball Game and Entertainment

The Men's Club of the Church of the Heavenly Rest has completed arrangements for its fourth annual summer festival and dance to be held Saturday afternoon and evening on the church grounds on Clinton avenue. The club will be assisted by the Women's Guild. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a baseball game between the married and single men of the parish. This promises to be an exciting affair, as both teams will be made up of former stars.

The entertainment will be given in the parish house at 8 o'clock in the evening. The program will include Prof. Henderson, of New York, a slight-of-hand performer; songs by Albert Walsh, of New York, a baritone; also the Queen City Quartet. The grounds will be illuminated with electric lights, and ice cream and strawberries will be served there. There will also be a large table in charge of the women, where cake, candy, fancy articles, lemonade, etc., will be sold. A feature will be a department store. During the evening there will be dancing in the parish house. Music will be furnished by L. M. Hummer and Arthur Mosher.

REV. MR. M'COY SPEAKS AT MISSIONARY CONVENTION

Rev. William S. McCoy, of Holy Cross church; Rev. C. H. Mallery, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and Rev. John G. Currier, of Grace church, were among those who attended the Missionary Convocation of New Brunswick, held in Christ church, South Amboy, yesterday, and in the evening, Mr. McCoy made one of the two addresses, his subject being "How the Diocese Helps the Parish." It was a very practical and helpful talk. The other address in the evening was by Rev. W. B. Eddy, of St. Michael's church, Trenton. Both Mr. McCoy and Mr. Eddy were introduced as "newcomers."

Bishop Scarborough presided at the convocation which was opened in the morning with the celebration of holy communion. Rev. Hugh Burleson, secretary of the Board of Missions in New York, preacher the sermon. The afternoon was given up to the reception of reports, all of which showed satisfactory condition of affairs. There was a large attendance of ministers and laymen at the meeting.

SUMMER SCHOOL TO BE CONDUCTED AGAIN

Pupils Will Be Given Opportunity to Make up Work —Those in Faculty.

It was announced at the office of the Board of Education today that the summer school which was so successful last year will reopen this summer in the Whittier School, at 8:30 on Monday, July 8. Pupils will be received from the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, and also from the High School, to make up work on which they have failed during the year.

The school will run forenoons only and will continue for six weeks. No pupil will be permitted to remain in the school who is not there for work, and in order to concentrate the effort, no pupil will take more than two studies. At the middle of the term, an examination will be given to those that the teacher thinks are fitted to take it. All others will be expected to attend the full six weeks, and take the examination at the end.

Those passing an examination satisfactorily will have the result recorded to their credit the same as if it were a part of the regular year's work. The teachers of the high school section are:

George E. Webster, one of the regular teachers at the Somerset Street School, of North Plainfield, Adelphus Hanck, now teaching in Leal's School, but who becomes one of the faculty in the City High School next fall; Everett J. Beers, of the City High School; Miss Ruth Bullock, of Plainfield, now teaching in Bridgeport, Conn.

The graded classes will be taught by Mrs. S. L. Wardner, who managed the school so successfully last year; Miss Alys Trenbath, eighth grade teacher in the Jefferson School; and Miss Margaret Falkenburg, fifth grade teacher in the Somerset Street School.

Pupils who have moved into the city and expect to enter the high school or the grammar grades next fall will also be received and helped to prepare for entering their grades in good shape. Out-of-town pupils will be received on payment of tuition as far as accommodations will permit.

HOLD FOLK FESTIVAL UNDER THE NIGHT SKY

Unusual Program Presented by Hampton Students—Zulu Tells of His Tribe.

Under the auspices of and for the benefit of Hampton Institute, Indian, negro and Zulu students from that institution gave a "starlight folk festival" on the grounds of the Plainfield Country Club, last night. An attractive place near the tennis courts was selected, where a natural amphitheatre afforded all the conveniences necessary for such an entertainment. More than one hundred people were present to lend financial aid to the project.

The program as published yesterday in the Plainfield Daily Press was given in its entirety and the students had an excellent opportunity to display their talents. There were war songs and dances by the Indians, illustrating some of the old-time customs, the young men appearing in their native costumes.

Perhaps the greatest interest was found in the appearance of Madikane Qandiyane Cele, a Zulu, who has been at Hampton for several years. He told something of his people, his family and himself, explaining how his father had sent him to this country to be educated, after he became converted through the efforts of missionaries. He also gave some of the dances peculiar to his race.

The singing of plantation songs by the negro students was one of the most enjoyable features of the program. The latter was concluded with all the students appearing in the attire of the particular trade they are following at Hampton, which was an effective climax. It comprised a chorus of tradesmen and farmers, each of the twenty-five men representing some branch of industry taught at the institution.

Interspersing the entertainment, there was a short address by H. B. Frissell, principal of Hampton Institute, and other representatives. The students are spending their summer vacation in giving these entertainments and they have adopted the plan of living in tents as they go from place to place.

DAVID VAN BUSKIRK STRICKEN.

David VanBuskirk, of West Second street, is in a serious condition at his home, the result of what appears to be a form of paralysis. He was stricken about midnight. He has lost the functions of the right side of his body, including his arm.

LAWN FESTIVAL.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace M. E. church will hold a strawberry festival on the church lawn tomorrow evening. A committee of members is in charge of the arrangements and under their hands the lawn will be converted into a fairyland scene with flowers, Chinese lanterns and other decorations.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Plainfield People.

One kidney remedy never fails.

Plainfield people rely upon it.

That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Plainfield testimony proves it always reliable.

Mrs. Earnest Dorflinger, 400 Clinton avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I hold just as high an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I have for years. The cure they made in my case has been permanent and consequently I am glad to confirm my former testimonial." (Statement given January 19, 1911.)

On August 28, 1905, Mrs. Dorflinger gave the following account of her experience with Doan's Kidney Pills: "The first symptom of kidney trouble in my case was a dull, heavy pain in my back and head. This was followed by a tired, languid feeling and I knew that my kidneys were gradually giving out. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and getting a box at Randolph's drug store, I began their use. Before long my condition improved and I continued taking Doan's Kidney Pills until I was cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SEN. ROOT'S SPEECH ACCEPTING THE CHAIR

In accepting the temporary chairmanship of the Republican national convention Senator Elihu Root said in part:

Gentlemen of the Convention—Believe that I appreciate this expression of confidence. I wish I were more competent for the service you require of me.

The struggle for leadership in the Republican party which has so long engrossed the attention and excited the feelings of its members is about to be determined by the selection of a candidate. The varying claims of opinion for recognition in the political creed of the party are about to be settled by the adoption of a platform.

In the performance of this duty by the convention and in the acceptance of its conclusions by Republicans is to be applied the ever recurring test of a party's fitness to govern, its coherence and its formative and controlling power of organization. And these depend upon the willingness of the members of the party to subordinate their varying individual opinions and postpone the matters of difference between them in order that they may get in unison upon the great questions wherein they agree; upon their willingness and capacity to thrust aside the disappointment which some of them must always feel in failing to secure success for the candidates of their preference; upon the loyalty of party members to the party itself, to the great organization whose agency in government they believe to be for the best interests of the nation, and for whose continuance in power their love of country constrains them to labor.

"A Rope of Sand."

Without these things there can be no party worthy of the name. Without them party association is a rope of sand, party responsibility disappears, and with it disappears the right to public confidence.

Throughout our party's history in each presidential election we have gone to the American people with the confident and just assertion that the Republican party is not a mere fortuitous collection of individuals, but is a coherent and living force as an organization. It is effective, responsible, worthy of confidence, competent to govern. The traditions of its great struggles for liberty, for the supremacy of law, for the preservation of constitutional government, for national honor, exercise a controlling influence upon its conduct. The lofty purpose of its great originators has been transmitted by spiritual succession from generation to generation of party leaders, and it is no idle rhetoric when we say, as we have so often said and are about to say again to the American people:

"We are entitled to your belief in the sincerity of the principles we profess and the loyalty of our candidates to those principles, because we are the party of Lincoln, and Sumner, and Seward, and Andrews, and Morton, and Grant, and Hayes, and Garfield, and Arthur, and Harrison, and Blaine, and Hoar, and McKinley."

We challenge the judgment of the American people on the policies of McKinley and Roosevelt and Taft.

"Taft's Tribute to Roosevelt."

President Taft, in his speech of acceptance on the 28th of July, 1908, paid a just tribute to the great service rendered by his predecessor in awakening the public conscience, inaugurating reforms and saving the country from the dangers of a plutocratic government. He instanced the railroad rate law, the prevention of railroad rebates and discriminations, the enforcement of the anti-trust law, the pure food law, the meat inspection law, the general supervision and control of transportation companies, the conservation of natural resources, and he proceeded to say:

"The chief function of the next administration, in my judgment, is distinct from and a progressive development of that which has been performed by President Roosevelt. The chief function of the next administration is to complete and perfect the machinery by which these standards may be maintained, by which the law breakers may be promptly restrained and punished, but which shall operate with sufficient accuracy and dispatch to interfere with legitimate business as little as possible."

Protection Policy Upheld.

The Republican party stands now, as McKinley stood, for a protective tariff, while the Democratic party stands against the principle of protection and for a tariff for revenue only. We stand not for the abuses of the tariff, but for the beneficent uses. No tariff can be devised so moderate, so reasonable, that it will not be rejected by the Democratic party, provided its duties be adjusted with reference to labor cost so as to protect American products against being driven out of the market by foreign underselling made possible through the lower rates of wages in other countries. The American foreign merchant service has been driven off the face of the waters because with American sailors' wages and the American standard of living it could not compete with foreign shipping.

Old Tariff Methods.

The Democratic party proposes to put American mills and factories and mines in the same position and the American people have now to say whether they wish that to be done.

The working out of a new currency system adapted to American conditions is of vital importance to the prosperity of the country and the security of every business and of every man whose support is directly or indirectly dependent upon American business. For the solution of this question the policy of the Republican party established a monetary commission which has made a most thorough and exhaustive study of the financial systems of all civilized nations, of their relations to our own system and the needs of American business. The commission has reported a bill for the establishment of a new system of reserve associations under which the currency will be elastic, the business of the country will find ready sale for its commercial paper, the people of the country at large will exercise control instead of a little group of large bankers, and the danger of panics will disappear.

Trust Prosecution.

The prosecution of trusts and combinations in violation of the Sherman act has proceeded with extraordinary vigor and success. The Standard Oil company has been dissolved by a suit begun under Roosevelt and brought to a successful conclusion under Taft through a judgment in exact accordance with the prayer of the complainant. The Tobacco company has been dissolved and its property scattered through fourteen different companies, with stringent injunctions against common control, which, in the unanimous opinion of the four judges of the circuit court of appeals, were fully adequate to accomplish the relief demanded. The beef packers, the wholesale lumber dealers, the wire makers, the window glass pool, the electric lamp combination, the bathtub trust, the shoe machinery trust, the foreign steamship pool, the sugar company, the steel corporation, the harvester company—all have been made to feel the heavy hand of the law through suits or indictments against restraints and monopolies.

Improvement of Labor.

The newly created bureau of mines and the newly authorized children's bureau mark the limit to which the national government can go toward improving the conditions of intrastate labor without usurping the powers of the states. The pure food law has been enforced with vigor and effectiveness.

Speaks of Navy's Efficiency.

The navy has improved its organization and decreased its expenses, has increased its preparedness and military efficiency, has improved its marksmanship and skill in seamanship and evolution and has reorganized and reduced the cost of the system of construction, repair and supply.

The execution of the regular and established program of adding two battleships to the fleet annually to take the place of the old ships which from year to year grow obsolete and to maintain the position of our navy among those of the great powers has met with a reverse in the refusal of the Democratic house of representatives to appropriate any money for the construction of battleships, and the question now stands between the Republican senate and the Democratic house as to whether our navy shall be maintained or shall be permitted to fall back to a level with the weaker and unconsidered countries of the world. What is the will of the American people on that question?

The Panama Canal.

The construction of the Panama canal has been pressed forward with renewed evidences under the concentrated observation of all the civilized world, that America possesses constructive genius, organizing power and habits of honest administration equal to the greatest undertakings. It is manifest now that the work will be done in advance of the time fixed and within the cost estimated, and that during the coming year it will be substantially completed.

With this record of consistent policy and faithful service the Republican party can rest with confidence on its title to command the approval of the American people. We have a right to say that we can be trusted to preserve and maintain the American system of free representative government handed down to us by our fathers. At our hands it will be no empty form when the officers of the national government subscribe the solemn oath required of them by law, "That I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same."

Divine Principle of Justice.

With all our pride in our vast material prosperity in our successful institutions and our advance in civilization, we would not be boastful and vainglorious, for we come of godfearing people, and we have learned the truth taught by religion that all men are prone to error, are subject to temptation, are led astray by impulse. We know that this is as true in government as it is in private life, for the freedom that some of our fathers sought was freedom of conscience from the control of majorities, and our party was born in protest against the extension of a system of human slavery approved and maintained by majorities. We know that there is no safe course in the life of men or of nations except to establish and to follow declared principles of conduct. There is a divine principle of justice which men cannot make or unmake, which is above all governments, above all legislatures, above all majorities. The American people have set up this eternal law of justice as the guide for their national action. They have formulated and expressed it in practical rules of conduct established by them impersonally, abstractly, when no interest or impulse or specific desire was present to sway their judgment. Upon submission and conformity to these rules of justice depends our existence as a nation.

—Nell—"Mrs. Talkalot says she only believes half she hears." Belle—"Yes, but she evens matters up by hearing twice as much as other people."

—It's nice to be treated like one of the family—in some families.

—Absence makes the heart grow fonder, but that isn't the reason so many husbands and wives separate.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

VARIOUS SHORTCAKES.

NOW that so many varieties of fruit are available, or will be available soon, lovers of shortcake have an opportunity to revel in these delicious concoctions.

Some people like a basis of sweet cake, some prefer the biscuit filling, while still others think none so good as the pie crust kind.

For Sweet Shortcake.

Sweet Shortcake.—This recipe will please those who like a sweet shortcake. Take three eggs, a cupful of sugar, two of flour, one scant teaspoonful of cream of tartar, a small half teaspoonful of soda and one tablespoonful of butter. Beat the butter and sugar together and add the eggs, well beaten. Mix the soda and cream of tartar with flour and rub through a sieve. Stir the beaten eggs and sugar into these dry ingredients and bake the batter in four layer tins.

A Biscuit Dough.

Biscuit Shortcake.—Use a pint of sifted flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a cupful of milk, a half teaspoonful of salt, three tablespoonfuls of butter. Mix as for biscuit. When the dough is mixed fill into one large or two small layer cake tins. See that it is even, but do not press down too hard. The less the dough is handled the more delicate it will be. Bake in a brisk oven. This can be broken into halves or baked in two small tins, set one aside and next day repeat and use with a different kind of filling.

A Berry Shortcake.

Special Shortcake.—Boil two cupfuls of sugar in a cupful of water and then let it cool. Separate the whites from yolks of four eggs. Beat the yolks until thick; then add the sirup to them, beating constantly. Now stir in two cupfuls of flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Put in a pinch of salt and one teaspoonful of lemon juice. Then fold in the whites of the eggs beaten stiff and dry. Spread in two layer cake pans. Bake in a quick oven. When done remove to a warm platter, spread with sugar and berries crushed. Place on top a thick meringue of beaten egg whites with sugar or whipped cream and sugar. Arrange berries around the cake.

Selma Lagerlof's Work by Miss Harriet French

I want to give this week some excerpts from a famous address which will be of especial interest to our Scandinavian sisters and brothers, who by the by, are so much more liberal in their views on suffrage than we, in this famed land of the free, this home of liberty, can as yet claim to be. Our subject is one of the big people who has the larger interests of the world at heart.

A few months ago there appeared in the Wrld's Work an account of the wonderful achievements of a Swedish woman, Selma Lagerlof, whose popularity as a writer in Germany, Holland, Russia and France is unquestioned, while in her own country this woman of the people is treated as a queen.

I wish it were possible to tell more fully of her, and to give her address entire, instead of giving it in abbreviated form.

At the Sixth Congress of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance in Stockholm an address was made by Selma Lagerlof, which was regarded as the most eloquent statement of the suffragist plea in any country. The address was entitled: "Woman the Savior of the State." Her fundamental achievement in her world, ad man's half success in his, as the basis of the demand for suffrage.

We quote from the article as follows:

Have women done nothing which entitles us to equal rights with men? Our time on earth has been long—as long as his. Has it left any trace in passing? Have we created nothing of incontestable worth to life and civilization? Beside this, that we have brought human beings into the world, have we contributed nothing of use to mankind? I know that the women before our time did not fritter away their lives as playing chilren, but worked. I look at paintings and engravings, pictures of old women of olden times. Their faces are haggard and stern; their hands rough and bony. They had their struggles and their interests. What have they done? Their voices could not be heard among all those who answer: "Dur only ambition has been to create a good home."

* * * Our gift to humanity is the home—that, and nothing else. We have been building upon ths little structure ever since the time of our Mother Eve We have altered the plan, we have experimented; we have made new discoveries; * * * we have gone forth and tamed such among the wild beasts as were needed in the home, we have selected from the growths of earth, fruit-bearing trees, luscious berries, seeds, and the choicest flowers. We have furnished and decorated our home; we have developed its customs; we have created the art of child training, comfort, courtesy and pleasant social intercourse.

Here there are no laws only customs. * * * Here one is disciplined not for the sake of punishing, but only for development.

For the home we have been great; for the home we have also been petty. Not many of us have stood with Christina Gyllenstierna on the walls of Stockholm and defended a city; still fewer of us have gone forth with Jeanne D'Arc to battle for the Fatherland. But if the enemy approached our own gate, we stood * * * ready to fight to the last in defense of our creation, the home. And this little structure which has cost us so much effort, is it a success or a failure? Is this woman's contribution to civilization inconsiderable or valuable? Is it appreciated or despised?

For answer we need only listen to the comments we constantly hear around us: Why does it go well with this or that one? Because he has had the advantage of a good home training. Why, for instance, is this person so much better able to meet the trials of life than many others? Because his training in the home has been along right lines. Another fails. Why? you ask. This, again, is in a great measure due to the faulty upbringing h received in the home. How has that man been able to bear up under al his misfortunes? Because his wife has always ceased his burden by making a good hom. for him. * * *

One finds nothing more adjustable, more compassionate among all that mankind has effected, and there is nothing so beloved and so highly prized as woman's creation, the home

We must not deny the man the great honor due him as founder of the state, and not only the state as a unit, but also the smaller and greater organizations of which it is comprised; for they are all his work. As soon as we step outside the four walls of the home, we meet him, and him only. He has created the farm, the village, the city. He has constructed the church, the university, the industrial world. All the states within states are from the start his work. He is the great builder of human ant hills. He never stands alone, but always in coalition. Man's greatest contribution to civilization is the well organized, strong and protecting state.

Let us be clear on one point! It is not my meaning that the home, as I have just presented it, is perfected everywhere. If such were the case, then verily humanity had reached its goal, and further reforms and improvements would not be needed. Naturally I am aware of the fact that the majority of homes are not perfect, and that many are bad. But the good and happy homes do exist; we have seen them; we have lived in them. We may not have had them ourselves, but we can bear witness to their existence. They are no mere dream Women can create them in poverty and in affluence, in lowliness and in refinement. They are to be found in kings' castles and in cotters' huts.

Now, as to the states—these our greater homes, so difficult to build, constructed with so much effort, watered by so much blood and so many tears, builded by the help of the strongest characters, the boldest minds, is there or has there ever been one that has satisfied all its members? Are they not always in the midst of continuous reform work? Does one not desire even today to reform and reconstruct them from the bottom up? Do they not present constant reasons for discontent and bitterness?

In the "Nardesta" of Runeberg, Catherine of Russia says to her friend, the Countess Natalia, apropos of her hame:

"What happiness is yours! To be able to extend toward all a helping hand; to be able to meet all needs, creating a little paradise of joy and bliss only with the heart's desire!"

Catherine was a woman, but here she does not speak as woman but as regent of the greatest kingdom on earth. She knew what every statesman knows; that the state can enforce order and procure defense; yet she was permeated with the feeling of its limitations, and its helplessness in many ways.

Where is the state in which there are no unprotected children, wherein no buding genius is crushed, but where all its young are lovingly nurtured.

Where is the state that gives to all its aged poor the protection and respect due those who are nearing the end of this life? Where is the state that punishes offenders only with the idea of correction and development?

There is one more thing to be considered. I have been bold enough to state that the home is woman's creation. But I did not say that she alone created it. Fortunately for her and for all of us, she has ever had the man with her. Master and Mistress have sat side by side. Had the woman toiled alone she could not have solved the problem. The home would not have been in existence, either as a dream or a reality.

But in the creating of the state, man has stood alone Nothing has impelled man to take woman with him nto the Hall of Justice, into the Civil Service Department, into the House of Commerce. He has forged his way alone. * * *

He has taken upon himself the hardest tasks, and he has not been afraid of work.

But has he succeeded? Witness the hatred between the classes, witness the stifled cries from beneath, all the threats and revolutions. Witness the complaints of the unemployed; witness emigration. Does all this signify that he has succeeded?

And, mark you. At this very moment, when governments are tottering, admirably constructed though they be; when social revolution appears at our very door—it is right here that the great Women Invasion into man's field of labor and into the territory of the state begins.

Does this signify anything? Or, does it simply mean that women desire a better lot in life—equality, change, freedom, power?

Why does all this come just now One must be blind to not see, deaf not to hear.

Has not something within been calling and urging? Go forth to new and difficult work. Take your place at the railway switch, sweep the street, copy at the office, sell postage stamps at the postoffice, teach the elementary branches, take your place at the telephone switchboard, be a surgeon's helper; do all this subordinate work and be assured that it is not wasted.

Above all, be assured that it was necessary work. You must enter all fields; you must be on hand everywhere, if the state is ever to be beloved like the home. Be certain that your services, now so despised, shall soon be sought after They will be in such demand that you will hardly be able to meet the wants.

Be assured that we shall soon be in evidence everywhere—in uninhabited regions and in cities with many new occupations not yet known to us, but all working toward the one God.

Alas, we women are not perfect beings! You men are no more perfect than we are. How are we to attain that which is great and good unless we help each other?

We do not think that the work can be accomplished at once, but we do believe that it would be folly to reject our help.

We believe that the winds of God are bearing us onward, that our little master-work, the home, was our creation with the help of man. The great masterwork, the state, shall be perfected by man when in all seriousness he takes woman as his helper.

REGARDING CHARGE ACCOUNTS

"This is the first time in my married life that I have ever had a charge account," smiled a Plainfield woman yesterday as she wound up a half day's shopping tour in our store. "I can't begin to tell you how pleased I am. My husband has always been opposed to opening an account, his motto being 'pay as you go,' but I had heard so much about the convenience of a charge account, particularly at your store, that I finally overcame his scruples. I'm sure he will be pleased when he finds out how nicely I have been treated here today."

After hearing what our delighted Plainfield customer had to say, it occurred to us that there must be hundreds—yes, thousands—of substantial folks, who for one reason or another, are opposed to charging goods.

Have YOU a charge account here? If not, come in and let us talk it over. You have no idea how convenient it is to simply say "Charge it," or how advantageous it is to have a monthly account at a store whose merchandise is marked on a cash basis, strictly.

"BETTER WARRIOR THAN PROPHET"--T. R.

That's All He'd Say Regarding Root's Election.

Chicago, June 19.—"I'm a better warrior than a prophet," Colonel Roosevelt said when asked his opinion of the outcome of the convention. That was all he would say.

Mr. Roosevelt directed his own battle in the convention hall over a telephone wire. Hidden away in a room in his hotel, he spent most of his time with a receiver at his ear, listening to reports of his lieutenants and issuing orders in person.

He was seen only once or twice during the day, as he hurried through the corridors. He waved his hand and smiled at the people who cheered him and, in spite of the high pressure under which he has been working, he appeared to be as vigorous as the day he left Oyster Bay.

The wire over which Colonel Roosevelt gave his directions was specially installed for the convention and had no connection with any switchboard. Arrangements were so made that no person other than Colonel Roosevelt and the man at the Coliseum end of the wire could by any chance overhear the conversation.

WANAMAKER ON SCENE.

Boards Special Train to Second Nomination of President Taft.

New York, June 19.—John Wanamaker of Philadelphia arrived from Europe aboard the Kaiser Wilhelm II and left immediately by special train for Chicago, where he expects to make a speech seconding the nomination of President Taft. The big steamer was late in getting in because of a strike that held her at Cherbourg for three days.

Rodman Wanamaker went down the bay to meet his father, who was taken aboard the tug Lancaster and by her to the Pennsylvania railroad station in Jersey City. There a special train was in readiness, and with his secretary Mr. Wanamaker began his journey to the convention city.

PARKER MAY PRESIDE.

Judge Likely to Be Chairman at Democratic Convention.

Baltimore, June 19.—Judge Alton B. Parker of New York was strongly indicated as the choice of the arrangement committee for temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention.

Those members of the arrangement committee now here were agreed that the former presidential candidate was neutral in his attitude toward all candidates for presidential nomination and that he possessed all the qualifications as a presiding officer.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, is said to have brought forward the name of Judge Parker for temporary chairman a few days ago in New York.

HUGHES IS EMPHATIC.

Under No Circumstances Will He Accept Nomination.

New York, June 19.—Justice Hughes came down with a heavy hand on the efforts of certain delegates at Chicago to place his name before the convention in nomination for the presidency. At his summer home at Camp Abenaki, Lake Placid, he spent much of the day at the telephone in an endeavor to reach those who are said to be behind the movement and call them off.

He also telephoned to this city his disapproval of any effort to get his name before the convention.

Woman's Body In Barrel.

Scranton, Pa., June 19.—Indications of a murder have been discovered by the authorities of Wayne county in their investigation of the death of Mrs Sophie Herman of New York, whose cramped body was found in a half filled rain barrel on the farm of Charles Lackner, near Equinunk.

"PATSY" LYON CAPTURED AFTER TWICE ESCAPING

Rahway, June 19.—Charles or "Patsy" Lyons, who caused a disturbance on a trolley car late Sunday night and made his escape though shot at by Policeman Crahan, was arrested yesterday morning. He was taken in cusody shortly before 5 o'clock, after an all-night hunt, as he was attempting to steal into his father's house. Previously he had made another get-away from four patrolmen.

Later Monday afternoon, the police received information that Lyon was at his home, West Grand street. Four bluecoats, Smith, Conger, Kennealy and Thompson, started to arrest him. Three of them guarded the outside of the house while Thompson entered and found Lyon partly dressed sitting on a bed.

Thompson grabbed his man and started to take him to the police station. As he crossed the room Lyon's grandfather, Charles Rothenhouse, eighty-two years old, put out his foot and threw Thompson headlong, allowing Lyon to get away.

Without shoes, coat or hat, and followed closely by the four policemen, Lyon eluded his pursuers by jumping in and swimming the Rahway River. Policeman Thompson followed, but was no match for Lyon, who was lost to view at Linden avenue. The police arrested and locked up Rothenhouse as being an accessory in aiding Lyon to escape.

Lyon, who is less than twenty-one years of age, was at one time an inmate of the Jamesburg Reform School.

Mrs. William N. Tier, of East Front street, attended the funeral of an aunt yesterday at Brooklyn.

The new appointments are as follows:

BIG CLASS GRADUATED FROM THE 8TH GRADE

Grammar School Pupils Turn Their Faces to High School in Record Numbers.

The graduating class of the Stillman Grammar School had their closing exercises in the High School auditorium yesterday afternoon. The largest class that has ever entered the local High School received their diplomas, which were presented with a few appropriate remarks by William S. Tyler, president of the Board of Education.

A special class of twenty pupils who entered the local High School in 1911 without taking the regular course of study prescribed in the eighth grade were awarded their sheepskins, upon the satisfactory completion of their freshman year in High School.

The exercises opened with an invocation offered by Rev. Charles D. Anderson, of the First M. E. church. Mrs. John Boardman Cottrell, soprano in the Seventh Day Baptist choir, rendered two pleasing selections which were highly appreciated by the large audience.

Three well executed declamations were recited by Charles L. Lewis, Jr., and Richard C. Borden, and by Miss Ruth Voorhees. "The School Master Beaten," which was recited by Master Lewis, was particularly well rendered and his ability to disguise his speech quite won the admiration of his listeners.

Albert Barrett Meredith, Deputy State Superintendent of Schools, and City Superintendent Henry M. Maxson, addressed the graduating class, each offering in a few words timely advice to the pupils who will in the fall enter upon a four-year course of higher study.

At the assembly exercises in the Stillman School yesterday morning the annual presentation of prizes for scholarship and athletics took place. The list of prize winners this year was unusually large. Awards were made for efficient work in bookkeeping, grammar, geography, algebra, composition and arithmetic. The ribbons and medals for the fourth annual field and track meet held under the auspices of the Stillman School were also made. Miss Anna Day, principal of the school, read a summary of the undertakings and accomplishments of this year's graduating class and thanked her many scholars for the co-operation they had accorded her during the year.

WILL SEND POOR BOYS TO COLLEGE

Watchung Council, K. C., Takes up Plan to Educate Roman Catholic Youth.

FLAG FOR BONNIE BURN

Lodge Offers to Provide One—District Deputy Answers Anti-Romanist Circular Said to Have Been Sent to all Chicago Delegates.

The countrywide plan being taken up and discussed by the members of the Knights of Columbus, whereby one or more poor boys in a community will be given a college education at the expense of each council, was presented to the members of Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, at its meeting, last night, by Edward J. Sweeney, the district deputy. Although the plan has not yet been put in operation, there is no doubt but that it will within a short time.

Each council is to select a Roman Catholic boy, irrespective of the school he attends, provided he is worthy and too poor to take a college education. In making the selection the boy having the highest standing in his studies will be given preference. Each council is privileged to send more than one boy, according to its means. It is believed that between seventy and seventy-five boys in New Jersey will have the opportunity of going through college. The college to which the boy will be sent is to be selected by each council. The plan was very favorably received by Watchung Council and the matter will be taken up at once.

The council adopted a resolution offering to present an American flag to Bonnie Burn Sanitorium, and a committee comprising George J. Tobin, chairman; Francis J. Blatz and Calvin E. Broadhead was appointed to take charge of the matter. Copies of the resolution were sent to Dr. W. H. Murray, of the Board of Governors of Bonnie Burn and Freeholder J. Hervey Doane, informing them of the action taken and requesting them to arrange for the presentation at such time as they think is appropriate. It is understood that the presentation will be attended by ceremonies arranged by the Board of Governors.

Mr. Sweeney in addressing the knights, last night, took occasion to refer to a circular being sent out from a western city attacking Roman Catholics. It is said that each delegate attending the National Republican Convention received one of the circulars. It is alleged that an attack is also made on President Taft, claiming that he has favored the Catholics in the administration of his office. The circular further calls attention to an alleged oath Catholics take in joining the Knights of Columbus, which, it is charged, is decidedly un-American.

Mr. Sweeney refuted in no uncertain words the statements made and said that he only wished it were possible to make public some of the unwritten work of the order, which would forever disabuse the minds of the people of the truth of such charges. After the meeting the knights adjourned to the Waldorf Hotel for an informal spread.

WATCHUNG PUPILS GUESTS AT "HIGHLAND FARM"

Mrs. William Henry Rogers, of Highland Farm, Watchung, always a charming hostess, shone at her best yesterday, when she entertained seventy-five kiddies of the Watchung School at a lawn party. Of course, their teachers, Miss Nora Koons and Miss Clara Davis, were also at the party, but you mustn't get a wrong idea about the reason for their presence.

They didn't have a thing to do but enjoy themselves, because schoolroom notions were completely abandoned and nobody—not a soul—was told to sit or stand or keep still. And nobody had the heart to suggest that anybody else was eating too much.

Now, we'll leave it to you: Wasn't that a really-truly party? And school closes today for the long vacation.

Gee!

BASEBALL CLUB HOLDS LIVELY MINSTREL SHOW

The members of the Clinton Avenue Baseball Club gave a minstrel show in the parish house of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, last night, and the young men realized enough to purchase uniforms. Fred Jacobs was the interlocutor and the end-men were Andrew Crozier, Erickson VanOorden, Fred VanOrden and William DeRossia.

The entertainment was followed by dancing. Harry Pennoyer was chairman of the general committee.

PLAN FOR THEIR TRIP TO EUROPE

Young Women Who Make up Press Party Meet to Discuss Great Tour.

AT MISS VAIL'S HOME

Where They Meet the Chaperone—Leading Contestant a Charming Hostess—Makes Gifts for all Her Fellow Voyagers-to-be.

Miss Mabel Vail, who had the privilege of selecting the chaperone for the Plainfield Daily Press European Tour, because she had the largest number of votes in the contest, entertained the other successful contestants at her home, 437 East Seventh street, last night. The affair afforded an opportunity for the young women to meet the chaperone, Miss Helen Howard, of Higham, Mass. In addition to the contestants there were a few other friends present to enjoy the informal affair.

It was a jolly company and the evening was spent in discussing various details of the journey abroad. All of the young women have completed their arrangements for the trip and they are now anxiously awaiting the time of departure from Philadelphia Saturday morning. The chaperone has already become popular with the young women, and she being somewhat familiar with the foreign countries to be visited, all are assured of having the best time of their lives. Several friends are planning to go to Philadelphia to see the Plainfielders leave Saturday morning and wish them bon voyage.

George Leighs, father of Miss Agnes Leighs, who will be one of the party of six to go abroad, will escort the party to Philadelphia tomorrow afternoon and see that the remaining little details preparatory to voyaging are attended to. While there will be little time for sight-seeing in Philadelphia, the women plan to make the best of their stay there. They will stop at the Colonnade Hotel tomorrow night and the steamer Merion, of the American Line, which will take them abroad, is scheduled to leave at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The itinerary, as published in the Plainfield Daily Press of yesterday, will be followed.

Miss Vail provided a pleasing entertainment for her guests last night and all agreed that she was an admirable hostess. Before the reception ended she presented each one of her companions on the trip with a useful article, her own handiwork, and the recipients appreciated her thoughtfulness. During the evening refreshments were served. There was only one regret and that was that Miss Agnes McWilliams, of Raritan, found it impossible to be present.

The other members of the party present were: Miss Helen Howard, of Higham, Mass., chaperone; Miss Mabel Vail, Miss Agnes Leighs, Miss Ethel Hudson and Mrs. Clarence Brokaw. In addition there was present Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, Clarence Brokaw, Mrs. Adelbert Vail and other members of her family; Miss Arline Terry, of Brooklyn, who is the guest of Miss Hudson, and Miss Jeanette Pullman, of Jersey City, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brokaw.

KENNEL CLUB'S SMOKER PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

"There were sounds of revelry" up Netherwood way, last night. The basis of operations seemed to be centered around Truell Hall, whence issued at intervals notes of melody, snatches of ragtime music, yelps and barks. It was nothink more dreadful than the first "smoker" of the Plainfield Kennel Club.

As their invitation card stated the "judging" commenced at 9 o'clock. There were beer and pipes of the church-warden type with chimpanzee tails, and there were charming women and refreshments, and souvenirs and music and vaudeville.

It was "some night," the members declared. Phips' colored trio from New York were there with the diversions; and diverted the company were. Then "Pap" Lewis came along with his extensive repertoire, and he did fairly create the laughs. E. H. Hobbie, Jr., A. Clinton Wilmerding and A. L. MacKenizie were promoters of the show and they saw to it that everyone had a good time. So highly elated were all with the "smoker" that it will be made an annual affair.

The bride's attendants were Miss Marion Blimm, as maid of honor, and Miss Florence McGloin, of New York, and Miss Bina O'Brien, of Montclair, sister of the bridegroom, as bridemaids. The best man was C. Bertram Leggett, of this city, and the ushers were Thomas Flanagan, of Brooklyn; Walter Sharkey, brother of the bride; N. J. Randolph Chandler, Andrew Carney, Jr., Harold Sharkey, of Plainfield, and William McGloin, of New York.

The bride's gown was of ivory colored charmeuse, trimmed with Spanish lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the valley. The maid of honor's gown was of pale green messaline, and she carried white roses, while the bridemaids wore gowns of pink messaline and carried pink roses.

Miss Mary Smith, organist of the church, played the Mendelssohn Wedding March as the bridal party entered the church. The ushers led the way, followed by the bridemaids, maid of honor and the bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage. At the altar they were met by the bridegroom and his best man, who entered from the front of the edifice. Following the ceremony and as the party was leaving the church, Miss Smith played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents on East Second street, which was attended by 150 relatives and friends. The home was tastefully decorated with roses and greens, the color scheme at both the house and church was pink and green. The idea was carried out in an attractive way. Supper was served and during the evening Charles Suhr's orchestra played a popular program, adding to the pleasure of the occasion. The bride received a large collection of gifts from relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left last night for a short wedding journey. Upon their return they will reside at "Brezenol," the home of the bridegroom on Plainfield avenue. The bride was born in this city and has always lived here. She is a graduate of the Plainfield High School and has many friends.

HALLS SURRENDERS TO STRIKING WORKMEN

Shop Will Resume Tomorrow on Terms Demanded by Men When They Quit.

There is rejoicing today among the machinists of Halls Printing Press Company, Dunellen, who have been out on strike for the past two weeks. Their demands having been met and tomorrow they return to work. P. W. Hall issued today the following notice:

"To the employes of the Hall Printing Press Co: From information obtained in Washington on the 18th inst., we understand that the passage of the Steel Bill putting printing presses on the free list is not at all probable; therefore we will grant a reduction of 15 minutes beginning June 21 and subsequent reductions—the same as Scott Printing Press—having agreed to a final eight hour day to go into effect on January 1, 1914."

Negotiations are pending between Mr. Reilly and the Potter Press Works to bring about an amicable settlement on the basis agreed to by the other firms, and it is expected that in the course of a day or two, all the strikers will resume.

MAY QUIT TAFT TO HEAD OFF ROOSEVELT DELEGATES' BOLT

Republican National Convention Adjourns Awaiting Report of Credentials' Committee --'T.R.' Says Delegates Not Released.

(By L. R. Fort.)
(Special despatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, June 20, 3 p. m.—The die is cast so far as New Jersey is concerned and the twenty-eight delegates will act as a unit on the great question before the Republican National Convention. Theodore Roosevelt is to be the final judge of the action of the State's representatives and when he says the word they will follow his leadership upon the theory that sixty thousand New Jersey Republicans have ordered them to support Colonel Roosevelt, whether nominated by the National Republican Convention, or by a new party which will be formed before the Roosevelt's adherents leave Chicago.

Unless these seventy-eight fraudulent delegates are purged from the rolls of the convention by adoption of a report of the credentials committee, either majority or minority, a new party will be born here. Colonel Roosevelt will be the leader of that party and its standard bearer.

Never before in the history of the party was there such a determined group of men gathered for a National Convention as is the case of those from California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Michigan and other States which gave Mr. Roosevelt an honest majority in the primaries.

It will be a party formed by the delegates who will leave the convention, not bolt it, and by leaders of the Progressive Republicans assembled in Chicago. Progressive Democrats will be invited to join with it. It means the certain defeat of Mr. Taft in the fall and the probable election of a Democratic president. In every one of these assertions the New Jersey representatives have concurred. There is no equivocation on their part and they are ready for fight. They will vote for Roosevelt and will not accept any compromise. If the rolls are purged Mr. Roosevelt will receive the regular party nomination.

The New Jersey men and the other Progressive delegates do not care whether the contesting delegations on their side are seated. They do not need them to win if the rolls are purged, for they have a clear majority of those whom they consider honestly seated. At this morning's discussion each speaker asserted his determination to support Roosevelt in one convention or another until the end. Former Senator Colby, Edmund B. Osborne, Marvel, of Atlantic county; Kline, of Essex; Gill, of Mercer; Ward, of Essex; Blanyilt, of Passaic; Ennis, of Morris, and Knapp, of Union, all spoke in favor of the move, and when former Governor Fort returned from a two-hour conference with the Colonel's leaders and told the Jerseymen what had ben decided, there were no two ways suggested.

The session scheduled for noon today was adjourned until eight o'clock tonight. Nearly all of the delegates are spending the afternoon resting preparatory to being in the convention hall for many hours for one thing they are short on sleep, most of them having kept up until now entirely on the excitement. They will go prepared to stay or to leave the hall and finish the entire business before them at one session.

(By American Press Association.)

Chicago, June 20, 3 p. m.—The convention met at 12 o'clock and adjourned until 4 o'clock to allow the committee on credentials to try to settle the disqute over the seating of the delegates and are not expected to finish before 8 o'clock.

Col. Roosevelt has issued the following statement: "The time has come when I feel I must make certain statements. I went into this fight for certain important principles. At the moment I can only serve these principles by continuing to bear the personal responsibility which their advocacy has brought me."

There is a well defined report that the regular Republicans are to abandon Taft and head off the expected Roosevelt bolt by nominating Governor Hadley.

Chicago, June 20.—O. T. Davis, chief of the Roosevelt publicity bureau, called the newspaper men into his rooms at noon today and announced that the statement given out by R. F. Post, a Roosevelt delegate, to the effect that T. R. had released his delegates was false. The credentials committee at the opening of the convention asked for an adjournment until 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Roosevelt members of this committee were to join in the committee's deliberations.

Chicago, June 20.—"We're going to stop fighting with feathers and start fighting with clubs," declared Gov. Johnson, of California, in a speech to the delegates today immediately after Mr. Roosevelt had spoken.

"Now you've heard it, what are you going to do about it?" demanded the governor. "We're going to be men. We're going to stop fighting with feathers and start to fighting with clubs. We will go to the convention and go forward.

"We'll go forward as the Republican party of the United States and we'll nominate Theodore Roosevelt.

"We cannot go back to our states, cheated, swindled and defrauded as we have been cheated, outraged, swindled and defrauded in he past two days."

Standing on a table in the Florentine room of the Congress Hotel at 1 o'clock this morning, Col. Roosevelt, in a speech to his followers, threw down the gantlet to he convention and the Republican national committee, who packed the convention with stolen delegates, he solemnly advised the Progressives to organize their own convention.

Banging his right fist on the palm of his left hand, the former President, amid tense silence, declared: "As far as I am concerned, I am through. If you are voted down, I hope you, the real and lawful majority of the convention, will organize as such. And you will do it if you have the courage and loyalty of your convictions."

Coliseum, Chicago, June 20.—Former Governor Murphy was the guest of honor last night at a dinner given at the Union League Club by a group of New Jerseymen at the convention. Those in the party were:

David Baird, Frank Patterson, Harvey West, Robert E. Hand, Edward W. Gray, Upton Jeffreys, Congressman William P. Browning, Thomas N. McCarter, R. Wayne Parker, former Senator John Kean, Donald McLean, George F. Brandenburgh, Watson Rodeman, A. N. Dalrymple, Franklin Murphy, Jr., J. R. Flavell, Edward J. Handley, George King, Daniel S. Voorhees, Henry M. Doremus, James Reid, Arthur B. Leach, Farley Lead, Benjamin F. Jones, George L. Smith, John L. Reid, Thomas P. Alworth, F. J. Beck, Winton C. Garrison, George Scherer, Thomas F. McCran and General C. Edward Murray.

(Special despatch to the Daily Press)

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—What today's session of the Republican National convention may bring forth, so far as New Jersey is concerned, is problematical. Every member of the New Jersey delegation is for the Colonel until the last minute but there are a few who began this morning to waver on bolting the convention, in case that body continues to allow the stolen delegates to retain their seats. One thing is certain, not one seems to want to see Taft nominated, not even these who are supporting him only as a means to defeat Colonel Roosevelt.

A prediction that Taft will be elected in the fall is never heard on the streets or in the hotels and his name has not been mentioned more than half a dozen times in the first two days' sessions and then it has brought forth no enthusiasm. There may be a compromise candidate, although it is doubtful whether such a candidate will be elected by a full convention, for many of the radical Roosevelt supporters say they will not compromise on any one.

Including practically if not every one from New Jersey the delegates attended the meeting in the Roosevelt headquarters at the Congress Hotel in a body at 1 o'clock this morning and they were in the foreground when it came to boosting the Colonel, then many of them met in the State headquarters and discussed what was to come if a bolt took place. Senator Colby, of New Jersey, explained the situation thoroughly and it was decided to hold a meeting of the whole delegation this morning before going to the convention hall. Prior to the meeting at 1 o'clock this morning the members of the New Jersey delegation, except those who were on committees or were in conference with Colonel Roosevelt, held actively session in

T. R. ADVISES ADHERENTS TO BOLT; NEW TICKET IN THE FIELD SEEMS SURE

Drastic Step After Bad Day.

SAYS "I AM THROUGH"

"Being Cheated Out of the Nomination."

PLANNING DETAILS OF BOLT

Former President Takes Action After Flinn and Pennsylvania Delegation Had Shown Way.

Chicago, June 20.—Early today Colonel Roosevelt completed a review of the work of the national convention and begged his followers not to lay down in the convention today, but to organize a convention of their own right there in the convention hall if the eighty delegates whose seats are in dispute are permitted to vote upon any question affecting that title to these seats. Colonel Roosevelt said:

"I hope that you will decline longer to submit to having delegates fraudulently seated in the convention allowed to sit as judges on their own contests. You must not allow your opponents to win by foul means after losing by fair means and thus swindle the people out of the victory which they won.

"If voted down I hope that you, the real and lawful majority of the convention, will organize as such. And you will do it if you have courage. Now, let's see if the Republican party is the party of the real people, the people of the United States, or of the bosses and the interests maintained in the interest of special privileges. As for myself, I wan't to tell you right now that I am through."

Trying to Cheat Him.

"I have been asked to come here and give you my views on this situation when I began my fight. For months I said that if the people decided against me I would have nothing to say, but if the people were for me and the politicians decided against me I would have a lot to say. Now the national committee, or a portion of the committee, who made a majority of the convention by seating delegates who were fraudulently elected are trying to cheat me out of the nomination.

"They can't do it, and I won't let them. So far you have permitted them to beat you in the convention by using these stolen votes. Don't let them do it today. I hope that today you will at once introduce a resolution that not one fraudulently seated delegate shall vote on any question in the committee on credentials or in the convention or on any question whatever.

"Don't lie down again. If they beat you again on fraudulent votes there is no sense in voting to cast out fraudulent votes again, and then when you are beaten by those very fraudulent votes on saying that you are sorry and that you will go home. We do not propose that we shall be swindled out of a victory honestly won nor that the people shall be swindled out of the victory that they honestly won."

Tumultuous Cheers.

While Mr. Roosevelt was making this speech he was surrounded by Governor McGovern of Wisconsin, Medill McCormick and other loyal supporters. The Florentine room was crowded, and the colonel's speech advising a bolt was received with tumultuous cheers. There were many women in the gallery keyed up to great excitement.

Colonel Roosevelt closed his speech by saying that he could not go into the details of the bolt, that they would get these details from their leaders before the convention went into session today.

Colonel Roosevelt then went into executive session with his lieutenants and will spend the time remaining for the convention to reopen preparing the plans for the fight in the convention. Each step in the fight will be allotted to the respective Roosevelt leaders on the floor of the convention.

California Will Bolt.

Governor Johnson of California talked to the delegates for a few minutes after the colonel retired. He said that the Roosevelt men had stopped fighting with feathers and were going to fight with clubs. He was quite ready to follow Pennsylvania in a bolt and to join his twenty-four from California with the other delegates in a bolt.

Frank A. Munsey sent the following to his Boston Journal:

"The hour has come. The break is on. Thievery, thuggery and robbery have been overplayed by an unscrupulous band of desperate bosses.

"Mr. Roosevelt will be nominated on a clean ticket, backed by the earnest people of the nation, and will be elected in November."

SURELY IN THE PUBLIC EYE.

Taft and Roosevelt In Bitterest Political Fight In Nation's History.

Flinn Starts the Bolt.

Chicago, June 20.—The Pennsylvania Roosevelt delegates, by a vote of sixty-two out of sixty-four, shortly after midnight, voted to leave the Republican convention. William Flinn, the chairman of the delegation, made an announcement to that effect at a meeting of Roosevelt delegates held in the Florentine room of the Congress hotel. The announcement aroused the wildest excitement among the delegates, of whom there were present about 300. At the height of the excitement Colonel Roosevelt entered the room. He asked the delegates to suspend judgment and to delay decision until he had ascertained certain facts.

Mr. Flinn, addressing the delegates, said:

"Many of you have heard personally or through the newspapers of the action of the national committee prior to your coming here. Their actions since our arrival are not altogether unexpected. We won't have them any longer. If this thing is to continue what is the use of holding a national convention? Why don't we turn it over to Penrose, Tom Murphy, 'Big Steve' and Scott and let the postmasters do their business themselves."

T. R. Pleads For Time.

Colonel Roosevelt was brought into the room and said:

"I am going to ask you to take a recess until I can get certain facts which I wish to lay before you. I earnestly counsel you not to discuss this matter until I am able to put the facts before you. But I can tell you the general outline of course which I intend to pursue. I will never recognize as a Republican convention a body of which majority in an essential part was composed of fraudulently seated delegates. It is not the Republican party. I hold that this is no case of an ordinary faction fight."

This action of the Pennsylvania delegates followed the withdrawal of the Roosevelt men from the credentials committee, which had been considering the seventy-two contested seats, and who had planned to sit all night.

The doors of the committee room were suddenly thrown open by J. J. Sullivan of Ohio, who rushed out with the cry: "All Roosevelt men walk out."

He was followed by Hugh T. Halbert of Minnesota, Francis M. Heney of California, George L. Record of New Jersey and other Roosevelt men.

As they pushed open the swinging doors after Sullivan they cried out to the newspaper men:

"All newspaper men come inside and see what they are trying to do to us."

Colonel Shay, assistant sergeant at arms, shouted to the doorkeeper to admit no one. The Roosevelt forces shouted again for every one to come in. Mr. Thayer called for policemen, who pushed their way through and kept the crowd from coming in.

Roosevelt's Orders, They Say.

The Roosevelt men poured from the room, declaring they were acting under orders from Colonel Roosevelt.

"Everybody go to the Florentine room at the Congress," shouted one man.

They rushed out, followed by the crowd, and in the street outside of the Coliseum they were overtaken by Secretary Hayward.

"Why did you act that way?" he demanded of Heney. "Why didn't you wait until some rules had been passed?"

"We are acting under the direct orders of Colonel Roosevelt," retorted Heney.

"We are obeying a better general than you," shouted George Record of New Jersey. "He told us to leave that room and we did it."

Notwitstanding personal utterances on the part of Colonel Roosevelt, William Flinn and others in Colonel Roosevelt's camp, and notwithstanding the remarks to the contrary of a number of President Taft's chieftains, there are well grounded reports, based on substantial evidences of efforts to bring about the nomination of a harmony candidate for president.

A number of President Taft's friends are to continue their efforts to nominate him on the first ballot. But according to the best figures today the president has no more than a majority of ten over the necessary 540 votes necessary to nominate him on the first ballot. In other words, the president's friends claim 550 votes. Others in the president's camp claim 562 votes. Colonel Roosevelt has but 470 votes. Senator La Follette has thirty-six, the votes of Wisconsin and North Dakota, and Senator Cummins has ten from the state of Iowa.

Says T. R. Is Beaten.

According to the report presented to the convention, there are seventy-two delegates whose seats are to be reviewed by the committee on credentials. It is the firm belief of those directly interested in the culmination of this convention that by the time the committee on credentials submits its report to the convention it may be very difficult to nominate the president on the first ballot. Furthermore, it may be still more difficult to nominate him on the second ballot.

The La Follette men will not go to him, and neither will the Cummins men, and if the credentials committee decide to overturn the recommendations of the national committee concerning any part of those seventy-two seats in dispute that decision would be in Roosevelt's favor. The decisions, however, would not be sufficient, it is declared, to bring about Roosevelt's nomination. Of one thing the Taft men are certain, it is the defeat of Roosevelt as the candidate of this convention.

Taft Men Score Again.

Chicago, June 20.—The arguments for and against the motion of Governor Hadley of Missouri to strike from the temporary roll as prepared by the national committee the delegates whose seats were contested before the committee to the number of some seventy-eight and to put in their places on the roll the contestants was begun as soon as the convention had been called to order by Senator Root. Mr. Root stated that through an agreement of Governor Hadley and Representative Watson of Indiana each side would have an hour and a half to present its case. Governor Hadley was the first speaker.

Former Congressman Watson moved to refer the Hadley motion to the committee on credentials.

Governor Deneen of Illinois moved an amendment to Watson's motion that no delegate whose status was in question should be allowed to vote in the selection of the members of the committee on credentials or on the report of that committee. This amendment was in the interests of the Roosevelt contingent.

Mr. Watson then moved to table the Deneen amendment. This brought the whole matter fairly and squarely before the convention. If Deneen's amendment was tabled it meant a defeat for the Roosevelt contingent.

If Deneen's amendment was not tabled it meant that the Roosevelt contingent had won their main contention. It meant that none of the contested delegates could vote, and it meant ultimately a clear cut majority in the convention for the Roosevelt men.

Deneen's amendment was tabled by a vote of 563 to 510. The convention then adjourned till noon today.

Hadley's Great Ovation.

Chicago, June 20.—The session of the convention witnessed a demonstration. It lasted forty minutes and served to draw all eyes toward the figure of Governor Hadley of Missouri. It was a demonstration made by the Roosevelt following, to be sure, but it was the Missourian who evoked it and was significant in showing that some of the colonel's followers would like to see him nominated. The racket lasted forty minutes. While it was in progress one of Bill Flinn's lieutenants, William H. Coleman, jumped on the platform. "Three cheers for Hadley, our next president!" said this Pennsylvanian, and many of the Pennsylvania delegates and others were seen to cheer.

The cheer began when Governor Hadley came forward to reply to a statement made by Representative Watson, the Taft floor leader. It was quite expected apparently, but, seeing its spontaneity, the Roosevelt people at once seized it for a demonstration for the colonel, which they had been just itching to make in the hope of stampeding certain delegates to the Roosevelt side before a vote was taken on the question debated as to the right of the men seated by the national committee in the contested cases to vote on the selection of the committee on credentials.

The Hadley cheer was thereupon turned into a Roosevelt cheer, but if the demonstration that followed helped anybody that person was Bert Hadley. The real part of the racket was for Governor Hadley of Missouri. That was perfectly plain to any onlooker.

Woman Yells For Roosevelt.

A large part of the racket stirred up, once the thing got going, was played by a woman, who seemed to know just what to do and worked with a will. She was Mrs. Becky J. Davis, the wife of a Chicago lumber man, it was said. She sat in the west gallery. Beside her sat George R. Manchester, one of Roosevelt's New York lieutenants and once secretary of the New York county committee.

After the noise had been going on about ten minutes this woman drew all eyes toward her by getting up in her seat next to the gallery railing and, unrolling a lithograph of the colonel, began waving it and throwing kisses at the delegates on the floor below. She wore a big black hat, a white embroidered gown and carried a big bunch of pink sweet peas. Before she got through she had been brought down to the floor and lifted up to the press seats, where she cried "Roosevelt, Roosevelt!" while the Taft delegates laughed at her. The thing finally got so ridiculous that the police made her get down, and Mr. Manchester was seen to escort her back to her seat in the gallery.

Watson Started It.

For two hours and a half the delegates had been listening to the arguments for and against the motion of Governor Hadley that the names of the men seated by the national committee be stricken from the temporary roll and the contestants put in their place.

Curiously enough, it was Mr. Watson himself who was responsible for bringing the mention of Governor Hadley's name which started the ball rolling. The Indiana statesman, in closing the argument, said that it was no time to decide the question which had been raised. This was the signal for some of the Roosevelt delegates to start the outbreaks of protest, and Senator Root had to pound with his gavel.

The Taft men at last began to get up and cheer for Watson. The result was that soon after all the delegations were on their feet, the two factions cheering the two men who were standing together on the platform.

The counter demonstration of the Taft men went right along with the Roosevelt parade, but they stopped cheering after awhile and contented themselves with simply watching the parade of the Roosevelt men and laughing at them. After the demonstration had proceeded for about twenty minutes the Roosevelt men began the regularly repeated cry of "We want Teddy; we want Teddy; we want Teddy!"

Then he seized a megaphone previously used by one of the reading secretaries of the convention and shouted three times through it, "Hadley for president." And then Mr. Coleman was chased off the platform by one of the sergeant at arms. The noise began to die out rapidly until Mrs. Davis, the girl up in the gallery, got busy by standing up in the gallery with the picture of Roosevelt and waving that with one hand.

Girl Checked by Police.

Her voice at times could be heard even above the general uproar. One of the California men seized the big teddy bear pole and quickly ran up into the gallery with it. He stood beside her waving the pole and yelling. Pretty soon she came down on the floor, guarded by the California pole bearer and several of the Oklahoma delegates and alternates. They tried to get her on the platform, but only succeeded in boosting her up among the press seats, waving her Roosevelt picture and yelling for Teddy.

Chief of Police Schuettler finally reached her and told her to come down. The girl made no objection and was quietly lifted down to the floor. She made her way back to her seat in the gallery and again stood up in full view and yelled and bowed. By that time the demonstration had nearly worn itself out. After a few more raps of Senator Root's gavel it was all over.

—The Minister (reprovingly)—Johnny, did you catch those today? Johnny—Ye-ss, sir. That's what they get for chasin' worms on Sunday!—London Opinion.

—"Has his family got a skeleton in its closet?" "I don't know about what they've got in the closet, but they've got one in a hobble skirt!"—Answers.

—Judge—You are charged with breaking a chair over this man's head. Prisoner—I didn't mean to break the chair, yer worship.—Judge.

—Pluto patter Cerberus. "So convenient," he cried, "he can grab three of the girls' beaux at once."—New York Sun.

Plainfield, N. J., June 20, 1912.

On the third trial of the suit of City Counsel Merrey against the Paterson Guardian, this week, a great victory was scored by that paper which fearlessly criticizes public officials when it considers the occasion warrants doing so. The question at issue was as to just how far a newspaper can go in criticizing the public acts of public officials. Corporation Counsel Merrey claimed that his reputation had been injured by the criticisms published in the Guardian and that the criticisms, moreover, were not justified. In its own defense the Paterson paper pleaded justification and also the privilege of a newspaper to honestly and fairly comment on public acts of public officials. In stamping its approval on the outcome of the litigation, the Paterson News says: "It is gratifying to note the fact that juries and all fair-minded men today are beginning to arraign themselves on the side of right and justice and to realize that the only safe-guard of the community is in a free and independent press, which, by its fearless publicity, keeps the servants of the people within bounds, and by the fear of exposure prevents many illegal actions, which, but for the pitiles light of publicity, would be every day occurrences, rather than exceptional happenings.

There is a vacancy in the Health Department, Health Officer John O'Brien having resigned. We propose to the Board as his successor the name of Miss Harriet Mattison. For some years this competent young woman has been an important factor in that branch of the city government and we except none when we say that she knows more about that department, what it is, what it should do and how it should do it than any one person in the community. A year or more ago, she passed the State examination for health officers. We offer the name of Miss Mattison as a candidate for the position vacated by Mr. O'Brien, and with full faith and reliance in the membership of the Board of Health we await with confidence their decision.

It is with genuine regret that we learn of the decision of the Plainfield Anti-Tuberculosis League to close its camp during the summer. The action, of course, was compulsory inasmuch as there was no material response to the appeal for funds to carry on the splendid work during the heated season. There is some consolation to be found by the friends of the crusade against the white plague in the announcement that arrangements are being made to place the patients where they will be cared for as well as the circumstances will permit.

The Jersey Central furnished the best argument for the speedy abolishment of grade crossings when its official observation engine ran down and killed two persons at the Cedar avenue crossing, Lincoln, on Monday afternoon.

Woman at door of Chicago Coliseum snatched Col. Bryan's pocketbook. But as the Nebraskan appeared in the role of a reporter to live up to their reputation he should admit that the purse was empty.

Don't complain because your New York paper is devoting so much space to the political convention. With the Thaw trial on, you are saved from that disgusting story.

Approximately $6,000,000 is spent each year for golf balls. Speaking of high balls—

NEW PARTY TO BE BORN

their own room at the hotel. This lasted for over an hour and there were condemnatory remarks about the action of the convention yesterday. Then they all went to the Roosevelt headquarters where with other adherents they were addressed by the Colonel, who asked them to meet him again later, after he had talked things over with his lieutenants.

HARRY S. NEW, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS.

Yesterday afternoon's session was another one of the "sitting" tight and the history of the entire convention found in the general news reports describes the work of the New Jersey men. For nearly six hours, except for the forty-two minutes of continuous yelling, when Governor Hadley, of Missouri, was given an ovation, the delegation sat in their seats and listened to the round of matchless oratory from the representatives in all parts of the country.

In the midst of the yelling, former Governor Fort and James J. McCarthy picked up the New Jersey standard and started a parade through the aisles which was soon taken up by delegates from every one of the Republican States supporting Roosevelt, during which Mrs. Davis started the greatest burst of enthusiasm by waving the Roosevelt picture from the gallery. The California men started towards her with their Teddy bear on a pole, and McCarthy was right behind them with others soon following. New Jersey as a result was in the forefront of the excitement until Mrs. Davis, with her picture of Teddy, had been placed on the platform.

WILLIAM HAYWOOD, SECRETARY REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The absolute lack of enthusiasm for Mr. Taft on the part of every one supporting his candidacy was brought home to the New Jersey delegates yesterday, when in the mix-up over seats, two of the Alabama men were placed with them.

In the course of the conversation the southerners said that they did not believe that Taft could be elected after what they had seen in Chicago, but that they were opposed to Roosevelt because when he was in office before he named Democrats to office in their State instead of Republicans. Both of these men said that the Alabama men would flop in a minute to anyone whom the Republicans would offer as a compromise, whether he be a progressive or not.

© by American Press Association.

VICE PRESIDENT JAMES S. SHERMAN.

Who is not likely to be re-named.

There was talk last night of Hadley as a compromise because of the great ovation he received in the afternoon. The New Jersey men would probably vote for him if released by Mr. Roosevelt, for all consider that a progressive victory would be won in his nomination, and the old party bosses would be defeated. There seems to be willingness on the part of all machine men to drop Taft so long as they do not have to take up Roosevelt, whom they will never see nominated with the votes which they control. There is an air of suppressed excitement which leaves it hard to get any line on what the day may bring forth.

Edmond B. Osborne joined the delegation late last night. He made the trip from New York to Chicago in a special train, which left Manhattan at 2 a. m. yesterday and reached here at 7 in the evening, equal to the fastest regular train run on the road. He did not want to take a chance on missing the convention and went to an expense of over a thousand dollars for this train alone.

DEMOCRATS GET TOGETHER TODAY

Prepare to Name Temporary Convention Officers.

FEW CONTESTS EXPECTED

Plan to Give Presidential Candidate Receiving Next to Highest Vote the Nomination For Vice President Favorably Regarded In Many Quarters.

Baltimore, June 20.—National Committeeman Daniels of North Carolina is strongly urging that the Democratic convention adopt the proposition to have the candidate who receives the second highest number of votes on the final ballot accept the nomination for vice president. There was a great deal of talk about this plan prior to the meeting today to select the temporary officers of the convention.

"Of course, all the presidential candidates say they would not accept second place on the ticket, but what else could they say at this time," said Committeeman Daniels, who added that the makeup of the ticket from the geographical standpoint would be satisfactorily brought about by the adoption of the proposition.

Rival Camps Busy.

The headquarters of the various presidential candidates are in full swing, and the rival camps issued hourly claims of victory.

Secretary Woodson said that all of the contests received so far were quite minor in character.

"All in all, I don't believe there will be more than forty seats contested," said Secretary Woodson, "and these represent perhaps half a dozen delegations. No one of them is serious."

Lieutenant Governor Taylor Ellison of Virginia, the national committeeman from that state, says that several candidates in the field will receive part of the vote cast.

"Virginia will be satisfied with any good candidate," said Mr. Ellison. "The state has no candidates of its own."

Discuss Combinations.

Clark and Gaynor or Wilson, Wilson and Clark or Harmon, Harmon and Wilson or Underwood were combinations under discussion.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

THE ESCULENT CUCUMBER.

CUCUMBER salad made with vinegar and salad oil or with vinegar alone is familiar in every household. Some less well known recipes are here given for serving this vegetable.

The seeds and coarse skin must be removed from cucumbers before cooking. The ends should also be cut off. The cucumber should be sliced and soaked in cold water to crisp it if it is to be used as a salad.

A Useful Recipe.

Cucumbers In Sauce.—Pare and cut the cucumber into dice and boil in salted water till tender. Then throw the pieces into cold water for a few minutes to make them crisp. Drain and reheat in white or bechamel sauce. Serve in patty cases or on squares of toasted bread.

Dipped In Batter.

Fried Cucumbers.—Pare the cucumbers, take out the seed. Cut into half and soak in iced water for half an hour or more. Make a batter of a beaten egg, a cup of milk, a dash of salt and a large cup of prepared flour. Dry the cucumbers on a towel, dip them into this batter and fry to a golden brown in deep fat. Drain and serve.

Vegetable Fritters.

Cucumber Fritters.—Pare, cut off ends and remove the seeds from the cucumbers. Then pass the pulp through a coarse sieve. Beat an egg, season with salt and pepper and add flour to make a batter. Stir into this the cucumber. Put fat into frying pan and when it is hot drop the mixture into the pan, spoonful by spoonful, and fry like pancakes. Serve hot.

A Novel Method.

Cucumber Scallop.—Butter a baking dish and sprinkle it with breadcrumbs. Pare and take the seed from a cucumber and cut the firm white pulp into cubes. Put a layer of these in the baking dish, sprinkle with salt, pepper, minced onions and bits of butter. Then put in a row of breadcrumbs and after that more cucumber. So continue till the dish is filled. Then pour in a cup of white stock, white sauce or chicken broth. A half cup of grated cheese added to white sauce also makes a rich dressing. Bake for half an hour in a quick oven or until the crumbs brown.

VOGUE POINTS.

The Best Summer Skirts Are Simple In Design.

The smartest skirts are extremely simple in design, straight with gathers at the belt, but gathered in such a way that there is not any undesirable fullness, and the pattern of the embroidery is all the trimming necessary.

Medium and small sized flowers in wreaths and "stick up" effects, or aigrets, are a close rival to feathers on smart hats, and amber medallions and beads and bunches of silk grapes and other fruits are to be seen on many fashionable models.

Breakfast jackets combined with simple skirts make really ideal summer morning gowns. The one pictured is smart and new.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

These May Manton patterns are cut in sizes for the skirt from 22 to 30 inches waist measure and for the jacket from 34 to 44 inches bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving numbers, skirt 6919 and jacket 7456, and they will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association.
Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.
Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford, Jr.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

The passage of the act establishing a children's bureau as a division of the Department of Commerce and Labor has been a cause of rejoicing to Americans who believe that child-welfare is more essential to the nation than any material asset. Just why this bureau should be placed under Commerce and Labor and why it is made only a section is hard to tell. We are looking forward to the time when the Child and Home Department will equal in rank that of agriculture and when the knowledge of how to rear children will be as easily obtained as that pertaining to live stock.

Miss Julia Lathrop, who has been appointed head of the bureau, has long been identified with welfare work in Chicago.

Buffalo held a child-welfare exhibit May 27 to June 2, toward which the Mothers' Club donated a generous sum. There were exhibits of home occupations, of cooked food of a model cottage and of nature work.

The Lockport Mothers' Club have held meetings twice a month during the year. Some of the subjects discussed at these meetings were, "The Cost of High Living vs. the High Cost of Living," "The Evolution of Domestic Life in America, Textiles, Needlework (with exhibit of sample), Committees, The Teeth, Practical Lessons in Economics," "The Relation of Parents and Children."

The Children's Aid Society, of New York City, gave relief to 19,828 poor and ailing children and mothers last summer and hope to reach the 20,000 mark this year. One of the society's summer charities is at Bath Beach. The property has a water frontage of 450 feet, within sight of the open sea. There is a boys' camp at Denville, N. J., a Health Home at Coney Island and a Convalescents' Children's Home at Chappaqua, N. Y.

Milton P. Higgins has bequeathed $1,000 by will to the Massachusetts Congress of Mothers.

The epidemic of diphtheria which has been raging at Woodbridge, N. J., for the past week and which closed the churches, has been traced to a milkman who continued to supply his customers after the disease had appeared at his farm.

"A boy's loyalty to his gang, although condemned by many, is really a trait that is commendable," declares Judge Lindsay. "Nurtured and developed in the right direction the same spirit that causes him to refuse to 'squeal' on his gang can be developed into one of the biggest assets of the state. It is all in the way you handle the boy. My prescription is wise sympathy, plus patience, plus more patience, plus a kindly understanding, plus firmness, real firmness. Above all be careful and on the level. Submit a boy to one unjust punishment and he is through with you; catch him red-handed or punish him for a thing he has really done and you gain his respect."

Mrs. Clarence E. Allen, chairman of the National Department of Marriage Sanctity, reports the following: The committee has had a busy year of correspondence. A search for authorities on the subject revealed the fact that there is little information in print.

We then sent seventy-nine letters to theological seminaries asking them to state what they were teaching on the subject of monogamous or Christian marriage. Only two flippant replies were received. One secretary replied on a postal, "Madam, we do not teach matrimony at our seminary," and another shyly announced his embarrassment at the question.

A summary of the replies indicate that the Protestant seminaries, as a whole, are not teaching in a systematic manner the principles of monogamic (meaning one) marriage. The Episcopal and Swedenborgian churches are exceptions to the rule. We received a courteous letter from Cardinal Gibbons, giving exact detailed account of the Roman Catholic instruction in marriage.

The inevitable conclusion of the committee is, that the agencies for the preservation of the Christian standard of marriage are to a great extent quiescent, over-confident, and in a state inviting attack and defeat.

One great advantage to this righteous cause is that the Congress of Mothers is organized into a body which, if aroused, will resist to the last any effort to make lawful another form of marriage. A most serious attack comes, as in all warfare from the hands of those who should be friends. The movement for eugenics, on the face of it, is in the interest of child-welfare and yet the leaders, whose characters are beyond reproach, like many men of science, attach too great importance to human knowledge. Asked if they had yet declared for monogamous marriage, they reply, "No, we are investigating these questions. Many of our most thoughtful people are beginning to question the wisdom of permanent marriage." Still if the eugenic movement is turned to investigate the moral effect of promiscuous sexual relations, science may become the handmaiden of religion. But if eugenics has to do with only physical results we can expect no help from these well-meaning but mistaken scientific students.

But more than all else, more than the silence of religious teachers, the demoralizing implications of modern fiction, the power of commercialized vice, the increase of divorce, the disruption of family life by economic conditions, more than all these, the power and influence of the Mormon Church is breaking the monogamous standard of marriage. This problem must be met and conquered. Now is the time to do it, before the Mothers' Congress itself has become corrupted by polygamous influence. In all great national organizations, excepting one or two, are found Mormon members, active and watchful.

The polygamous children in Mormondom, 10,000 borne since statehood, are entitled to sympathy. They have a serious handicap, the taint of false rearing. We can read through the whole pages of history the effect of adultery on character. No surface superstructure of playgrounds, good amusements, good reading, good food, sanitation, baby-saving, or any other measure will avail if the principle of monogamous marriage is given up.

Who would find the prosperous way,
The laws of order must obey;
Who would win a happy fate,
Must learn his time to regulate.
He whom this practice shall annoy,
Will be bereft of many a joy.
Then teach the child to value order, time,
For these are priceless gifts in every clime.

DECISION RESERVED IN LIABILITY CASE

Charles Arnold's Name Eliminated From Injured Carpenter's $3,000 Petition.

Elizabeth, June 20 (Special).—Judge Atwater reserved decision yesterday afternoon in Common Pleas Court on the petition of Peter A. VanFleet, of Plainfield, for $3,000 compensation as the result of injuries sustained when he fell from the scaffolding on a building on which he worked as a carpenter and which was situated on Green Brook Road, Plainfield. He claimed that the scaffold was covered with ice.

The defendants first named were Walter and Charles Arnold, the builders, but on the motion of W. S. Angleman and William DeMeza, for the Arnolds, Charles Arnold's name was eliminated, it being shown that he had nothing to do with the hiring of Van Fleet, who is 67 years old. The court refused to non-suit the case on the application of counsel for defendant, who alleged wilful negligence on the part of the petitioner.

The defendant contended that it was only a casual employment, and that, therefore, it would be unfair to burden Arnold with damages to the extent of $3,000, when Van Fleet's employment was only temporary.

The Employer's Liability law does not cover this phase of liability very clearly, in the opinion of several lawyers.

The case had been adjourned from last week. S. S. Swackhamer represented the petitioner. This is the first contest under the new law in the Union county court, several other petitions for compensation having been granted by mutual agreement.

CORONER DECIDES NOT TO HOLD AN INQUEST

Middlesex Co. Official Won't Probe Lincoln Fatalities, But Township Com. Will.

Lincoln, June 20.—Coroner William Harding, of New Brunswick, has decided not to hold an inquest over the bodies of Rev. Nathaniel R. Foster, of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Samuel Zucker, his cousin, of Pelham Manor, N. Y., who were killed by a Central Railroad observation engine at the Cedar avenue crossing Monday afternoon.

The victims were in an automobile and were on their way to Imlaystown, where the minister was to have performed a marriage ceremony. The chauffeur of the car, Eugene Nauheim, is in the Somerset Hospital, Somerville, with injuries which it was thought at first would prove fatal. It was said, however, that his recovery is expected.

George Harris, chairman of the Piscataway Township Committee, who lives near the scene of the accident, said today that he would call a meeting of the committee, at which he expected blame for the fatality would be placed on the railroad company. He added that the crossing was one of the most dangerous in the county.

"The Lehigh and Central crossings," he said, "pass close together at the point where the accident occurred. We have repeatedly asked for protection in the form either of gongs, a flagman, a signal tower or gates, but the companies replied that they would do nothing. Then we took our complaint to the State Railroad Commission, and the result was that an order was issued requesting the railroad companies to put up signs at the tracks with the words, 'Danger. Two Railroad Crossings.'"

Mr. Harris went on to say that at the point where the tracks cross there is a decided pitch in the road, and further that a view of the tracks is obscured by a clump of trees.

Postmaster M. F. Wirtz said yesterday that the unprotected crossing has been a menace to the community for twenty years, despite the efforts of the township authorities to improve conditions.

The bodies of Rev. Mr. Foster and Mrs. Zucker were removed from Runyon's undertaking place Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Foster's was sent to his former home near Imlaystown, and Mrs. Zucker's to her home in Pelham Manor.

MAY TAX "SIGNBOARDS."

Rahway, June 20.—Discussion of the question of assessing "sign boards" by the Common Council ended in City Attorney F. V. Dobbins' opinion being asked regarding the signs reduced in height to conform with the new building code. Mr. Dobbins said as the "sign boards" had been previously erected to the passing of the ordinance that nothing could be done, but that the property upon which they are built can be taxed.

—Neuman Bros. will have for tomorrow's trade a large assortment of fancy Jersey strawberries for canning.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

The Giants defeated Boston in a ten-inning battle yesterday and incidentally added another victory to Marquard's fourteen.

It counted as Marquard's fifteen straight, as the score was a tie when he entered the box in the eighth.

His work in the final inning prevented the possibility of the score being tied again as Sweeney was on third and only one out.

Kirke popped an easy fly to Fletcher and Jackson struck out, thus ending the game.

Timely hitting by Home-Run Baker put an end to the Washington team's reign of terror.

He tied the score in the ninth stanza of the first game by punching a homer over the right field fence, and his two singles and a double were responsible for three of the four runs scored by the world's champions in the second get-away.

Yale won the 1912 baseball series from Harvard on Soldier's Field yesterday afternoon in a well played game before an immense class-day crowd.

At the close of yesterday's game, Dana J. P. Wingate was elected captain of Harvard's baseball nine for 1913.

The first annual athletic meet of the local Y. M. C. A. is beginning to take on the aspects of an all-star attraction.

Physical Director Ostlin reports that the entries are coming in fast and several of the merchants have already sent in their donations to be used as prizes.

The meet will be open to every athletic club in the State and will bring forth some of the best athletes now in the game.

It now remains for the athlete who has been lying dormant around here, awaiting just such a chance as this, to get in line and put a local flavor into the affair.

The prizes will range from a footstool up to a pair of gold cuff buttons, set with diamonds.

Hadley, the Temple Baptist first sacker, who had his leg broken in last Saturday's game, is reported as resting as comfortably as can be expected at this time.

ATHLETIC MEET BLANKS.

The official entry blanks for the first annual outdoor field and track meet of the Plainfield Y. M. C. A., have arrived and can be obtained by any prospective contestant by applying at Mr. Ostlin's office in the Y. M. C. A. The regulation form of entry as prescribed by the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States is in use, and any one entering will be required to comply with the regulation rules of registration, as provided by this body. Handsome prizes have been offered by he merchants of this city, and a large delegation of athletes from the Metropolitan district are expected to compete. This meet has been made possible and the numerous valuable prizes secured through the efforts of Jack Fritts and E. C. Ostlin, of the local Y. M. C. A., and these two will comprise a committee who will furnish any further information required.

ALL STARS EXPECT TO TRIM PLAINSMEN

Strong Combination Made up by Manager Thompson for Next Sunday's Game.

The all-star team of the Manufacturers' League will play the Scotch Plains team at that place next Sunday afternoon and Manager Thompson predicts a victory for the Plainfield aggregation. He has picked out a team of the choicest material in the league and will put them through a stiff practice on the Myrtle avenue grounds next Friday afternoon.

The pitching department of the all-star team will be taken care of by Howard Freeman who lead the Yale twirlers on the diamond in 1910 and is among the league's best batters. Freeman will be ably assisted by Krafts, of the Public Service, who is at present in mid-season form.

Linke and Rowen will look after the backstop work and two men better fitted for this job would be hard to find. Linke has just returned from Lehigh University where he took an active part in athletics and is in fine physical condition. Rowen is a former Iron State Leaguer, and has a batting average over the three hundred mark and a high fielding average.

Conover will look after the initial sack and is one of the best all-around men in the league. Because of his ability to hit the pill he is known as the Baker of the League.

Britt Martin, who is at present leading the Dunellen team, will take care of the second sack for the all-star aggregation. He has retained his old time form in both fielding and batting and should prove one of the most valuable men on the team. Emmons, the hard hitting second sacker of the Commercials, and Sullivan, of the Public Service team, will be the second string men for this position.

Garretson, the star backstop of the Public Service combination, will canter around the difficult corner where he is just as much at home as he is behind the bat.

The short stop position was one of the hardest places to pick because of the many formidable candidates at hand to choose from. It will probably be a matter of contention between Evans and DeNitizio for this all-important spot.

The outfield will be looked after by O'Loughlin, captain of the Spicer nine, Reick, also of the Spicers, and Jack Fritts of the Commercials. O'Loughlin is one of the brainiest ball players in this city and at present leads the league in pilfered sacks. Southpaw Reick is surely letting his friends know that there are others who can come back by the way he is hitting the ball and fielding. Jack Fritts, the former Y. M. C. A. captain and star all-around man is rounding into shape and will be a great help to his team with his consistent stick work.

The managers of the all-star team have a number of good men still on their list who are at present under their watchful eye and as fast as they show the calibre necessary they will be given trials.

DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIPS AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

The annual doubles tennis championships of the Plainfield Country Club will be held on the club courts beginning Saturday, June 22. The event is expected to attract the best players of the club.

Play will begin at 2:30 p. m. and continue throughout the afternoon. Entries can be given to any member of the tennis committee, and will close at 8:15 p. m., Friday, June 21. The drawing will be made at the residence of Henry W. Brower, 440 West Eighth street.

ENTRIES COMING IN FOR JUNIOR TOURNEY

Boy Golfers of Metropolitan District Play Here Next Tuesday.

Entries in the Metropolitan Golf Junior Tournament, to be held at the Plainfield Country Club next Tuesday, are beginning to come in. No efforts will be spared to make the tournament a success. The committee desires especially that the younger boys in Plainfield shall enter; and personal invitations have been sent to many parents, requesting that the names of the boys be sent in.

It is not necessary that any boy should stay out merely because he has not played golf recently. The whole purpose of this tournament is to stimulate interest and give the boys a good time. Among Plainfield boys who have already entered are: John Zerega, D. C. Philips, Roger Melick, Clay Irons, Edward Wallace, Leonard Church. From other clubs there are several entries already: Richard Banks, Briarcliff; John Beals and H. H. Noyes, Wykagyl; A. D. Prentiss, New Brunswick; Edmund Nash, Apawamis; Hulbert Bassett, Baltusrol; Nicholas E. Smith, Scarsdale, and Philip Carter, the Long Island boy wonder. There are also Stuart Connelly, of Rockland, and Edgar Grier, of the Suburban Club, Elizabeth.

The Park Golf Club boys, under 19 years of age, have also been invited to send in their names through their club secretary, although the Park Club is not a member of the Metropolitan Golf Association. This was arranged through the influence of Leighton Calkins.

All boys who enter for the tournament are invited to a special dance at the clubhouse on Monday evening, June 24. This applies to boys from the Park Club as well, even though they may not be members of the Country Club. The new rule restricting all dances to members and out-of-town guests will not apply to boys who enter from the Park Club for this tournament.

The boys belonging to the Country Club are urged to telephone their names at once to the club superintendent, whether they are golf rusty or not. It will help the Country Club to make a success of this tournament if its boys will come out and support it by playing.

"Sam" Rothberg Stands Head and Foot Over Everyone in Spreading Good Cheer

There are lots of men who would be warming a park bench instead of putting every ounce of strength into their efforts to uplift themselves, but for the fact that an unexpected incident put new life into them.

The unexpected incident was—a New Suit of Clothes.

Did you ever put on a new suit of clothes and feel your blood flow through you with added vigor, your befogged brain freshen up? Of course you did—any man who ever put on a new suit for the first time does!

I price my suits $5 lower than the other stores—cash buying and cash selling is the reason.

Are you feeling "out of sorts?"

POULTRY FANCIERS PLANNING A SHOW

Enthusiastic in Arranging Preliminary Steps for Exhibition to Be Held Here.

Although the date scheduled for the first poultry show of Plainfield is as far off as November 25, yet the different committees are working energetically and have made splendid progress as reports submitted at a meeting held last night showed. Sydney R. Clarke, Westfield, presided. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $43.45, and an increase of five new members.

The chairman having congratulated those present on the interest taken went on to speak of the organization of the New Jersey Association for Poultry Improvement and their intention of making the coming show, which would be held in Sebring's auditorium from November 25 to November 30, such a success that it would become an annual feature.

W. H. Taverner, of Westfield, then presented to the show committee a beautiful cup to be awarded to whatever class they saw fit. A rising vote of thanks was passed to him. Rufus Delafield, a well known breeder, also announced his intention of presenting a cup.

The secretary, J. H. Kimball, then read a communication from Professor Lewis, of the State Experiment Station, New Brunswick, asking them to co-operate with him in obtaining a poultry census of the State. It was decided that they should help in this commendable purpose.

Joseph Weiner, chairman of the show committee, read replies received from several judges who had been written to and it was decided to accept the services of J. Harry Woelshofer, of Vineland, who is an noted expert in all classes. He is a brother-in-law of Dr. Thomas A. Platt, Jr., of Dunellen.

Next the question of advertising and publicity was taken up and plans were outlined. Incidentally the chairman mentioned that Mayor G. W. V. Moy had extended his hearty co-operation to the show, and given them a free license, which interesting piece of information was cordially received; as were also offers of help in various ways by members of the association.

PLAN FOR WORKING COUNTY'S PRISONERS

Freeholder Doane Suggests Employing Them at Bonnie Burn.

At the weekly inspection of the county jail by the Jail Committee of the Board of Freeholders, the attention of the committee was formally called by Freholder J. Hervey Doane, of this city, to a recommendation he had prepared regarding the employment of prisoners at the Bonnie Burn Sanatorium and to the imprisonment of Charles Pilawski, who is being confined for just the sort of offense that suggests the employment of prisoners.

At present there is need of three laborers at the sanatorium, and unless the freeholders as a whole board approve of the recommendation for giving work to prisoners, other men will have to be engaged. The matter will be considered at the adjourned meeting of the board tomorrow.

Pilawski has been confined to the jail since last January, when a judgment for $500 was entered against him in the Circuit Court for breach of promise. The young woman, who asserted that he had proven himself false, insisted on the judgment being satisfied.

In lieu of other goods and chattels that the prisoner could be divested of, he was seized on a body warrant, which stipulated that he remain in the county institution until the $500 was paid to the young woman for her shattered affections. There is no possible chance of his obtaining this sum by remaining a prisoner unless he is given some work to do.

The attention of the last Grand Jury was called to this condition, and it is understood that a recommendation was made to have the man released rather than to continue a boarder at the expense of the county. On an order from Judge Vail, and with the sanction of the board, Pilawski may be released; but if the freeholders adopt the plan of giving employment to prisoners jailed for this sort of offense, instead of being a liability to the county they will be an asset.

The Charity Organization Society began an agitation for the employment of prisoners some time ago, suggested to the freholders by a formal letter that prisoners in the county jail for desertion or non-support should be put to work on the county roads. The money they could earn in this manner would pay their own board to the county, and what remained could be used toward the support of their families, which, in nearly all cases of this nature, are left destitute.

Opposition to this plan was found in labor unions and the scheme was about to be abandoned when the idea was conceived to employ the men at Bonnie Burn. That institution, when completed, will have a farm as an adjunct, and while some of the inmates will be employed in the fields, there will be plenty of work to keep busy during the summer season a number of men who otherwise will be idle in the jail, having their health impaired by the close confinement in addition to being an expenses to the county.

Address Hold Up High Schools For Class Members to Follow—Long List of Prizes and Awards—The Graduates.

Before an audience that filled the auditorium the forty-second commencement of the Plainfield High School was held last night in the First Baptist church. Fifty-one graduates were given diplomas. The church was decorated with ferns, lilies, carnations, palms and American Beauty roses, with a charming effect. The girl graduates occupied the foreground of the picture dressed in white. The members of the Board of Education were also groupsed on the platform.

Rev. Dr. M. McGee Waters, pastor of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational church, Brooklyn, gave the address of the evening. In the course of it he said there were three great aims or ideals that the graduates should strive to keep before them. They were work, culture and service. Under the first head he emphasized the fact that the American race was above all things else a working people. And it was this ideal of work that raised them to their present high position among the nations of the world. There were only three ways of getting on in the world, he continued, and there were by working, begging or stealing. And it was not only those who were clad in the garb of hobos who were beggars but it was also those who clad in soft raiment, took and took, and did not give out.

The world belonged to the worker.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH PLANNED

Afternoon and Evening Program to Be Presented Free at City Playground.

BIG ATHLETIC MEET

Fireworks Display After Dark—Popular Subscriptions Required to Bear Expense of Pyrotechnics—Contributions Begin to Flow In.

Plans are being made to give the city its first public safe and sane Fourth of July celebration. The program for the day will have two features, a great athletic meet and band concert at Parker Field in the afternoon and a display of fire works and concert in the same place in the evening.

In co-operation with the Playground Commission, which has Parker Field at its disposal, a group of interested men, headed by Physical Director E. C. Ostlin, of the Y. M. C. A., is arranging a big athletic carnival to be given from two to six o'clock in the afternoon. Fourteen exciting events are included. It is expected that 200 of the leading amateur athletes of New Jersey will participate. A band has been engaged by the Playground Commission for the occasion, and it will play a program of inspiring and patriotic numbers during the contests. As on Labor Day of last year, when the field was first thrown open to the public, no admission will be charged.

In the evening an exhibition of fire works will be given in the same place under the direction of a committee representing the civic and welfare organizations of the city and borough and consisting of Councilman F. H. Holt, Councilman M. C. VanArsdale, G. S. Simons, E. M. Laing W. L. Smalley and H. H. Coward, treasurer. The expense of this display will be made up by voluntary subscriptions. It will be as elaborate as the funds given for the purpose will permit.

Contributions are invited from every one. They may be sent or handed to H. H. Coward at the City National Bank.

It is hoped that the people of the city and borough will assist by their attendance in making this second holiday celebration at Plainfield's recreation center even a greater success than the first.

The following contributions have already been made:

MOTHER ADMITS SHE KILLED TOT

Mrs. Henry Makes Confession of Guilt to Assistant Prosecutor W. Hetfield, Jr.

IS PROBABLY INSANE

Lyons Farm Mystery Cleared up After Long Examination of the Mother—Says She Bought Knife to Use on Herself.

Sobbing, crying and wringing her hands, Mrs. Charles Henry, of Hollywood avenue, Lyons Farms, Elizabeth, flung herself at the feet of Assistant Prosecutor Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., last evening, and confessed that she had murdered her three-year-old daughter, Mary Louise, the night before. Walter Harrington, who had been arrested on suspicion of the crime, was at once released.

When the assistant prosecutor arrived at his office yesterday, preparatory to examining Mrs. Henry he reviewed the case carefully. He came to the conclusion that the murder could only have been committed by a burglar, a revengeful or an insane person. By a careful line of deduction he eliminated the first two and centred his attentions on the third.

During examination the mother of the child clung to the story she had told about the mysterious man rushing out of the house, but under a fire of questions she broke down and cried out that she had cut the child's throat because she disobeyed her. Frequently during the examination she exclaimed:

"I can't bear that man's eyes staring at me! It's awful to be suspected of murdering your own child!" She fainted several times, and restoratives were applied. Then when she admitted the crime she was taken to the county jail, while the husband was released.

Mrs. Henry said she put the child to bed about 8:30 o'clock. The child was cross and she tried to coax her to sleep, but in vain. Finally she promised that she herself would go to sleep in the same room, and then, under gentle crooning, the little one's eyes closed. Picking up an aluminum fruit knife, purchased the day before, she placed a handkerchief over her own eyes, shielded those of the child with her hand and then slashed the baby's throat.

Stealthily she crept from the room and on to the lawn, where, in order to throw off suspicion, she proceeded to water the flowers. Then she returned to the house and pretended to the neighbors that she had just discovered the murder. She said she saw a dark, short man leave the premises, and the neighbors at once organized a posse and searched for the murderer.

Mrs. Henry said she had been in a nervous condition and in poor health for some months. "I wanted to kill myself with the knife," she said, "and that is the reason I bought it."

When she placed the child on the bed she asked her to pray, and accompanied her in prayer, she said. Then she waited until sleep came to the little girl, in the mean time removing valuables from a bureau drawer and laying them on the floor for the purpose of making the authorities believe the murder was committed for purposes of robbery.

VOTE AGAINST UNSEATING OF SEVENTY-TWO DELEGATES

(American Press Association.)

Chicago, June 21, 3:30 p. m.—On a roll call the convention has voted not to oust the 72 delegates to whose credentials Hadley objected.

The motion was defeated by 501 to 499.

Chicago, June 21, 3 p. m.—The convention is taking a vote on a motion by Governor Hadley to rule out the 72 excepted delegates. The motion was brought forward when the Credentials Committee presented a partial report involving the seating of the contested delegates. The motion was entertained by Temporary Chairman Elihu Root and a role call ordered.

(American Press Association.)

Chicago, June 21, 3 p. m.—The National Republican Convention met at 11 o'clock (noon N. Y. time) but did not come to order till noon (1 p. m. N. Y. time) when the Credentials' Committee reported on the Alabama contest (North District) declaring that the election of Taft delegates was regular.

CREDENTIALS' WORK.

Chicago, June 21, 10 a. m.—After an all-night session the credentials committee of the Republican National Convention had at 6 o'clock this morning settled only fourteen of the seventy-two contests considered vital by Governor Hadley and the Roosevelt leaders in their appeal from the decisions of the national committee. All of them, together with twenty that the credentials committee took up on its own initiative, were settled for President Taft. The decisions were: Alabama, Ninth District, two delegates; Arizona, six delegates at large; Arkansas, Fifth District, two; California, Fourth District, two; Florida, six delegates at large, and two each from the First, Second and Third districts; Georgia, four delegates at large; Indiana, four delegates at large, and two from the Thirteenth District. By 9 o'clock the Seventh Kentucky had been given to Taft by a vote of 27 to 8, and the Eighth Kentucky by 22 to 7.

T. R. AND A DEMOCRAT MAY BE THIRD TICKET

(By Leslie R. Fort.)
(Special despatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, June 21.—New Jersey's twenty-eight delegates will occupy their seats in the longest Republican National Convention since 1880 until the last roll is called but they will sit as quietly as the proverbial clam unless the roll which they maintain is fraudulent is purged. In this determination they join, with all Roosevelt delegations at the convention.

When the resolutions committee reports, which may be today, but is more likely to be delayed for some time, the Roosevelt faction will, as a result of a vote taken last night in headquarters, make one more determined effort to purge the roll in case the resolutions committee votes against them. This fight will be made in an effort to substitute a minority report of the committee if the majority report favors the continuation of the seventy-eight fraudulent votes which is expected.

If this effort is unsuccessful, the New Jersey men will not leave the convention. They will sit in their seats and when the roll is called the chairman of the delegation will announce "New Jersey refuses to vote in a fraudulent convention." There will be no bolt. Instead the chances are that the majority of the delegation from New Jersey there, being but three who are wavering, will remain in Chicago after the regular convention adjourns and will assist in the establishment of a new party.

If such action takes place Colonel Roosevelt will be nominated by that convention and the probabilities are that some prominent and progressive Democrat will be sought as the vice presidential candidate. Former Governor Franklin Murphy, it is reported, told a Trenton newspaper correspondent early this morning that the Taft forces are now confident of their position and are going to proceed with the nomination of Mr. Taft with James S. Sherman, of New York, his present vice president, as his running mate. Mr. Sherman is said to be willing to run again and the situation is so complicated here that no other candidate has been suggested for the office. It seems to be the consensus of opinion on both sides that any ticket with Mr. Taft at the head cannot win and that he is being used only to defeat Roosevelt and not with the idea of party success in the fall.

EXPECT CONVENTION TO RUN INTO NEXT WEEK

(By Leslie R. Fort.)
(Special despatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, June 21.—There is no telling now when the New Jersey party will leave for home. Until the credentials committee reports the probabilities are that no action of any kind will be taken by the convention and that it will adjourn from time to time. After it does report there will be the platform to adopt, which, of course, will not be opposed unless the roll is purged and then the presidential and vice presidential nominations will have to be made. The La Follette men will place him in nomination even if the roll is not purged, according to the present program, and the chances are that Cummins' name will also be presented. After the presidential nomination there will be the vice presidential candidate to be named and then the convention will adjourn.

If it gets through by Saturday night it will be surprising and if the independent convention is held it will take a couple days longer. The New Jersey party will stay for this.

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS CAUGHT BY A JERSEYMAN

(Special despatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, June 20.—Every succeeding meeting the crowds at the Republican National Convention seem to grow larger. This year the great interest in the nomination because of the adoption of the direct primary in so many of the principal northern states has also brought the politicians

CLASS 1912 LEAVES P. H. S.

In ages gone by it belonged to the poet; then to the priest; but now it was the property of the worker.

On the question of culture he had this to say: It was a mistake to think that culture was only to be had at high school and college. It was when they went out on the highway of life and associated with mankind that culture broadened and deepened. Many people were afraid of the world 'culture" like the maiden lady who was afraid of the moon until she heard that there was a man in it. Real culture did not mean "aristocracy," but true democracy. It was something that tended for enrichment, enlargement ,adn strengthening of manhood. It was not a conventional veneer. The great men of this country with few exceptions were college men. He deprecated the tendency of those who wished to get on the soft cushions of life's car, and said that it took the hard knocks and deep experience to make men, and women of them.

In the matter of personal service Dr. Waters advised the graduates to forget themselves and serve their kind. They all had a message to express and an ideal to live up to, and there was no nobler ideal than that of personal service to their fellows.

The salutatory address was delivered by Effie Alice Beekman and the valedictory by Helen Louise Woolley.

Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong offered the invocation. The presentation of rewards and prizes were made by Dr. B. vanD. Hedges. The list of prizes and winners appears in another column.

William S. Tyler, president of the Board of Education, presented the diplomas and when the name of "Theodore Roosevelt" Champlin, one of the graduates, was called it received quite an ovation. A march, "The Triumph of Old Glory," by Suhr's Imperial orchestra, brought the exercises to a close.

Among the students receiving degrees at Rutgers College, this week, was John DeLancy Ferguson, of Sherman avenue, who was given the degree of master of arts. Mr. Ferguson was graduated from Rutgers last year with the degree of bachelor of arts and since then has been working under Dr. Austin Scott, as holder of the Fellowship of Political Science. TODAY THE LONGEST IN THE WHOLE YEAR

Today is longer by sixty seconds than any other day in the year. Residents in this part of the country will be treated to fifteen hours and six minutes of sunlight. The sun rose this morning at twenty-eight minutes after four o'clock and will set this evening at twenty-six minutes to eight o'clock.

Yesterday morning the sun rose at the same hour, but set one minute earlier last evening than it will today. Tomorrow morning the sun will rise one minute later than this morning and will set at the same time it does tonight. There will be five hours and fifty-three minutes more of sunlight today than there will be on December 21, 1912, when the sun will not rise until twenty-one minutes after seven o'clock in the morning and will set at twenty-six minutes to five o'clock in the afternoon.

HURRY ALONG!

IF YOU WANT TO OWN PROPERTY

AT A SHORE RESORT

Now's the time to speculate in water front property, as supply and demand create increased values and the demand for property along the shores is increasing all the time. The day is not far off when there won't be enough to supply the demand, as nature is creating no more shore front property, and that limitation must mean big profits to owners of lots on or near the shore.

Fortunes are constantly being made in Real Estate located along the Jersey coast. The history of Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other famous resorts are well known to all. In 1888 a small parcel of unimproved property was offered for $8,000 and it was hard to find a buyer at that figure. Some few years later this same sand dune without any improvements sold for $417,000; today the present owner would not sell for $1,200,000.

The early history of Atlantic City is that it sold for $200. Now the property on the boardwalk is worth $1,000 to $5,000 a front foot. A recent sale there was a plot at $150,000, which less than ten years ago sold for $6,000. Besides, other lots at a popular watering resort could be bought for a few hundred dollars which today are worth $40,000 to $50,000.

Ocean Gate is young, but is growing faster than any other shore resort on any coast, and water front lots and other sites at present prices are a good purchase, for big profits in the near future. History is bound to repeat itself, and why not? Ocean Gate is within easy riding distance by rail from Asbury Park, Belmar, Sea Girt and Point Pleasant, and other shore resorts, and we are offering very choice bungalow lots on new section at prices as low as $50, upon convenient monthly payments. Shore front lots and business sites at attractive prices and terms.

Write, call or phone for tickets for our Free Guest train to Ocean Gate on Sunday next, in the forenoon.

PARENTS OF BOY CAMPERS TO MEET AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Under the auspices of the boys' work committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., the parents of the boys who are going to the Y. M. C. A. camp this summer will meet at the Y. M. C. A. next Monday night. The invitation to the parents explains the idea of the gathering. It says in part:

"This will give you an opportunity to meet the boys who are going to camp; some of the leaders who will accompany them; the officers of the association; some of the members of the Women's Auxiliary who do so much for the boys, and to ask any question that will help you.

"This kind of a gathering in the past two years was one of the pleasant occasions in connection with our summer camp plans and we trust that you will find it convenient to help make Monday evening a happy one."

At a recent meeting of the boys, Joseph Sattels was appointed class leader; Holmes Clawson, chairman; and Carter Goodrich, William Wheelan, Edward Ryder and Esty Foster a committee to assist on Monday night.

Plainfield, N. J., June 21, 1912.

An heroic figure passed from a sphere of usefulness when Brigadier General Edward S. Bragg died yesterday afternoon at his home in Wisconsin. Bragg was the commander of the famous Iron Brigade in the Federal army during the Civil War and was distinguished for his gallantry on the field of battle. At Antietam, so the story is told, he was ordered by his superior officer to push the enemy as far as it was safe to do so, to which he replied that he had been in an unsafe position for some time at the same moment giving the command "Forward!" As a congressman, as minister to Cuba and as consul-general at Hong Kong he also rendered service to his country. In years to come, however, he will be best known for his oft-quoted saying, when nominating Grover Cleveland for the Presidency in 1884, "We love him for the enemies he has made."

Margate City, at the lower end of Absecon Bay, in Atlantic county, claims the honor of being the first municipality in New Jersey under commission rule to enforce the referendum feature of the Walsh Act. It seems that the commissioners in that tiny community on May 14 introduced an ordinance providing for the establishment of a beach front park to cost $2,000. Fifteen per cent. of the voters signed a petition of protest and the commissioners accordingly called an election to submit the proposition to the people. On Tuesday next the voters will decide themselves whether the ordinance in question shall be adopted. Commission government, as you see, means rule by the people.

The contributed editorial to appear in tomorrow's issue will be written by Henry K. Carroll, Ph. D. It is needless to call attention to the fact that this valued resident of North Plainfield is a man who never minces words when he speaks or writes and that his expressions always contain some thought to set others thinking. The Saturday Contributed Editorial, we believe, is one of the most popular features of this rapidly growing newspaper, and tomorrow's discussion, coming as it does from this distinguished citizen will be fully in keeping with the high standard set when the feature was introduced some months ago.

Charity Circle, of the City Union of The King's Daughters, has sent to the Daily Press its check for $5.00 for the fund to be raised by this paper for the Baby Camp conducted by the Union. There is no grander work carried on here during the heated season than this which provides every comfort for the babies of the poor. Remember the tots in a substantial way by contributing a few dollars to the worthy cause.

In electing H. H. Pond, the secretary and treasurer of the institution, as one of their number the directors of the Plainfield Trust Company yesterday paid a deserved tribute to his worth in promoting the interests of the stockholders and the ever increasing depositors. Since coming here two years ago, Mr. Pond has played no small part in the marvelous growth of that enterprising and popular institution.

When the Daily Press European tourists boarded the train this afternoon for Philadelphia, the lucky young women started on a trip that will prove not only an enjoyable summer outing o fmore than eight weeks but a journey of rare educational value. It is an opportunity that does not fall to the lot of many young women and we feel that the Plainfield party will be greatly benefitted by it.

The Daily Press acknowledges receipt of $5.00, contributed by Mr. nd Mrs. Charles F. Debele, for the fund being raised by Continental chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to place a memorial at Washington Rock.

The very latest and the most reliable news from the Chicago Coliseum, where the Republican National convention is in session, right up to the moment of going to press is to be found each afternoon in the Daily Press.

ON THE EVE OF GREAT TRIP

England, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland and France, as given in detail in this newspaper a few days ago. The Plainfielders are due to return home on August 11.

The young people were given a "send-off" at the North Avenue Station by their many friends who gathered there to wish them bon voyage. The party will spend this afternoon and evening sight-seeing in the Quaker City. They will spend the night at the Colonnade Hotel so as to be in readiness to board the steamer

Miss Helen Howard.
(Who will accompany the five young women starting today on an eight-weeks' tour of Europe as the guests of the Daily Press.)

early tomorrow morning.

This delightful two months' tour to be enjoyed by the sextette is made possible by the contest conducted by the Plainfield Daily Press which closed on April 6. The five young women were the winners in that contest by reason of the fact that in their respective districts they secured the greatest number of votes.

Miss Mabel Vail having secured the highest number of votes of any of the winners, was privileged to select the chaperone, who will be Miss Helen Howard, of Higham, Mass. It is expected that letters will be received regularly from the young women detailing the progress of the trip, so that the friends at home may be kept in touch with the party.

Among those who accompanied the tourists to Philadelphia were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Arnsberg, the latter the mother of Mrs. Clarence Brokaw; Mrs. Adelbert Vail and Mrs. Frank Knight, mother and sister of Miss Mabel Vail; Mr. and Mrs. George Leighs and son, George E. Leighs. Mrs. W. J. Hudson, mother of Miss Ethel Hudson and the latter's grandmother will go to Philadelphia tomorrow morning in time to see the party sail.

in those states out in greater numbers than ever before. In nearly every delegation chosen by the new order of things, from fifty to seventy-five per cent. of the men are here for the first time to attend a gathering of the kind, and they are absorbing everything with interest. In addition to these new men, many of the old time politicians who have not missed a convention in years, have been unable to resist the temptation to see the crowds, together with the opportunity of greeting old time friends, and they are here in just as great numbers as ever, although their part in the actual working of the convention is nil. In the case of New Jersey practically the same members of the organization who were here four years ago, and who were defeated for delegates this year are on hand. Senator Briggs is the only one who is conspicuous by his absence.

There are the same bands, singing, parades, speeches, and other forms of excitement, but it is all on one side. The Taft people have hardly been heard from since the crowds began to gather, except through interviews given out by the leaders of the supporting element. Aside from infrequent showing of Taft badges and buttons by a few of the delegates who are supporting him, his name is hardly mentioned. Chicago as a city is for Teddy, and his buttons and flags, all sorts of "hats in the ring," and other things characteristic of the rough rider, are to be seen everywhere. Even the barkers have more souvenirs to remind the passersby of T. R. than they have of Taft. The Taft people are really the quietest group that has ever boosted a man at a national convention. His name is seldom heard in the crowds; and on Tuesday, the organization day, was only mentioned twice during the entire eight hours of fighting, and neither time did it raise the slightest enthusiasm. He is being used merely as a means to fight Roosevelt by the machine politicians, and it would not be surprising if he were dropped entirely as a candidate by the time this appears in print. This latter seems improbable, however, for the Taft men are afraid to propose a compromise for fear the votes they now hold will immediately shift to Roosevelt. It is the most remarkable situation the history of the country has ever known.

Teddy has a double who is creating plenty of amusement for the crowd, as many at first sight believe that he is the real thing. His name is J. M. Keyes, and he is a congressman from the Fifth Massachusetts district. On Monday morning he was in Colonel Roosevelt's room when the New Jerseymen called to pay their respects, and he came into the outer room to greet them before the Colonel was able to put in an appearance. All received him with yells, and it was not until Senator Colby introduced him as Mr. Keyes that many were aware it was not the colonel. He assumes a Roosevelt smile, gets off the "delighted" and "bully" expressions, and it is not an uncommon sight to see people turn and start to follow him. On the lapel of his coat he wears a button, which says: "I am Roosevelt's double—Can you beat it?"

The New Jersey headquarters have been one of the busiest in the Congress Hotel during the week. Except during the sessions of the convention, there has always been one of the four secretaries of the delegation on duty to answer questions and look to the comfort of the visitors of both sexes who have happened in. Francis D. Potter, of Bridgeton, is acting as the recording secretary, and doing most of the work, being relieved in turn by Edgar A. Knapp, of Elizabeth; Herbert M. Bailey, of Hackensack, and Frank L. Driver, of Newark. John Kline, of Belleville, is the sergean-at-arms, but has little to do except when a meeting of the delegation is held.

TROPHY WINNERS GREET EDWARD RADEL, THE DONOR

A fitting reception to Edward H. Radel, donor of the average trophy, was given by Elizabeth Lodge, No 289, B. P. O. Elks, bowling team at their home in Westfield avenue, this week. The honor is one of the greatest corralled by the Elizabeth Elk bowlers, and Mr. Radel was undoubtedly convinced by the reception given him that his trophy is fully appreciated by the winners.

Referring to Mr. Radel and the handsome trophy, the Elizabeth Journal says:

"Edward H. Radel, a member of the New Brunswick Lodge, is the donor of the trophy. He has been a member of the order for a number of years, and having been actively connected with athletics when a youngster, is always pulling some new stunt in order to boost sports. He was at one time the owner of the Bound Brook Baseball Club, and, it has been said, not without cause either, that his players were the best treated bunch of athletes performing along the Central. He is a close follower of the New Brunswick B. P. O. Elks' bowling team, and, while it would probably have tickled him considerably to see the very valuable trophy remain in the college town, he is delighted that it was Elizabeth who beat out his own team."

A number of New Brunswick Elks made the trip to Elizabeth to witness the presentation.

BRYAN ISSUES "DEFI" ON CHOICE OF PARKER

Baltimore, June 21.—William Jennings Bryan, from Chicago, where he is reporting the National Republican convention proceedings for a newspaper syndicate, has issued a "defi." In it he declares that he will carry the fight against Judge Alton B. Parker, who has been chosen by the National Democratic committee, as temporary chairman, to the floor of the convention.

BOARD RULES ELECTION BILLS SUBJECT TO REVISION

Elizabeth, June 21 (Special).—The Board of Freeholders met this afternoon for the purpose of paying election bills. Prior to their payment, however, Freeholder Smith's resolution providing for the payment of the election bills only when submitted in accordance with the law relating to election expenses and and properly audited and corrected, was adopted.

Freeholder Smith explained that many election officers had been submitting excessive bills to the board and the board desired to put a stop to the practice. The adoption of the resolution gives the board the right to correct the bills where such a step is deemed advisable.

Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, of Plainfield, received the board's thanks for presenting an American flag to Bonnie Burn Sanatarium.

SUMMIT ONCE THE HOME OF FRAUDULENT BROKER

Summit, June 21.—William T. Wintermute, a dealer in mining stocks, who was sentenced Wednesday to a year on Blackwell's Island and to pay a fine of $500 in the United States District Court for using the mails to defraud, was for about eight years a resident of Summit.

Wintermute came to Summit about nine years ago. At that time he was in the printing business in Brooklyn and not particularly prosperous. He lived with his family in a small house on the Boulevarde.

Later Wintermute became interested in mining stocks, and from that day on appeared to prosper hugely. His change of forture was rapid.

Wintermute bought from Frank Dillingham a beautiful home on Hobart avenue, entertained lavishly, cut something of a social figure, and became looked upon as a keen business man. He succeeded in interesting more than a score of residents of Summit in his various mining ventures, including the Gold Run Mining Company, for using the mails to sell whose stock under misrepresentation Wintermute was convicted. Few Summit residents, who were persuaded to buy the stock, got out of the transaction whole, investors here freely assert.

Altogether Wintermute is said to have cleared more than $40,000 in mining operations. The jury Wednesday convicted him after being out only about half an hour, but recommended him to the mercy of the court.

The first house that Wintermute occupied on Hobart avenue, reverted on a mortgage to its original owner about a year ago, when he left here, and was later sold to Judge E. G. Hay, of the Appraisers' Court, New York. The price is said to have been $55,000.

McCann, of West Third reet, who is a member of the Union County Democratic Committee, has announced himself as a candidate for freeholder on the small board to be chosen at the next election. Mr. McCann has been a resident of this city all his life and it is claimed is fully acquainted with the duties of the position he seeks.

Rev. Evarts C. Conover, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, plans to attend the annual convention of the National Baraca Class to be held in Norfolk, Va., next week. He expects to leave here on Monday for that place.

Richard McIntyre left this morning for Berkeley, California, where he will spend the summer and remaining, will enter the University of California, in August. He was graduated from Townsend Harris Hall, City College of New York, with high honors this month.

TROLLEY EXCURSION.

The members of the Dunellen Defender Fire Company had arranged to go for a trolley ride to Boynton Beach yesterday evening but for some reason or other only three of the members turned up. However the ride was not abandoned, about twenty young men and women, including the three firemen, going on the excursion. They had a good time and on the way back came home with the T. A. B. fife and drum corps which diverted the company with numerous selections.

ACCIDENTAL DEATHS.

Elizabeth, June 21 (Special).—The coroner's jury, sitting in Common Pleas Court, yesterday, reached a verdict to the effect that William Wildridge, Frank Johnson and Albert Burbank, three Public Service linemen electrocuted on a pole here last Friday, came to their deaths by accident causes. There was an abundance of evidence to show that Wildridge disobeyed orders in going near the high-tension "live" wires.

WINNING A BRIDE.

Mark Twain's Wooing of Lovely Olivia Langdon.

NOT HELPED BY HIS FRIENDS.

They Seemed to Agree That He Would Make About the Worst Husband on Record, but Miss Langdon's Father Took a Different View.

In Harper's Magazine Albert Bigelow Paine, the authorized biographer of Mark Twain, tells how the great humorist first met Olivia Langdon, who afterward became his wife. They met in New York. Young Charles Langdon, who had been on the voyage of the "Innocents," brought them together.

"At the old St. Nicholas hotel, which stood on the west side of Broadway between Spring and Broome streets, there were stopping at this time Jervis Langdon, a wealthy coal dealer and mine owner of Elmira; his son Charles and his daughter, Olivia, whose pictured face Samuel Clemens had first seen in the bay of Smyrna one September day. Young Langdon had been especially anxious to bring his distinguished Quaker City friend and his own people together, and two days before Christmas Samuel Clemens was invited to dine at the hotel. He went very willingly. The lovely girl of the miniature which he had first seen in her brother's stateroom had been often a part of his waking dreams. For the first time, now, he looked upon its reality. Long afterward he said:

"'It is forty years ago. From that day to this she has never been out of my mind.'

"His was not an unruffled courtship. When at last he reached the point of proposing for the daughter of the house neither the daughter nor the household offered any noticeable encouragement to his suit.

"There was only a provisional engagement at first. Jervis Langdon suggested, and Samuel Clemens agreed with him, that it was proper to know something of his past as well as of his present before the official parental sanction should be given. When Mr. Langdon inquired as to the names of persons of standing to whom he might write for credentials, Clemens pretty confidently gave him the name of the Rev. Mr. Stebbings and others of San Francisco, adding that he might write also to Joe Goodman if he wanted to, but that he had lied for Goodman a hundred times and that Goodman would lie for him if necessary, so his testimony would be of no value. The letters to the clergy were written, and Mr. Langdon also wrote one on his own account.

"Clemens was in Jacksonville, Ill., at the end of March, 1869, and in a letter to his publisher states that he will be in Elmira two days later and asks that proofs of the book be sent there. He arrived according to schedule, anxious to hear the reports that would make him, as the novels might say, 'the happiest or the most miserable of men.' Jervis Langdon had a rather solemn look when they were alone together. Clemens asked:

"'You've heard from those gentlemen out there?'

"'Yes, and from another gentleman I wrote concerning you.'

"'They don't appear to have been very enthusiastic from your manner.'

"'Well, yes; some of them were.'

"'I suppose I may ask what particular form their emotion took?'

"'Oh, yes; yes, they agree unanimously that you are a brilliant, able man, a man with a future, and that you would make about the worst husband on record.'

"The applicant for favor had a forlorn look.

"'There's nothing very evasive about that,' he said.

"There was a period of reflective silence. It was probably no more than a few seconds, but it seemed longer.

"'Haven't you any other friend that you suggest?' Langdon said.

"'Apparently none whose testimony would be valuable.'

"Jervis Langdon held out his hand. 'You have at least one,' he said. 'I believe in you. I know you better than they do.'

"And so came the crown of happiness. The engagement of Samuel Langhorne Clemens and Olivia Lewis Langdon was ratified next day, Feb. 2, 1869."

A Fortune In His Legs.

During the reign of Queen Elizabeth an English gentleman of wealth named Corbet, of a distinguished family near Shrewsbury, bet that his leg was the handsomest in the country or kingdom and staked estates worth $400,000 on the subject. He won the wager, and a picture is still preserved in the family mansion representing the process of measuring the legs of the different contestants.

The Milky Way.

"Grandpa," said the small boy from the city, pointing to a wayside plant, "what is that?"

"That's milkweed," was the reply.

"Oh, I know," exclaimed the little fellow. "That's what you feed to the cows so they will give milk."—Chicago News.

ADMIRAL VERNON.

He Invented "Grog" and Gave a Name to Washington's Home.

Few Americans are informed as to how Mount Vernon, the home of Washington, received its name.

The unfortunate Duke of Monmouth had a secretary named Vernon, a prudent, sensible man of business, who, after the duke's death, found favor in influential quarters and under William III. became a secretary of state. He left a son, Edward, born in 1684, who, greatly against his father's wishes, entered the navy and, serving with distinction, rose to the rank of admiral. In 1722 he was elected to the house of commons, and having, in July, 1739, declared there that Porto Bello might be reduced with six sail of the line, he was sent with a squadron to fulfill his prediction. On returning home successful he received the thanks of both houses and the freedom of the city of London. From that time, however, his star declined. An expedition to Cartagena, made two years later, signally failed.

It was in the land force at Cartagena that Lawrence Washington, George's eldest brother by fourteen years, had served, and apparently he esteemed Vernon, as he gave his name to his home on the Potomac, and procured a midshipman's appointment for George. His mother's interposition ultimately prevented the boy's availing himself of this appointment.

Vernon's popularity was so great that his unlucky expedition does not seem to have affected it, as he was actually elected to parliament for three places on his return. Probably his known hostility to the government had much to do with this. In 1745 he was detailed to watch the North sea, in view of the movement of the pretender's adherents. The next year a serious squabble arose between him and the government, resulting in his producing two pamphlets that so exasperated the authorities that by the king's express command he was struck off the list of admirals. He died in 1757.

It was Vernon who brought into use the custom of mixing water with the ration of rum, which got the name of grog from his habit of wearing a grogram waistcoat, and hence his nickname of "Old Grog." To summarize, the man who invented grog is buried in Westminster abbey, commemorated by Smollett and gave a name to Washington's home.

An Awe Inspiring Spectacle.

Of the overpowering magnificence of the sun's corona as seen in a total eclipse some idea may be gathered when it is considered that even matter of fact scientists are stricken speechless with awe in its presence. Sir Francis Galton was once assigned to measure the heat of that strange halo. He recounts that he experienced a feeling of supreme exultation when he discovered that his instrument was broken and that he would be permitted a few moments in which to revel in the remarkable spectacle. So carried away was he by the glory of the panorama that he even forgot to note down the beginning of the first contact.

Roman Lamps.

Roman lamps were of many sizes, but most of them very closely resembled what is at present denominated a sauce or gravy boat. At one end there was a ring, through which the finger was passed when the light was carried. The body of the vessel was filled with oil, and at the other end there was a small tube, through which a rag wick was passed. When this was lighted the smoke and odor of the rancid fat employed were extremely offensive. Many Roman poets mention the abominable effluvium sent out by the lamps at the feasts.

Punishment For Poisoners.

In ancient Rome poisoning was punished by crucifixion, no matter what the rank of the criminal, although this penalty was usually reserved for slaves. A Roman of respectable station, having been convicted of poisoning his ward, was sentenced to be crucified, but protested against the punishment as unfit for a gentleman. The emperor thereupon ordered the cross to be painted white and otherwise made more presentable than those commonly used. Whether the convict expressed himself as better satisfied is not recorded.

Indolent Rossini.

Rossini was one of the most indolent men that ever lived, yet he wrote operas against time, as it were. "The Barber of Seville," for instance, was written and mounted in less than a month, which fact gave rise to Donizetti's cogent witticism. Upon being informed that Rossini had finished his opera in thirteen days Donizetti replied: "It is very possible. He is so lazy!"

The start was made from the Watchung avenue trolley stand at 7:30 o'clock, and it was 2 o'clock this morning when the Plainfielders returned home.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

Tomorrow will be bargain day again on the oval with the Lincoln Giants playing a return game and the West Ends trying conclusions with the strong Royal Colored Giants of this city.

The weather man has promised to make good on the weather deal and all is left to do is to get there at 2 p. m.

The Dunellen team will entertain the Bound Brook aggregation on their home grounds.

Slocum will be on the mound for the Brookers and will be opposed by Warhorse McLaughlin, so this in itself promises to be a big drawing card.

Lou promises to make the Dunellenites hustle to get away with their second game and predicts an easy victory for his new backers.

Slocum, by the way, is now at his best and with a team behind him like the Bound Brook aggregation he should shine in tomorrow's game.

The Sunday-school league teams will all be on the job again tomorrow as will also the Manufacturers' teams.

The Scotch Plains nine have not as yet announced their attraction for tomorrow and it is more than likely they will be idle again.

With a team that totaled seventeen players at the end of the last round and a score that totaled 21 runs the Giants smothered the Boston Braves in their meeting yesterday.

Yale captured the Freshman four-oared races on the Thames yesterday afternoon, while Harvard evened up the afternoon's work by taking the Graduate eight.

The Athletics again took a double bill from the Washington team in yesterday's games and Baker's bat again proved destructive.

After annexing a quiniet of successive wins and getting the Dodger town afire the Brooklyn ball tossers fell before the mighty bat of Cravath of the Phillies.

He chalked up three hits out of three times at bat and two of these were homers.

LINCOLN GIANTS ON CARD FOR TOMORROW

Fast Colored Team to Play Postponed Game with Dorflingers—Double Header.

The second half of the double-header between the Plainfield team and the Lincoln Colored Giants, which was postponed on Decoration Day afternoon because of weather conditions, will be run off on the oval tomorrow afternoon. As a preliminary attraction the strong West End aggregation will stack up against the Royal Giants and a good contest is expected inasmuch as the West Ends are playing winning ball at present and are cleaning up everything in this section. They will be further strengthened by the return of Dixon, their star leader and backstop, who has been playing with the Dunellen aggregation. He will again lead the team in tomorrow's game and will add a great deal of ginger to his team's playing.

The big card will be called at 3:45 and both teams will present their strongest lineup. Manager Dorflinger evidently figures on annexing another home victory as he has secured "Doc" Scanlon, formerly with Brooklyn, to do the twirling, while either "Cyclone" Williams or Redding will be sent in to oppose him. Mr. Langdon, who was prevented from making his initial debut as the Plainfield's regular arbitrator, will be on hand to make good tomorrow. The preliminary teams will lineup as follows:

West Ends—Dixon c, Fulton p, A. Luthman 1b, McClinton 2b, N. Luthman ss, Dow 3b, Wilson lf, Nugent cf, Jrager rf.

Royal Giants—Somerset rf, Fulton cf, Slocum lf, Jackson 3b, Gamer ss, Simmons 2b, Ford 1b, Kline and Neison p, Hall c.

The Plainfield team will present their same formidable lineup as follows: Cosgrove rf, Wolfe or Harter cf, E. Stallings lf, Dalton 3b, W. Stallings 2b, Driscoll 1b, Emery ss, Nelson c, Scanlon p.

Lincoln Giants—Poles lf, Francis 2b, Dunban cf, Slorfal ss, Petters 1b, Wright 2b, Booker rf, Santop c, Redding or Williams p.

TO CLEAR UP TIE FOR 3RD PLACE IN LEAGUE

Sunday School Games Will Have One Decisive Result Tomorrow—The Lay-out.

The Sunday-school League will begin another round of their schedule tomorrow afternoon with but two postponed games resulting from last Saturday's rain. The league leaders and tail enders will try conclusions on Hyde Field, while Hope Chapel will journey to South Plainfield. The Hope game will clear up the third place argument, as there are three teams tied for that position now. The Park Avenue Baptists will hook up with the champion Monroe Avenue team.

REVIEW BELLS WINS.

In the 2:17 pace event at Prospect Park track, Baltimore, yesterday afternoon, Review Bells, owned by L. B. Harris and driven by Thomas Brantingham, of this city, won. His best time was 2:15¼. The race was fast and one of the classiest of the afternoon. Mr. Harris won at Lancaster last week, carrying away a $500 purse.

FACTORY LEAGUERS READY TO RESUME

Teams Are on Edge for Tomorrow's Games After Two-Week's Lay-off.

After lying idle for two weeks because of wet weather, the Manufacturers' League teams will run off another trio of games tomorrow afternoon. The official schedule has been somewhat revised and tomorrow's games are the first to be effected by the new program. The league followers were very much disappointed over the postponement of the Public Service and Commercial game last Saturday, because the supporters of the former nine predicted a win over the league leaders. This lay off in the schedule will probably mean a bargain day with several double-headers to run off. The Public Service team will hook up with the Saurer men on the Clinton avenue field. What will in all probability prove the best card will be the R. G. E. and Commercial mix-up on Parker field. Both of these teams are traveling at a fast clip and it would not be a surprise to many if the top-notchers were humiliated by the combination team. The Spicer and Banks teams will try conclusions on the Myrtle avenue field with the outcome of last place at stake. The coin-chasers administered a hard drubbing to the West Fourth street team in their last meeting.

FLAINFIELD ENTRIES IN Y. M. C. A. STATE MEET

The annual state Y. M. C. A. athletic meet will be held on the East Orange Oval tomorrow and Mr. Ostlin, of the local Y. M. C. A., will take three of his best men over to try for honors. The junior championships, which will be held in the morning, will be entered by Craig Blair, who will run in the 100 yard dash, and 220 yard dash, both in the 110 lb. class and 130 lb. class. He will also try for honors in the running high jump in both of these weight classes.

William Peacock and Jack Fritts will go to Orange in the afternoon and enter the senior events. Peacock will run in the 100 yd. dash for novices, while Fritts will contest the 440 yard dash, the mile run and the 12 lb. shot-put.

FINALS OF TENNIS TOURNEY CARDED FOR TOMORROW

In the one remaining match for the tennis championship of the Plainfield Country Club, Miss Barbara Fleming defeated Miss Madeline Ashwell, 6-3, 6-3, and in the semi-finals, Mrs. Hart S. Farlee defeated Miss Jean Wharton, 7-5, 8-6. Miss Barbara Fleming and Miss Sarah Schuyler will play their match this afternoon, and the winner of that match will meet Mrs. Hart S. Farlee in the finals at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This match should attract a great deal of attention owing to the fast game being played by the contestants.

In the second round for the "consolation" prize, Miss Marion Brown defeated Miss Gwendolyn Gouch, 6-2, 6-2, and Miss Marion Coombs defeated Miss Pauline Gates, 6-4, 6-0. In the semi-finals, Mrs. W. B. Tyler defeated Miss Marion Coombs, 6-8, 6-3, 6-4, and Miss Marion Brown defeated Miss Lillian King, 6-2, 6-2. Mrs. W. B. Tyler and Miss Marion Brown are playing the finals this afternoon.

EDWARD AYERS WEDS MISS JENNIE KOVALSKI

Miss Jennie Kovalski, the daughter of Mrs. Annie Redmann, of East Second street, and Edward J. Ayers, also of this city, were married at 8 o'clock, last night by Rev. Evarts C. Conover, pastor of the Temple Baptist church. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bridegroom's brother, Harry Ayres, 329 East Second street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ayres attended the couple. A reception followed when the guests were given an opportunity to offer congratulations. Supper was served.

The couple will continue to reside in this city. The bride was born in Russia, but came to this country when a child. Mr. Ayers is employed as a brass worker at the Rushmore Dynamo Works.

DAVID VAN BUSKIRK DIES; VICTIM OF APOPLEXY

David VanBuskirk, aged 45 years, son of Ira VanBuskirk, died at 6 o'clock last night at his home on West Second street, without having regained consciousness since stricken with apoplexy on Wednesday at midnight. Prior to that time he had been in his usual good health.

Mr. VanBuskirk was born at Orange, but had lived in Plainfield practically all of his life. For twenty-five years he was engaged in the insurance business, a part of the time being manager and treasurer of the Washington Beneficial Society, of Newark. His only lodge affiliation was a member of Benevolent Council, No. 256, Jr. O. U. A. M.

Surviving beside a wife and one son, Russell VanBuskirk, are two sisters, Mrs. Silas Seely and Mrs. Amos Stites and his father, Ira VanBuskirk, all of this city. The funeral will be held at the late home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson will be in charge and the burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

HISTORY OF HOSPITAL

BY

Dixon Phillips

(Prize winning essay in Daily Press Contest open to P. H. S. Seniors.

With a paper on "The History of Muhlenburg Hospital," Dixon Phillips has won the prize of $10 in gold offered annually by the Daily Press to the member of the Plainfield High School graduating class who writes the best essay on a topic of municipal interest. This is the essay rated the best by the judges among the compositions submitted:

The History of Muhlenburg Hospital.

About thirty-five years ago, a stranger in Plainfield, injured in a railroad accident, was forced to undergo a serious operation amid the bustle and confusion of the railroad station. The idea of this solitary person, without friends or aid of any kind, struggling for life in such a public and noisy place, brought the need of a hospital vividly before the city, and through the efforts of a few citizens, a small hospital was started, which has grown to be the splendid institution now so familiar to the people of Plainfield.

The history of Muhlenburg Hospital falls into two general stages; first, the period beginning with the incorporation and start of the hospital and ending with the abandonment of the old quarters in 1900; and second, the story of the work accomplished in the new hospital, and of the campaign early in 1912, to raise $90,000, its glorious success and its resulting benefits.

In 1877 Muhlenburg Hospital, named for the Rev. William A. Muhlenburg, the founder of St. Luke's Hospital in New York, and then recently deceased, was founded thru the efforts of Dr. Charles A. Hart, who believed that a city of some twelve thousand inhabitants, the seat of large manufacturing intersts and situated on a railroad engaged in extensive traffic, should have suitable hospital accommodations. The mere incorporation of the hospital was easy, but the succeeding steps, which have given Plainfield its present modern institution, required all the determination and grit of the body of citizens who were back of the scheme.

At the first meeting, held July 17, 1877, the constitution was adopted and at a later meeting in August, officers were elected and the organization perfected. In October of the same year, the Ladies' Auxiliary Board was formed to aid in the general work and to promote the interest of the citizens, for as is the case with all such enterprises, progress was very slow, because little interst was shown by the citizens at large, who did not yet realize the benefits to be gained.

After some difficulty, a site approved by the hospital board was secured and donated by the Hon. Job Male, and although plans were then prepared by Mr. Charles H. Smith, who gave his services as architect free, and were approved by the medical board, it was not until three years after the incorporation of the hospital that the building was begun, and even then work proceded slowly from lack of funds. The cornerstone was laid on May 31, 1880, with appropriate ceremonies in the presence of the Mayor and Common Council of Plainfield, but it was not until the autum of 1881 that the building was finished and thrown open to public inspection, and on December 1 following, Muhlenburg Hospital was formally opened to patients.

The many benefits of the hospital immediately became apparent and the number of patients accommodated both in the hospital proper and the dispensary increased steadily. Naturally the expenses increased at about the same ratio, but the receipts did not keep pace with this increase, and the pressing need of money was again felt. One reason for this lack of income was that the hospital was free to those who were unable to pay, while a nominal fee was charged those who could afford the expense, but since a great many patients were of the former class the hospital could not depend on getting a large share of its receipts from the patients, and it was necessary to rely on voluntary contributions for a considerable portion of the income. In addition to the usual running expense there were numerous other uses for the money received. With the rapid growth of the hospital came the pressing need for such imporvements as city water, gas and electricity and sewer connections, a steam heating plant, an isolation ward for contagious diseases and a new operating room. But through all this hard struggle the board never lost heart, and when the hospital ended one year with a cash balance of $35.81 and outstanding bills amounting to $578.66, the President expressed the keynote of the board's attitude when he said, "This fact should not discourage but rather incite to greater efforts in behalf of the institution," and had it not been for such an idea, the new hospital building erected in 1900 would not have been possible, as Muhlenburg Hospital would probably have proven a failure long before.

In its annual report for 1900-01 the board stated that the number of indoor patients had increased 361 per cent., and the number of dispensary patients 114 per cent., in the last ten years, and as a result, the old quarters had become very cramped. After careful consideration the governors resolved to dispose of the old site and acquire a more suitable one, and erct larger and more modern buildings thereon. Consequently a tract of twelve acres was acquired on the southeast corner of Park avenue and Randolph road, the cost of which had been fully paid from cash subscriptions for the purpose. Of the plans submitted by nine competing architects, those of Messrs. Tracy and Swartmout, were selected for the new buildings. The new hospital was so planned that although only five buildings were erected at that time, extensions could be added easily when needed, without disturbing or altering any parts of the hospital then erected.

From the time of the completion of the new quarters to the present, the growth and use of the institution have advanced steadily and rapidly. For with the addition of the refrigerating and electric lighting plants, and a separate heating and laundry building, Muhlenburg Hospital can lay claim to being one of the best-equipped hospitals in the state.

But year after year the succeeding boards have been vexed and worried by the ever-present and vital question of raising funds to carry on the work. Various entertainments were tried, and yielded a good revenue, but the board realized that these measures gave only temporary relief and consequently early in the present year the board decided to endeavor to raise $90,000 for endowment and other purposes, by a "whirlwind" canvass of the city. Accordingly the services of Mr. Bowen were secured to take charge of the scheme and through the earnest efforts of an untiring band of men and women workers, the fund amounted to $125,000 instead of $90,000 as proposed, at the end of ten days. And so by this effort and thru the liberality of the people of Plainfield, a fitting climax was added to the splendid work of the hospital in the past. The spirit shown in this campaign bears evidence to the fact that the citizens of Plainfield are fully awakened to a realization of the good work the hospital ahs accomplished and is expected to accomplish in the future, and that they agree with the board of 1881, that "it may be safely said that it has been the cause of saving many lives."

HER KEEN REMORSE.

It Showed Itself in an Entirely Unexpected Manner.

There is in our navy a certain rear admiral, grave, serious minded, conscientious, who is an excellent disciplinarian. But he has had his failures too.

In his younger days he was greatly distressed by the thoughtlessness of his charming wife. She had pinned her silk petticoat in the back until there was a great frayed place at the band. She continued to wear the petticoat, however, although her efforts to keep on pinning it at the frayed place always evoked a little storm of irritation and temper.

In vain her husband urged her to mend it. Finally he decided that the only way to reform his wife was to fill her with remorse. So this future commander of battleships with his own hands ripped off the old frayed band and sewed on a new one. Then he took it to his wife. She was greatly moved, thanked him, kissed him and left the room.

"HERE ARE A FEW MORE."

Presently she came back, her arms laden with garments.

"Here are a few more for you, dearest," she said. "But please don't hurry about them. Just fix them whenever you have time."

And she put seven petticoats on the chair beside her dazed husband.—Youth's Companion.

Lacking Improvements.

Tim Hurst, the prize fight referee, was formerly an umpire in the big leagues. He was behind the bat one day and the catcher took exceptions to Tim's judgment of pitched balls.

One came whizzing over that the catcher thought should have been called a strike.

"Ball!" stated Tim.

"Look here, Mr. Umpire," said the catcher, "that plate has got corners on it!"

"Yes, son," said Tim, "but it ain't got bay windows on it!"

Tangled.

"I am at home to no one except Mr. Brown," said the lady to her new maid. "Now, be sure to remember that."

She stayed at home all the afternoon, but nobody was announced. Then she sent for the girl.

"Didn't anybody call?" she asked impatiently.

"Yes, ma'am—five gentlemen. An' I told 'em all that you wasn't home to anybody but Mr. Brown, an' they all went away, ma'am."

"You idiot! You have alienated all my friends by your stupidity! Didn't any of the gentlemen leave any message?"

"Yessum. After I'd said it four times I got it mixed up, an' I guess I told the last gentleman that you was home to everybody but Mr. Brown."

"Well—and what did he say?"

"He says, 'Ha—I'm Brown!' an' then he turned around an' run off jes' like the rest of 'em."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Ignorance.

Lew Morris, a Kansas City character of local renown, was standing on the corner of Thirteenth street and Grand avenue one Sunday morning when a polite stranger accosted him:

"Would you kindly tell me, sir, how to find the Second Presbyterian church?"

"God bless me, stranger," fervently responded Lew, "I don't even know where the first Presbyterian church is!"—Everybody's.

It Wasn't a Dream.

Archbishop Thompson was greatly surprised when he was given the archdiocese of York. He had been suffering acutely from toothache and upon medical advice had resorted to narcotics. After a particularly bad night he set out for his doctor, though his wife had besought him not to submit to further narcotics, as after them he was "not himself" for some hours. On the way he met the postman, who handed him a letter announcing his preferment from Gloucester to York. He rushed back and burst excitedly into the house, the toothache all forgotten. "Zoe, Zoe," he cried, "what do you think has happened? I am archbishop of York!" "There, what did I tell you?" rejoined his wife. "You've been taking that horrible narcotic again and are quite out of your head."

ABOUT PLUMAGE.

The young man did not know what he wanted to eat. His appetite was poor. His palate must be tempted and tickled. He scanned the menu card again and again. Finally, with a sigh of resignation, he said to the waiter:

"Bring me some fish feathers."

"Fish feathers!" exclaimed the waiter.

"Yes! Fish feathers. And I want 'em tonight, not next week!"

The waiter retired for a conference with the chef, the captain and the floor manager.

"No such dish here," was his report. "There ain't any such thing. There never was such a dish in New York."

The young man arose and sighed again.

"That's what I've been told by every waiter in New York," he remarked sadly. "But, if you will drop a line to George M. Bowers, the commissioner of fisheries in Washington, he will correct your mistake, enlighten your ignorance, project a shaft of thought into that granite which grows above your shoulders."

He sighed a third time, stretched himself slowly, and added:

"Mr. Bowers will tell you that fish feathers are a delicacy. They are taken from flying fish. You catch flying fish with salt water on their tails."

Then he went gloomily into the night.—Popular Magazine.

SMALLEST LIBRARY.

The curious little building is situated at Pine Bluff, N. C., and is believed to be the smallest public library in the world. Pine Bluff is only a small place, with a population of fewer than 100 in summer, and when the ladies of the village decided that they ought to have a public library they found themselves without a building suitable for the purpose. Finally a gentleman offered them a bandstand which he had built in the hope that Pine Bluff would soon become a city, and the offer was accepted with thanks. By giving entertainments and so on the ladies were able to raise funds to purchase materials to fill in the openings of the bandstand and generally fit it up into a sung little building. Over 500 books have been given, and the tiny library, of which Pine Bluff is very proud, is now in full working order.—Wide World.

SOMETHING TASTY.

A mission worker was much interested in a lad in one tenement who was convalescing from a prolonged illness. On one visit to her small charge the worker carried with her a quantity of fine fruit for the lad, but this, to the astonishment of the big-hearted visitor, the father of the boy received with a somewhat dubious air, exhibiting absolutely no appreciation of the offering.

When next the good Samaritan came to the tenement she naturally inquired of the father how the boy had enjoyed the fruit.

"Pretty well, was the curt answer.

"I presume he ate most of it."

"Yes, he got away with it all right," said the parent carelessly; "but, miss, that boy is like me. He don't care for no dago fruit. He likes something dainty and tasty—for instance, pigs' feet."—New York Press.

MODERN RAILROADING.

Martin Clardy, of St. Louis, general solicitor for the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railways, is one lawyer who sometimes objects to being interviewed. And, when reporters are too insistent, Mr. Clardy has a stock story which he tells to shut off the interview. Says Mr. Clardy:

"An irate shipper once entered the general offices of a railway company. "Where's the general superintendent?" he demanded

"'Out on the road,' was the reply of the clerk.

"'Where's his assistant?' This very angrily.

"'Gone to the ball game,' snapped the clerk.

"'Then where's the vice president and general traffic manager?' exploded the shipper.

"'Gone north for the summer,' was the still indifferent reply.

"'Well, then,' the angry caller fairly howled, 'who in thunder is running this railroad, anyway?'

"'Oh, if that's what you want to know,' replied the clerk, as he reached for another typewritten retort, 'it's the newspapers.'"—Kansas City Journal.

REGARDING CHARGE ACCOUNTS

"This is the first time in my married life that I have ever had a charge account," smiled a Plainfield woman Saturday as she wound up a half day's shopping tour in our store. "I can't begin to tell you how pleased I am. My husband has always been opposed to opening an account, his motto being 'pay as you go,' but I had heard so much about the convenience of a charge account, particularly at your store, that I finally overcame his scruples. I'm sure he will be pleased when he finds out how nicely I have been treated here today."

After hearing what our delighted Plainfield customer had to say, it occurred to us that there must be hundreds—yes, thousands—of substantial folks, who for one reason or another, are opposed to charging goods.

Have YOU a charge account here? If not, come in and let us talk it over. You have no idea how convenient it is to simply say "Charge it," or how advantageous it is to have a monthly account at a store whose merchandise is marked on a cash basis, strictly.

PARKER NAMED; MAY MEAN FIGHT

Storm Brewing Over Selection of Chairman.

BRYAN, IGNORED, SILENT.

Said, However, That "Peerless One's" Followers Will Carry War Against Parker to Floor of Democratic Convention, Claiming That He Is Reactionary.

Baltimore, June 21.—By a vote of eight out of fifteen the committee of arrangements of the Democratic national committee selected Judge Alton B. Parker to be presented to the convention for the office of temporary chairman.

Opposition was made to Judge Parker's selection. The vote follows: Parker, 8; Representative Henry of Texas, 3; Senator Kern of Indiana, 1; Senator O'Gorman of New York, 1; Senator Elect Ollie James of Kentucky, 3.

The Champ Clark and the Woodrow Wilson men stood out against Judge Parker, dividing their eight votes among the four candidates. The result was a tie, 8 to 8, between the Bryan and anti-Bryan forces.

Not Made Unanimous.

An effort was made in the arrangement committee, after this 8 to 8 division, to make the selection of Judge Parker unanimous. A motion to this effect was made by one of the Parker men, but was voted down 9 to 7, one of the committeemen who had voted against Parker on the ballot having shifted in favor of harmonious action. One or two speeches were made by the Clark and Wilson people against the proposal to make the selection of Judge Parker unanimous. These speakers said that while they had great respect for Judge Parker they could not sacrifice their progressive principles to vote for him for temporary chairman. Furthermore, they said that his selection would be a great mistake for the party.

The fact that eight members of the committee of arrangements stood firmly by Judge Parker and thus threw down the gauge of battle to Bryan can be credited chiefly to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall.

The Democratic leaders have not invited this fight with Bryan without carefully canvassing the situation. The next step will be for the committee on arrangements to report the selection of Judge Parker by a plurality vote to the full national committee. This will be done at a meeting of the national committee here on Monday. Then some of Bryan's friends will undoubtedly move that the report of the committee on arrangements be rejected. That will bring up the fight. The anti-Bryan leaders are confident that their action in selecting the New York man will be sustained.

May Be Carried to Floor.

If the Parker selection is sustained by the national committee the fight undoubtedly will be carried to the floor of the convention.

The anti-Bryan men, after carefully canvassing the delegations, said they would have between 50 and 100 votes more than a majority. These figures were based entirely on the assumption that the Champ Clark and Wilson people would continue to stand against Parker.

The Clark people, at a conference in Washington, discussed the question whether they could afford, by continuing the fight on Judge Parker, to alienate Charles F. Murphy and the New York state delegation. There were well founded reports that Champ Clark's managers were divided over this question, and there was a likelihood that the speaker would weaken.

Bryan Noncommittal.

Chicago, June 21.—William Jennings Bryan, who is in Chicago reporting the Republican national convention, refused to commit himself on the report that he is opposed to Alton B. Parker presiding as temporary chairman of the Democratic convention.

"One convention at a time, please," he said. "I am having all I can do looking after the Republican convention. I don't know what I shall do if they have two of them here. Our convention comes next. There will be plenty of time to discuss it when this convention adjourns. That is all."

"TAFT SURE"—M'KINLEY.

Says President Is Receiving Accessions Every Hour.

Chicago, June 21.—The Taft leaders again recorded their fidelity to President Taft's cause and in addition interpreted the situation in the Roosevelt camp in a statement issued by Director William B. McKinley, in which he said among other things:

"The opposition to President Taft is disorganized and demoralized. It is hopelessly defeated. The president's strength, on the other hand, not only remains solid, but is receiving accessions every hour. Mr. Taft's nomination is now an assured fact."

MacFarland Gets New Trial.

Trenton, N. J., June 21.—By a vote of 9 to 5 the court or errors and appeals granted a new trial to Allison M. MacFarland, convicted last winter in Newark of the murder of his wife with cyanide of potassium.

SURE WILSON WILL BE THE CANDIDATE

New Jersey Congressmen Tell Governor Convention Battle Will go His Way.

Trenton, June 21.—Governor Wilson is the strongest candidate that can be named for the Presidency, will be given the nomination at Baltimore next week and will be elected President next November, in the opinion of the Democratic Congressmen of New Jersey. Six of the seven Congressmen came to he State House from Washington Tuesday and conferred with Governor Wilson on the party outlook. Fresh from mingling at Washington with Democrats who favor the various respective candidates and after having canvassed the situation with the advance guard at Baltimore, the Congressmen told the Governor that he would win the place as head of the Presidential ticket.

As they outlined the situation, the real fight will be between Governor Wilson and Speaker Champ Clark. The visitors told the Governor that he was, undoubtedly, the strongest candidate, all things being considered and that this would be shown on the first ballot. This, they claimed, would lead to a break in the Clark ranks in favor of the New Jersey Governor, and that before many ballots were taken Governor Wilson would win the necessary two-thirds vote to give him the nomination. The Congressmen were all enthusiastic as to the Governor's prospects.

Those present were: Thomas J. Scully, of the Third District; William E. Tuttle, Jr., of the Fifth District; William Hughes, of the Sixth District; Edward Townsend, of the Seventh District; Eugene Kinkead, of the Ninth District, and James A. Hammill, of the Tenth District. Congressman McCoy, of the Eighth District, was unable to attend the conference.

While the Congressmen were here Adjutant General Sadler asked them to use their influence to secure the passage by Congress of a bill asking an appropriation for the summer military maneuvers. The appropriation bill was vetoed by President Taft because it provided for the retirement of General Leonard Wood as Chief of Staff. Unless an appropriation bill can be passed by July 1, no New Jersey troops can participate in the Regular Army maneuvers, as planned, and the New Jersey National Guard summer school will be confined to an encampment of three regiments at Sea Girt. The State Camp grounds will not accommodate all the New Jersey troops for an encampment and General Sadler claims they do not get the proper military schooling there. The Congressmen promised to do what they could in favor of an appropriation.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

Each succeeding week the bills at Hammerstein's Roof Garden and Victoria theatre grow stronger and better. A policy of seventeen acts of quantity and quality continues. Commencing with the matinee Monday another complete change of program will be given. Comedy and novelty predominate, embodied with touches of sensationalism. Wm. Hammerstein has secured the Eight Original Texas Tommy Dancers direct from the Barbary Coast, San Francisco. They will give their startling program. This aggregation is in an entirely different class than the imitation Texas Tommy Dancers who have traded on the name. W. C. Fields returns from Europe with a new box of juggling trivialities. Raymond and Caverly and George B. Reno & Co. are established favorites and no doubt will repeat their former successes. The Top O' Th' World Dancers are also a feature in their varied pot pourri of singing numbers and terpsichorean art. Will Roehm's Five Boxing and Wrestling Girls are held over another week and will offer a different routine. Hayden, Borden and Hayden are one of those rathskeller trios that have progressed sufficiently as to maintain their standing as one of the leading acts of its kind. Eva Shirley, a little girl with a big voice, has new selections. The Six Brown Brothers is one of the best comedy musical acts in the two a day. Correlli and Gillette are comedians who have won instant favor wherever they appear. Creatore's Brass Band has been augmented and will offer a complete change of program. Romallo and Delano, Root and White, Karl Greese, Lorette and Bud round out the long bill.

CHARGES DOG CATCHER.

Cranford, June 21.—Justice of the Peace Mendell issued a warrant for the arrest of Frank Hauck, Elizabeth, dog catcher, yesterday, on complaint of Mrs. W. M. Stephenson, who lives at Eastman and Miln streets, who charges him with assault and battery. Hauck, it is alleged, entered the yard of Mrs. Stephenson to seize her dog, and when she protested he grabbed both her arms and shook her.

Jack Dumont, who has been in the west for several months, is visiting his father, John B. Dumont, of this city.

The Scrap Book

A Bath of Sentimentality.

Dr John Grier Hibben, the new president of Princeton, a Peoria man said the other day:

"Hibben has a very keen intellect; believe I'm not surprised at his success. Why, his fine, strong mind and his hatred of sentimentality and gush were remarkable even in his boyhood here in Peoria.

"I as a boy was rather a gusher myself. I once went to a matinee with Hibben. The play was one of Daly's, a sentimental piece, and in the second act I began to blubber. Miss Rehan spoke beautifully her silly, sentimental lines, and big tears flowed one after another from my eyes.

"'Why, you're crying!' whispered Hibben.

"'Well,' said I, 'in a play as sad as this I ain't ashamed to show a little feeling.'

"'Feeling!' Hibben looked at my wet and teary cheeks. 'Oh,' he said, 'feeling is all right, but you don't need to wash your face in it.'"

We Dwell With Fears.

We dwell with fears on either hand
Within a daily strife,
And spectral problems waiting stand
Before the gates of life.

The doubts we vainly seek to solve;
The truths we know are one.
The known and nameless stars revolve
Around the central sun.

And if we reap as we have sown
And take the dole we deal
The law of pain is love alone;
The wounding is to heal.

Unharmed from change to change we glide;
We fall as in our dreams.
The faroff terror at our side
A smiling angel seems.

Secure on God's all tender heart
Alike rest great and small.
Why fear to lose our little part
When he is pledged for all?
—John G. Whittier.

A Lovable Little Chap.

Being Saturday evening and the races having taken place that afternoon, the trains for London were packed. In one compartment a little boy had been standing all the way, but before the journey had proceeded much further Mrs. Jones kindly took him on her knee.

"Were you very frightened, dear, as we passed through the tunnel?" the gentle lady asked.

"Not much," replied the little boy slyly.

"But I thought you trembled a little as I hugged and kissed you," remarked Mrs. Jones, who was not even middle aged yet. "And what's your name?"

"Tony," came the answer.

"Then you're a very lovable little chap! And how old are you?"

"Twenty-five, ma'am."

And Tony Spurs, the lightweight jockey, slid to the floor to the accompaniment of a piercing scream.

Stevenson and the Beggar.

An American who visited Samoa relates that the Samoans have a habit of begging. They boldly ask for whatever they may covet wherever it may be found. The novelist Robert Louis Stevenson became tired of this practice and therefore said one day to a Samoan friend who had acquired from him a necktie, handkerchief and some other trinket, "Is there anything else you want?"

The Samoan made a hasty survey of the room.

"There is the piano," suggested Mr. Stevenson ironically.

"Yes," replied the native, "I know, but," he added apologetically, "I don't know how to play it."

A Promise That Wasn't Kept.

A loose hinged colored man was visiting a number of officesin the capitol in quest of donations for a church he is promoting. He fatwheeled into the office of Representative Whitacre of Ohio at a time when Whiteacre happened to be out. John Conkley, a newspaper correspondent, waiting to see the representative, was the only person in the office, and the visitor assumed that he was Whitacre.

"It's been such an expensive year for me," said Conkley after the colored man had told him about the church, "that I do not feel that I can give you any financial aid just at this time, but I am in hearty sympathy with your proposition and shall be only too glad to give you all the moral support possible. Just make my office here your headquarters. I want you to feel free to use my telephone or stationery, and if you have any letters to dictate my secretary will be at your service at any time." Then Conkley courteously escorted the man to the door.

The next morning Whitacre found the colored man seated at his roll top desk looking hurt and abused because the secretary wouldn't stand for him dictating a lot of letters.—New York Press.

In Grim Mood.

Bismarck once attended a gathering of prominent men at the house of a Russian nobleman. Throughout the conversation he was particularly sarcastic, cutting friends and opponents unsparingly. When he rose to take his leave and walked downstairs the host called a pet dog that was frisking about and led him to one side.

"Are you afraid the dog will bite me?" asked Bismarck.

"Oh, no," replied the host. "I'm afraid you'll bite the dog."

The chancellor was in such a grim mood that he took this as a compliment and went away smiling.

—Silicus—"When a fellow takes to drink it's a pretty sure sign that some girl has thrown him over."

Cynicus—"Or married him."

TO PAY DOVER $13,011 FOR ABSTRACTING WATER

Trenton, June 21.—The Supreme Court has affirmed a judgment for $13,011.07, obtained by the town of Dover against the Richardson & Boynton Co., which was sued for abstracting water surreplitiously from the mains of the municipality. A previous verdict for $15,881.20 had been set aside by the court on the ground that the amount was not justified by the evidence.

Involved in the suit was an alleged breach of confidence on the part of the company in trying to steal a part of its water supply. In order to afford adequate protection in case of fire, the municipality agreed to leave available a large main, the valves of which it was agreed should not be turned on, except in case of emergency, in which event the company was to pay for such water as might be taken.

Notwithstanding this agreement it was shown that under the direction of certain of their superiors, employes of the company made a practice of turning on these valves, thus obtaining a large part of the company's water supply without the knowledge of the municipal authorities. The court held that the jury was justified in concluding that the town had lost enormous amounts of water by these abstractions.

It was also pointed out by the court that in an action in tort, such as that brought by the town, the evidence does not need to be so convincing as in a similar case on contract.

BOYS MADE TO PAY FOR FUN AT A SKIMMERTON

Washington, N. J., June 21.—Seventeen boys, some of them of kindergarten age, were before Justice of the Peace J. R. Lindaberry in order to settle for the damage caused by the rough-house "skimmerton" Tuesday night.

When the crowd of men and boys serenaded Mrs. Walter Marsden, who had recently been married, they tore fence railings loose and as well the porch railings, besides doing damage to the porch and shrubbery.

Borough Marshal C. N. Shrope was summoned by telephone by Mrs. Anna M. Dawes, who resides next door to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fitts. Mrs. Marsden was visiting at the Dawes home her parents being away. The Dawes home was also damaged.

The police captured one boy and he "squealed" and gave a list of other boys present. Notices were sent saying it would cost the boys about two dollars each to settle for the damage and if it was not paid, warrants would be issued.

Nearly all were on hand Tuesday night, but some misunderstood about bringing the money. After several had stated they had no funds, the marshal stopped the proceedings and instructed the justice to issue warrants for all and try them on disorderly conduct charges.

A tearful scene ensued, the boys following the policeman to the street and some explaining that they had not been present or had not participated. Others said they had money to pay. Another visit was made to the office and arrangements made for each boy to pay a sufficient sum to cover actual damages, amounting all told, to $21.22. This will make each boy pay about $1.25.

GRADUATION AT WHITEHOUSE

The county superintendent, Jason S. Hoffman, of Flemington, also made a brief address. There were twenty graduates in the class as follows: Florence Myers, from the Three Bridges school; Edith and Alice Cooley, East Whitehouse; Mildred and William Catlin, Arthur Engler and Herman F. Kunze, Jr., Whitehouse Station; Lillian Conover Ridge; Esther Bush, Margaret Lane, Earl Conover and Lester Smith, Readington; Hattie Novellie and Harold Hull, Centreville; Mary Everett, Cornelia Hall, Essie Higgins and Jessie Van Doren, Grove; Ethel Goebel, Helen Mundy, Lillian Perilson and John McPherson, Stanton, and Vera Thompson, Dreahook.

'BUS LINE AT PERTH AMBOY.

Perth Amboy, June 21.—A few days ago a motor bus line was established in Perth Amboy, backed by some of the largest transit interests as well as individuals interested in the transfer of out-of-town passengers to stores in the larger cities. The initial line opened by the company is carrying people from Boynton Beach, Sewaren, Port Reading, Chrome and Carteret to Perth Amboy. The chasses of these buses are of the one-and-one-half-ton class. They will seat eighteen passengers and driver and are all of the pay-as-you-enter type. Electric fans cool the cars in summer and a heating system is provided for use in winter. The seats are well upholstered and the interior of the car is well lighted with electric dome lights.

Advertising Pulls—It Doesn't Jerk

That is if it is put together rightly and placed in the right mediums. Under such conditions it is certain to influence your business to the betterment of it if you will only have the courage to "keep at it."

How did John Wanamaker and our other commercial kings build up their vast enterprises? Simply by good business ability and—Advertising constantly—keeping at it. You woudn't apply a liniment with a feather would you, you rub it in—just the same with advertising, except that you keep on rubbing it in and the harder and longer you do the rubbing the greater the returns.

We once read in a country paper the following: "If you have a prosperous business, advertise and keep it—if not advertise and get it. If you can't find the necessary time to devote to advertising your business properly phone us. We have an expert who will put up your "Copy" that will bring sure results.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

BRAISED BEEF.

BRAISING is a combination of steaming and baking. The meat is cooked in the oven in a covered pan, in the bottom of which is enough liquid to create a steam.

The heat must be carefully regulated. On this depends the success of the process. Slow simmering makes the meat tender and savory.

The French Process.

The French braise in a shallow pan the lid of which has a depression in the center that may be filled with hot charcoal when the vessel is set over the fire. However, any stewpan with a tight fitting lid may be used for braising.

Any meat may be braised, but more delicious results may be obtained with beef. As the process properly carried out tends to make tough meat tender, cheap cuts may be prepared in this way very satisfactorily.

A Savory Combination.

Braised Beef With Vegetables.—Take three pounds of beef from the lower part of the round or the face of the rump, two thin slices of fat salt pork, a half tenspoonful of peppercorns, a quarter of a cupful each of pared and chopped carrots, turnips, onions and celery, with pepper and salt to season.

Fry out the pork and remove the slices. Wipe the meat, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour and brown the surface in the pork fat. When turning the meat avoid piercing with a fork, which allows the inner juices to escape. Place in a casserole and surround with vegetables, peppercorns and three cupfuls of boiling water. Cover closely and bake four hours in a very slow oven. Throughout the cooking the liquid should be kept below the boiling point.

Using the Round.

Braised Round of Beef.—Take a nice piece of round and place it in a broad, shallow saucepan which has a tight cover. Drop over it a tablespoonful of melted butter and a finely chopped onion. Brown the beef on one side and then on the other. Now pour about a pint of boiling water over the meat and put on the cover. Let it cook slowly. Fifteen minutes should be allowed for each pound of meat.

When done take out the meat, strain the gravy in the pan, then put it again in the saucepan and on the fire. Thicken with a tablespoonful of browned flour rubbed in a tablespoonful of butter. Season with salt, pepper, minced parsley and any other herb you like. Pour the gravy on the meat, which should have been set on a platter to keep warm near the fire.

THE LIBERTY BELL.

Favors For Fourth of July Feasts.

PATRIOTIC FAVOR BOXES.

A charming and unusual luncheon plan is a Liberty bell table, the idea beginning with the flowers and extending to favors and all minor details.

The centerpiece, by way of a change might be a hanging one, a bell formed of flowers and depending from the chandelier or by ribbons from the ceiling.

Again, you could have the conventional low bed of flowers and just above this one of the silver Liberty bells in papier mache which come for holding candy. Have this swung from the chandelier or from the ceiling by ribbons and fill it with favors to be distributed after the luncheon, or you can fill it with sweets and have as favors little chocolate or silver paper Liberty bells, with the names of the guests written upon them in icing or red ink, as you choose.

Replicas of the old Liberty bell can easily be made provided one can construct the frame of wire by covering the frame with paper which has been dampened, then molded into shape. The outside is afterward tinted in a dull bronze, with the date 1776 across the surface in gold lettering. However, these trifles are so inexpensive that it would be a waste of time for any one to try to make them at home.

There are any number of variations of the articles typical of Independence day shown in favors which will not only add interest but attractiveness to the Fourth of July entertainment.

Useful Traveling Suit.

Scarlet or green silk is introduced in smart touches on the black and white tailored costume, as evidenced in this good looking suit of black and white check, which has a collar and cuffs of black satin faced with apple green.

PEPPER AND SALT COSTUME.

INFLUX AT HOPATCONG BEGINNING TO SET IN

Nolan's Point, Lake Hopatcong, June 21.—Now that school days are over, the cottages, camps and boarding-houses at this usually lively point on the lake are beginning to fill up. Many changes and some additions have been made at the picnic grounds in the way of amusements. The dance pavilions are shining under new coats of paint and the floors are in prime condition for the opening next week.

Among the more recent arrivals who have come for the week-end or week are noticed the following:

At The Sunnyside—Miss Helen Bertholt, of Newark; Miss Helen Wayrich, of Morristown; Miss Ida B. Aynes, of Somerville; Mr. and Mrs. C. Irving Place, J. C. Warnurst, A. P. Brewster, W. B. Fairbanks and R. W. Hall, all of Passaic; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hargrave and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mayhew, of New York.

At Bryant Villa the following have registered for a short stay: Dr. L. E. Kosher, of South Orange; A. F. Kelly and J. P. Breman, of Hoboken; Miss Blanch B. Lansley, of Perth Amboy; Benjamin A. Clark, F. W. Young, Mrs. Walter Braden Dain, J. Beadlee Smith, C. J. McBreen and Harry Farher, of New York City; Miss Mabelle Allen, of Brooklyn; O. M. Taylor and S. J. Boyd, of Philadelphia.

An entertainment, followed by a strawberry and ice cream festival, will be held in the Hopatcong Methodist Episcopal church next Thursday evening. It will consist of a one-act farce entitled "All a Mistake." CONVENTION SEEKS NEW CANDIDATE; T. R.'S PLAN CANNOT BE FIGURED OUT Suggest Hughes, Hadley, Cummins.

BARNES SAYS IT'S TAFT

Roosevelt Apparently Is Playing Waiting Game.

BOLT IDEA IS DISCOURAGED.

Long Session Planned Today In Hope of Winding Up Convention by Tomorrow Night.

Chicago, June 21.—With strong talk of a compromise candidate, with Mr. Roosevelt continuing his threat to bolt and with William Barnes, Jr., insisting that President Taft will be renominated, the Republican national convention assembled at 11 o'clock today to hear the report of the committee on credentials, which had been in session all night.

There is every indication that the committee's report will take up the time of the convention all day today and perhaps far into the night. A roll call of each individual delegate, 1,078 in all, is to be given on all congress district contests, while the verdict in contests for delegates at large is to be rendered by the states voting en bloc.

The hearing on the Alabama contests before the credentials committee was so protracted that the Roosevelt representatives on the committee decided to hear only the contests in Arizona, California, Washington and Texas, thus practically withdrawing all other contests. With the contests in Alabama out of the way the delegates affected by the contests to be heard before the convention assembles at 11 o'clock today were by this action limited to Arizona, six; California, two; Washington, fourteen, and Texas, twenty-six; a total of forty-eight.

Rush to Finish Tomorrow.

Under the rule of an individual roll call for congress district contests and en bloc roll for delegates at large the convention will be compelled to take sixteen roll calls of all those 1,078 delegates in forty-eight states, four territories and the District of Columbia. The work of the convention, including the nomination of a candidate for president and vice president, may be completed by Saturday night. The leaders of the opposing forces and most of their adherents hope with all their hearts that this will come to pass. Unless it does, the chieftains in these warring camps and their more intimate adherents feel that a commander in chief hitherto unmentioned will determine this controversy. His name is fatigue. The leaders declare that they cannot keep this convention over Sunday. If they attempted to do so they believe hundreds of delegates would depart for their homes.

Barnes Says It Will Be Taft.

It has been decided by the Republican leaders in control of the national convention to stand solidly for the nomination of President Taft, rejecting all offers of compromise.

William Barnes, Jr., issued the following statement after a conference with the heads of all the Taft delegates to the convention:

"There was a meeting of the chairmen of all of the Taft delegations from the various states in Mr. Barnes' room and of the representatives of those states where the Taft delegates are in a minority. It was unanimously agreed that the lines shall remain intact for the nomination of President Taft and that no suggestion of compromises would be entertained.

"It was made clear that the delegates represented by these chairmen of delegations are thoroughly alive to the meaning of the battle which has been fought out and won in this convention, that this government is a self controlled democracy, that progress can only be made through orderly procedure and that the constitutional rights of each citizen shall be preserved."

The uninstructed delegates to this convention, or a vast majority of them, feel that their constituencies, the rank and file of the voters, believe that both President Taft and ex-President Roosevelt should be set aside and a new candidate selected. The foremost name among those mentioned as the compromise or harmony candidate is Associate Justice Charles E. Hughes of New York.

Among the Roosevelt men Governor H. S. Hadley is a prime favorite, and for that matter Hadley is mighty well spoken of in the Taft camp. Senator Kenyon of Iowa is still firmly convinced that Senator Cummins should be the compromise candidate for president, but it is difficult to note any substantiality to the Cummins boom. Of course Senator La Follette's friends continue to hope that he may run off with the prize, and La Follette has very many strong friends in the progressive wing of the Republican party.

MORE TALK OF HUGHES.

Associate Justice Again Looms Large as Compromise Candidate.

Borah Will Not Bolt.

It is positively known, notwithstanding any claims made to the contrary, that all that Roosevelt may now claim as his own for bolting purposes are the states of California and Pennsylvania.

Senator Borah admitted that Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Flinn no longer consulted him, and he added, "If they want to bolt, let them do it and be through with it. I don't know what they are doing. Some people say that they do not know themselves what they are doing. If they will call me in I will try to give them some sound advice which I know they won't follow. I believe, though, that Mr. Roosevelt and certain of his friends contemplate a bolt of some kind."

The best opinion is that after fighting over the report of the committee on credentials the Roosevelt adherents, after the verdict of the convention is rendered, will sit mum in their seats just as the New York delegation did in the Democratic national convention of 1896 after the platform including the sixteen to one silver plank was adopted in that convention.

So certain are the anti-Roosevelt men that they have Colonel Roosevelt that it became known that several of the colonel's friends had made overtures to the authorities of the convention that he should be allowed to address the convention. In the usual course of events this would require a majority vote of the delegates. Colonel Roosevelt was assured by those who could speak with certainty that if at any time he desired to address the convention the opportunity would be afforded for him to do so.

Plan to Hold Rump Convention.

The Roosevelt delegates agreed to attend the convention to the end, but in case the credentials committee brings in a report unfavorable to the Roosevelt delegates who were unseated by the national committee they further agreed they would take no part in the business of what they declare to be an illegal body. At this meeting, which was composed of two delegates from each Roosevelt state, it was further decided that after the Taft delegates have adjourned sine die the Roosevelt men will hold a rump convention of their own and nominate Theodore Roosevelt for president.

Somewhat earlier Colonel Roosevelt made a declaration over his own signature that he would accept such a nomination. He added the proviso that the feeling for his nomination must be general among the progressives. In that case he would run for the presidency on a progressive platform.

T. R. Plans Waiting Game.

Chicago, June 21.—The interpretation placed upon the situation in Chicago by those who talked with Colonel Roosevelt was that he had abandoned all hopes of being nominated by the Republican party. They were quoting his expression: "If there is to be a progressive party I will be in it, but we will have to see first if the people want such a party."

Men close to Colonel Roosevelt interpret this as meaning that the Roosevelt forces, under the colonel's direction, will not proceed to organize immediately after the Taft forces have finished their work. They predict that there will be an interval during which Colonel Roosevelt will take new political soundings. And they are inclined to believe that further aggressive action on his part will be delayed until after the Baltimore convention.

These men say if the Democratic convention should nominate a pronounced conservative following the nomination of President Taft by the Republicans the colonel would still have a chance as the candidate of a third party. They admit that such experiment would be expensive and cannot see where the money will come from unless success was probable.

Colonel Roosevelt, after coming out of the meeting, made a statement in which he said that the decision of his delegates not to be bound by any action of the convention, providing the "illegally seated delegates" are allowed to vote, was unanimous. He said that Governors Hadley, Stubbs and Deneen and "all the others" were there. He added:

"This does not mean that all of them will bolt, but it means that they will reserve the right to do what they wish, and that they will take no active part in a convention where the fraudulent eighty are allowed to vote."

Demonstration For T. R.

Chicago, June 21.—The convention hall filled rather rapidly yesterday afternoon, so far as the galleries were concerned, and most of the delegates were in their seats by ten minutes to 4, the hour set for reconvening. There was an air of expectancy manifested on the part of the crowd that filled every seat in the place. The various rumors that came from the Roosevelt camp and other sources that could not be traced has percolated through the entire town, natives, visitors and delegates, and all sorts of things were said to be about to happen and were expected to occur.

While nothing of real importance took place, the spectators witnessed a demonstration in favor of Roosevelt which made up in some degree for the brevity and perfunctory nature of both the morning and afternoon official sessions of the convention. The demonstration resulted in nothing and finally died of sheer inanition after a brief existence of forty minutes. But while it lasted it was at least amusing and served to while away the time and allow the spectators to file out slowly into the rainstorm that started just as the convention was called to order.

At 3:56 Chairman Root walked upon the platform and was at once greeted with a hearty outburst of applause from both spectators and delegates. The New York delegation was hearty in its cries of "Root," "Root," which were led by Herbert Parsons. Senator Depew and Speaker Merritt. Mr. Watson of Indiana was already on the platform, and he had a brief conference with Mr. Root.

At 4 p. m. Senator Root called the convention to order. A moment later Mr. Watson stepped in front of the chairman's table and said, for the second time:

"Mr. Chairman, inasmuch as the committee on credentials is not yet ready to report, and inasmuch as no business is in order until that committee shall have reported, I move that the convention do now adjourn until 12"—

"Eleven," corrected Mr. Root. "Until 11 tomorrow."

This statement was greeted with audible signs of disappointment on the part of both delegates and audience, and it was amid some confusion that the motion was put and announced carried by the chairman. Many in the audience and among the delegates got to their feet and started as though to leave the hall, and the band struck up a march to get them out quickly.

Roar of "We Want Teddy!"

Amid the noise of shuffling feet and the buzz of conversation and the loud "What a shame!" and other similar remarks from the many ladies present there suddenly came a cry of "We want Teddy!" It was shouted by a man who stood in the west gallery about twenty feet from the spot where Mrs. Davis had made her convention debut. No one did more than look and laugh at first at this stout, smooth faced, middle aged man standing there waving his hat from side to side and yelling out in a regular sing song style, "We want Teddy! We want Teddy! We want Teddy!"

It didn't take much more than a minute, though, for some of the Roosevelt delegates to take up the cry. They were all on their feet, and it was not possible for a minute to see just where the shouts came from, but as soon as they got in the swing one could pick out the main groups. The Pennsylvanians were the first to get in swing, and then in quick fashion followed the Californians, Ohioans, Texans, the men from Oklahoma and the scattered Roosevelt delegates in other states. The cry grew steadily in volume. The main cry of "We want Teddy!" soon proved too monotonous for many of them and they varied it with "What's the matter with Teddy? He's all right!" "Who's all right? Teddy!" and this was picked up by a body of Wisconsin men in the east gallery, who still further varied it with their regular Wisconsin yell of "Rah, rah, rah, Wisconsin! Rah, rah, rah, Wisconsin!"

Demonstration Renewed.

At 4:30 there was a noticeable lull in the noise, and people in the galleries began to file slowly out. The delegates were getting tired of the fuss, it seemed, and some of them left their places and made a dragging procession toward the exits. And all this time the men in the west gallery never ceased their efforts, and at 4:25 they commenced to bear fruit again.

The cry of "We want Teddy!" was taken up again by the Roosevelt men and began to be heard from different parts of the gallery as well as on the floor. Even the telegraph messenger boys joined in the cry and helped the excitement, such as it was, along. Apparently there was to be something doing, after all—something worth while—was the general idea, and even the delegates caught the excitement and the Roosevelt men redoubled their efforts and their shouts. The shouter in the west gallery was talked to by a policeman for a minute, but immediately resumed his shouting and waving. His voice was fast going, however, and at 4:28 all he could do was to wave his hat and move his lips as though he were shouting. At 4:30 he quit doing that even.

Then the Taft men began to wake up a bit. A small group in the rear gallery, high up back of the platform, began to shout "We want Taft!" through megaphones and made quite a bit of headway against the Roosevelt men, who were beginning to get tired. Something had to be done to start them up again, and the Californians tried to turn the trick. They pinned a picture of Roosevelt to the big American flag they carry with their delegation and hoisted it up as high as they could.

March Around the Hall.

Down the middle aisle they came in lockstep, shouting rather faintly because of the weariness of their throats, "We want Teddy!" in monotonous regularity. Round they marched down the east aisle past Pennsylvania, Texas, Ohio and away around to the back, past the southern and western delegations, the territorial delegates and back again to their own seat. But never another delegation or even a single delegate joined them. They were greeted with some cheers.

Then the man in the west gallery tried to start things up again. He was successful in arousing the crowd to feats of noise making, and that was all the demonstration really amounted to—an escape of pent up steam.

Weather Forecast.

Generally fair today and tomorrow; not much change in temperature; light variable winds, mostly westerly.

The resolution authorizes George W. Fuller, sanitary engineer, to make surveys and prepare maps, plans, reports and estimates of the proposed work to be presented to the clerk of each municipality, together with an estimated cost and expense of the work and annual cost of maintenance, repairs and other data.

Other resolutions adopted authorized that Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, of Newark, be engaged to look after the legal part of the work, it being understood that the firm is to represent all three municipalities; also that Hawkins, Delafield & Longfellow, of New York, bond experts, be engaged to pass upon the bonds to be issued in connection with the proposed improvement.

Councilmen Endress and Reville thought it possible to have local attorneys attend to this matter, but when Councilman George S. Clay, who acted as chairman of the meeting, explained the necessity of having lawyers who are thoroughly familiar with the work, and who would not be prejudiced, and bond experts to pass upon the bonds so that the best bid could be obtained in the New York market, they agreed with the other members.

The resolution adopted by the three Councils is as follows:

"Whereas, It is now proposed that the City of Plainfield, the Borough of North Plainfield and the Borough of Dunellen shall jointly provide, maintain and operate a system of conveying or conducting sewage from said municipalities, from a point at or near the present sewage disposal plant of the city of Plainfield, to be agreed upon, to a common destination or disposal plant or plants at or near the junction of the Bound Brook and Green Brook in the Township of Piscataway and to construct, maintain and operate within or without the said municipalities, one or more outlet or trunk sewers, plants, works or stations for the treatment, disposal or rendering of sewage:

"Now, therefore be it resolved, That George W. Fuller be and he is hereby authorized on behalf of the City of Plainfield, at the expense of the said City and the Borough of North Plainfield and the Borough of Dunellen, to make surveys and prepare maps, plans, reports and estimates of the said proposed works and improvements and after the same have been completed to deliver said maps, plans, reports and estimates, or true copies thereof, to the clerk of each of the municipalities aforesaid, together with a statement or estimate of the cost and expense of such proposed improvement or works and also an estimate of the annual cost of maintenance, repairs, operation and supervision of such proposed improvement or works, provided, however, that the liability of the City of Plainfield by reason hereof shall not arise until after the governing body or board of the said Borough of North Plainfield and Borough of Dunellen authorized by law to have charge of the sewer systems established or to be established in said Boroughs, shall have passed a resolution similar hereto.

"Resolved, That the cost of obtaining said plans, maps, reports and estimates shall be paid by the three municipalities in the following proportion: City of Plainfield, 63 per cent.; Borough of North Plainfield, 25 per cent.; Borough of Dunellen, 7 per cent."

It is expected that Mr. Fuller will begin his task at once so that a report may be received at the earliest posible date and the work proceed with all possible haste. After the plans are prepared they will be submitted to the State Board of Health for approval. The representatives of the municipalities who appeared before the board this week, seemed to feel that favorable action will be taken by the board when the plans are laid before them.

BOROUGH COUNCILMEN HAVE BUSY SESSION

Sewer Resolutions and Many Other Matters Brought up for Action.

The report of the Sewerage Commission on the understanding regarding a trunk line arrived at between Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen at a joint conference several days ago was read at last night's meeting of the North Plainfield Council. Regarding the maintenance expenses to be apportioned, the report stated that they differed but slightly from those proposed in 1909, which contemplated North Plainfield's paying 25 per cent of the first cost and renting to Dunellen 1¾ per cent. of the capacity from that to which the borough would have been entitled. The plan now under consideration will entitle North Plainfield to a percentage of the entire system in direct proportion to its contribution thereto, i. e., 25 per cent. Instead of renting a part of this capacity to Dunellen, North Plainfield will retain the entire 25 per cent. for its own use. Apart from this minor change, the terms of the present plan and that of 1909 are practically identical.

On the motion of Councilman Milne a vote of thanks to the Sewerage Commission was passed and the report adopted.

The Council voted to appoint Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, of Newark, together with Delafield & Longfellow, of New York, to attend to the legal questions involved in the sewerage plan.

Councilman J. J. Stahl moved that a resolution requiring ten days' notice to be given in the case of building permits, be rescinded. The motion was not seconded and an amendment by Councilman W. I. Buttfield, seconded by Councilman Milne, to refer the question to a committee of three to investigate and report at the next regular meeting was adopted.

Some discussion took place on an application by the Shade Tree Commission over a further appropriation. The Mayor stated that the Council had appropriated $250 for the commission and he understood that 150 trees, at a dollar each, had been sprayed, but that the money had not been collected. He was of the opinion that immediate steps should be taken to collect this sum. Action on the appropriation was deferred.

Building permits were granted to Charles B. Stephens, Grandview avenue, for a barn; J. C. Peck, of Watchung avenue, a garage, and J. W. Murray, Sycamore street, to build an addition to a porch.

The residents of Duer and Dupont streets, petitioned the Council to have sidewalks laid from Howard street to Greenbrook road, and from Dupont to Somerset street. The matter was referred to the street committee.

On the question of macadamizing Steiner place it was anticipated that there would be some objections, but there were none, and the Council decided to proceed with the work as soon as possible.

A letter was read from Brooks Carson requesting Council to lay sidewalks on the west side of Westervelt avenue to Franklin avenue, between Brook and Manning avenues.

The Council on the report of the street committee authorized the employment of M. L. French & Co. to oil the streets at one and a quarter cents per square yard. At the last regular meeting the Council appropriated $600 for this purpose.

DISCUSS DISMISSAL OF CAR FRACAS COMPLAINT

Rahway, June 22.—There has been discussion regarding the action of Justice John W. Buckley in dismissing the case against Charles Lyons, who is alleged to have terrorized passengers in a trolley car Sunday.

The court on the plea of Lyons' counsel, David Armstrong, that the trouble occurred outside the city limits, released Lyons. Mayor Fyffe was a passenger on the car. He said he favored reopening the case.

Lyons twice escaped pursuers and crossed the Rahway River in his flight.

Lyons is widely known in this city, which is rather more his home than any other place he elects to frequent.

TAFT NOMINATION CERTAIN; 'T. R.' CONVENTION FOR FIRST WEEK IN AUGUST

Chicago, June 22, 2:10 p. m.—The Credentials Committee is not considering the Texas situation. The committee will report within an hour.

Chicago, June 22, 2 p. m.—The credentials committee is expected to bring in its report shortly. It will be accepted by the convention. Then the platform committee will report and its recommendations will be approved.

The nomination of Taft will then be made to be followed by those of Cummings and LaFollette. It is not expected that Roosevelt's name will be offered. The plan is to vote tonight and to adjourn before midnight.

(American Press Association.)

New Haven, June 22, 1 p. m.—Governor Baldwin, of Connecticut, wired today in reply to Bryan's telegram from Chicago opposing the selection of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the Democratic Convention. He advised against Bryan's course in opposing Parker and pointed to the disruption of the Republican party through the use of similar tactics, and appealed to him to use his influence for harmony at Baltimore.

(American Press Association.)

Chicago, June 22, 1 p. m.—The opinion of nearly every party leader today is that President Taft will be renominated and his running mates selected following the adoption of a compromise platform, in which concessions will be made to the Progressives, and that the convention will have adjourned sine die before midnight tonight.

The condensing of the platform and the endorsement of Taft and the tariff planks was begun today by the resolutions committee, which planned to present the platform to the convention at noon.

Although the convention was scheduled for 10 o'clock, up to that hour hardly half of the delegates had arrived. Very few seats in the galleries were occupied at that hour.

Senator Elihu Root, temporary chairman called the convention to order at 10:43.

The credentials committee reported acceptance of the Mississippi delegates who included the district delegates at large.

The report on the seating of the Second Congressional Mississippi delegates was adopted as well as the Taft delegates from the Seventh and Fourth Districts of North Carolina, the Third Congressional District of Oklohoma, and the second Tennessee District.

The Credentials Committee's report on the seating of the state delegates in Washington has been adopted.

(By Leslie R. Fort.)
(Special despatch to Daily Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June 22.—The complete disruption of the Republican party is being carried out at the session of the Republican National Conventon today. The contests over the disputed delegates were begun this morning as soon as the convention gathered, and when they are completed, the majority of the Roosevelt men from the various states will sit quietly in their seats and the work of nominating Mr. Taft will be rushed through the convention. A platform will be adopted and the gathering will probably finally adjourn before the day is over.

The balloting will be done by the men controlled by the old machine officers and the Roosevelt men will merely sit by so that they will not be counted as bolters. What the further plans of the Colonel are is not known but that he will be an independent candidate for the nomination for President is assured and in his determination he has the backing of practically all of the leaders who have stood by him in his effort to bring about an honest convention. There is talk that another convention will be held here in August, but nothing definite has been made known on that score.

Delegates are already beginning to leave and those who are staying are merely here so that they will not be put down as bolters. They have no heart in the convention. The attitude this morning was more like that of mourners at a funeral than of men who are nominating the man whom they think would be the next President of the United States.

Long on enthusiasm, but decidedly short on food, the New Jersey delegates sat through another nine hour session yesterday and this morning without one man leaving his seat. With methodical regularity the delegation voted "no" time after time as efforts were made to upset the rulings of the Credentials Committee majority in the various contested cases. The Jerseymen have reached

LUCKY SEXTETTE OFF FOR EUROPE

Daily Press Tourists Leave on the Steamer Merion from Philadelphia.

FAREWELLS AT THE PIER

Dinner to Mrs. Clarence Brokaw at Hotel Walton—Miss Leighs' Father Has Recollections of His Arrival in This Country.

Waving flags and handkerchiefs in gay farewell to relatives and friends on the pier, the six young women in the Daily Press European Tour party started away this morning aboard the steamer Merion, from Philadelphia, bound for Liverpool and the first stage of a two-months' trip that will take them to England, France, Holland, Belgium, Germany and Switzerland was begun.

The arrival of the party in Philadelphia yesterday, the jolly manner in which they spent the afternoon and evening, and their departure for the storied lands abroad is described as follows in today's issue of the Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia's biggest and leading newspaper:

"The five pretty girls, who, with a chaperone, are being given a trip abroad by the "Daily Press," of Plainfield, N. J., sailed for Liverpool at 10 o'clock this morning on the American Liner Merion.

"Assembled on the pier to see the voyagers off, was a group of friends and relatives from Plainfield and neighboring towns. As the liner slowly backed from her berth there was an interchange of gay farewells and "bon voyages."

"The girls lined up by the rail, waved tiny American flags and handkerchiefs to those on the pier as the vessel swung around in the river, and, pointing her nose down stream, gathered speed for her trip across the Atlantic. Those who had assembled to bid farewell remained on the wharf until the big liner, with flags flying from stem to stern, turned a bend in the Delaware and was lost to view.

"The 'Daily Press' party, which arrived here yesterday afternoon, was composed of the Misses Agnes H. McWilliams, Ethel M. Hudson, A. Agnes Leighs, Mabel H. Vail, Helen Howard and Mrs. Clarence Brokaw. Miss Howard is the chaperone. All live in Plainfield but Miss McWilliams, whose home is in Raritan, N. J., and Miss Howard, who lives in Higham, Mass.

"Upon their arrival here, the winners of the 'Daily Press' popularity contest went to the Colonnade Hotel, and after leaving their luggage, went to the City Hall Plaza, where for a while they watched the game between the Athletics and Washington as portrayed on a score board. Then they visited the office of 'The Bulletin' and were shown through the big newspaper plant, displaying great interest in all they saw. In the evening they went to the theatre.

"Early this morning they went on board the Marion. Among those who saw them off were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Arensberg, Clarence Brokaw, Mrs. W. J. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Green, John McWilliams, the Misses Mary and Gertrude McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Leighs, Mrs. Adelbert Vail, Mrs. Frank Knight, the Misses Cahill and John Cahill.

"The tour will take the girls into England, Holland, Belgium, Germany and Switzerland. They will return August 11."

Mrs. Clarence T. Brokaw, one of the Plainfield Daily Press European tourists, was given a dinner in Philadelphia last night by Martin Ward, of the National Packing Company, previous to her departure this morning. The dinner was given at the Hotel Walton. There were attractive floral decorations, and during the evening there was both vocal and instrumental music.

In the course of a neat speech Mr. Ward presnted Mrs. Brokaw with a gold locket set with diamonds. Among the guests beside Mrs. Brokaw were Mr. and Mrs. Arensberg.

An interesting fact in connection with the departure of the Plainfielders is that it was just twenty-five years ago today that George Leighs, father of Miss Agnes Leighs, came to this country from England, and during that time he has lived in this city and has prospered. Today his daughter sails for Europe. After completing the prescribed two months' tour, Miss Leighs will visit her grandparents in England, returning home later.

TAFT THE NOMINEE ?

Chicago, June 22.—Indications as the convention opened for its fifth session are that President Taft will be renominated. A new development is the talk that Governor Herbert S. Hadley, who got the big ovation on Wednesday, will be running mate. Hadley hasn't said whether he will accept second place on the ticket.

Early today it became known that Colonel Roosevelt has urged Governor Hadley not to consent to a nomination for the vice presidency in this convention. Governor Hadley has taken the matter under advisement.

Taft's Managers Are Cautious.

President Taft's campaigners fully realize that they must play their hand cautiously and yet firmly in order that the slender majority given to the president's cause in the convention shall not be weakened. No mistakes must be made in the next few hours, the president's friends assert. It will require 540 votes to nominate, and the president's friends believe that the test vote of 569 represents his total strength. It will thus be noted that the president has but twenty-nine votes to the good.

It is the opinion of Senator Crane and of most of the Taft leaders that if they can hold their advantage gained yesterday in the decisions of the committee on the contested delegates by the time the last of these cases had been disposed of their majority will have become so firmly welded that there will be little to risk in going to a vote on the presidency.

There is no danger, the Taft men assert, of Roosevelt's nomination, but there is danger, in the judgment of many, that the nomination may go to a third candidate. Governor Hadley has made a great reputation for himself with many of the delegates to this convention. There is no mistaking the fact that Senator Root as presiding officer has also gained the admiration of many delegates.

Colonel Roosevelt's most intimate friends are insistent in declaring that if President Taft is remominated the third party movement will be vitalized Such a movement, however, these friends of Colonel Roosevelt assert, would be vastly expensive.

Colonel's Final Plea.

A final caucus of the Roosevelt delegates was held to make plans for today. Colonel Roosevelt made impassioned addresses and pleaded with the delegates to remain firm on the plan of action mapped out, which binds the delegation not to vote on any motion while the contested delegates retain their seats.

According to one of the delegates, he told them that plans were being made as quickly as possible for the formation of a third party. If the delegates disregard the present plan and cast their votes on the nomination, Roosevelt feels that it will be a blow to his daring plan to organize the progressives and hold a new national convention.

If Roosevelt can help it his name will not be placed before the convention tomorrow. Comptroller Prendergast, who was scheduled to make the nomination speech for him, has been called off.

Taft Men Are Frightened.

The narrow margin of the test vote in the convention on the California contests frightened President Taft's chieftains within an inch of their lives. On that ballot the total was 542 for the Taft contestants and 529 for the Roosevelt contestants. And there were only seven absentees. The Taft delegates on this main question of the presidential nomination can be relied upon to stick to the president as long as he is a candidate for the nomination, in the judgment of Mr. Taft's leaders here, but what many of these delegates state is that, inasmuch as Colonel Roosevelt has been beaten and the purpose of the Taft chieftains accomplished, the president should be magnanimous and remember that there are to be elections in most of the states this fall for governors, legislatures which are to elect United States senators and elections for members of the house of representatives. Other delegates do not entertain the views and will not tolerate the hearing of them from their fellows.

An amazing climax to many came when Governor Stubbs of Kansas, after leaving Colonel Roosevelt, said:

"There will be no bolt. This talk of a bolt is foolish. Colonel Roosevelt never talked about a bolt. Our delegation and all other Roosevelt delegations will remain in the convention until the nomination is made, I believe. There can be no compromise candidate as far as we are concerned."

With the committee on credentials progressing in their work of determining the contests and with the convention acting upon the decisions of the committee two test votes taken in the convention demonstrate that with the La Follette and Cummins men voting against the Taft men the latter on one test vote won by 569 to 499. On a second test vote with the La Follette delegates and the Cummins delegates voting with the Taft men the latter won by a vote of 605 to 469. The first test vote, whereby the Taft men were victorious by 569 to 499, is the best evidence of the present strength of the president in the convention in the estimation of influential Taft representatives here.

The Word Umbrella.

The English word umbrella is very like the Latin, coming through the Italian "ombbrella," or "little shade." The French, German, Spanish and others give it a distinctive name, such as "parapluie," "regenschirm" and "paraguas." "Umbrella" and "parasol" are etymologically precisely the same thing, but custom has given them the distinctions that we understand today.

In Message to Candidates Says He's "Reactionary."

DEMOCRATIC CAMP UPSET

Henry Watterson Fears That Bryan Will Prove a "Second Roosevelt." Clark Managers Feel That They Are In Awkward Position—Taggart Says Bryan Refused Chairmanship.

Chicago, June 22.—William Jennings Bryan has thrown down the gauntlet to Judge Alton B. Parker. He says he is a "reactionary." Mr. Bryan sent a telegram to all the presidential candidates asking them to join him in preventing the election of Judge Parker as temporary chairman of the Baltimore convention. Those who received the telegrams were Speaker Clarke, Governor Wilson of New Jersey, Governor Burke of North Dakota, Governor Foss of Massachusetts, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut and Mayor Gaynor of New York city.

It was as follows:

In the interest of harmony I suggested to the subcommittee of the Democratic national committee the advisability of recommending as temporary chairman some progressive acceptable to the leading progressive candidates for the presidential nomination. I took it for granted that no committeeman interested in Democratic success would desire to offend the members of a convention overwhelmingly progressive by naming a reactionary to sound the keynote of the campaign.

Eight members of the subcommittee, however, have over the protest of the remaining eight agreed upon not only a reactionary, but upon the Democrat who among those not candidates for the presidential nomination is in the eyes of the people most conspicuously identified with the reactionary element of the party.

I shall be pleased to join you and your friends in opposing his selection by the full committee or by the convention. Kindly answer here. W. J. BRYAN.

Baltimore Hears the News.

Baltimore, June 22.—The news of Bryan's telegram to the six presidential candidates created a stir in Baltimore when it was received. The lobby of the Belvidere hotel, where the Democratic national committee has its headquarters, was thrown into confusion. The confusion in the lobby of the Belvidere was mild, however, compared with the commotion caused down the Emerson hotel, where the various presidential booms are housed. The Clark people realized from the start that Bryan had given them a hard nut to crack. The Harmon and the Underwood boomers went around smiling. Mr. Taggart was plainly irritated over the turn the fight against Bryan had taken.

ALTON B. PARKER.

"There was not the slightest disposition by anybody on the committee of arrangements," said Mr. Taggart, "to offend Mr. Bryan or any other Democrat. We selected Judge Parker because he had been at one time the party's nominee for president, and he always has been a good Democrat."

Bryan "Second Roosevelt."

Louisville, Ky., June 22.—Foreseeing, he declares, the possibility of a re-enactment at Baltimore of scenes at Chicago, Henry Watterson sent a long telegram to Chairman Mack of the national Democratic committee at Baltimore making a plea for Democratic harmony. He says he opposed Judge Parker for temporary chairman, but adds:

"What the Democrats at this time most need and require is the pooling of issues, not the raising of disturbance. I especially hope Mr. Bryan will see the force of this. Like yourself, I am his friend.

"I fear that if Mr. Bryan, thrice the nominee of the party for president, should begin by taking the floor to oppose Judge Parker, once its nominee, he will not only raise the standard of factionalism, but will run the risk of being a second Roosevelt."

Weather Forecast.

Fair today and Sunday; light variable winds, mostly westerly.

—Mrs. Fidget—What's that noise I hear down in the library? Mr. Fidgit—Must be the history repeating itself. Go to sleep.—Puck.

HURRY ALONG !

IF YOU WANT TO OWN PROPERTY

AT A SHORE RESORT

Now's the time to speculate in water front property, as supply and demand create increased values and the demand for property along the shores is increasing all the time. The day is not far off when there won't be enough to supply the demand, as nature is creating no more shore front property, and that limitation must mean big profits to owners of lots on or near the shore.

Fortunes are constantly being made in Real Estate located along the Jersey coast. The history of Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other famous resorts are well known to all. In 1888 a small parcel of unimproved property was offered for $8,000 and it was hard to find a buyer at that figure. Some few years later this same sand dune without any improvements sold for $447,000; today the present owner would not sell for $1,200,000.

The early history of Atlantic City is that it sold for $200. Now the property on the boardwalk is worth $1,000 to $5,000 a front foot. A recent sale there was a plot at $150,000, which less than ten years ago sold for $6,000. Besides, other lots at a popular watering resort could be bought for a few hundred dollars which today are worth $40,000 to $50,000.

Ocean Gate is young, but is growing faster than any other shore resort on any coast, and water front lots and other sites at present prices are a good purchase, for big profits in the near future. History is bound to repeat itself, and why not? Ocean Gate is within easy riding distance by rail from Asbury Park, Belmar, Sea Girt and Point Pleasant, and other shore resorts, and we are offering very choice bungalow lots on new section at prices as low as $50, upon convenient monthly payments. Shore front lots and business sites at attractive prices and terms.

Write, call or phone for tickets for our Free Guest train to Ocean Gate on Sunday next, in the forenoon.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, JUNE 22, 1912.

The editorial columns of this paper are conducted on Saturdays by representative citizens who are free to express their own views. H. K. Carroll, Ph. D., one of the leading laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America, the late President McKinley's special commissioner of education to Porto Rico, the U. S. Government religious census statistician, and an editor and contributing writer to religions magazines, is the contributing editor for today.

ARE WE TOO MUCH GOVERNED?

In these days of new ideas new movements and new schemes one runs the risk of being called "an old fogy," or "a fossil," or "a left-over from the past century," if he ventures to oppose some of the new things. Neverthless, I dare to say that some things that are not new are good and true and helpful, and some things that are new are not worth while.

I know that the spirit of the age requires that things both new and old shall be tried, or, in common parlance, "tried out," and that whatever fails to stand the test shall be abandoned. No fair-minded man should object to this, though he may believe that it is time, labor and money lost to experiment with some of the fads and fancies of the day.

The initiative, the referendum and the recall are popular exceedingly popular, in some sections of the country just now, but I think that most philosophical obesrvers are convinced that they will ere long go to the place of broken and cast-out machinery. It may be, however, some valuable hints will be caught by the wise from the workings of these popular measures and wrought into our permanent civil system for good. Sociology is patiently planning for the solution of immense problems and who shall say that the initiative and referendum tried in the Australasian world before our law makers took them up, may not yield a cog, or a lever, or a wheel needed for a perfect political sociology?

However this may be, these new things must be tried. The life-and-death struggle now going on demands new solutions for the new conditions which face men. The masses, surging against economical barriers which special privilege and entrenched interest have built up, must have relief, and new conditions making the life-struggle less tragical and less hopeless must be the outcome that is, if the general course of humanity is to be upward, as all optimists hope and believe, and not downward as the pessimists predict.

Firmly believing that the result of the contest between the conservative and the radical will be on the whole to the advantage of the next generation, I wish to give expression to some personal feelings concerning some of the new ideas and hopes.

First, I think too much is expected from legislation. Men seem to think that all that is dishonest and corrupt and tends to vitiate the will and the rights of the people can be prevented by wisely devised legal machinery. The political, industrial and commercial bosses, engaged in all sorts of intrigues to cheat and rob the general public can be outwitted and defeated by cunning legal traps. Hence elaborate primary laws, the initiative, referendum and recall; hence, a commission form of municipal government; hence anti-trust legislation and various devices intended to prevent conscienceless corporations and evil-minded individuals from wrong-doing. These measures may or may not be greatly helpful; but that they will be effective as final solutions of the problems they deal with no student of history can reasonably expect. The cunning of the legislators will be more than matched by the cunning of the lawyers and the bosses and the corporation captains. The last three classes are more numerous than the law makers, more alert, more constant and have more lucrative interests to serve. Can the law maker devise any machine that the lawyer cannot run?

Second, too little is expected of the individual citizen. The best primary system that the mind of man can devise must be ineffective unless those possessed of the franchise will do their duty and personally discharge their responsibility. If they do not go to the polls to decide who shall be the nominees, leaving it to the few as in ordinary elections, how can the primary reflect the will of the people. And how, so long as this state of affairs obtains, can the will of political bosses be frustrated? There is no device that can take the place of the intelligent voter, and the new primary system will 'ere long prove as ineffective as the old unless the enfranchized citizen can be induced to work it. It has, to my mind, some marked disadvantages in comparison with the old; it is costly, it makes in effect an additional election, and it is an invasion of the voluntary principle of party initiative. These are not objections that seriously count if the new system will accomplish what is expected of it. On this point I am frankly skeptical. Of one thing I am satisfied, the so-called senatorial preference primaries are wrong in principle, weak in operation and absurd in outcome. The presidential preference primaries are likewise absurd, ineffective and inconclusive.

Third, I think the emphasis should not be placed upon the law, but upon the man. If we are to have the kind of municipal government we want we must work for it as individual citizens and persevere until we get it. No primary system, no municipal system, however advanced it may be, will insure it. If we want honest, economical, efficient State or National government we must give heart, mind and soul to the securing of it. In other words, our governmental affairs cannot be properly run by machinery. They require men with a sense of responsibility, placed in position by citizens having the good of city, State and nation at heart and ever ready to commend, to criticise, to uphold, to overthrow, as official conduct may require.

Fourth, in conclusion, I want to express the hope that we have reached the extreme limit in minute legislation. The legislatures have for years been invading provinces left, since the inception of law and order, to individual occupancy. Laws and ordinances hem us in on every side. Men used to enjoy the privilege of regulating their own lives; now statute and ordinance step in and take this privilege out of their hands. They may not go out with gun or dog for a day's sport without having at least two licenses; they may not even keep a flock of hens without municipal permission. Presently one will have to get a license to go a fishing, or to ride a bicycle, or to raise a crop of beans, or to grow thorny rose bushes, or to ring a dinner bell.

This is an age of statute-making and taxation run mad. Moses gave his nation a decalogue. Our law-givers are constructing a millilogue for us. It is high time to break the tables before anything more is written upon them. As to taxes they are sure as death and are becoming more terrible.

Plainfield Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Plainfield citizen:

A. C. Lazzi, 44 Elm place, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I still endorse Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity and I confirm all I said in their praise when I publicly recommended them some years ago. You are at liberty to continue using my statement, for this excellent medicine cannot be given too much praise. For several years I was annoyed by a distressing backache, together with pains through my kidneys. My head also ached severely and the kidney secretions were in bad shape. I went to several physicians and also took so-called kidney cures, but it did not seem as though I could get relief. As time passed and I did not improve, I became discouraged. When suffering intensely I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and I got a supply at Randolph's drug store. As if by magic my pains and aches disappeared and my condition improved in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills deserve the entire credit for restoring me to good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

IN WOMAN'S REALM

HERE AND THERE.

Dome Parasols the Latest in Sunshades.

The novelty parasol, called the dome" or "barrel," is rapidly gaining in favor.

There is quite a penchant for blue in millinery circles at present, chiefly of the vivid shades.

There is a slight increase of fullness in the skirt. Tunics, double and triple skirts are to be worn.

An essential note in millinery is the lightness of its trimming. One rich feather or a garland of flowers suffices.

With the tailor made suits and dresses short mannish gloves with stitched cucks are worn almost exclusively.

This simple little frock is buttoned right down the front and is a most at-

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

TOOTHSOME BUNS.

THE slightly sweetened rolls or biscuits known as buns are delicious to serve at summer luncheons where fruits and vegetables should be the chief dishes.

Buns are baked in various shapes, but they are all prepared in about the same way.

Never try to make buns with poor yeast.

Bath buns are buns made with currants.

These Are Quickly Made.

Breakfast Buns.—Take a cup of butter, a cup of sugar, three eggs and beat them together. Add a quart of bread sponge. Work as for light bread. Let rise, then roll and cut into cakes. Place in greased tins. Let rise three or four hours and bake in a quick oven ten minutes.

Crisp Cakes.

Rich Luncheon Buns.—Mix a pound of butter with a pound of sifted flour. Beat the yolks of six eggs with a pound of sugar and add to the flour and butter. If too stiff add a little milk. Whip the whites of egg stiff and stir in last with a teaspoonful of baking powder. Bake half an hour in a pan well greased and with the bottom lined with paper. If the cakes brown too fast put a buttered paper over the tops to be removed at the last to allow proper browning.

This recipe makes a crisper cake than the usual one, where butter and sugar are creamed together.

With Currants.

Bath Buns.—Take a pint of milk, heat it and add a half cake of compressed yeast. Stir in a quart of sifted flour. Set aside to rise for about three hours. Then put in a half cupful of butter rubbed to a cream with one cupful of powdered sugar, one beaten egg, flour enough to make a soft dough and a cupful of floured currants. Knead quickly, let rise until light, then make into small buns. Set them close together on pans and let rise again. When light brush the tops with a little milk and sugar and bake in a quick oven for fifteen or twenty minutes.

An Old Fashioned Recipe.

Colonial Buns.—Mix two cupfuls of sugar with three eggs. Then stir in three cupfuls of lukewarm milk and two-thirds of a cupful of yeast. Add enough flour to make a light sponge and let it stand until morning. Then mix with half a cupful of melted butter, a teaspoonful of soda and as much flour as will make it stiff. Sift the soda with the flour before adding it to the mixture. Let the mixture rise until light. Then roll out and cut, put the cakes into the pans, rub the tops with melted butter and sugar and let them rise. Bake as usual.

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD REINSTATES WINSOR

The case of the Somerset County Tax Board secretary has been decided in his favor by the State Civil Service Commission.

Thomas G. Winsor, who has served as secretary for some time with entire satisfaction, was removed from office some weeks ago when the majority of the Board became Democratic, for no other reason, it is alleged by his party associates, than that he was a Republican and the place was wanted for a Democrat. The Tax Board also attempted to fix the term of the secretary's office at one year.

The Civil Service Commission holds that the Board has no right thus to limit the term and that it had no right to dismiss Mr. Winsor, and it accordingly orders his reinstatement.

NOT READY YET.

J. D. Bowersock, of Lawrence, was explaining to the Kansas editors last week how he feels toward certain editors. "I am like the Dutchman," said he. "The Dutchman came to town on Decoration Day. He saw the flags flying and the people going to the cemetery with large bunches of flowers. He asked what it meant. 'Why, this is Decoration Day,' said one. 'Don't you know what that is?' The Dutchman confessed that he didn't. The men then explained it. 'Isn't there someone at rest in the cemetery whose grave you would like to decorate with flowers?' asked the man. The Dutchman shook his head and replied: "Doze peebles vat graves I like to degorate are not dead yet.'" —Kansas City Star.

In the New York Shops.

[A postal addressed to O'Flaherty's New York-Suburban Shopping Guide, 150 Nassau Street, New York City, will supply information as to where the articles mentioned in this column may be obtained.]

The bungalow-fer, or the family living in an old fashioned house, will welcome the convenient enamelled tin washstand which can be purchased for $7.25. This is provided with a water tank placed above the basin. It is also furnished with a slop-jar, a large lipped covered water bucket, soap-dish and shaving mug.

The business girl or traveler ought to have one of the purse belts offered for 50 cents at the belt department of one of the stores. These are in black elastic belting or of patent leather. The purse is large enough for considerable small change and can be adjusted anywhere on the waist.

A boon for the housekeeper who does her own work is the sanitary dustpan with a long handle which is to be found in one of the department stores for 45 cents. This is a covered receptacle which is closed when the dustpan is not in use, but as soon as it is placed on the floor the hinged cover opens permitting the dust to be swept in without stooping over the task.

"Button, Button, who's got the button?" Crystal and bone buttons in all varieties and sizes may be purchased from 10 cents to $1.75 a dozen at one of the department stores.

The woman whose desires lead her away from the commonplace will find in one of the studios a most tempting display of hand-decorated china, the decorative scheme being for the greater part conventionalized animal studies. Until one has seen these specimens one has not learned what the true artist who is also a sincere lover of animals can do. Fitted tea trays and breakfast trays are decorated to harmonize with any color scheme desired. The price of the fitted tea tray is from $20.00 up. That of the breakfast tray from $25.00 up. A unique idea originated in this studio for the owner of a pampered dog is the drinking bowl with the name of the pet painted on the outer rim.

Summer card players will find in one of the department stores a full deck of cards of high quality for ten cents. These have the picture and name of the store on the back.

Any collector of Japanese art will be fascinated with the interesting old clay plaque in the curio room of one of the New York stores. This appears to have been moulded by hand, and is undoubtedly very old. It is about ten inches in diameter and is provided with a handle. The artist has painted in clusters of tiny blossoms with the ever-present stream flowing between. It is a most fascinating and unusual specimen of Japanese art. Its price is $300.

A most fetching finish for the shirt waist is a small neck bow of fine lawn daintily embroidered in red, brown, pink, blue, white or black, and held in the center with a clasp pin of imitation pearls. Its price is 50 cents.

Dainty silk sachets shown in one of the stores are in the form of butterflies with hand painted wings. The price is 50 cents. These make attractive favors.

The woman whose family enjoys fresh butter can make her own if she uses one of the butter-making jars offered in the housekeeping department of a New York store. These are covered glass jars provided with a wooden splasher which is worked by turning a wheel as an egg beater is worked. The prices range from 65 cents up according

SEEK IMPROVEMENT IN VALLEY RAILROAD SERVICE

Efforts are being vigorously renewed to secure some improvement in the service of the Pasaic and Delaware Branch of the Lackawanna Railroad. A petition is being numerously signed in New Providence Township asking for the establishment of a station agent at Berkeley Heights. This, the residents say, is obviously very much needed. There should be a station agent there all the year around, they aver. For several years past there has been one during the summer months. But this year apparently none is to be provided even during the summer. The petition is being signed by practically everybody of importance in the township and it is hoped that it will have some effect.

It is also desired that the half-past seven down express in the morning be stopped at Berkeley Heights. It now stops at Gillette and practically all other stations on the road and it ought also to stop at Berkeley Heights, where it would have a number of passengers every day.

The Millington Protective and Improvement Association held a meeting of men from various communities along the road at the office of E. C. Holmes, in Summit, to formulate action for securing additional train service on the road. There is a special need of a late train in the evening. At present the last train leaves New York at six-thirty. People in New Providence and Berkeley Heights who have to come out after can walk or drive home but for those living at Stirling, Millington or beyond the lack of a late train means the necessity of staying in the city over night.

DUAL COMMENCEMENT HELD AT SOMERVILLE

Somerville, June 22.—The closing exercises of the Somerville High School were attended by a large audience at the Company M Armory. The following fifteen students received diplomas at the hands of L. M. Codington, president of the Board of Education:

Ruth I. Blanton, Ada K. Buck, Clarkson A. Cranmer, Helen M. Elling, Harold N. Halsted, Emma Elizabeth Hoffman, Miriam D. Hodge, Edna S. Miller, Harold J. Lassell, Margaret C. Schoonmaker, Margaret F. Pursell, Elizabeth F. Stern, Hilda Nell Vosseller and Arthur A. Wright.

Six students of the Wilson Military Academy, which burned some time ago, were permitted to participate in the program and were awarded diplomas by Lieutenant Merle Wilson. These graduates were Lewis Bauman, Ralph S. Ford, Joseph I. Gulick, William H. Knauss, John Koster, Jr., and William W. Robertson.

The speakers of the evening and their topics were as follows:

"The Development of American Music," Miss Hoffman; "Our Little Brown Brothers," Miss Pursell; "Methods of Transportation," Miss Blanten; "From a Far Country," Miss Miller; "Life Savers of Our New Jersey Coast," Mr. Cranmer; "Social Settlements," Miss Elling.

Class day exercises were held Wednesday afternoon. The feature of the program was a mock court scene in which members of the class were tried. The comedy was written by Harold Lassell, a member of the class. The individual characteristics of the members of the class were brought out during the progress of the cases in an interesting way. The class officers are: Mr. Haldsted, president; Miss Pursell, vice president; Miss Vosseller, secretary and treasurer.

MOTORCYCLE AND BUGGY CRASH; TWO GIRLS HURT

Whitehouse, June 22.—While returning home from a shopping expedition Miss May Drinkwater, who lives near here, and a girl friend, who is visiting her, were thrown from their buggy and both severely injured by a motorcycle crashing into their vehicle from the rear. The wagon was wrecked. The horse broke loose, ran away, and was not recovered until this morning.

Miss Drinkwater landed on the hard macadam road, striking on her shoulder, and her face was badly lacerated and she was otherwise severely cut and bruised. Her friend was also badly scratched and cut and her clothing torn. A physician was summoned to attend them.

The motorcycle was driven by Harry Vanfleet, who did not see the wagon in the shadows ahead of his until too late to avoid the crash. There was no light on the buggy. Vanfleet was thrown headlong from his machine and had a narrow escape from serious accident. The motorcycle was badly wrecked.

LAYING CORNERSTONE OF NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHAPEL

The corner-stone of the new chapel of the New Providence Presbyterian church will be laid this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The following will be the order of services, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. Reid Stuart Dickson:

Opening sentences, responsive reading, I Chron. 29: 10-18; prayer, hymn, the Apostle's Creed, address, Rev. J. F. Patterson, D. D., of contents of the box, laying of the corner-stone, hymn, benediction.

Following the corner-stone laying there will be a lawn fete for the benefit of the chapel fund at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. Schwarzwaelder, on Mountain avenue, Murray Hill, continuing through the afternoon and evening, with supper from 5 to 7 o'clock; music, games, refreshments and illuminations. There will be free transportation hourly from the church lawn after 3:30 p. m.

THREE HORSES BURNED TO DEATH; A FOURTH SHOT

Summit, June 22.—Three horses were burned to death and another was so badly burned it had to be shot in a fire which started in a shed in Franklin place early yesterday. Two barns were destroyed and a garage set on fire. The loss is about $8,000.

The blaze, which is supposed to have been started by a park from the engne drawing the Buffalo express, which passes through here at 3:30 a. m., spread rapidly and despite the efforts of the firemen two barns were destroyed.

The fire was discovered by Patrolman Daniel McNamara, who turned in the alarm shortly after 4 o'clock.

When the firemen arrived the brick stable owned by Charles B. Chrystal, in which there were two horses, was practically destroyed. The blaze spread to the adjoining stable, owned by Chief of Police George W. Brown.

One of the horses was dragged from its stall dead, while another, which was all ablaze, was shot by Patrolman Herbert Smith.

These horses were owned by Morrell & Reeve. In the stable owned by Mr. Chrystal the two horses that perished were owned by Mr. Chrystal and his brother, Joseph O. Chrystal.

Another horse was taken from the barn, but in the effort to get the animal out one of its eyes was gouged out and it was so badly burned that it is believed it will have to be killed.

For four hours the firemen fought desperately to prevent the fire from spreading to the houses adjacent to the stables. Sparks from the blazing barns ignited a garage owned by Mr. Chrystal.

One end of this structure was destroyed and a trunk containing clothing and $150 was lost in the flames before the firemen suceeding in getting under control the fire, in which 200 chickens also were lost.

Working in the hay loft of the barn owned by Mr. Chrystal, Edward White, a member of Union Hose Company, had his left wrist broken when a beam supporting the roof of the structure fell on him. He was taken to Overlook Hospital.

NOW THE DEMOCRATS FEAR PROGRESSIVE BOLT

(American Press Association.)

Baltimore, June 22, 1:30 p. m.—Fearing that Bryan will bolt if the Progressive forces which he represents lose, most of the National Committee are here and busy. On Monday it is expected the committee will ratify the action of the sub-committee in nominating Alton B. Parker for temporary chairman. This will free Bryan to carry the fight to the floor of the convention.

It is becoming more apparent that Harmon for president and Underwood for vice president will be the choice of the conservatives.

SCHWARTZ DESTROYS SIX SCALES IN THE EAST END

Augustus Schwartz, of Elizabeth, county superintendent of weights and measures, made another unexpected visit to Plainfield, yesterday, and as the result he destroyed six scales, four liquid and seven dry measures, all of which failed to come up to the legal requirements, and took away with him eight scales that need adjustment. One measure supposed to be four quarts, was in reality a three-quart measure. It had a double bottom.

The stores visited were in the East End of the city, and in the opinion of Mr. Schwartz the violations were chiefly through ignorance and not for the purpose of evading the law.

COUNCILMAN HOLT SEEKS TO BETTER TROLLEY SERVICE

Councilman F. L. Holt, of the councilmanic public affairs committee, has opened communication with the Public Service Corporation with a view to bringing about a number of changes which will improve local trolley conditions, as well as the service in general. Representatives of the company have written Mr. Holt and it is expected that a conference will be held within a short time.

Among the desired changes is one to do away with the blocking of Watchung avenue at the trolley stany. Several suggestions have been made, one of which is that the company biuld a loop on its property off the avenue. Other proposed changes will bring about a re-arrangement of the operation of the local lines, the placing of new signs on the cars and signs at convenient points along the line informing the public of the exact time cars are supposed to pass those points.

TAFT TO BE NAMED

the point where they are ready to stay here just as long as is necessary but all expect to leave tonight. They are just as determined as ever to stick to the Roosevelt ship with the band playing "Everybody's doing it," until the ship sinks or is saved.

The New Jersey men have received innumerable telegrams from home urging them to maintain their position and assuring them that the senders want to see "Teddy" nominated, and will back them to the limit when they return to the garden state. Former Governor Murphy reiterated today that the votes are here to nominate Taft and that Sherman will probably be his running mate and the representatives of the other faction in the state are expecting Taft will be named and do not hesitate to state their belief he will be swamped so badly for accepting what they term "stolen goods" that they are glad of it. It is probable that never before at a national convention has there been so much bitterness shown and so outspoken opinions expects that there will be Republican defeat in the fall because of the Taft nomination being jammed through.

The Colonel seems to be intent on running and is said to have declared that he will be an independent candidate, if only one or two state delegations ask him to run. There is no question but that this request will be made for the Minnesota and California men are determined to have nothing to do with the nomination of Mr. Taft and are rabid for Roosevelt with the group from New Jersey, with but two or three exceptions, almost as positive on the subject. Nine out of every ten of the delegates expect that the party will split wide open no matter who the convention names, for they are satisfied that Roosevelt is determined to be in the field.

George L. Record is probably the most radical of the New Jersey crowd. He has been for bolting ever since Wednesday and believes that a mistake was not made in walking out when the alleged fraudulent delegates were permitted to sit in the convention on the first day. He has been even more radical in his talk than Governor Hiram W. Johnston, of California. Former Governor Fort and former Senator Colby have counselled remaining in the convention until the last vote has been taken on the roll which an effort is being made to purge and they have had a number of the delegates with them in their desire to remain in their seats even though they do not vote.

THE FORUM.

X-SCIENCE TREATMENT.

Maplewood, N. J.,
June 21, 1912.

Editors, Plainfield Daily Press:

In a recent issue of your paper is published a report which appears to be a press dispatch under headlines, "Senator Nixon Dies; No Doctors at Hand." Whoever may have been the author of this dispatch, the evident effort was to make it appear that nothing was done to ease the pain of Senator Nixon during his last illness, since the article states "During his last hours, Senator Nixon had nothing to ease his pain or stay the disease except the non-medical treatment of a practitioner" of Christian Science.

In fairness of Christian Science, your readers should know that distinguished physicians had given up Senator Nixon's case as hopeless when it was placed in the hands of a Christian Scientist as a last resort. At the time such Christian Science practitioner took the case, Senator Nixon was unconscious and I understand from a careful investigation and conversation with the Christian Scientist employed that Senator Nixon did not regain consciousness before he passed away.

The conclusion naturally follows on the statement of facts that the patient could not have been suffering if he were unconscious during the time he was under Christian Science treatment. The inference is that if he suffered any pain, he must have suffered such pain under medical treatment and before the Christian Science practitioner took the case. In fact, the very article under consideration which says that the Senator had nothing to ease his pain, states that he "had been unconscious ever since he was operated on some days ago."

It is therefore unjust to Christian Science and to the public to leave your readers with the wrong impression conveyed in the article under consideration. I therefore ask you to kindly correct such impression by the publication of the above facts.

Yours sincerely,
H. COULSON FAIRCHILD,
Christian Science Committee on Publication in New Jersey.

Mrs. William Miles and daughter, Miss Roslyn E. B. Miles, of Roslyn, L. I., and Mrs. W. Gage, of Los Angeles, California, were the guests this week of their brother, William J. Hudson, of Somerset street.

Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will preach tomorrow morning on the theme, "The Smallest Member and the Busiest," and his topic for the evening sermon will be "The Abiding Name."

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

HARVARD'S TRIPLE VICTORY.

Crimson Oarsmen Make Clean Sweep Over Yale Crews.

New London, Conn., June 22.—Harvard, with an American stroke, scored a triple rowing victory over Yale, employing British methods on the Thames. Having won the freshman eight oared event and the varsity fours, the Crimson came back just with a varsity eight oar, rowing away from Bob Cook's pupils from the start and came down to the judge's boat with nearly five lengths to spare. Harvard covered the four miles in 21 minutes 43½ seconds, while Yale was timed in 22 minutes 4 seconds.

After a short desperate struggle, just after the gun sent the varsity crews away the Crimson oarsmen, hitting up their stroke to thirty-nine, took the lead and were half a length to the good at the end of the first 100 yards. This advantage they gradually increased until they had nearly a length at the half mile. From that stage of the race to the end Harvard held the enemy safe.

UNION STREETS WIN WITH EIGHT MEN IN ITS LINE-UP

With an abbreviated lineup—minus a right fielder—the Union Streets defeated the Netherwood Boy Scouts yesterday afternoon by the score of 15 to 4. A feature of the game was the pitching of Robert McDowell for the victors. This youngster struck out 10 of the Netherwood batters, many of whom were far above his class as age and heighth are concerned. He also secured a trio of healthy hits as did also Rosenson and Mutnick, the latter securing a home run and a two base hit.

CHOIR BOYS WIN.

The Grace church choir baseball team defeated the Crescent avenue nine on Parker field yesterday afternoon by the score of 12 to 6. The batteries for the winners were Cottrell and Peacock, while Foster and McKay were in the points for the losers. A feature of the game was a two-base hit by Peacock.

JUST TAPS BY "BUNTS"

"Rube" Marquard, the great pitcher of the Giants, kept his record of consecutive victories unsullied yesterday by taking the Boston Braves into camp by 5 to 2.

He was clouted freely throughout the game and for a while it looked as if he had struck a snag, in fact McGraw had another pitcher warming up for he thought it was all up with the peerless one.

This makes his sixteenth consecutive victory and his record is all the more brilliant because of the fact that he has not lost a game since the season opened.

After yesterday's race on the Thames, C. N. Snowden, 1913, stroke of this year's crew, was elected captain of the Yale crew for next year.

The Harvard oarsmen elected C. T. Abeles, coxswain of their victorious varsity crew, captain of next year's crew. This is the first time in the history of Harvard rowing that a coxswain has been chosen to that position.

Although defeated in all of yesterday's races the Yale authorities were very much encouraged over the showing made by their favorites and think they now have the new British stroke well on the road to perfection.

At least two of this year's college stars made good in the big league yesterday. Rixey, the former University of Virginia twirler, who is hailed as the tallest man in either big league, relieved Seaton of the Phillies, and retired three of the Dodgers in succession. Sterrett, the captain of this year's Princeton nine batted for Sweeney of the Yankees and scored a run.

Jack Johnson sems to be spending a part of his time alotted for his training for his coming fight with Flynn, trying to settle the case brought against him by the federal authorities for alleged smuggling.

The Federal authorities announced that the indictment would not interfere with the Independence Day fight.

Mr. Ostlin, of the local Y. M. C. A., left this morning for the annual state Y. M. C. A. meet held every year at the East Orange oval and will enter three of his best athletes in the field and track events.

Those who went along are Craig Blair, who will enter the junior events which are carded for this morning; Jack Fritts, who will compete in four senior events, and William Peacock, who has been training for the century race, in the same class.

The Lincoln Giants will face "Doc" Scanlon, formerly with the Brooklyn Dodgers, on the Oval this afternoon when they will try to even up for the beating they received at the hands of the Plainfield team on Decoration Day.

The Lincoln Giants will play a double-header in New York tomorrow afternoon when they will line up against the New York Colored Giants in the morning and the Pittsburg Giants in the afternoon.

CLASSY BAT BAG.

The New York Leather Belting Company, of New York City, has presented the Spicer Manufacturing Company with a handsome bat bag which arrived yesterday morning and was immediately turned over to the athletic association by the factory officials to be used by the Spicer baseball team of the Manufacturers' League. The bag is one of the best made. The Spicer team expect to secure enough bats to fill this bag and will use it for the first time in their game with the Banks at the Myrtle avenue field this afternoon.

MURRAY HILL SUNDAY SCHOOL GROWS STEADILY

Attention is attracted to the growth and zeal of the Sunday-school of St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal church at Murray Hill by the announcement that plans are being made for the erection of an annex to the church building for its accommodation. It has long been realized that it is inconvenient and undesirable to hold the Sunday-school in the auditorium of the church, and yet at present there is no other place in which it can be held. Moreover, the school is now so large that the church will scarcely contain it without crowding.

It is indicative of the spirit which prevails in the school that a number of the children have themselves organized a movement for raising a fund for building the needed school room. Some of the girls of the school will make a beginning today, with an entertainment and sale of articles, held at the Bassinger house on South street, at which they expect to net a tidy sum for the purpose in view.

"SOLDIER" FINDS PERTH AMBOY TRADESMEN EASY

Perth Amboy, June 22.—Taking advantage of the strike situation here and knowing of the possibility for a time of troops being summoned, a stranger in an army uniform duped several tradesmen.

The "soldier" came here this week and gave orders for the delivery of foodstuffs "for the use of the soldiers of the 167th Regiment, Coast Artillery," which he declared was going to camp here. He said that about 2,000 regulars would camp on the outskirts of the city, and after giving his order he invariably asked for a loan. In nearly every case this was granted, in recognition of the size of the "order" he had given. When the merchants went to deliver the goods they couldn't find a soldier within ten miles of the place.

It Stands to Reason

That when a trust company has grown in twenty-five years to the point where it has passed and leads many older institutions in the same business, its work and its record must be of a high class.

WATER PROCEEDINGS IN ABEYANCE UNTIL FALL

The city's condemnation proceedings in the matter of securing a municipal water supply are at a standstill and will remain so until next fall. Recently there was an argument before the Supreme Court on the certiorari proceedings instituted by the Plainfield-Union Water Company against the city, and it was announced that the decision would be given by the court in October.

The argument was before Justices Swayze, Voorhees and Kalisch. Albert C. Wall, the city's special counsel represented the city, while Judge Gilbert Collins argued the matter in behalf of the water company. In the meantime the city's contract having expired with the water company, the terms of the old contract remans in force.

It has been reported that provided the city decides to make a new contract with the water company, it will not be possible to secure one on such advantageous terms as were offered sometime ago. But inasmuch as the matter is now in the courts and the city must await a decision, nothing will be done until fall.

NEWS OF A DAY FROM POLICE COURT AND BLOTTER

Santos Pelligreen, 507 Bertran street, an incorrigible youth who has appeared several times before City Judge William G. DeMeza for theft, was placed in the hands of the probation officer today to be sent to the Jamesburg State School For Boys. His brother is also there.

He was charged with the theft of a number of whips from Marchan Bros.' wagons. The father of the boys said that Santo was absent from home several days at a time and was always stealing, and though he had tied him up and had beaten him it was all useless.

Abraham Alpaugh, of Plainfield avenue, who was charged with violating a city ordinance by distributing circulars, pleaded that an employe had done so without his sanction. The case was put over to Monday to allow the man to appear.

Madame Brunley, of 128 West Front street, had one of her show cases knocked down and smashed through the "fooling" of Fred Vaughan, colored, a hack driver of 218 Liberty street, and Richard Keys, also colored. Patrolman Kelly reported the matter and Vaughan promised to make good the damage he caused.

William Harding, of 226 Prescot place, reported at 12:45 last night that boys had broken in through his window and stolen some of his cake. The police are investigating.

HOW THE SAFE AND SANE FOURTH REDUCES ACCIDENTS

The movement set on foot in Plainfield this week to organize a safe and sane Fourth of July celebration is similar to that launched in many communities. It is planned to have a program of fireworks on Parker Field on the evening of the Fourth and in order to bring about this end a popular subscription list has been started. A number of well-known citizens have already subscribed to the fund.

It is an acknowledged fact that a celebration of this nature is a powerful factor in reducing casualties. The official figures filed in the city of Milwaukee show that in 1910, when the dynamite cracker and pistol were common as a means of displaying patriotism, every patrol wagon and ambulance was busy all day taking charge of the suffering. Every available means of carrying the wounded was put into use and patrolmen were worked to the limit of endurance. On July 4, 1911, only seventeen minor accidents were reported and one fire company was called out once during the day. The Police Department had the quietest day in its history. This was the result of the experimental safe and sane.

The number of serious 4th of July accidents reported for the country has diminished preceptibly during the last few years. The number of serious accidents reported for 1909 was 5,307 and in 1911 this number had dwindled to 1,603.

In order to make the celbration on Parker Field a success the committee will need the hearty co-operation of every citizen in their work. Contributions may be forwarded to Harry H. Coward at the City National Bank Building.

WARREN CHAPEL SOCIETY PICNICS IN THE VALLEY

The Missionary and Aid Society of Warren chapel held its annual picnic yesterday at the summer home of Mrs. J. W. Gavett, vice-president of the society, on Johnston's Drive. About forty members of the society left the chapel at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning in a large stage, and upon their arrival at their destination they were royally entertained by Mrs. Gavett. The grounds were attractively decorated with flags and everything provided for the comfort of the guests.

Games and outdoor sports were enjoyed a part of the day and at noon the women sat down to a fine box luncheon, hot coffee being served by the committee. In the afternoon the society held a short business meeting out-of-doors, when reports were presented and an interesting letter was read from Miss Laura Pierson, the emissionary at Clear Creek, W. Va., to whom a box of useful articles was sent recently. The women returned home late in the afternoon all delighted with the day's outing. The affair was arranged by Mrs. J. O. McKelvey and Mrs. John Snyder, the latter the treasurer of the society.

DRUGGISTS SEEK MORE TIME OFF ON SUNDAYS

The question of the re-arrangement of the Sunday afternoon hours for closing was discussed at a meeting of the Plainfield Druggists' Association, held at the Homestead, on Washington avenue, last night. At present some of the druggists close their stores from 1 to 3 o'clock, while others close from 1 to 4 o'clock. The proposition made last night was that all members of the association close from 1 to 5 o'clock, thus giving the druggists practically the whole of the afternoon. A motion to that effect was adopted by a majority vote. Some of the members dissented for the reason that there are two druggists here who are not members of the association, and they observe their own hours.

Those who opposed the proposed new schedule said that they would willingly concur if all the druggists of the city and borough would agree to the hours set forth. Otherwise they would use their own judgment in the matter. Following the meeting the druggists had a banquet, prepared and served by Henry Johnson, steward of the Park Club. The following druggists were present.

Bertholde Schreiner, Dudley S. Miller, T. S. Armstrong, L. W. Randolph, Peter B. Hodge, Charles Hall, W. L. Pratt, Frank W. Rowley, C. M. Nagle, R. J. Shaw, Samuel Rubin, L. A. Mallinson and W. W. Galloway, the last named the new druggist at Grant avenue and South Second street.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

The services at the Seventh-Day Adventist gospel tent at West Fourth street and Stebbins place are increasing in interest and attendance. The large 40x60 foot pavilion is well filled with people. Evangelist W. H. Smith is in charge. Tomorrow night the subject will be: "Where Did the Devil Come From; Where Is His Throne; Will He Ever Come to An End." Commencing Thursday, June 27, the first of the camp meetings will be held at Park avenue and Randolph road. The meetings will continue for ten days. There will be many prominent speakers and the subjects will be full of interest.

"PUSHER" BUMPS CABOOSE.

While endeavoring to couple to a freight train this morning at Dunellen the pusher engine bumped into the caboose, smashing and crumpling it up. There was no one in the caboose at the time and no one was injured. The freight train was bound to Jersey City and passed through this city at 9 o'clock, one hour late, with the damaged caboose still hitched to its rear.

FATHER BOGAN ON SCHOOL QUESTION

Says State System is Fine for Those Who Don't Believe in God.

WHACKS THE JUNIORS

Refers to Them as a "Gang" and "Hypocrites"—Sure Church Will Eventually Get Share of the State's School Money.

Emphatic contradiction of the idea that Roman Catholic "education is opposed to the public school system of teaching" was voiced by Father B. M. Bogan in his sermon to the graduates of St. Mary's School in St. Mary's church, last evening. He scored the Jr. O. U. A. M. for the attitude it had adopted in the fight that Catholics were waging for a proportionate share of State school money.

He said: "Catholic education is considered by the thoughtless of our fellow-American citizens as antagonistic to the teaching of the public schools. Now I wish this to be distinctly understood by all that that is not true, and further, I do not for one moment hope that any one would think that I would truckle to any influence, or make a single concession to principle.

"As a Catholic priest I believe in public school education. It is deserving of all admiration and encouragement and all the taxes that may be justly amassed, inasmuch as it provided for those who believed not in God, but in what the Republic demands that every child should have in the form of education. But for every man who believes in God—as I do—and that children have immortal souls to be saved—there is something more required—something to inculcate the principles of morality, self restaint, and the love of God.

"It is these principles that make for the true spirit of patriotism and citizenship. Reasonable recognition and recommendation of these principles are bound to follow. Public school education does not live up to these real requirements, and American citizens, believers and non-believers in God, are dropping their boast of real patriotism, if they think it sufficient for their children.

"We shall ever stand in protest against any education that refuses the recognition of Almighty God and the protection of the souls that He had given to their care. No matter how they may misrepresent our principles we have no contention against public school education with those who are satisfied with it. And since the system does not take recognition of the spirit of the man with the immortal soul, we as Catholics spend 25 millions annually in the up-keep of schools so that we can keep our consciences clear, and serve God and bring up our children in the love and fear of Him. And though small minds may scorn or antagonize our efforts I feel secure that we are gaining the admiration and respect of the true American citizen."

Referring to the Roman Catholic demand for State aid, Father Bogan had this to say: "We are not asking that the treasury of our State be expended upon us. These patriotic boys, the American mechanics need not be afraid, hypocrites that they are. We obey the constitution and we want no more than the law of the State provides. Our demand is just, and every rational being so recognizes it. We want no money for religious education but we want it for secular. We conform to the curriculum provided by the State and our pupils receive their diplomas from an elected member of the State Education Board. We pay taxes, we educate these boys and girls and send them out to add to the material prosperity of the State.

"Should we not receive some reimbursement for our sacrifice to real citizenship? Assuredly we should, and eventually we shall, notwithstanding that gang who call themselves 'United Americans.' Shame on them; they are beneath our scorn. Let them do their worst.

"We relp upon no political or no Catholic political, party. We have none. But we depend upon the real spirit of the true American for the attainment of our aim, convinced that the spirit of morality, reverence and love of God which we instal into the minds of our youth, which is true Americanism, will eventually destroy the last traces of bigotry and paganism."

Having urged the pupils to live up to the high ideals taught them and thus conserve the best spirit of American citizenship, he presented diplomas to the following for having successfully completed the prescribed commercial course of studies in the school:

Richard Lawton, William Sutton, Ellen Regan, Ellen McCauley, Ellen Mattox, Mary Connolly, Teresa Mahoney, Marion Greene, Mary Harrington, Julia Regan.

HOW TO SHINE IN A BARGAIN-DAY RUSH

Italian Woman Makes Other Shoppers Respectful by Biting One of Them.

In a struggle to reach the counter and secure bargains at a special sale in a store on West Front street, this morning, two Italian women engaged in a lively tussle, with the result that one bit the other on the shoulder. The woman who did the biting was of powerful build and rather young while the other one was older and not so vigorous.

Several women who were trying to move about in the jam, noticed the incident, but as the woman who was attacked did not make any complaint, nothing more was heard of the affair.

The woman who was assaulted left the store, while the other one remained to get some of the bargains. She was noticed afterward walking about the store, but she did not seem at all disturbed. Other customers who knew of the incident took good care not to get within her reach while shopping. The matter was not reported to the police.

LITTLE HURT BY LEAP FROM A MOVING TRAIN

Jumping from an excursion train yesterday morning which he had boarded in mistake, Ayres Papal, of 314 Watchung avenue, sustained a number of minor bruises and scratches about the body and face, and had a narrow escape from being killed. He was able to proceed to his home.

He was waiting at the depot for a local train to take him to Westfield when an excursion train came in about 9:30. He climbed aboard, and settled himself back comfortably in his seat. As the train pulled out he made inquiries of a fellow passenger as to whether he was aboard the right train, and on receiving a negative reply, rushed to the door, pulled it open and jumped out, opposite the gas tank. He landed on the edge of the embankment and rolled down the steep incline to the bottom. He was up on his feet immediately shaking the dust off his clothes, seemingly little the worse for his mishap. There was considerable excitement amongst the excursionists on board the train who witnessed the incident.

HAVE YOU ONE DOLLAR WEEKLY FOR THIS CAUSE

One of the most satisfactory accomplishments of the Charity Organization Society this month has been the placing of a little fellow of ten, whose life was despaired of, upon a nearby hillside. There he has made such surprising gains that he is already playing about like other children instead of listlessly lying upon a couch, which was all he had strength for before he was taken from his crowded home in the city.

The board for this boy is $5 a week. The money raised for this purpose from a former appeal is now gone. One friend will pay one-quarter of the lad's board for six months if three others will join her. Contributions of any amount will also be received. Who will help until Bonnie Burn is ready?

BRYAN FOR CHAIRMAN?

Commoner May Seek Job to Prevent Parker Presiding---Delegates Gather Today.

(By American Press Association.)

Baltimore, June 24, 3 p. m.—The National Democratic Committee went into executive session at noon to discuss the selection of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the convention.

William Jennings Bryan, who bitterly opposes Parker, announced that if necessary, he, himself, would become a candidate for the position, despite his previous announcement to the contrary.

Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky, declared that he would support Bryan in his fight against Parker.

Baltimore, June 24.—The Democratic National Committee met at noon to act upon the recommendation of the sub-committee making Judge Parker temporary chairman. The Progressives, led by Bryan, are fighting this vigorously, Bryan going into the committee meeting himself, having procured a proxy for that purpose.

On paper Clark has the greatest number of delegates for the Presidential nomination, but not nearly enough to win. Wilson comes next and is a general favorite. The Baynor boom is progressing. Harmon and Underwood have earnest supporters. There is a strong undercurrent of talk about Underwood.

There are 1,094 delegates in the Democratic convention. The candidate nominated must get 729 votes.

There is no doubt, in the mind of any one in Baltimore, that Bryan is looking for the nomination himself, and there are many who are confident he will get it.

The following is the scheduled program of the Democratic convention:

Today—Arrival of State delegations and their conference for organization.

Tuesday, 12 o'clock m.—Convention called to order by National Chairman Norman E. Mack; call for the convention read by Secretary Urey Woodson; opening prayer by Cardinal Gibbons; national committee's selection for temporary chairman announced by Chairman Mack; introduction of temporary chairman and his address; roll call of States for representatives on committees on credentials, permanent organization, rules and order of business and platform and resolutions.

Wednesday—Convention called to order by tempoary chairman; opening prayer; report of committee on credentials—this report fixes the permanent roll of the convention; report of committees on permanent organization; speech of permanent chairman; report of committee on rules and order of business; report of the committee on resolutions—this report is the platform of the party; order of further business of convention fixed by rules committee.

Thursday—Call to order by permanent chairman; opening prayer; speeches placing presidential candidates in nomination; roll call of States to record their votes for candidates, continued until one candidate receives two-thirds of votes; speeches placing vice presidential candidates in nomination; roll call of States until selection is male; announcement of members of new national committee; adjournment sine die.

SAW MOVING PICTURE TRIED A HOLD-UP ROLE

With a lasso in one hand, a gun in the other, and uttering a piercing Comanche yell a youth dressed in the most approved Western style, held up two Italians and their wives at the point of the pistol demanded fifty cents. When the Italians yielded but 10 cents in plunder the robber scorned it. The holdup took place last night.

The Italians told Chief Weiss of the borough police of the "hold-up," and he found out that the hold-up "man" was George Smith, sixteen years of age whom he put under arrest.

Shaking with sobs the boy confessed to Recorder M. F. Gano this morning in the borough court that he was the culprit and that moving pictures of Western life aroused the desperado ambition in his breast. The recorder gave him a talking to and released him under a suspended sentence of $50.

SOLDIER'S MONUMENT.

Editor's Plainfield Daily Press:

The recent Decoration Day exercises and the more recent Asbury Park soldier's convention reminds me of a short article in the Press of March 29, 1912, by the esteemed commander of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R. Commenting over the fact that no philantropist in our queent city has heart large enough or purse full enough to set on foot a movement for the erection of a monument in memory of the noble soldiers, who fought, bled and died in our late Civil War to maintain the Union of this glorious Republic. Being a comparative stranger in the city I was not a little astonished to know that this is a fact. A city of 25,000 people, many of them "rolling wealth," living in luxury, riding in autos, cannot afford to help raise a few thousand dollars with which to build a pillar to perpetuate the memory of our noble dead soldiers, something which flowers and mud cannot much longer achieve.

Will not some citizen of influence and wealth take the lead and start the movement that will start as long as the ages. The achievement will cost the city less than a celebration or a political election and it will be glorious in the hearts of loyal citizens, and in the eyes of all veterans who assemble once a year to honor the dead soldiers and thus show their fellow citizens how much those men should be honored who fought and fell as the victory was won. It is said that the late Asbury Park convention is the last of its kind to be held because the veterans are fast passing away. Their tottering steps and tumbling forms are proof enough that the inehritance was bought with sacrifice. Let us acknowledge this to the gratification of the few soldiers yet living. Let them see that by this emblem the city proves that it is proud of their military achievements over half a century ago. Before the close of 1912 let all the people, old and young, have a part in adorning a prominent spot with this much desired token of the soldier's sacrifice and worth.

BRYAN MEN WAGE FIGHT ON PARKER; LIVELY ROW CONFRONTS DEMOCRATS

Big Split In Party Threatened.

WILSON JOINS BRYAN.

Jersey Governor In Alliance With "Peerless One."

MURPHY REMAINS OBDURATE.

Insists Parker Be Named---Talk of Compromising on O'Gorman, Kern or James.

Baltimore, June 24.—Before the meeting of the Democratic national committee today it was plain that the selection of a temporary chairman for the Democratic national convention will be productive of a big row. William J. Bryan is vigorously opposing the proposition to make Alton B. Parker chairman of the convention. Apparently he has formed an offensive and defensive alliance with Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey.

Strong pressure was being brought to bear upon both Bryan and the opposing forces to find some harmonious solution of this situation. Mr. Bryan, however, declined absolutely to listen to any suggestion that proposed Parker as the temporary presiding officer of the convention. Charles F. Murphy and other leaders who are standing behind Mr. Parker seemed just as determined to force his candidacy.

If there was any doubt that the Nebraska Democrat has designs upon a nomination for the fourth time, it was dissipated soon after his arrival in this city. By his evasive answers to questions on this subject Mr. Bryan showed plainly that he did not propose to commit himself in any way that might prove embarrassing within the next few days. He went further. His answers plainly conveyed the intimation that he would be only too glad to accept the nomination if it came his way.

Bryan-Wilson Combine.

From the moment of Mr. Bryan's arrival in Baltimore it became apparent that he has joined hands firmly with Woodrow Wilson for the control of the national convention. The Woodrow Wilson people not only began an active campaign against Judge Parker, accusing him of being Wall street's representative, but made a new move on the political checkerboard for the purpose of further embarrassing Speaker Champ Clark. The Wilson men made overtures to the Champ Clark managers to unite in the support of Senator Elect Ollie James of Kentucky for temporary chairman in opposition to Judge Parker.

Bryan submitted to a rapid fire of questions from a battery of newspaper men. Three times he was asked if he would accept the nomination for president. Each time he parried.

To one inquisitor he replied with the question, "Now, would you ask a young lady the question whether she would accept a proposal of marriage in case one came to her?"

"Leaders say that you were offered the permanent chairmanship," he was told.

"Yes," replied Mr. Bryan slowly. "But the subcommittee doesn't appoint the permanent chairman—the men who offered me the permanent chairmanship might find it as difficult to deliver that as they will find it to deliver the temporary chairmanship to another gentleman."

"They say they offered to give you anything you desired?" inquired another.

"Yes, on one occasion a certain good man was offered the whole world if he would do certain things."

With both Clark and Wilson having candidates for temporary chairman the national committee will be divided, and Judge Parker's supporters say he will surely triumph.

The anti-Bryan forces were claiming they would control the national committee if their strength was not divided by from two to four votes.

Mack Says It'll Be Parker.

Chairman Mack of the national committee and the other men who united in the support of Judge Parker smiled at these claims and said that the national committee at its meeting would vote to indorse the selection of Judge Parker.

The general impression in Baltimore, however, was that the division in the committee would be very close and that Parker's selection was by no means a certainty.

There were well founded reports that Judge Parker himself had told Chairman Mack he would like to withdraw, but his backers, including Charles F. Murphy, insisted that he owed it to the conservatives of the party to stand up to the end.

The efforts to bring about a compromise on the temporary chairmanship will continue up to the time the national committee meets. It is possible that at the last minute the force of opinion exerted by the rank and file of the party will force Bryan and the forces behind Parker to make concessions. If this occurs the general impression is that the temporary chairman will be Senator O'Gorman or Ollie James. Efforts were also adopted to compromise on Senator Kern. Mr. Bryan called him on the long distance telephone and asked him if he would accept.

Claims of Clark Men.

Baltimore, June 24.—Friends of Speaker Clark were saying he would have approximately 500 votes on the first ballot and would get New York and Indiana on the second ballot. Undoubtedly the speaker has a fine showing on paper. Just how compact his following is will not be demonstrated until after Mr. Bryan's instructions are shown in the matter of the temporary chairmanship. Many of Speaker Clark's instructed delegates are Bryan men from first choice. This is true of many of the western delegates. The Nevada delegation, although instructed for Clark, are saying more favorable things of Mr. Bryan's availability as a candidate.

There is also Bryan sentiment in the Indiana delegation. Representative Finley H. Gray of Indiana, who arrived here, declared that Governor Marshall should have lined up behind Mr. Bryan in the matter of temporary chairmanship. Representative Gray, who is a progressive Democrat, insisted that the Indiana Democrats are ready to follow Mr. Bryan's leadership. Some of the Pennsylvania delegates, instructed for Governor Wilson, are talking for Bryan. One of the delegates at large from Philadelphia predicted that, the national ticket would be either Bryan and Wilson or Bryan and O'Gorman.

May Stampede to Bryan.

Delegates nominally for Clark are said to be ready to stampede to Mr. Bryan. Some of Governor Wilson's followers were not pleased with the suggestion of a ticket to be made up of Bryan and Wilson. They declared that Governor Wilson would not accept second place on the ticket with Bryan, that he was relying on the good faith of Mr. Bryan's declaration that he was not a candidate and that inasmuch as Governor Wilson represented everything that Mr. Bryan stands for, including the temporary chairmanship issue, there was no call for Mr. Bryan to become a candidate to meet a demand in the party. It is the opinion of Mr. Bryan's closest friends here that he would prefer Senator O'Gorman as a running mate over any other name that has been mentioned.

There is also a marked movement in favor of Bryan in the Ohio delegation. The Buckeye State has forty-six votes, of which nineteen are opposed to Governor Harmon and normally for Governor Wilson. Under the rulings of the national committee and the usages of the party the nineteen minority votes will be voted for Governor Harmon. Harvey G. Garber, retired member of the national committee from Ohio, admitted that he saw little prospect of securing the nineteen votes for Governor Wilson.

At heart Mr. Garber is a Bryan man. He makes no concealment of the expectation that he will be able to deliver the nineteen votes to Bryan at some time in the early balloting and that he will probably be able to bring over a sufficient number of votes from the Harmon column to give Mr. Bryan a majority of the delegation from Ohio and by reversing the situation and applying the unit rule to vote forty-six votes from Ohio for Bryan.

This was one of the most interesting developments in the Ohio delegation. Realizing that a situation might arise whereby the unit rule could be involved to their advantage, the nineteen delegates representing the minority of the Ohio delegation were discussing the expediency of making nothing more than a nominal resistance to the unit rule, voting for Wilson or Bryan on the call of the roll by way of protest and then later on turning the unit rule to their own account. Mr. Bryan has a number of warm friends who are now committed to Governor Harmon. These men admit that the sentiment of their districts is favorable to Mr. Bryan, but they feel justified in supporting Governor Harmon as a matter of home interest and pride.

Connecticut May Start It.

There is a plan under way to start voting for Mr. Bryan very early in the balloting. Connecticut, which comes very early in the roll call, is expected to furnish the first Bryan vote, and following the suggestion of Bryan's name other states are expected to fall into line. Some votes may be cast for him on the first ballot.

One of the interesting and gratifying developments from the Wilson viewpoint was brought to Baltimore by ex-Senator Purcell of North Dakota that their delegates from North Dakota are at the disposal of Governor Wilson whenever he desires them. They are instructed for Governor Burke, having been chosen at a popular election. Governor Burke will be in Baltimore today. His name may not get before the convention.

Governor McCreary of Kentucky, an enthusiastic Champ Clark boomer, arrived and gave a decided impetus to the Clark boom. This was comforting to the Clark men, who have been a little doubtful about Kentucky since Mr. Bryan started his row over the temporary chairmanship. Representative Ollie James is a steady, devoted follower of Mr. Bryan. Once the issue is made on the chairmanship Mr. James may be impelled to leave Clark and line up for Bryan on the temporary chairmanship.

Speaker Clark's friends are saying that if James deserted their ranks his defection would be more than offset by the support of Governor McCreary.

Gaynor's Boomers Due.

Mayor Gaynor's managers are looking forward to the arrival tomorrow from New York of the Democratic association whom they expect to begin active work in the mayor's favor.

Governor Baldwin's boom is not yet in evidence. The Marshall boom opened headquarters today in the Belvedere. There are about 100 enthusiastic Hoosier Democrats busy pointing out the merits of Governor Marshall as a candidate.

Newland's Platform Planks.

Baltimore, June 24.—Senator Francis G. Newlands, who will be on the resolutions committee from Nevada, has prepared a number of tentative planks for the Democratic platform. The most important relates to the race problem.

It condemns the elective franchise for the blacks, makes grave references to the Mongolian peril on the Pacific coast and declares in favor of a constitutional amendment limiting the voting franchise to the whites and calls for legislation excluding immigration to the United States except by Caucasians.

The senator has prepared a number of other suggestions on the tariff, trusts, banking, constructive policies, income tax, labor injunctions and the public domain. He is in favor of a gradual reduction of tariff duties "toward a revenue basis," but is in favor of proceeding "prudentially and with a due regard to American wages and industry."

He objects to any modification of the Sherman law, but advocates as supplemental therefor nonpartisan interstate trade commissions with powers of investigation. He favors legislation by congress providing the condition upon which corporations shall be permitted to engage in interstate trade and would prohibit holding companies, interlocking directors, stock watering and kindred evils. His platform declares against the Aldrich monetary plan for a central reserve association, but advocates the creation of state reserves patterned after the clearing house associations, to which all banks, national and state, within the particular state may be admitted to membership. He would then make an additional federation or central reserve commission. He would convert the office of comptroller of the currency into a national banking commission which shall regulate national banks.

LIGHTED CIGAR CAUSE OF DISASTROUS FIRE

High Bridge, June 24.—The Apgar building and contents were badly damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars by fire and water Friday. The fire started under the front porch, and is thought to be due to a lighted cigar thrown there. It was under a great headway when discovered. The local fire company saved the adjoining buildings.

The building is a large brick structure, and was occupied by Lewis S. Perry, newsdealer; Sanford Grovendyke, clothier; Dr. Frank Low, Edward D. Trimmer, dentist; Improved Order of Red Men, Junior Order American Mechanics, Daughters of Liberty, Daughters of Pocahontas, Daughters of Rebecca, T. A. B., Foresters. The building is also occupied for the borough lockup, and apartments are occupied by the families of Samuel Dorland and Melvan Hann.

Mr. Dorland recently moved to the premises and had not had his insurance transferred. All the tenants except Dr. Low and Dr. Trimmer carried insurance.

SEVENTY-FIVE "FARMS" READY FOR CHILDREN

Summit, June 24.—Work was begun Saturday morning in laying out and digging up seventy-five garden plots, each eight by four feet, which as many Summit youngsters are to cultivate this summer under the supervision of the Women's Town Improvement Association. The plots are above the Lackawanna station just west of the park, and they adjoin the playground.

Prizes will be awarded to those who make the best showing as practical gardeners. The allotment of "farms" and actual work of planting will be started on Wednesday morning. Already the interest of the children is at a high pitch, and there will be no dearth of applications, it is predicted.

SCHOOL CHANGES.

Woodbridge, June 24.—At a meeting of the Board of Education John H. Love was reappointed supervising principal of the Woodbridge public schools at an annual salary of $2,000, an increase of $100. On the recommendation of the teachers committee, J. C. Moore, of New Egypt, was appointed principal of No. 9 School. Miss Ethel Inslee, formerly principal at No. 9, has been transferred to the Banon Avenue School, to take the place of Miss Helen Holmes, resigned. School will reopen September 9.

GOOD ROADS NEEDED.

While we Americans proudly proclaim that we lead the world in almost everything, as Popular Science points out, this country is far behind Europe in the matter of good roads. This magazine's discussion of the situation regarding improved highways is so interesting that we reproduce in part what it has to say on the subject:

"In Europe one has to search for a poor road, while in this country we hunt for an occasional good one. Apparently this discrepancy against us is due to the fact that their national government has a controlling influence while here it has none in regard to roads. We have donated nearly 200,000,000 acres of public lands to assist in building railroads, against whose excessive rate charges we now require an Interstate Commerce Commission. We have spent nearly $600,000,000 in river and harbor improvements and lighthouses to safeguard commerce. It is coming to be understood that drainage of large tracts should be done by the federal government and not by States. The logical solution of national good roads is likewise under government supervision and with aid.

The French government contributed $612,000,000 to good roads construction and supervises their maintenance today, with the result that it has the best roads in the world.

Residents in agricultural districts naturally assume that good roads are for the city man with the automobile, but this is anything but true. On the contrary, 46 per cent. of the population of the United States live on farms or in towns of 2,500 inhabitants or less. Of the billion dollars spent yearly to run our government rural free delivery and the agricultural departments are the two things which are of immediate benefit to the farmer and these cost $60,000,000, or only six per cent. As to the constitutional rights of federal government to do this work there appears to be no question. In fact, early in the 1800's it was done, but when railroads came into existence, the building of highways was dropped. However, portions of these roads, now a century old, are still in use and bear witness to the excellence of their construction.

The high character of the work of our army engineers in irrigation, drainage, and on the Panama canal, warrants confidence in a good roads movement under federal direction, which shall insure a permanent construction and what is quite as necessary—proper maintenance. One plan which seems to be generally approved is for a division of the costs into thirds; the government, the State, and the counties so improved, eacy paying an equal amount. As this cost would be spread over a term of years, the increased value of farm land affected would be much more than the cost to the counties.

"'Good roads," says the Rural Free Delivery News, "help every section of the country, while poor roads are a drain upon the resources of the nation. Either a high protective tariff or absolute free trade will work to the advantage of some, and to the disadvantage of others. Poor roads are a detriment and an expense to all, and benefit none. When it is considered that every article of good we eat and every item that enters into the manufacture of our clothing must be hauled a greater or less distance over country roads, the question of road conditions becomes paramount."

PRINCETONIANS' EARNINGS.

It is the habit of those who measure success in life by the size of the bank roll accumulated to belittle the real value of a college education. Fortunately, however, a very, very small proportion of fathers who were not lucky enough in their youth to obtain such training belong to this class. The vast majority of them with a full appreciation of its worth deny themselves many enjoyments, yes even necessities of life, to the end that they may give to their sons that education which was not their good privilege to receive.

But to those few cynics, here and there, whose creed is their greed, who think not of what service they can render to their fellow man but whose god is the almighty dollar, some statistics sent out from Princeton university may prove to be interesting. These figures bear witness to the fact that the college man, while discharging his duty to others as he has been taught, has increased his earning capacity from year to year. Experience teaches that the college trained man must start at the bottom rung of the ladder with the fellow who has not gone to college. They begin as equals but at the end of say ten or twenty years, where are they? As a general rule the college man is the employer of the non-college man.

In considering the average earnings of men engaged in different kinds of occupations, according to the Princeton statistics, it was found that at the end of the tenth year the lawyers led the list with an average of $4,994.88. Business, including banking, insurance, publishing and all other manufacturing and mercantile pursuits, is a close second with an average of $4,684.69. It is found that the incomes derived from business, medicine and law increase more rapidly from year to year than most of the other forms of work. A carefully compiled table, giving the average earnings from each form of work for each year, gives an excellent insight into the earning power of the different professions.

"The table compiled," says the Atlantic City Union, "shows a steady increase except for the seventh year, which was the time of the 1907 panic, when business suffered greatly. In considering the average earnings of men in different kinds of occupations, it was found that at the end of the tenth year lawyers led the list with an average of $4,994.88. Business, including banking and insurance, averaged $4,684.69. The average for teachers is $1,779.16 and that for clergymen $1,714.25.

"The doctors averaged $3.094.45, and engineers sent out of Princeton averaged for the tenth year $3,002. Even the graduates who went into journalism are doing well with average tenth-year earnings of $2,115.

"This puts a new complexion on the time 'wasted in college.' It offers fresh incentive for the youth who can make it to equip himself with university training in one of the practical professions where there is always room for the ambitious young man."

From Canada to the Gulf and from the Atlantic to the Pacific come the cry to Washington for penny postage. A bill, supported by the National One-Cent Letter Postage Association, has been introduced in Congress and a tremendous fight is being made for a reduction from the present rate. Hundreds of commercial bodies, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, National, State and city associations, big business concerns and trades organizations are actively supporting the movement. They claim the support of President Taft, Postmaster General Hitchcock and his assistants, Senators and Representatives. Penny postage may not appear to be such an important matter at the first glance of the private individual, but it means a saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars to business interests. The only question is whether the Postoffice Department can be run without a deficit should the lower rate to be ordered.

TEMPLE BIBLE CLASSES HEAR ABOUT SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Champlain L. Riley and Mrs. Edward F. Feickert gave interesting addresses at the session of the Baraca and Philathea Bible classes at the Temple Baptist church, yesterday afternoon, speaking on the subject of "Equal Suffrage." The meeting was one of a series arranged by the pastor, Rev. Evarts C. Conover, for the study of social reform. The remarks of the speakers were received with applause.

Among the points brought out were that the cause of woman's suffrage is not furthered by the militant acts of some of its advocates; the great majority of suffragists are sane and sensible as the success of the movement shows.

It was also pointed out that while Judge Ben. Lindsey, of Denver, is turned down by both political machines every time he comes up for re-election, he is re-elected by the votes for women.

MANY DROWNED IN COLLAPSE OF DOCK.

Excursionists Plunged In River. Eight Bodies Found.

Buffalo, June 24.—Two hundred excursionists from Buffalo were dropped into the swift current of Niagara river at Eagle park, Grand island. A steamboat dock collapsed. Eight bodies have been recovered.

The victims were members of Amherst lodge, Order of Foresters. They had gone to Eagle park 500 strong. Half of the party had been safely returned. The first news of the accident reached the telephone central at Grand island from Mrs. Miller, owner of Eagle park. She was hysterical, screaming that the dock was gone and 200 were in the water.

Then she dropped the telephone, since which time it has been impossible to communicate with Eagle park direct.

Later reports to the Erie county medical examiners say that eight bodies had been recovered. The police here heard that many of the excursionists had been seriously hurt. It is thought that at least twenty were drowned.

FADS AND FANCIES.

New Petticoats Have Silk Jersey Uppers.

Silk jersey is the fashionable material for the upper part of the new petticoat and jersey of gossamer lightness. This is most carefully fitted to the figure and reaches to the knees, then finished with plaited flounces of chiffon, lace or voile de soie, and there may be, if desired, an underflounce of india silk. For the more practical everyday petticoat the plaited flounce is of india silk, just full enough to hang well.

The taffeta peplums and also peplums of black or cream lace smarten up simple waists and gowns and do wonders for passe ones.

White taffeta gowns are exceedingly smart this summer, and the frock

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

COOKING CRABS.

WHILE they may be hard to digest, crabs are popular on account of their delicate flavor.

Soft shell crabs are esteemed a special delicacy. These are crabs when the new shell is forming.

Crabs should be used when freshly caught.

They are prepared for cooking by pulling off the sand bags and shaggy appendages from the side. Then they must be washed and thoroughly dried.

For boiling crabs should be heavy and of medium size. They may be killed by plunging head first into boiling water.

Delicately Flavored.

Fried Soft Shell Crabs.—Take off the waste, wash, dry and dip in beaten yolks of eggs and then in cracker dust. Season well with pepper and salt. Have lard boiling, put the crabs in and fry until a delicate brown. Place on a hot dish and pour a little melted butter and a little lemon juice over them. Garnish the dish with parsley.

These Are Well Cooked.

Fricassee of Crabs.—Scald six crabs. Take off the claws, clean the body carefully and remove the outer shells. Place butter in a frying pan and when melted stir in a tablespoonful of flour and let brown; then add a chopped onion and parsley. When browned add a gill of boiling water and the crabs. Season with pepper and salt and let simmer for one hour.

A Chafing Dish Method.

Flaked Crab.—Canned crab meat may be used for this. Take a can of the crab meat and with a silver fork divide it into small pieces, adding two chopped hard boiled eggs, one tablespoonful of minced parsley and salt and paprika to taste. Prepare in the chafing dish about two cupfuls of rich cream sauce, blending an even tablespoonful each of melted butter and flour and diluting to the proper consistency with milk or cream. When the sauce boils stir in the other ingredients. Serve on rounds of hot buttered toast or in crab shells.

Served in the Shells.

Crabs Stuffed.—Take a dozen of the crabs, one tablespoonful of butter, one-half onion, one sprig of parsley, pepper and salt. Boil the crabs for a few moments, crack them and pick out the meat. Put the butter in a frying pan and when melted fry the minced onion and parsley in it. Add the meat to this and season well with pepper and salt. Have the empty crab shells cleaned and fill them with the meat. Sprinkle with cracker dust and bits of butter. Place in the oven to bake. They will brown in twenty to thirty minutes. Serve in shells.

For the Children

As all well informed children know, King George V. of England is also emperor of India. Last year the king visited his eastern empire to be crowned at Delhi. This ceremony is carried out with great pomp and is called a durbar. The durbar is the official reception of the princes of India to their accepted ruler.

King George received many presents from his subjects at that time and since his return to England has been the recipient of many more. Recently there arrived in England a consignment of animals for the royal zoo. Among them was a pair of rare swamp deer or barasingha, as they are called in India, one of which is here pictured. The barasingha are deer of northern India of rather large size. They live on the edge of the forest on grassy lands.

An Alphabet Game.

Have small tables with four players at each, as in ordinary card games, but instead of the usual playing cards have alphabet cards—the small squares with one letter on each, such as are used in playing word making. These can be bought in sets, with the proper proportion of duplicates.

The cards are placed in a heap, one set in the center of each table, and the game begins by each person drawing five cards from the pile. When the signal is given the first player makes as many words as she can out of her own and borrowing from her partner's cards.

Each one's cards are placed, face up, in a row in front of her, and the words as formed are arranged on the table in columns above this row. This allows each player to see her partner's "hand" and borrow from it when desirable.

When no more words can be made the player draws one card from the pile and the next player begins. On the next round the players draw three cards from the pile as their turns come to play.

After twenty minutes' playing the partners having the most words progress to the next table. A time limit may be given for playing, and at its expiration the one having the highest score at the head table wins the prize and the lowest score at the foot table gets the "booby" prize.

One, Two and Three.

One person goes out of the room, and the rest decide upon three persons, well known people, or there may be one or two who are present in the company. Suppose the three chosen be Mary Garden, Theodore Roosevelt and President Taft. Then the absent player is recalled, and the leader questions her in this fashion: "What will you do with my first?" And she may answer, "Teach him to dance on the tight rope." "What will you do with my second?" "Put him in a glass case and keep him for a curiosity." "What will you do with my third?" "Dress it in long clothes and feed it bread and milk."

Then the leader may exclaim: "You must pay a forfeit for the second. It is impossible. You might teach Mary Garden to dance on a tight rope, and you could feed President Taft on bread and milk, but you could not keep Roosevelt in a glass case."

Long Words.

Curiosity seekers sometimes expend some of their energy in making a list of the longest words in the English language, but the list usually includes words that are not yet recognized as legitimate. The longest distinctly recognized word, the editor believes, is "transubstantiationalist," which has twenty-three letters. It may be found in the Century Dictionary. It is said that the Sanskrit, the ancient language of the Hindus, has one word of one hundred and fifty-two syllables and the Greek one of seventy-seven syllables. The latter was made by Aristophanes for a special purpose.—Chicago News.

The Junior Mission Band of the First Baptist church will meet Friday afternoon at the usual hour, when the new officers will be in charge.

TUBERCULOSIS CLASS AND DISPENSARY.

One of the greatest of the many frauds that are inflicted upon the American public is the fake medicine or so-called "patent medicine" fraud. The gullible public spends about seventy-five million dollars a year on worthless trash which is sold under the guise of "cures." Large sums of money are made by many of the firms who thus prey upon the public, and by their skillful advertisements cause thousands of those who can ill afford it to throw away their money on absolute trash. What is worse than the waste of money is the fact that the cunning advertisements delude the sick into believing that they can be helped by putting into their stomachs many drugs which cause very serious consequences and often result in the forming of dangerous habits of drug addiction, or the craving for alcohol. It is appalling to think of the great quantities of opium, alcohol, cocain, chloral, heart depressants, harmful liver stimulants, etc., which are inflicted upon the public each year by the cunning bunco nostrum manufacturers.

The skillful manner of advertising is becoming more clever every year as the nostrum millionaires are being gradually crowded to the wall necessitating the expenditure of large sums of money in order to keep their heads above water and continue the sale of their wares. Nothing seems so convincing as a "personal letter" giving the experience of some one who has been absolutely cured by a remedy. Quite a business is done by men who trade in faked testimonials and there would be no difficulty in obtaining an extravagant recommendation for the rankest poison one chose to put upon the market. Some letters are obtained from those who have been stimulated by a good dose of the "cure" and a large dose of greenbacks applied to the palm of the hand. Under such circumstances there are many who can easily imagine themselves transported from the last stages of tuberculosis to a condition of robust health and vigor in whatever space of time the bunco advertising agent might suggest.

One of the most serious results of the fake drug evil is upon those suffering from tuberculosis. Many persons who have this disease in its early stages have not consulted a physician and therefore have not been given the proepr advice which would lead them to carry out the proper treatment. Many of these unfortunates are attracted by the glowing "personal letters" often introduced as "reading matter" in the daily papers, and fall victims to some harmful drug or spend many dollars on some preparation, which may not be harmful in itself but gives a false idea of security and an impression that one is "being treated," whereas the remdy may not have as much effect as plain water and the patient would be loosing valuable time which should have been spent in serious efforts to check the disease.

One of the most catching advertisements is that said to come from a clergyman or his family, such as 'Clergyman's Son Had Tuberculosis—Now Cured," then follows a cunning account of how he young man was in the last stages and his physician "gave him" one month to live, but the father bought a few bottles of "Fake's Alterative," and this resulted in a complete cure in a remarkably short time.

Another insidious method of working upon the public is in the taking advantage of an epidemic of some disease—immediately they insert advertisements containing exorbitant claims stating that "Professor Bumham," we will say, "one of the meningitis' commission, heartily recommends the use of Bond's Extract for the prevention and cure of meningitis," or, as was done during an epidemic of yellow fever in the south, "Dr. Bartman, president of the Beruna Company, gives out an important interview as to the wonderful results obtained from giving Bernua for the cure of yellow fever." Matter similar to this (I am not using real names) was published by certain southern newspapers as "news," in the form of "interviews."

If those suffering from tuberculosis would remember that there is no drug, "patent" or otherwise, which has any direct effect on the germ of tuberculosis, they will not be led into spending their money and wasting valuable time on trash which is on sale only for the purpose of filling the pockets of those who manufacture it.

One might well ask why all this juggling with the lives of the people is permitted in our enlightened land—the answer is "money." Through ignorance of the causes of disease in general many persons are led to attempt to treat themselves with "made up" medicines as it seems to them a cheaper way than consulting a physician. The fakirs take advantage of this demand for "ready made" medicines and reap a harvest. It goes without saying that if there were no demand there would be no sale of such preparations. It therefore seems that before any great advance is made in suppressing such evils the public must be educated to a realization of the dangers they run every time a bottle of such mixtures is taken.

The government is doing a great deal in teaching the people to take better care of themselves and many magazines and newspapers are refusing to print the advertisements of the fake medicine companies and "institutes."
